

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

W. U. Gartner, of McMinnville, was a Sunday visitor in Corvallis.
 J. A. Archibald and M. G. Flynn, of Philomath, were visitors in Corvallis, Friday.

J. Cole, of Summit, was in this city last Friday, attending to some business.

Attorney McFadden returned Saturday from a legal visit at Independence.

Mrs. Mary Barclay left Thursday last for Everett, Wash., to visit her son a short time.

The Occidental Hotel opens under new management with a dinner on Saturday noon of this week.

Jake Blumberg returned on the Friday evening train from a two day's visit to Albany and Portland.
 M. G. Fillion, of Philomath, was a business visitor in Albany last Friday.

Ernest A. White, the piano tuner was doing work in his line at Buena Vista last week.

C. D. Benner, one of Monroe's influential citizens, was a business visitor in this city the latter part of last week.

R. H. Kennedy was a business visitor in Albany, last week, doing work for the Mutual Life Insurance company.

Miss Margaret Fowells, teacher of the fourth grade in public school entertained her pupils at her home last Friday evening.

Senator Avery left yesterday for the legislature at Salem, after spending a few days at home during the brief adjournment of that body.

The city council meets at adjourned term next Friday evening, in order to give the special water committee a chance to report on the two mountain water propositions now in their hands.

Little Hazel Drake was taken to the sanatorium at Cottage Grove last Thursday, for treatment. She is but nine years old, but has had heart trouble all her life and is not expected to live. Her parents accompanied her.

Independence is agitating the establishment of a free ferry across the Willamette at that place. Corvallis has had a free ferry for several years, and has not had occasion as yet to regret the establishment of it—on the contrary it has been a good thing for the city.

If you call a girl a chick she will smile, but call a woman a hen and she howls. Call a girl a witch and she is pleased, but call an old woman a witch and she will go for you. Call a girl a kitten and she likes it, call a woman a cat, and she'll hate you. Queer sex, isn't it?

S. Y. Evans brought down from Corvallis, yesterday, a three year old English Shire stallion that is now on exhibition at Dickinson's livery stable. The animal is a dark brown and weighs 1800 pounds. It is the property of I. C. Ruby, of Pendleton, the man of the Northwest who is importing this class of horses from the eastern continent.—Independence Enterprise.

Prof. Taillandier, of the department of OAC, announces another Piano-Lecture Recital to be given in the college chapel on Friday evening, Jan. 20, at 8 o'clock promptly. Subjects, Schumann and Mendelssohn, the romanticists. The public is cordially invited. No admission will be charged but children will not be admitted unless accompanied by adults.

On account of the dryness of Corvallis and vicinity a new society is said to be under course of organization and from all surface indications the membership will be quite large. The society is to be known by the unique name of "Infernal Order of Tap a New Keg." The promoters say that about $1000 will be needed to establish the society in good running order but if the subscriptions reach the sum of $2,000 the word "barrel" will be substituted for "k-g" in the name. We are requested not to mention names until after the election of officers.

F. O. Gray, of Furnace county, Nebraska, arrived in Corvallis, Friday. Mr. Gray is an old-time friend of Mr. Cady and had heard so much about this fine country that he has come with the intention of locating. His family will follow him in June, by which time he expects to have a home ready for them. Mr. Gray is a railroad man and also owns farm property in Nebraska, and is a very desirable citizen. He says a number of families from his community intend to start for Benton county as soon as they receive a favorable report from him and he seems very well pleased with this country.

C. Wiel, of Philomath, was an Albany visitor last week.

C. D. Senner, of Monroe, went to Albany, Saturday, on business.

J. C. Hammel, of the Hotel Corvallis, was a business visitor in Albany yesterday.

W. H. Malone, of Alsea, was in the city Sunday and Monday on business.

Mrs. Adams whose beautiful embroidery patterns are attracting attention here, will return to her home in Albany next week.

Representative H. von der Helten, of Medford, is visiting his son and daughter who are students at the OAC.

The enterprising firm of Graham & Wells last Friday received two large up-to-date show cases for their drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell, who have been visiting in this city, returned to Lebanon last Thursday.

Advertisements are steady pullers but to bring results you need to advertise regularly—the larger the advertisement the harder it pulls.

Mrs. Calkins, of Eugene, Miss Flora Mason and Mrs. Stewart, of Albany, are visiting at the home of Mrs. John Smith this week.

Sometimes it takes more than one horse to pull a wagon up a hill—often it requires more than one advertisement to pull a business out of a rut.

