Gremads is the name of the modern city in Boeotia, Greecewhich occupies the site of the an cientcity of Tanagra, says the Chi cago Daily News. The old town was a rich and luxurious place greatly renowned for the coct had the honor of belng the birth place of Corinna, the great po etess of the fifth century befor Christ, and perpetuated her mem ory by a majestic tomb, on which she was represented five times crowned, in remembrance of th five victories which she had gained in the lyrical contests with gained in the lyrical contests wit Pindar. Despite this compara tive celebrity it appeared destine to the eternal sleep of forgetfu rass, when, after more than twen ty-two centuries of silence, chance ty-two centuries of silence, chance drew to it the attention of arch aeologists.

In 1870 the inhabitants of the neighboring- villages, while dig neighboring- villages, while dig ging in their fields, exposed to view some tombs which th French have assigned to the nine teenth centary before the Chris tian era. The discovery of these tirst seplchers was the cause of excavations, during which a quantity of other tombs were discovered, all situated along the roads which led from the walls of Tanagra in the direction of Thebe Chalcis, Harnia and Plataea.
Among this mass of tombs, be longing to several centuries, th most interest attaches to those of the fourth century before the Christian era, on account of their Christian era, on account of their contents. It was in these partic-to-day under the name of "Tana. gra figurines" were for the most part discovered.
