Bunches, eruptions, inflammations, soreness of the eyelids and ears, diseases of the bones, rickets, dyspepsia, catarrh, wasting, are only some of the troubles it causes.

It is a very active evil, making havoc of the whole system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Eradicates it, cures all its manifestations, and builds up the whole system. Accept no substitute.

Dangers in Paper.

It is not a pleasant thought that the brilliant white note paper which your hand rests upon may have in it the fiber from the filthy garment of some Egyptian fellow after it has passed through all the stages of decay until it is saved by the ragpicker from the gutter of an Egyptian town; and yet it is a fact that hundreds of tons of Egyptian rags are exported every year into America to supply our paper mills.

At Mannheim on the Rhine the American importers have their rag-picking houses, where the rags are collected from all over Europe, the disease-infected Levant not excepted. Our best papers are made of these rags, and our common ones of wood pulp.

Lesson for Women.

Jersey Shore, Pa., Sept. 26 (Special).—"Dodd's Kidney Pills have done worlds of good for me." That's what Mrs. C. B. Earnest of this place has to say of the Great American Kidney Remedy.

"I was laid up sick," Mrs. Earnest continues, "and had not been out of bed for five weeks. Then I began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills and now I am so I can work and go to town without suffering any. I would not be without Dodd's Kidney Pills. I have good reason to praise them everywhere."

Women who suffer should learn a lesson from this, and that lesson is, "cure the kidneys with Dodd's Kidney Pills and your suffering will cease. Woman's health depends almost entirely on her kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills have never yet failed to make healthy kidneys."

A Logical Inference.

Little Bess—Who is that strange lady, mamma?
Mamma—That is Miss Goodwin, the philanthropist, my dear.

Little Bess—What is a philanthropist?
Mamma—It is a word derived from the Greek signifying "a lover of men."

Little Bess—Then I guess all women are philanthropists, aren't they, mamma?

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Works Both Ways.

Author—Truly, this is an unappreciative world. Why, if I had written what McFadd has written I wouldn't be famous like he is.

Critic—I guess that's right. And if McFadd had written the stuff you grind out he wouldn't be famous, either.

FITS Permanently cured. No fits or nervousness after first day's use of Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. Send for Free Trial Bottle and treatise. Dr. R. M. Kline, Ltd., 517 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

A Gentle Hint.

"It is the little things," remarked the boarding house landlady, "that annoy us most."
"Yes," rejoined the irreverent boarder, "these small steaks, for example."

For coughs and colds there is no better medicine than Pisco's Cure for Consumption. Price 25 cents.

TAINTED BLOOD

Columbus, Ohio, May 19, 1903.
Some four years ago I was suffering from impure blood and a general run-down condition of the system. I had no appetite, was losing flesh, and had an all-gone tired feeling that made me miserable. I began the use of S. S. S., and after taking seven or eight bottles my skin was cleared of all eruptions and took on a ruddy, healthy glow that assured me that my blood had been restored to its normal, healthy condition. My appetite was restored, as I could eat anything put before me, and as I regained my appetite I increased in weight, and that "tired feeling" which worried me so much disappeared, and I was once again my old self. I heartily recommend S. S. S., as the best blood purifier and tonic made, and strongly advise its use to all those in need of such medicine. VICTOR STUBBINS, Cor. Barham and Washington Aves.

Wheeling, W. V., May 28, 1903.
My system was run down and my joints ached and pained me considerably. I had used S. S. S. before and knew what it was, so I purchased a bottle of it and have taken several bottles and the aches and pains are gone, my blood has been cleared and my general health built up. I can testify to it as a blood purifier and tonic. 1533 Market St. JOHN C. STRAIN.

SHEAR NONSENSE

"You can't do two things successfully at the same time." "I did." What did you do?" "Spent my money and my vacation."

College Girl—Oh, how my watch annoys me, ticking under my pillow. Her Chum—Why don't you get one of those silent midnight watches?

Sallie—What does Carrie do for a living? Hallie—She paints. Sallie—I knew that, but I didn't know she got paid for it.—Boston Traveler.

Mrs. Torker—Tommy, you must not interrupt me when I am speaking. Tommy—Then how'll I ever get a chance to say anything?—Life.

Old Mother Hubbard, she went out and rubbed. New neighbors were just moving in. "I'll just take a peep. My! their furniture's cheap!" she said, with a satisfied grin.

Magistrate—The evidence clearly shows that you threw a stone at this man. Prisoner—An' the looks of the man shows more than that, your honor; it shows that I hit him.

Mrs. Nurich—I think I'll take this watch. You're sure it is made of refined gold? Jeweler—Certainly. Mrs. Nurich—Because I do detect anything that ain't refined.—Philadelphia Ledger.

