

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Eggs 30c.
Turkeys 14¢ live weight.
Wheat 80; oats 45c.

The amusement street at the Lewis and Clark Exposition has been named The Trail.

Send your lace curtains to Corvallis Steam Laundry.

More than 70,000 electric lamps will be used in lighting the grounds and buildings of the Lewis and Clark Centennial.

Patronize home industry—Corvallis Steam Laundry.

Fred Oberer who belonged to the famous champion team of '97, came over from Independence to see the game Saturday.

Guns and ammunition at J. K. Berry's.

Last week H. W. Strong, sold 300,000 feet of cottonwood logs to the Spaulding company at Oregon City to be used in the pulp mill for making paper.

You can get the birds down with the ammunition that J. K. Berry handles.

There will be a turkey shoot at Eugene Thanksgiving Day that may be of interest to local sportsmen. There eighteen events, three for cash prizes and fifteen for turkeys.

Special rates to hotels and families at Corvallis Steam Laundry.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Brown have been here the past week visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howell. Keith is line foreman of the Pacific Coast Telephone Company at Grants Pass.

All kinds of repair work done at J. K. Berry's.

The Richard Kiger residence is now occupied by himself and family, they having moved in from the ranch recently. A new barn has been built on the property and repairs now going on give the house an improved appearance.

Full line of high grade groceries crockery, etc., at P. M. Zierols'.

A new residence is going up opposite the Mechanical Hall and adjoining the Humiston home. It belongs to John Gortmeyer recently from the East and the lots upon which it stands are a part of the Liebe property.

J. K. Berry handles a fine line of guns and ammunition.

John Gellatly, well known here, now living at Wenatchee, Wash., was elected auditor of his county in the recent election by a majority of 200. The position is a lucrative one and his friends in Benton county are pleased to learn of his success.

Silk and woolen goods a specialty at Corvallis Steam Laundry.

The Wilhelm hall at Monroe has just been ceiled and a grand social ball will be held Friday night, November 25. Good music will be provided and choice refreshments will be served. Everybody is invited to go and have a good time. The managers are Willie and Walter Schutte.

Get your school books and school supplies at Graham & Wells.

Bishop N. Castle departed for The Dalles Friday to meet a company of friends from Kansas and accompany them to Philomath where they will doubtless spend the winter. They will travel by boat from The Dalles to Portland and by rail the remainder of the distance. They will arrive in Portland today.

New invoice of street hats and caps just received by Mrs. J. Mason.

Little Eunice Emmett had been complimented on the beauty of her curls and some one had suggested that he would like to shoot one of them off. This led to what may prove a fatal accident that happened over in Yachats Monday of last week. The little tot and her brother were playing alone in the house and she playfully suggested that he shoot off one of her "turls." The little boy climbed up on the stove, got down a rifle, aimed it at his sister's "turl" and fired. The ball struck the little girl in the shoulder. A physician was summoned from Newport and is in attendance.

Favored By Both Parties.

Republicans and democrats alike praise Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and all throat and lung diseases, as no other remedy can compare with it. It is safe and sure. F. T. Slater, merchant, 171 Main St., Gloucester, Mass., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar cured me of a very bad cough which I had for three months though other remedies failed to benefit me. I can highly recommend it for coughs and colds. Graham-Wortham

Services will continue this week at the United Evangelical church.

Fresh home-made candies at Mrs. Hammersley's, opposite Mrs. J. Mason's.

Oregon's first and largest poultry show at the Opera House December 8-9-10.

Fishing tackle, hunters' supplies and sporting goods at Hodes' Pioneer Gun Store.

Fishing tackle, hunters' supplies and sporting goods at Hodes' Pioneer Gun Store.

A new residence is being erected by Frank Strong, adjoining the home place and on lots purchased from Henry Gerber.

Fresh home-made candies at Mrs. Hammersley's, opposite Mrs. J. Mason's.

Philomath will have a blue rock shoot November 23, the day before Thanksgiving. Sportsmen from Benton county and elsewhere are invited to be present.

See those elegant parlor sets and library tables at Hollenberg & Cady's.

There will be a social Friday evening, November 25, at Plymouth church, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society. A short program will be rendered consisting of speaking and music.

Lamps, bedroom lamps, student's lamps, glass lamps of all kinds, at Zierols'.

Now, now, now, don't throw your old dingy dresses away. Let Jack and Bob make them new and attractive by coloring them any shade you desire. The cost is trifling and special rates from now until Thanksgiving.

