

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

W. J. Howell returned Saturday from Harrisburg.

John D. Daly was here Saturday on business in connection with the OAC.

School suits at Kline's.

Mr. Calvert and family have arrived from Kansas for a visit with Geo. Flannagan.

A few cords of wood wanted on subscriptions at this office.

President and Mrs. Caldwell of Philomath College were business visitors in Corvallis, Saturday.

J. K. Berry handles a fine line of guns and ammunition.

W. S. Ross is having some needed repairing done to his cottage in Jobs Addition. L. McReynolds is doing the work.

Best meals in the city to be found at City Restaurant.

The silos of the College farm are being filled with chopped green corn, the winter's supply of feed for the dairy cows.

Guns and ammunition at J. K. Berry's.

A tomato measuring 18 inches in circumference and weighing two pounds and nine ounces was raised on the Orr farm in Polk county.

Largest stock and lowest prices on school suits at Kline's.

H. W. McDowell and family have moved in from their Soap Creek ranch and will occupy the Moore residence in Jobs Addition.

All kinds of repair work done at J. K. Berry's.

Mr. Hawley who came to Corvallis from Monroe about a month ago for the purpose of educating his daughter, is returning to his ranch. The daughter's health failed and she was unable to attend school.

Red Cedar Star Shingles at the sawmill at $1.60 per M. E. W. Swanson.

George B. Dorris, of Eugene, claims the best hop yard in the world. The average on his thirteen acres was 2100 pounds. The average for four years has been 2400 pounds per acre.—Junction City Times.

Corvallis Gazette and Weekly Oregonian $2.50 per year.

The Cottage Grove Leader has between every article "1905—Oregon—1905" Judging from the way the Leader is booming the Lewis and Clark Fair, one would naturally suppose it were going to be held at Cottage Grove instead of at Portland.

Get your school books and school supplies at Graham & Wells.

An irrigation company has been incorporated in Lane county for the purpose of operating a proposition near Junction City. The Long Tom will be dammed for the purpose of supplying water to several thousand acres of land, a part of which lies in Benton county.

Full line of high grade groceries, crockery, etc., at P. M. Zierolf's.

The local M. W. A. accorded the Monroe boys a reception Saturday evening. The program consisted of music, refreshments and the initiation of candidates. A feature of the evening was the instrumental music by Johnny Durno on the banjo and Joseph Yates on the fiddle.

Lamps, bedroom lamps, student's lamps, glass lamps of all kinds, at Zierolf's.

The annual run of silverside salmon in Yaquina Bay has commenced. Edwin Stone, manager of the C. & E. reports that the fishermen are enjoying all kinds of sport. The silversides are the gamiest of the salmon species. A large number of men from the valley go to Yaquina every year to enjoy the sport.

The Boulden family have an English two-penny, four cent piece coined 135 years ago, and has upon it the head of George III, the sovereign who would be king of America. The coin is somewhat larger in circumference than a dollar, about three times as thick, made of copper and weighs about two ounces and a half. It looks very much like a ginger snap, and was made in the day when riches were despised.

Fresh home-made candies at Mrs. Hammersley's, opposite Mrs. J. Mason's.

Chas. Lillard who sold his town property last spring and has been working with the B. C. L. company in Philomath, during the summer has erected a neat little cottage in Jobs Addition, in which he is now living. Mr. Lillard with the assistance of his two small boys erected their five-room cottage in two weeks, with the exception of putting in the windows and painting the second time.

Wheat 78c. Oats 38c.

Miss Ella Johnson left yesterday on a business trip to Portland.

Mrs. Bowersox, of Salem is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kerr.

Fishing tackle, hunters' supplies and sporting goods at Hodes' Pioneer Gun Store.

Miss Mary Nolan is visiting in Albany, as the guest of Miss Emma Sox.

Tressa McDonald, of Philomath College, visited friends here last week.

See those elegant parlor sets and library tables at Hollenberg & Cady's.

James Taylor and wife yesterday for Spokane, where Mr. Taylor goes in search of health.

Hot tamale supper Friday night from 5 o'clock till 8 in the dining room of Hodes' bakery. Supper 25 cents.

Big boys, little boys any kind of boys suits at very low prices at Kline's.

James Horning has commenced the erection of a nine-room cottage near the Bodine warehouse. McHenry Bros. are doing the work.

Fresh cider in any quantity desired for sale at the Corvallis cider mill, south end of Main street. Apples ground for one-half.

Miss Lulu Rhoades, who has been visiting relatives here for some time, left Thursday for her home in California, accompanied by her nieces, Adria and Caroline Greffoz.

Zophar Tharp, of McMinnville, arrived Friday and will resume his studies at OAC. Mr. Tharp still suffers from the effects of a severe fall received over a year ago.

