unable to carry a rifle will be assigned to company "G" (signal corps). "H" company (hospital corps) will be composed of students especially adapted for this kind of work, they will give instruction to the entire regiment in first aid to the injured.

The selection of officers for the coming year is made at this time to enable them to prepare for the responsibility they must assume immediately on entering school next fall. Cadets deficient in other departments cannot hold a commission in the military department.

O. A. C. Takes Meet.

Our athletes are again victorious, having taken more than twice as many points as any other college in the indoor meet in Portland, held last Saturday evening. Smithson, of OAC, broke the indoor record by a tenth of a second. The following will give a pretty good idea of the affair:

The second annual state indoor track meet went to the Oregon Agricultural College, as did the last one held a year ago. Practically all the best Oregon track and field athletes went in the Columbia gymnasium yesterday afternoon, and they succeeded in breaking two world's records and one Pacific Coast record. Kelly, of Columbia, by jumping a distance of 22 feet, 1 1/2 inches, broke the indoor track world's record of 21 feet 10 inches.

Smithson of Corvallis, by sprinting the 50-yard dash in 5 2/5 seconds, smashed the indoor world record in that event by the tenth of a second, and Bert Kerrigan, of the Multnomah Club, by jumping a height of 5 feet 10 3/4 inches, made a new record for indoor work on the Pacific Coast, the old height being 5 feet 9 1/4 inches.

The aggregate number of points won at the meet gives the Oregon Agricultural College 41, Multnomah 19, Pacific University 13, Columbia 11, Oregon 5, Y. M. C. A. 5, Fort Stevens soldiers 5, Tualatin Academy 5, and the High School 4.

The race of the day was the 220-yard dash, in which Kelly, of Columbia, was pitted against Smithson and Williams of Corvallis. Kelly won, with Smithson pressing him hard on the last stretch. Williams was not in condition, and Smithson was also handicapped by not being used to the short turns, but it was Kelly's race justly enough with a time of 23 3/5 seconds, only bettered once on a covered track, by Corcoran, of Notre Dame, with 23 1/5.

All the events were interesting and fought for in good fields. The distance runs, which usually become a walk over in a dual contest, were fast and closely contested. The quarter, which was agreed to be Williams race, went to a collegemate, Greenhaw, Williams coming second, after being boxed most of the way.

The pole vault became a draw-out struggle between Wilcox, of Multnomah, and Swan, of Corvallis, the former winning at 10 feet 3 inches.

The half went to Petersen, of Pacific, and the mile to Gates, both winning in well contested races. The fifty-yard hurdles brought the Y. M. C. A. five points, with Livingston as winner. He is developing into a second Coates, and with more practice will hold a few records himself.

Hug, the only Oregon man there, won the shot-put, with 39 feet 6 inches.

The regular order of track and field events was relieved by academic races and grammar-grade and parochial-school relays. The events were well run.

MISS WICKLUND SECOND.

O. A. C. Does Well in Prohibition Contest at McMinnville.

There was quite a delegation from Corvallis and Philomath who accompanied their orators to McMinnville last Friday, the occasion being the state prohibition contest. When the news reached Corvallis that Miss Wicklund, representing OAC, had been successful in taking second place in the contest there was much rejoicing on the part of her friends in this city.

There appeared a half-tone of the various orators in Saturday's Oregonian and perhaps no better account of the affair can be found than is given in that paper of above date, as follows:

Chester P. Gates, representing Dallas College, won the state prohibition contest here tonight. Miss Alice Wicklund, the orator for the Oregon Agricultural College, at Corvallis, took second honors, and Miss Myrtle Calavan, speaking for McMinnville College was given third place. Six orations were delivered.

"My Nation's Hope" was the subject of Mr. Gates' address. Young men were the chief reliance of the country at present he said. He followed this theme throughout the oration.

Miss Wicklund took "Why a Prohibitionist?" She asserted that the prohibition party was the only one which can solve the problem facing the Nation. "The Better Way" was the subject of Miss Calavan. She laid stress on the benefits of evangelization.

Big delegations from Dallas, Philomath, Newberg, Albany and Corvallis crowded the Opera House, where the orations were delivered.

The other speakers were: Louis Saunders, Pacific College; Mrs. R. N. Lewis, Philomath College and A. Carlos Marsters, Albany College. The subjects of these speakers were: "The Problem of the Hour," "The Power of the Drink Habit" and "The Movement of the Age."

Six judges decided the merits of the speakers. On composition were Rev. G. W. Barney, of Whetcom, Wash., and I. B. Rhodes and Rev. T. E. Coulter, both of Portland. The delivery judges were Reno Hutchinson and Rev. W. S. Gilbert, both of Portland, and Rev. Phelps, of Dayton, Or.