Last reports yesterday afternoon were that Miss Grace Huff, who has been so low with appendicitis, is rapidly improving and it is now thought that her recovery is assured.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will give a chicken pie dinner at the Marshal Miller hall in the rear of Berman's grocery store. The dinner will be served at 5 o'clock p. m. Jan. 12. All cordially invited. Price 25 cents.

Mrs. Grace E. Hall, of this city, won first premium in the bargain day contest held by the Portland Daily Journal, since Dec. 24. Ten prizes were offered, the first prize won by Mrs. Hall, being a Studebaker rural mail wagon or any vehicle of the same make or value. The amount of subscriptions sent in by her was $142.18.

It is reported that Newberg is experiencing a light touch of holy rollerism just now. A preacher by the name of Pettibohn is the ring leader, and has been holding "high jinks" in his church, that is of no very great credit to himself and the ones who attended. If the citizens want to know how to apply tar and feathers, they can find out in Corvallis.

Say Cold is a Benefit.

In talking with a number of Benton farmers, it is learned that the cold spell of the past few days is not thought to have damaged the growing grain in the least. Grass in the pastures, however, it thought to have been checked to some extent, although nearly all stock is yet doing well without feed, only during the short time that snow covered the ground.

Fruitmen say that the cold is an actual benefit, as it retards the early development of the fruit buds, causing them not to come out until all danger of late frosts are over.

Spoiled Her Beauty.

Harriet Howard, of 209 W. 34th St., at one time had her beauty spoiled with skin trouble. She writes: "I had Salt Rheum or Eczema for years, but nothing would cure it until I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve." A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. At 25c at Allen & Woodward's drug store.

Mrs. G. S. O. Humbert, of Eugene, filled the pulpit of the Christian church in this city Sunday.

N. W. Cuffbert, of Carson City Nevada, arrived Sunday, and is visiting at the home of W. Leadbetter.

William Henderson and wife from near Wren station returned from the state of Washington, Sunday where they spent three months visiting their sons. Uncle William says Mrs. Henderson wants to go back and if she does he will go with her. Better stay with us.

It is reported that the following gentlemen have been named in the proposed amendment to the city charter, as the committee to have charge of building the city water works, providing the city shall decide to install its own plant. B. F. Irvine, Senator Avery, W. S. McFadden, F. L. Miller, Mr. Leese, S. L. Kline, M. S. Woodcock, R. H. Huston and E. Woodward.

W. P. Morris, who has been two years employed by the S. P. R. R. company, on the steel structural work, and who was for two years with the regular army in the Philippines as horse shoer, and who is acknowledged to be a first-class blacksmith and horse shoer, has opened a shop in Philomath, where he will carry on his trade, and serve customers at reasonable rates. People in that part of the county will do well to give him a trial order.

The executive committee of the State Oratorical Association met at Newberg last Friday. The meeting opened at 3 p. m. and adjourned at 12:30. Glen Goodman, who is secretary of the association, was our delegate.

The bowling alleys have been opened up under the management of Dow V. Walker. Many improvements have been made since last year.

Mr. Rufus Cate, a former OAC student was married last week to Miss Lelia Alexander of this city. Their many college friends wish them much happiness.

The basket ball girls are trying to arrange for a game Saturday night.

The Original.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered as no other preparation will give the same satisfaction. It is mildly laxative. It contains no opiates and is safest for children and delicate persons. Graham & Wortham have it for sale.

CORRESPONDENTS' CORNER.

Green Peak.

Manly Buckingham and family, after having visited relatives here, left recently for California, in the hopes of benefitting Mrs. Buckingham's health.

School opened in Dist. No. 18 the first week of the year, with M. E. Grace as teacher. All appreciate the new school building.

A Wrong Impression.

EDITOR OF GAZETTE—Dear Sir,—An impression has gone forward that we are not readers of groceries. In order to correct this, I wish to state that we have a very full line of groceries and sell at retail.

Should it not be convenient for your readers to call in person, they can call us up as we have both phones.

Yours truly,
 S. L. KLINE,
 Corvallis, Jan. 6, 1905.

How to Avoid Pneumonia.

We have never heard of a single instance of a cold resulting in pneumonia or other lung trouble when Honey and Tar has been taken. It not only stops the cold but heals and strengthens the lungs. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Dr. C. J. Bishop, of Agnew, Mich., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case." For sale by Graham & Wortham.