"My physician says that worry makes people thin." "I don't believe it," answered Miss Cayenne. "There is nothing that worries some people more than the discovery that they are getting fat."

First Lady (in an open car)—I'll bet anything it's going to rain! Second Lady—Nonsense! The sky's clear as a bell. First Lady—I know that; but why did those gentlemen give up their end seats, I should like to know?

Indian Killer (from New York)—Where's yer Indians? Colorado Jack—All dead. Indian Killer—Who killed 'em? Colorado Jack—Why, you see, young feller, they heard you was coming, and they laid down and died.

"Aren't you married yet?" "No." "Well, well! I thought you were engaged to a certain young lady in Scarborough?" "No. I was engaged to an uncertain young lady in Scarborough, and that's why I am not married."

Cassidy—I suppose ye heard the news about Flannery? Casey—That news? Cassidy—He was drowned this mornin'. Casey—I don't believe it. Shure, I was talkin' to him yisterday, an' he never said a word about it.—Philadelphia Press.

"Well, what does he say?" Impatiently asked Mr. Spotcash. "I'll tell you in a moment," replied his secretary, who was still struggling with the opening sentence of a letter from that German correspondent of the firm. "I haven't got to the verb yet."—Chicago Tribune.

"It must be a great satisfaction to have such a palatial apartment," said the old-time friend. "It is," answered Mr. Cumrox; "it's a heap of comfort to have a house big enough to wander away and get lost in when mother and the gals are giving a musicale or a reception."—Washington Star.

Lakeside (in Eighth avenue restaurant)—I see you have a sign requesting gentlemen to remove their hats. Waiter—Yes; we found it necessary. Lakeside—Just like New York. Why, out in Chicago we never think of sitting down to a meal without taking off our hats and coats.—Town Topics.

"I suppose," said Mrs. Upperton, "you are thoroughly familiar with the duties of a cook?" "Oh, ma'am," replied the applicant. "Can you make a mayonnaise dressing?" asked the prospective employer. "No, ma'am; Oh, only do plain sewin'," answered the cook lady. "Oh, have all me own dresses made."—Chicago News.

Willing, but Hampered.—Rich Caller (who is making the round of the element districts)—Well, I must go now. Is there anything I can do for you, my good woman? The other (of the submerged)—No, thank ye, mem. Ye mustn't mind it, mem, if I don't return the call. I haven't any time to go slummin' meself.—Chicago Tribune.

"I had a good job last summer, but lost it on account of my fool absent-mindedness," said poor old Seldum Fedd, pessimistically; "I was actin' as de echo for a mountain hotel; an' I done all right till one moonlight night, when a smart guy from de city hollered, 'Hello, Smith! I forgot myself an' answered back, 'Which Smith do yer mean?'"—Judge.

Jones—What is Newlywed Biggied looking so glum about? Smith—Why, the gypsy fortune-teller just told his wife that she would have two husbands and that the second one would be a very fine sort of man. Jones—Ha, ha! And Biggied thinks that is a reflection on hfm. I suppose? Smith—Oh, no! He thinks his wife must have been married before and never told him.—Tit-Bits.

The Mean Man.
"De mean man," said Uncle Eben, "has a certain advantage in de fact dat while men admires de butterfly dey has a sho-nuff respect foh de wasp."—Washington Star.

You will never know how many people suffer with the earache until you go around with some cotton stuffed in one of your ears.

REAR ADMIRAL HICHBORN

Recommends Pe-ru-na—Other Prominent Men Testify.

PHILIP HICHBORN
REAR ADMIRAL U. S. NAVY
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Rear Admiral Philip Hichborn, of the United States navy, in a recent letter from Washington, D. C., gives Peru-na the following endorsement:

"After using Peru-na for a short time period, I can now cheerfully recommend your valuable remedy to any one who is in need of an invigorating tonic."—Philip Hichborn.

Rear Admiral J. A. Howell, U. S. navy, writes from Washington, D. C. as follows:

"I have used your Peru-na with satisfaction, and can cheerfully recommend the remedy as an effective cure for coughs and colds."—J. A. Howell.

The highest men in our nation have given Peru-na a strong endorsement. Men representing all classes and stations are equally represented.

Pe-ru-na is a Preventative and Curative Medicine for Catarrh.

Hon. E. H. Fitch, formerly special United States attorney, state of Virginia, writes from the Census Office building Washington, D. C., as follows:

"People cannot live in the variable climate of the Eastern and Atlantic coast states and escape liability to colds and catarrhal affections. The wide and common prevalence of these ailments is proof enough of the assertion. I have been no exception, but I have found a sure means for combating those greatest objections to this climate, and that is Peru-na. Taken as directed, it is a cure for present catarrhal affections and a preventative of future distress of that kind."—E. H. Fitch.