Curtis Strong, a brother of E. W. Strong, is expected shortly from Muscatine, Iowa. Mr. Strong is a veteran saw mill man and if Oregon prospects please him he will locate somewhere in the valley. He is engaged to build a box factory this winter at Linton, Oregon.

Turkeys wanted for Thanksgiving. Highest cash price paid. Smith & Boulden.

John Edmunds, one of the oldest loggers on the Willamette and its tributaries, spent a few days in Corvallis last week with Mr. Strong. Mr. Strong has secured his services for the winter to look after his immense logging interests and he left Friday for the headwaters of the McKenzie.

A new phone has been put in by the Bell company for Jack and Bob the up-to-date cleaners and dyers. The number is 531.

One day last week a peculiar accident occurred down at the saw mill. A great piece was broken out of the trimmers circular saw and it happened in this way. While the trimmer was cutting a stick of timber, another heavy piece that had just tumbled from the main saw, came rolling down on the carrier and struck the piece with great force. The jar bent the saw and it snapped with a loud report.

Have your rusty clothing made good as new by having Jack and Bob color it again. Special rates from now on until Thanksgiving. Ladies' and children's clothing a specialty.

Something never before seen in a Corvallis show window is now on exhibition at Allen & Woodward's drug store. The display consists of a collection of Japanese toilet and household articles and have just been received by John Allen direct from the manufacturers in the "Land of the rising sun." There are jewel cases, miniature cheffoniers for laces and handkerchiefs, writing cases, card trays and many other articles that will make handsome holiday or birthday gifts. The workmanship is exquisite, being in lacquered work and hand-painted in mysterious Japanese designs.

H. O. Hill, an International secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association for the Pacific Coast visited the local Association of the College last Thursday. Mr. Hill is a young man of pleasing personality and was a leader in student affairs at Northwestern University, where he graduated, and where he served for three years as general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. He addressed the students at the rally Thursday evening and also spoke on Friday at chapel, and created a favorable impression. Hill is at present making a tour of the college associations of Oregon prior to the state convention to be held at Salem November 25-27. About twenty delegates will go from the OAC.

Ladies, our stock of Dress Gowns, Trimmings, Furs, Cloaks, Jacket Rain Coats, Separate Skirts and Fine Shoes are up-to-date in all respects. Nolan & Cavanaugh.

It has been announced to the friends of Mrs. Julia Paul that she will shortly take up her residence in Portland.

James A. Sewell, of Hillsboro, was among the old OAC students, who came to see the game Saturday.

Services will be held in the Episcopal church on Nov. 27, by Rev. H. D. Chambers at 11 a. m. All are cordially invited.

The next regular meeting of the Oregon Council, R. & S. M. will be held in Masonic Hall, tomorrow, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Minnie Wyatt, of Philomath, who took sick at the Fehler home while acting as nurse is still very ill but not dangerously so. She is still at the Fehler home.

Thanksgiving services will be held in the college chapel, Philomath Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and will be conducted by Rev. F. W. Jones.

Mrs. Gertrude Pieroni-Woods, a former resident of Corvallis, was among the excursionists who came down from Eugene on Saturday to witness the game.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Wilson, of Canyonville, Douglas county, are in the city visiting their children, Bessie, Jessie and Frank, who are attending OAC.

Have that rusty old suit of yours made new again. Jack and Bob will dye it for you and it will last for years. Don't throw it away. Special rates from now until Thanksgiving.

The Young People's societies of various churches which compose the local union, will hold a union service at the Baptist church next Sunday evening at 6 o'clock. Leader from the Congregational church. The first part of the service will be devoted to a Thanksgiving topic, while the regular subject, "How Intemperance Hinders Missions" will be discussed during the latter part. All are invited to be present. Come early.

The catalog for the first annual show of the Corvallis Poultry Association is now completed and will be mailed to any address free of charge. This catalog contains 24 pages, handsomely illustrated, and giving a write-up of Corvallis in general, and the poultry business in particular. Send your address to the secretary, Robt. Johnson, on a postal, at once.

Albany has troubles of her own. At the recent election that city went "wet," the claim being made that the revenues received from licenses were necessary to meet the running expenses of the city. Now the anti-saloon people say that if license is necessary the more and higher the better for the city. A campaign has consequently been begun looking to the election of a council that will raise the annual figure from $400 to $1000.

Wild geese are plentiful these days and their honking may be heard all through the night. A flock of wild ones paid a visit to the home of Telt Burnett a few mornings ago to see the old geese and brant that Telt had in captivity. The captives evidently heard the cries of the flock passing over head and replied, for the flock came down and was about to alight when they were frightened away.