After the orations the State Prohibition League held a business meeting and the following officers were elected: President, Miss Mary Sutherland, Oregon Agricultural College; vice-president, Edward Wines, Willamette University; secretary, L. A. Hunt, Albany College; treasurer, E. Bales, Pacific College.

The Oregon Agricultural College was selected as the place for holding the contest in 1936. The interstate contest will be held in Portland some time during the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

Lady Agent.

The resignation of Logan Hays from charge of the Western Union Telegraph office, and as agent for Wells Fargo & Co., this city, has worked several changes in the affairs of the city.

Ernest Miller is to have charge of affairs for the Western Union Telegraph Co. This is satisfactory to our people. J. F. Baker, route agent for Wells Fargo & Co., was in Corvallis, Saturday, and arranged the transfer of the charge of affairs here from Mr. Hays to Miss Eugenia Shelby. Miss Shelby took charge Saturday afternoon.

Miss Shelby is the daughter of Eugene Shelby, of Portland, who is agent and assistant superintendent for Wells Fargo & Co. at Portland. Her grandfather was General Joe Lane, one of the most prominent men of the state in the days of his vigorous manhood.

It is thought that both businesses will continue to be carried on together, in the same office, as has been the case in the past. While in this section, Mr. Baker arranged to have the C. & E. train that leaves this city at 6 a. m. and arrives at about 8 p. m., to and from Albany, carry express matter. This will prove quite a convenience in many ways and will give us far better service, which is something always appreciated by our people. It is thought that the new express service will go into effect at once, if, indeed, it has not already started.

Grandchild Wanted.

John and Elizabeth Senger, of this city, have taken legal steps to secure their granddaughter. The facts of the case are set forth in the Albany Herald, as follows:

Elizabeth and John Senger, of Corvallis, yesterday afternoon filed a petition for habeas corpus in the county court, asking that Wilma Ruth Warren, their grandchild be produced in court. The petition alleges that the daughter of petitioners was married to one Luther Warren in 1902, that later the daughter returned to the home of her parents where the child was born and where their daughter died, after exacting a promise of her husband that the child should remain with the mother's parents. The petitioners further allege that their daughter carried an insurance policy for $1000 payable to petitioners and that $700 of the proceeds were given to the son-in-law in return for the promise that the child should remain with them. The allegation is made that the father of the child took the little one to the home of his parents who now have control of the little girl, that the father is intemperate and unfit to bring up a child and they ask that the little one be returned to them. The writ was issued, returnable Wednesday, April 19, when it is expected the little girl will be brought into court, W. E. Yates, of Corvallis, is attorney for the petitioners.

Frightful Suffering Relieved.

Suffering frightfully from the virulent poisons of undigested food, C. G. Grayson, of Tala, Miss., took Dr. King's New Life Pills, "with the result," he writes, "that I was cured." All stomach and bowel disorders give way to their tonic, laxative properties. 25c at Allen & Woodward's, druggists.

Belshazzar's Feast.

The superb spectacular opera which has been in preparation for the past two weeks will be given at the Opera House on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, April 26 and 27, by a cast and chorus composed of about 75 of the leading singers, who have combined to make this the greatest musical event ever undertaken by local singers.

The grand sacred opera, Belshazzar, or the "Fall of Babylon," under the direction of Martin E. Robinson, of Chicago, has received universal praise. Mr. Robinson has given this opera in many cities in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, and Montana, and the press throughout the Pacific Coast is unflinching in its praise of the excellence of his work. If the public needed any guarantee of the merits of this production it could be found in the enthusiasm with which Belshazzar was received at Chatanqua last summer, when it was sung by a chorus of 140 singers to the largest audience ever assembled for a musical entertainment at Gladstone Park, or in Portland, where it was given in the Marquam by 100 of the best singers in Portland.

It is difficult to find so many rare gems of musical excellence anywhere in the realm of sacred music as in the opera Belshazzar. The special parts have been assigned to competent people and will be rendered in a manner to please all lovers of music. The concerted parts are being carefully prepared and the costuming will be representative of the times.

BIG FIELD FOR MAIL THIEF.

United States Post Office Service Affords Wide Scope for Craft of Letter Crooks.

"Yes, there are some pretty nice pickings in the mail service if the clerks want to take chances," said one of the postal inspectors to a Philadelphia Record reporter. "Take the case of just one fellow on whom we landed recently. In one year we traced $475 of missing money to him, and there is no telling how much he got away with that couldn't be accounted for. Of the $475, he swiped as high as $50 in cash from one letter, and as low as 60 cents. And these were not registered letters, which shows the foolishness of sending money through the mails without taking proper precautions. In one instance a traveling man sent his wife $4 in a letter. It never reached her, and her kick brought $3 more. That was swiped, too, and the circumstances of two thefts in one family, one following the other so closely, was largely instrumental in casting suspicion on the culprit."