Remember that with every 25 cents worth of laundry work done at the Steam Laundry you get a vote on the beautiful U.S. silk flag, in Nolan & Callahan's window.

Crockery! Crockery! Crockery! Balls' Mason fruit jars, stone jars, all kinds of jars from 1 to 20 gallons, at Zierolf's.

The E. H. Taylor block of eight lots in southwest Corvallis, was purchased last week by Adams Bros. who expect to build cottages thereon.

Mayor Gilkey, of Grants Pass and cashier of the First National Bank of that city, visited in Corvallis last week, the guest of his brother, J. A. Gilkey.

John Gault, the distinguished full back of the old '97 team of OAC played guard on the Multnomah team last Saturday in their game with the Astoria Commercial Club.

If you desire information regarding employment of any kind, for either ladies or gentlemen, or boarding places for students, I will be at your service. Phone me at residence 251 Independent or 306 Eel, or at office 303 Independent. J. W. LINGER.

In remembrance of her long and faithful service as president of the missionary society of the Methodist church, Mrs. J. D. Mann, who is visiting here and expects to reside permanently near Salem, was accorded a reception last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Farmer. A silver gravy dish engraved with the president's initials was presented to her as a mark of esteem. Dainty refreshments were served and a large number were present to bid Mrs. Mann farewell.

The Marie Ware trial, the most famous land-fraud case in the history of the state, will open in November. It is expected that the Federal grand jury will begin its session about the middle of October, and after two weeks a jury will be impaneled and a number of cases taken up. The case of Marie Ware, Horace L. McKinley, S. A. D. Puter, Emma L. Watson and other defendants will not be held until the other cases are disposed of.

Fresh home-made candies at Mrs. Hammersley's, opposite Mrs. J. Mason's.

Rev. F. L. Moore and family left Saturday for Cottage Grove, where Mr. Moore will assume charge of the M. E. church. During Mr. Moore's pastorate of four years in Corvallis, the church has made great progress along all lines. The growth has been steady and substantial and in harmonious accord with the advancement of the city socially and industrially. He is one of those men whom to know intimately is always held in the highest esteem. His life has been above reproach, his example and influence have always been exerted for the exaltation of those he served and his departure leaves a vacancy that only time and association can fill. A wide circle of friends very much regret to see Mr. Moore and family leave Corvallis.

A Pleasant Surprise.

On the 11th. of last June the Corvallis camp of M. W. A. visited Monroe camp and conducted themselves in such a manner as to cause the Monroe boys to determine, at the first opportunity they would even up. The opportunity came Saturday night Monroe swooped down upon the Corvallis boys and undertook to do them up. There was little indication of their purpose for the work of the camp went on harmoniously. A number of candidates had ridden the goat and the business of the evening was about over when the invaders made their assault. Their leader bore a beautiful silk banner showing the emblems of the order and in a few well chosen words presented it to the Corvallis camp. Our boys were off their guard, and were completely surprised, almost paralyzed.

Dilley was the first to regain composure and in a neat speech mingled with surprise and pleasure he responded and accepted Monroe's handsome gift. Meanwhile others of the home boys had been busy and a bounteous banquet was spread to which all did justice. Then followed music; story-telling and a social good time until the hands on the dial pointed to midnight. The evening was voted a great success. The visitors were: Matt Wilhelm, George Looney, Fay Porter, H. St. Clair, C. O. Piel, J. M. Herron, C. Cartwright, J. B. Slipley, Tim Dowling, J. E. Looney, W. H. Schuette, Fred Darneille, W. E. and H. Schuette.

Done By County Court.

The county court was in session Wednesday and Thursday, and as all county officers had filed their reports for the six months ending October 1, the volume of business was large.

The application of T C Baker and others for a county road was referred to the county board of road viewers who were instructed to file a supplementary report, and the application was continued for the term.

A. Cadwalder, supervisor of Road Dist Mo 9, reported road No 270 open and ready for travel, whereupon the court declared the road opened and legally established.

H. L. French, chairman of World's Fair committee filed his report showing receipts from county warrant and premium, $190; amount expended, $169.25, leaving a balance on hand of $20.15. The report was approved and the balance ordered paid to the county clerk.

The application of Emily C Bump and I. F. Huston for rebate of taxes were denied.

The appointment of Chas Skaggs as supervisor of Road Dist. No. 8 was revoked and W M Clark appointed to the place with bonds fixed at $500.

To fill vacancies on election boards, D. A. Osburn was appointed clerk in Corvallis precinct No. 2, H. Davidson judge in Blodgett precinct No. 9, and N. E. Newton in Philomath precinct No. 11.

Help wanted at Chipman's restaurant.

W. S. Linville returned yesterday from Carlton, where he has been visiting his daughters.

Julian McFadden is moving in from his ranch and will occupy the residence recently made vacant by Mr. Hawley who is moving back to Monroe.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will give a hot tamale supper next Friday evening from 5 o'clock till 9 in the dining room of Hodes' bakery. Supper 25 cents.

