He Knew They Would Fit.
A Mississippi Congressman, says the New Orleans Picayune, once owned a handsome pair of light gray trousers which were much admired by his colored neighbors. Unfortunately they became spotted.

"Here, Charlie," said the Congressman to a negro servant who had long coveted them, "take these trousers and clean them."

Charlie took them home, and after two days of careful inactivity brought them back.

"Scuse me, boss," he said, "but 'clah to gracious, seem like Ah cain't git dat spot out no way."

"Did you brush it?"

"Yasseh."

"Scrub it?"

"Yasseh."

"Scour it?"

"Yasseh. 'Pear like Ah done ev'ry-thing, but Ah jes' cain't git it out no way."

"Well, did you try ammonia?"

"No, seh! No, seh!" exclaimed Charlie, with a delighted snicker. "Ah didn't try 'em on me yit, seh, but Ah knows dey'd fit!"

Still More Evidence.

Bay City, Ill., August 8 (Special.)—Mr. K. F. Henley of this city adds his evidence to that published almost daily that a sure cure for Rheumatism is now before the American people and that that cure is Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Mr. Henley had Acute Rheumatism. He has used Dadd's Kidney Pills. He says of the result:

"After suffering for sixteen years with Rheumatism and using numerous medicines for Rheumatism and more medicines prescribed by doctors, I at last tried Dadd's Kidney Pills with the result that I got more benefit from them than all the others put together. 'Dodd's Kidney Pills were the only thing to give me relief, and I recommend them to all suffering from Acute Rheumatism.'"

Rheumatism is caused by Uric Acid in the blood. Healthy kidneys take all the Uric Acid out of the blood. Dodd's Kidney Pills make healthy kidneys.

Reproving the Apostate.

In the early days of the British Royal Academy reverence for the "old masters" of painting amounted almost to worship. When at a dinner Sir Martin Shee, one of the early presidents, openly expressed doubts of their infinite superiority, says M. A. P., his hearers were horrified.

Sir Martin leaned across the dinner table and rapped upon it to emphasize his points.

"Now there's Raphael!" he thundered. "What did Raphael do that we can't do better nowadays? Old master? Why, gentlemen, I'd be sorry to think we had not a dozen men in the R. A. now who can draw better than Raphael."

The bold declaration was too much for old Woodburn, a picture dealer, who sat opposite.

"Sir Martin," he said, huskily, fairly pale with emotion, "I've often 'eard people say they didn't admire 'Omer. But this is the first time, sir, I've ever 'eard it said that it was 'Omer's fault."

When the hills and the valleys are velvety green, And the earth is reposing 'neath blue skies serene,

And there, by the side of some cool, limpid stream, I'll sit with my line in the water and dream.

AN UP-TO-DATE NAVAJO.

This Indian Woman Wants a Go-Cart For Her Papoose.

There is no prouder mother among the Indian women at the World's Fair Indian colony than Skyblue, a Navajo woman. Skyblue is not only proud of her little 3-month-old Chee, but she is also ambitious for her baby's rights.

Skyblue believes that Chee is now a World's Fair baby, and has a perfect right to the dignity of such a title, that she should, in keeping with such dignity, possess a modern baby carriage.

SQUAW AND BABY. Skyblue attended the opening of the Model Playgrounds the other day. There she saw dainty little carriages, upholstered in blue silk, with tiny white blankets and counterpanes with lace edges. Skyblue took her own little Chee to the baby's party, strapped in the leather and bark papoose frame, to her back. Chee was content and very happy. Her big bright, dark eyes took in the pretty scene with an apparently perfect understanding of metropolitan social ways.

But Skyblue did not have a happy moment after she saw the little go-carts and was told to what use they were put. She resolved then and there that she would have one.

She is a large, healthy woman, and the excuse that she was not strong enough to carry her papoose on her back she knew would not carry weight with the Indian officials. The only reason she knew of that she should have a new sort of carriage was based on her theory that "nothing was too good for little Chee."

She was given to understand that she would be permitted to purchase one, but that she would not be allowed to use it while in St. Louis, for the officials argued that such an innovation would spoil their exhibit.

This question of imitation among the Indians is one of the most persistent that the Indian officials have to contend with. Nearly every day one of the squaws, the young children and the chiefs suggest to Dr. McGowan, superintendent of the exhibit, that they would like to have some article of clothing, or some one thing, that they have seen and admired on their white sisters or brothers.

A Navajo woman, who recently arrived at the Indian school, wants a modern baby carriage in which to carry her papoose, Chee. If she cannot get a baby carriage she would accept a "roller chair."

