Items of Interest In and Around the O. A. C.

Royal Shaw went with the boys' basketball team to act as referee. The boys say that he made a good one.

The Spring Schedule went into effect Monday morning. This makes the girls hurry to get to school by eight o'clock.

C. F. Hawley, a former student at OAC, was visiting friends in Corvallis recently. He went from here to Forest Grove.

John Withycombe is to represent OAC in the State Oratorical contest at Newberg March 10. The student body wish him all success.

The girls are delighted with the prospect of a womans' building on the campus. This would be a great addition and is greatly needed.

The former rules are again in operation at the bowling alley. The boys found they couldn't make it pay to have three days out of the week for the ladies, so they are all again to go on any day.

The girls' basketball team are to have a game with the Salem girls this week. The last game played with the Salem girls two years ago was a very close contest but OAC came off victorious. We wish them the same success this year.

The boys' basketball team came home from Portland Sunday. They played the Portland Y. M. C. A. Friday evening and were defeated the score being 27 to 29. Saturday night they played Oregon City. Owing to a slight misunderstanding the game was not completed, but the OAC boys were considerably in the lead when the game was closed.

Y. M. C. A. 29. O. A. C. 27.

The Y. M. C. A. first basketball team experienced their first tussle of the season when they met the Oregon Agricultural College players Friday night and only secured victory by the narrow margin of two points, with a score of 29 to 27, says the Oregonian.

The game was one of the fastest and most interesting ever played in the city and one that kept the large number of spectators on their feet most of the time. The closeness of the play is evidenced by the score, the Y. M. C. A., leading in the first half with but one point.

Durand played a great game for the Y. M. C. A.'s, throwing six baskets during the game. Thornton, as forward, distinguished himself, and Freeman was more than a match for his opponent.

Swann was the Corvallis star. The Agrics had much the better balanced team and played a good hard game throughout. The Y. M. C. A.'s superiority lay in their ability to throw baskets from the field.

The line up was:
Y. M. C. A. O. A. C.
Thornton.....F.....Swann (capt.)
Durand.....F.....Stokes
Freeman (capt.).....C.....Cate
Livingston.....G.....Ribeheart

A Grim Tragedy

is daily enacted, in thousands of homes, as Death claims, in each one, another victim of Consumption or Pneumonia. But when Coughs and Colds are properly treated the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley, of Oakland, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cured her, and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guaranteed at 50c and $1 by Allen & Woodward druggist. Trial bottle free.