The W. R. C. will hold a reception at their hall, Friday, Oct. 15, at 7:30 p. m. in honor of the Department president. Comrades of the Post are cordially invited to be present.

Rev. Noble and L. Albright are attending the Baptist State Convention at McMinnville this week as delegates from the church in this city. All the usual services will be held at the Baptist church here next Sunday.

Keith Brown, "Brownie" who has so faithfully performed his duty as line foreman for the Bell telephone company, will leave in a few days for Portland, where he will accept a position with the same company. Mr. Davidson, of Portland will occupy the position as local lineman.

COLLEGE JOTTINGS.

Items of Interest In and Around the O. A. C.

Students who wish to take French have the opportunity of doing so. Prof. Tallandier is to have a special class.

The chapel was filled to overflowing Friday morning. The boys instead of disbanding outside were marched in by twos. This filled each side with standing boys.

Bert Pilkington, who was elected manager of the football team has resigned, on account of ill health. Fred Stimpson is to take his place.

Mr. Turney, who was with OAC last year, has made arrangements to visit us twice a month in order to accommodate any who desire to take violin lessons.

Zoph Tharp is at the OAC again.

Miss Emily Squier gave two very entertaining recitations in chapel Friday morning which was thoroughly enjoyed by the students. She gave an entertainment in the evening.

John Gault participated in a game Saturday with the Multnomah Club.

Miss Hatch, a missionary from Siam was a visitor at chapel last Friday. She gave a short talk about the manners and customs of the people of Siam.

The schedule for this season's football was announced Thursday. It is one of the best ever made here. Two important games are to be played on a mid-week day. Out of seven games six are to be played on OAC field. The schedule is: Portland medicos played at Corvallis Saturday; University of Washington to be played at Seattle, Saturday, October 15; Utah Agricultural College at Corvallis, Wednesday, October 26; Columbia University at Corvallis, Saturday, November 5; Whitman College, Walla Walla, at Corvallis, Thursday, November 10; University of Oregon, at Corvallis, Saturday, November 10; University of Idaho, at Corvallis, Thanksgiving day, November 24.

Col. Sobieski made a short talk in chapel Friday morning. He was heartily endorsed but refused to speak again.

Philomath News.

The enrollment at the college is nearly double that of last year.

Mrs. Castle has been quite ill for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Locard, of Goshen, will reside this winter with Rev. F. H. Neff, who is Mrs. Locard's son.

Five new houses have been erected within the past month and as many more have received additions. Philomath is growing faster than at any other period in its history.

Ground is being broken for the electric light plant at Horning's mill. Mr. Horning figures that he can put his mill in before severe weather sets in if all things turn out well.

J. E. Henkle met with a serious accident Thursday evening sustaining a bruised eye and swollen cheek. He ran against an obstacle in the dark.

The Ladies' Aid Society will give an oyster supper at the U. B. parsonage next Wednesday evening for the benefit of the parsonage fund.

A new millinery store has been opened just west of the postoffice. The lady in charge is a recent arrival from Nebraska.

Frank Bennett, wife and two children left Monday for Shelby, Nebraska. During the past two months they have been visiting Geo. Bennett and family.

A reception to the new students was given by the College Y. M. C. A. in their hall Thursday evening.

Rev. T. W. Nash has purchased a store at Newberg and will move there this week.

Mrs. Buoy is the name of the new baker and her place of business will be just east of Gibbon's meat market.

Kline's.

For fine Suits and Overcoats see the famous

Hart, Schaffner & Marx

Hand-tailored, ready-to-wear Suits and Overcoats, for sale only by

S. L. Kline.

Copyright 1904 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

Advertisement for Hotel Corvallis, J. G. Hammel, Prop. Leading hotel in Corvallis. Newly furnished with modern conveniences. Rates $1, $1.25, $2 per day. Headquarters for Commercial Men.

Advertisement for W. S. Gardner, Photographer. All work guaranteed first class. Studio, 908 Ninth Street near College Walk.

Advertisement for W. S. Pratt, Optician. Consult E. W. S. Pratt, The Jeweler and Optician. Blind people who have spent years in vain would have preserved their sight for an indefinite period.

Advertisement for HATHAWAY BROS. BLACKSMITHING. WAGON MAKING, REPAIRING, WILD HORSES SHOD. SOUTH MAIN STREET.

Advertisement for HOME SEEKERS. AMBLER & WATTERS, REAL ESTATE, LOANS, INSURANCE. VIRGIL E. WATTER, CORVALLIS. HENRY AMBLER, PHILMATH.

Advertisement for The Corvallis Saw Mill Co. This space reserved for The Corvallis Saw Mill Co. Watch for an important announcement.