W. L. Douglas, the famous shoe man whose picture is familiar to every newspaper and magazine reader in the country was elected governor of Massachusetts on the Democratic ticket by a majority of 80,000 and over. He secured the position, not because he was a Democrat but a first class advertiser. And there is one consolation in the fact says an exchange, that while we are not all great enough to be governor of Massachusetts we still have the privilege of standing in a great man's shoes.

The market price of poultry and eggs was never better in the Willamette Valley, and the Corvallis Poultry Association have gone to a great expense to hold a successful exhibit in Corvallis, Dec. 8-9-10, in order to create a better interest in thoroughbred poultry throughout the community in general. The enterprise deserves the liberal patronage that it will receive. New regulation exhibition coops have been provided, and the show will be held in the Opera House. Experienced attendants will be in charge, and by the use of deodorizers, those who have never attended an exhibition of this kind need have no fear of uncleanness. Admission only 25 cents.

Californians are taking an encouraging interest in the Lewis and Clark Exposition. The California Development Committee is arranging for an excursion of several hundred people of that state to be present on June 1, the formal opening day.

Copyright 1904 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

S. L. KLINE,

Corvallis,

Oregon.

COLLEGE JOTTINGS

Items of Interest In and Around the O. A. C.

Mr. Hill, who led the yells for the Northwestern University of Illinois for three years, was present at the rally Thursday evening and the students all joined him and gave his old college yell. He also gave a talk in chapel Friday morning.

The Zetageans royally entertained the Pierian girls Friday evening in Miss Snell's room. After a program of music and speeches many interesting games were played. The boys deserve great praise for the new and original ideas of entertaining. The supper was served in Miss Crawford's room where the large arm chairs were artistically arranged so as to serve as tables. After supper toasts were given until the lights "dipped" and the guests departed carrying with them as souvenirs small cups of flowers.

Mr. Jamison, a '03 graduate, came up from Portland to attend the game Saturday. He returned Sunday.

An event in the social life of the student was the entertainment given the Jeffersonians by the Feronians last Friday evening. The library was very prettily decorated and in one end was erected a throne where Miss Mary Sutherland ruled as queen of the evening. As each guest arrived they were escorted by the Queen's body guard to pay their respects to Her Royal Highness. A literary program followed in which an original poem entitled "I Wonder if Dreams Come True," caused a great deal of merriment. A peanut "grab" added to the enjoyment of the evening. In a guessing contest Mr. Stebbinger received a small suit-case of bon bons as first prize. Refreshments of chicken salad, pumpkin-pie and cider were served and the merry party departed for their homes.

Among the old students who visited chapel Monday morning were Mr. Laughlin and wife who was Miss Syble Cummings, and Mr. Horace Brodie. They came to attend the game last Saturday. Mr. Brodie gave a short talk which was appreciated by the students.

Robt. Vance was a passenger to Portland, Saturday, where he will remain until today on business.

Why not buy your Fall Suit Here?

There are several reasons why you should. First, you have an unrestricted choice from a large line of perfect fitting clothes of well known make. Second, we guarantee you a saving of $2.50 to $5 on your suit or overcoat.

Suit Raincoat or Overcoat

$7.50 to $25.

HOTEL CORVALLIS
J. C. HAMMEL, Prop.
Leading hotel in Corvallis. Newly furnished with modern conveniences. Rates: $1 $1.25 $2 per day.
HEADQUARTERS FOR COMMERCIAL MEN.

W. S. GARDNER, PHOTOGRAPHER.
ALL WORK GUARANTEED FIRST CLASS
STUDIO, 908 NINTH STREET
NEAR COLLEGE WALK.

Consult E. W. S. Pratt
THE JEWELER AND OPTICIAN
Before it becomes too late.

BLACKSMITHING. WAGON MAKING, REPAIRING, WILD HORSES SHOD. HATHAWAY BROS.
SOUTH MAIN STREET.

HOMESEEKERS
If you are looking for some real good bargains in Stock, Grain, Fruit and Poultry Ranches, write for our special list, or come and see us. We will be pleased in giving you reliable information, also showing you over the country.
AMBLER & WATTERS,
REAL ESTATE, LOANS, INSURANCE
VIRGIL E. WATTERS, CORVALLIS. HENRY AMBLER, PHILOMATH.

DRYPOWDER FIRE EXTINGUISHER.
For sale at the Corvallis GAZETTE Office. Price only $3.00