Poultry at the Fair.

For fine poultry we are inclined to the belief that Benton is the banner county in Oregon. Will she have an exhibit of fancy birds at the fair? This depends we are informed on several things.

Between poultry breeders of Oregon and Washington it is about nip and tuck. Corvallis has on two or three occasions sent birds to the Seattle poultry shows and has just about held her own in the way of prizes and first places with her competitors of the north. But just now it seems that Washington is in a fair way to take the lead in the matter of a poultry exhibit at the Lewis and Clark fair.

Harry Collier, formerly editor of the Pacific Poultryman of Tacoma, has been secured by the state authorities of Washington to tour the state in the interest of an exhibit of poultry at the Exposition. The state, we are informed, pays the expense of this and also the expenditure necessary on the part of individuals who may send fancy birds to the Fair.

If something of this nature could be done in Oregon we would beyond a doubt have a creditable showing at the Lewis and Clark Fair and stand a good chance of winning over our neighbors of the north. But without this assistance it is feared that interest will lag and our showing be poor.

Elmer Dixon, of Oregon City, has been appointed superintendent of the poultry exhibit at the Exposition, and C. G. Hinds, of Alameda, Calif., who judged the last poultry show in Corvallis, will be one of the judges of poultry at the Fair.

The Installation.

There was a very pleasant and we hope, profitable meeting at the Presbyterian church on last Thursday night. The occasion was the installation of Rev. M. S. Bush as pastor. A large congregation assembled, including pastors and members from sister churches in this city. W. S. Holt, D. D., Synodical Missionary of Oregon, presided and pronounced the constitutional questions and offered the prayer of installation.

Rev. T. B. Griswold, of the Presbyterian church of Albany, preached the sermon, and Rev. Andrew Carrick, of Brownsville, a former pastor of the church, gave the charge to the pastor, E. J. Thompson, D. D., of Independence, for 14 years pastor of the church, gave the charge to the congregation. The sermons were all first-class and much enjoyed by the congregation present. When the Benediction was pronounced all those present made a forward movement and offered their congratulations to Rev. and Mrs. Bush.

At the close of the services the young ladies of the Christian Endeavor society served light refreshments and those that remained enjoyed a social hour over the refreshments and in conversation.

A Rose City.

When it comes to a matter of roses Corvallis people tip their hats to nobody. At this season of the year there is fragrance in the air, noticeable even to old "residents." That Nature is to be assisted is set forth in a dispatch recently sent from this city to the Telegram, which reads as follows:

The citizens of Corvallis are following in the footsteps of Portland residents in beautifying their city for the inspection of the crowds of visitors who will be drawn to Oregon this year by the Lewis and Clark Exposition. Hundreds of roses have been newly planted on public grounds, and many of the citizens have become enthusiastic rose fanciers, some having added to their collections of this beautiful flower as many as 50 new choice varieties. Conditions here are unusually favorable for floral production, and the city is already assuming the appearance of a garden of flowers, and by the time the season is fairly on, will be a credit to the state.

Saved by Dynamite.

Sometimes a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes a cough hangs on so long you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her, so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her!! Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe. At Allen & Woodward's drug store, price 50c and $1; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

New Partnership.

Bert Yates and W. E. Yates have formed a partnership under the firm name of Yates & Yates. They expect to do a general insurance and abstract business. They represent good reliable insurance companies and will furnish accurate, neat and complete abstracts of Benton county property at reasonable prices. Call on or write to Yates & Yates, Corvallis, Oregon.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and scalds. 25c at Allen & Woodward's drugstore.