THE BIBLE AND OTHER BOOKS.

Three Hundred Million Copies of the Scriptures Circulated in a Century.

On Wednesday, March 7, 1894, "a numerous and respectable meeting of persons of various denominations" was held at the London Tavern, and a society formed "to promote the circulation of the Holy Scriptures in the principal living languages." At that time the Bible, or portions of it, could be obtained in about forty living languages, spoken by two-tenths of the race.

During the century since the meeting at the London Tavern adjourned, and very largely from the machinery then and there started, the Scriptures have been translated into 450 languages and dialects, understood by seven-tenths of the race. By the London society alone 180,000,000 copies have been distributed, at an expense of $70,000,000. If we add to this total the 70,000,000 copies already distributed by the younger American Bible Society, and the unknown millions printed and sold by private enterprise, we find ourselves inside a safe estimate if we hold that certainly 300,000,000 copies of the Scriptures, in whole or separate books or portions, have gone into circulation during the last century.

Amazement attends the study of the Bible, whatever the point of view or the course pursued. But nothing about the Bible is more amazing than its continuous, universal and utterly unparalleled popularity. In nearly every, if not every, country on earth where books are sold, more Bibles are sold than any other book. Last year the British and Foreign Bible Society alone distributed 5,943,775 copies, the majority by sale, in 370 languages, covering every part of the globe. And the issue by the American Society for the year amounted to 1,993,558 Bibles and portions.—Century.

A Queer Way of Telling Time.
In Malay the natives keep a record of time in the following way:

Floating in a bucket filled with water they place a cocoanut shell having a small perforation, through which by slow degrees the water finds its way inside. This opening is so proportioned that it takes just one hour for the shell to fill and sink. Then a watchman calls out; the shell is emptied, and the process is begun again.

There is more humiliation about love than about anything else, for the reason that there is less naturalness about love than about anything else.

SUMMER RHEUMATISM

The idea that Rheumatism is strictly a winter disease, that comes from exposure or cold, is wrong; a spell of indigestion, torpidity of the liver, inactive state of the kidneys, or sudden cooling of the body when over-heated, being frequent causes of an attack. Rheumatism is due to an over-acid condition of the blood and bad circulation. As it flows through the body the blood deposits an acrid corrosive sediment in the joints and muscles, and the circulation grows sluggish because of the constant accumulation of acid impurities, and when the system is in such condition Rheumatism is liable to come out at any time, winter or summer. It is hastened and provoked by exposure to cold, damp air, sudden cooling of the body when over-heated, a bad spell of indigestion, or anything that is calculated to further derange and depress the system; but these are only exciting and not the real cause of Rheumatism. It is in the blood, and when this vital fluid becomes overcharged with the acid impurities and is running riot in the veins, an attack is sure to come, whether in summer time or the cold, bleak days of winter. You are a slave to pain as long as the blood is tainted with acid. Liniments and plasters are helpful and useful, but it takes something more than rubbing and blistering to drive away this demon of pain.

S. S. S. goes to the seat of the trouble, enters the circulation, neutralizes and filters out of the blood the acid poisons. It enriches and strengthens the weak, diseased blood; the general health improves under its tonic effect, and when rich, pure blood begins to circulate through the stiff joints and sore, tender muscles, pains and aches vanish, and the longed-for relief comes to the nervous, pain-tortured sufferers. S. S. S. contains no minerals, but is guaranteed purely vegetable. Write us if in need of medical advice, which is given without charge. Our book on Rheumatism, telling of the different forms and varieties of this pain-racking disease, is mailed free.

NO USE FOR CRUTCHES.
I had an attack of Sciatic Rheumatism in its worst form. The pain was so intense I became completely prostrated. Having heard S. S. S. recommended for Rheumatism, I decided to give it a trial, and after I had taken a few bottles I was able to hobble around on crutches, and very soon had no use for them at all. S. S. S. having cured me sound and well. All the distressing pains have left me, my appetite has returned, and I am happy to be again restored to perfect health.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am so pleased with the results obtained from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I feel it a duty and a privilege to write you about it.

"I suffered for more than five years with ovarian troubles, causing an unpleasant discharge, a great weakness, and at times a faintness would come over me which no amount of medicine, diet, or exercise seemed to correct. Your Vegetable Compound found the weak spot, however, within a few weeks—and saved me from an operation—all my troubles had disappeared, and I found myself once more healthy and well. Words fail to describe the real, true, grateful feeling that is in my heart, and I want to tell every sick and suffering sister. Don't dally with medicines you know nothing about, but take Lydia E.
