BE FAIR BUT FIRM.

On account of her action relative to trade relations with this country, Germany has caused quite a ripple in certain government departments. What is to be the outcome of Germany's demands? Are we to fawn about Kaiser Willie's legs in anticipation of finally picking up a few crumbs of advantage, or are we to stand by our guns first, last and all the time in favor of American trade interests?

Do that which is right and proper in the interest of our own people. Ask no special favors and grant none. All treaties are made on a greater or less selfish base and the pride of every diplomat is to do so well by his country that its citizens will uphold him. At this day and age, the men of a nation that shuns the appearance of selfishness in an international deal are going to get badly squeezed as a reward for too much sentimentality.

Reciprocity is becoming rather frazzled and our statesmen are no longer voicing a sentiment favoring it on account of its basic principles. Our reciprocity relations with Cuba has resulted to our disadvantage. There is only one possible kind of reciprocity that we view favorably—reciprocity in noncompeting products.

If we adopt a measure and deal justice to all nations alike upon a basis of absolute equality such questions as the one recently raised by Germany will be easily handled. Such laws should simply set out the doctrine "that when any nation in the world gives to the products of the United States the treatment of the 'most favored nation,' or, in other words, where such foreign nation lets into its markets the products of the United States upon the 'ground floor' of absolute equality with other nations, such nation shall be granted access for its products in the markets of the United States under the terms of our existing tariff law, or upon precisely the same terms as are granted other nations. But if such foreign nation shall discriminate against the products of the United States, or exact higher rates upon our products, then the customs duties imposed upon the products of such offending nation in the markets of the United States shall be advanced 50 per cent."

Corvallis Day.

The people of Benton county have been given to understand that "Corvallis Day" at the Lewis and Clark Fair was to be June 15th. This would have been very satisfactory, but it is now given out that there is to be a change and that the date for Corvallis has been set one day ahead, or June 14th. This will prove very unsatisfactory to the people of this city, as June 14th is commencement day at the Oregon Agricultural College.

On this account, it is safe to predict that but comparatively few people will patronize an excursion to Portland on this day, as they are very loyal to the college. Either the date of "Corvallis Day" must be changed or the date of commencement at OAC, else there will be a small turn-out for an excursion. The dates of the days allotted the various towns of the state are as follows:

Monday, June 5, Dallas, Newberg and Dayton; Tuesday, June 6, McMinnville, Hillsboro and Forest Grove; Wednesday, June 7, Pendleton and Heppner; Thursday, June 8, The Dalles, Prineville and Moro; Friday, June 9, Ashland, Grants Pass, Medford and Jacksonville; Saturday, June 10, Astoria, Salem, Oregon City and Woodburn; Monday, June 12, Roseburg and Cottage Grove; Tuesday, June 13, La Grande and Union; Wednesday, June 14, Corvallis and Independence; Thursday, June 15, Joseph, Lostine, Wallowa and Elgin; Friday, June 16, Eugene and Albany; Saturday, June 17, Baker City and Sumpter.

Lieut. Quinlan, commandant at OAC, and who was mainly instrumental in securing June 15th as "Corvallis Day" assures us that beyond doubt we are yet to have the 15th and he has handed us the following which he desires printed as a special invitation to our subscribers:

GAZETTE SUBSCRIBERS: A military competition in the form of Battalion and Company drill, guard mount and ceremonies by entire military body has been inaugurated by the Lewis and Clark Exposition authorities, who will award suitable prizes to the winners.

The entire military body of the Oregon Agricultural College, with its band of thirty pieces, will leave here about 6 a. m. June 15 next, going into camp at the Fair grounds for ten days. We want you to visit us in camp. We want you to partake of our hospitality. We want you to bring your friends and relatives. Come and see your boy in his element. About ten or fifteen colleges will be represented in the competitions; your presence will encourage your boys. Ample provisions will be made to make your visit in our camp a pleasant one.

A day will be set aside as an OAC Day. All the Alumni of the college will be notified by the president, E. E. Wilson, of Corvallis. All business will be suspended June 15, and every man, woman and child expects to leave Corvallis about the same hour as the regiment. A man from Soap Creek has been engaged to take charge of the city until the inhabitants return. If you can't leave Corvallis with us meet us at the train in Portland and march to the Fair grounds with us. In any event visit our camp. Your presence will give the boys great pleasure.

FEMALE WEAKNESS

543 1-2 Congress St. PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902. I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pains would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering the agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain. Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Willhelmina Snow Treasurer, Portland Economic League

Periodical headaches tell of female weakness. Wine of Cardui cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, that is the best reason in the world you should try Wine of Cardui now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui today.

WE are frank to admit that of some clothing there is little good to be said. In some cases this good may be the making; in other cases, the materials; others, of the design, style and character effect given.

Whatever it may be, if you are a progressive man there is no garment worth mentioning to you unless it contains these combined good qualities. Our Crouse & Brandegee Nusac has them. It is all well enough to tell about what the inside of a garment amounts to, but that usually tells its own story. Character which results from clothing skill is a thing a suit must have. We believe in tangible facts and have gone into the clothes subject to satisfy ourselves and you that we are right. Good clothes mean something to every young man. A well-dressed man demands respect and denotes self-respect, both of which are important.