"Pe-ru-na a Very Effective Remedy."
Hon. Robert W. Davis, member of congress from Florida, writes from house of representatives, Washington, D. C., as follows:

"I can cheerfully recommend your remedy, Peru-na, as a very effective cure for coughs, colds and catarrh."—Robert W. Davis.

Colds Not Promptly Cured are Sure to Cause Catarrh.

Peru-na cures catarrh. That is all that Dr. Hartman claims for it. But catarrh assumes various phases in the human system.

The day was when men of prominence hesitated to give their testimonials to proprietary medicines for publication. This remains true today of most proprietary medicines. But Peru-na has become so justly famous, its merits are known to so many people of high and low stations, that no one hesitates to see his name in print recommending Peru-na.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peru-na, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving him a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Put His Foot in It.
He came in late, stepped in without ringing, and, striding softly into the parlor, dropped into an arm chair with the easy grace of a young man who is accustomed to the program.

"By Jove!" he said to the figure sitting in the dim obscurity of the sofa. "By Jove! I thought I was never going to see you alone again. The maternal kangaroo never goes away from the menagerie nowadays, does she, Minnie?"

"Well, not amazingly frequent," cheerfully replied the old lady from the sofa. "Minnie's away flirting so much of the time now, I have to stay in."

Under the lines at the end of the old-garden the mooping cats complained to the moon much in their usual style, the watchdogs never sang more clearly, and the plaintive cry of the locomotive filled the night with poetry; but the young man didn't hear it all the same.

"And, by George!" he said to a friend fifteen minutes later, "if I did not leave my hat and my cane in the hall! Think of 'em! Forget 'em! Bless me if I knew anything. What I wanted was fresh air, and I wanted about thirty acres of it, and mighty quick, too. Pshaw!"

STATE OF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, ss. LUCAS COUNTY, FRANK J. CHENEY makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. CHENEY & CO., doing business in the CITY OF TOLEDO, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of CATARRH that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1888. A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

LOSS TO ACTRESSES.
No More Revenue to Them in Sale of Photographs.

Popular actresses made in the past from $300 to $1,500 a year on the sale of their photographs, but now this source of revenue is altogether lost to them.

"I drew from my photographer, up to ten years ago, a regular annual income of $800. I was under contract to pose only for him; he had the exclusive sale of my pictures, and on each picture that he sold he paid me a royalty.

"That is the way it used to be with popular actresses. They signed papers to the effect that they would pose only for one photographer, and he signed papers to the effect that he would pay them a royalty on each of their pictures that he sold. Thus they made easily from $5 to $25 a week.

"No such pleasant condition exists to-day. The change is due to that perfecting of the half-tone process whereby the magazines, the weeklies and the newspapers can reproduce photographs beautifully.

"As soon as that reproduction began the theatrical managers spared no pains to get photographs of their leading women printed, for they recognized that the publication of such photographs was an excellent advertisement. They ordered their leading women to pose for any and every newspaper or magazine photographer who presented himself, and they had additional photographs made for free distribution among the various publications of the land.

"Thus the actresses were forced to break their contracts with their own photographers. Thus, too, the sale of the pictures fell off. For these pictures, which formerly were rare enough and interesting enough to sell readily, were now become so common, through their reproduction in innumerable prints, that hardly anyone cared to buy them."—Newark News.

In the Wrong Places.

An angry woman walked into a grocer's shop in an Ayrshire village and banged a piece of some yellow substance on the counter. She spoke Scotch, of course, as Tit-Bits reports, but Americans will understand the words she used, since many an advertisement has made the kind familiar.

"This," she said, "is the soap that does the washin' o' itself; the soap that makes every washin' day a kin' o' glorified feast; the soap that gets a' the linen white as snaw an' as sweet as a hazelnut, and lets the delighted housewife play w' the children; an' here I've been scrubbin' three mortal hours w' that lump an' got hae mair lather out o' it than I could get out o' a brick."

"I beg your pardon," said the grocer calmly, "but that isn't soap. Your little boy was here yesterday for half a pound of cheese and half a pound of soap. That's the cheese."

"The cheese?" exclaimed the woman. "Then that accounts for the ither thing."

"What other thing?"
"I lay awa'k the hale nicht winner-in' whit made the Welsh rabbit we had fur oor supper taste sae queer."

Isn't that Thoughtful?
Tess—She used to say she didn't care how homely a man might be if he were only thoughtful.
Jess—Well, that's the kind she got for a husband.

Tess—Why, I heard he was anything but thoughtful.
Jess—He's full of thought for himself.—Philadelphia Ledger.
