RECEIVED SENTENCE.

When one reads of the loyalty to country on the part of our forefathers; their devotion to duty; to public trust and in all matters involving not alone the honor of the party in whom the people reposed confidence, but of the nation, a feeling of pride is pardonable. Such in an unusually large degree was the standard of the men who managed the government during its earliest history.

Little by little there has grown a sentiment of "the people be damned" on the part of some of our most trusted public servants. It is not just nor fair to accuse our public men as a body with corruption, for beyond doubt we still have as honest public officials as ever there was at any time in our history, but perhaps not so large a percentage of them. The age is a dollar one. During recent years, more particularly than at any other period, has "money" become the standard by which a man was measured. This is wrong and not good for the country.

Throughout the land there is an apparent awakening; the sentiment in favor of honest legislation and discharge of public duties above all things is being born anew. The people of all classes, the high and the low, the rich and the poor, the patrician and the plebeian, show signs of the awakening of the spirit that will demand a purer administration of official affairs on the part of our public servants.

In proof of the above let us point to Senator John H. Mitchell's case. On July 25, at 10 a. m., in Portland, Judge De Haven in the United States court pronounced sentence on him, whereby he shall serve six months in the county jail of Multnomah county and pay a fine of $1,000. This for being implicated in the Oregon land frauds. In spite of all Mitchell has been in Oregon, in the United States, his great power and recognized ability everywhere, he was found guilty by a jury of our common men and sentence has been passed. No man should be above the law and may Oregonians always bear this in mind.

It is worse that Senator Mitchell be found guilty of this offense than if he were an average citizen, for the reason that he has not only committed an offense against the statutes but has at the same time betrayed his trust to the people. But the case has been appealed to the supreme court and until a decision in the matter is handed down he will not enter upon his sentence. Should the supreme court confirm the action of the lower court then must he serve time and pay his fine. Nor is this the sole penalty—he is a marked man in the eyes of the world and is forever debarred from holding in the United States a place of trust.

She Tried Five Doctors.

Mrs. Frances L. Sales, of Mission Valley, La., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney trouble five years; had severe pains in my back and a frequent desire to urinate. When riding I experienced much pain over the region of the kidneys. I tried five physicians without benefit and then concluded to try Foley's Kidney Cure. After taking three $1 bottles I was completely cured." Sold by Graham & Wortham.

Cured of Bright's Disease.

Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elmore, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and was all bloated up with drops. My eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 50 cent bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle the drops had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease." Sold by Graham & Wortham.

We are requested to reprint the following notice on the death of Mrs. Angeline Sites, which appeared in the Crook County Journal:

Mrs. Angeline Sites, one of the early pioneer settlers of Oregon, died near Prineville after a brief illness caused by indigestion, on Saturday, July 15, at the age of 72 years.

Angeline May was born in Boone county, Missouri, April 26 1833. She crossed the plains with her parents in 1849 settling near Salem, Oregon. She was married to Dr. James R. Sites, deceased, in Salem on January 30, 1859.

To this union five children were born, two of whom survive her, Mrs. J. W. Howard, of Corvallis, and Mrs. C. F. Smith of this city.

Deceased had been a devout christian for the past 47 years. Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at the residence of C. F. Smith by the Rev. W. P. Jannett, pastor of the Methodist church. Interment took place at the Union cemetery.

FEMALE WEAKNESS

542 1/2 Congress St. PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902. I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pains would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering the agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain. Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Wilhelmina Swain Treasurer, Portland Economic League

Periodical headaches tell of female weakness. Wine of Cardui cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, that is the best reason in the world you should try Wine of Cardui now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui today.
