J. M. Nolan and family went to the coast Wednesday to spend a couple of weeks. Before going Mr. Nolan announced that heretofore whenever he left his business it was necessary to put two men in his place, but that this year Mr. Lafferty will fill the vacancy.

Wilmon W. Blackmar, Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, fell at his post of duty at Boise, City, Idaho, July 16, 1905. To do honor to his memory memorial services will be held in the M. E. church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. All patriotic citizens are welcomed to these services.

Tomorrow William Corbett will get through molding brick at his yard across Mary's river. He will have a kiln of about 200,000. He will burn it in the course of a couple of weeks. He has already burned one kiln of tiling this year and has enough tiling molded to make about a kiln and a half. Later on he will make enough tiling to complete two kilns.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Clancy and son arrived in this city Monday from Iowa. They are here on a visit to the families of Messrs. Hollenberg and Cady, having been old friends in the East. Yesterday the new-comers accompanied by Mrs. E. M. Wing and J. J. Cady, went over to the Coast to spend a few days. Mr. Clancy, wife and son have friends in Eugene and Oregon City as well as in Corvallis. They are visiting these friends and the Fair at Portland. They are greatly pleased with this locality and will spend a week here.

Robert Gellatly, a former popular student at OAC, lies at his home near Philomath with a broken leg. The accident happened Tuesday morning. Mr. Gellatly had taken some horses to water, riding one and leading the others. The animal he rode began bucking, throwing the rider off backwards, the horse rearing and falling onto the prostrate man. Two bones, just above the ankle, were broken. Dr. Newth, of Philomath, attended the injury, and it is hoped by his many friends in Corvallis that Robert will soon be able to be about.

At the home of the bride's parents in Independence, Tuesday evening, was celebrated the marriage of George Belt, of Corvallis, and Miss Josie Woods of that city. Only the immediate relatives of the young couple were present. Mr. and Mrs. Belt came to Corvallis, Wednesday, and proceeded on to Newport, where they will spend a week. They will reside in Corvallis, where Mr. Belt is a salesman in the S. L. Kline store. The bride is one of the leading girls of Independence, and Mr. Belt has hosts of friends hereabouts that join in N. B. Larcom, of Philomath, was Wednesday admitted to the county poor farm.

Frank Rinehart, of East-ern Oregon, has arrived for a visit with his cousin, F. E. Edwards.

Mrs. James Bier is quite ill at her home on Fourth street. Dr. Burgess is in attendance.

M. L. Frantz, the well-known merchant of Hoskins, transacted business in Corvallis, Wednesday.

John McChesney and family, of Albany, are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Underwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Stewart now occupy the house on Fourth street recently vacated by Carl Porter and family.

The Baptist church is closed until the first Sunday in September. The pastor is taking his vacation in Portland.

John Johnson, of Wren, was in Corvallis, Wednesday and left yesterday to join a surveying party in the Cascades.

William Kisor, of Portland, who has been visiting Corvallis relatives, left Wednesday for a vacation in the Cascades.

W. Gearhart, of Iowa, was a Corvallis visitor this week, having come to the valley to view the country while on a trip to the Fair.

The little son of Charles McHenry fell from a hay loft Sunday, sustaining a fracture of the arm. He is doing as nicely as could be expected.

The Siletz captain plays center field. He is half Russian, half base ball crank. His name is Caseyatthebatsky. Watch him when he is at-the-batsky.

George Pruett, a rising young jeweler of Oakland, arrived in Corvallis, Tuesday, for a brief visit with his brother, Ralph Pruett. The visitor is enroute East.

In Brownspah, catcher, and Butleronitz, lf, the Siletz base ball team has two batters of unusual ability, either of whom is liable to bat out a home run at any time.

Henry Oleman, who suffered a very serious injury in an accidental shooting affair at Summit a few weeks ago, is gradually improving, with chances favorable for ultimate recovery.

Jesse Peak and Mr. Warfield came out afoot from Alesa, Monday, in search of work in the harvest fields. The former went to Buena Vista, Wednesday, to visit relatives.

During the present week H. L. French has sent some sixty odd varieties of wheat to the Fair. From all accounts it seems that our exhibit is coming to the front and the indications are that from now on everything possible will be done to bring our county to the notice of the public.

The county court secured the services of George A. Waggoner to assist in caring for the exhibit of Benton at the Fair. As the matter now stands both Mr. Waggoner and Roy Raber will be in charge of our county display at the Exposition. H. L. French and son will manage matters for the county at this end of the line.

Dave Osburn has been granted leave of absence for 30 days and intends passing the time in Eastern Oregon. For four years he has been constantly on duty and it is enough to wear out any man. The vacation will do him good and he will return in better condition for his duties. Fred Overlander will fill the vacancy during Dave's absence.

The funeral of the late Emma Schoel was held at the family residence in Corvallis at 9 a. m. Wednesday. The services were conducted by Rev. Hurd of the Evangelical church, and a large number of friends and neighbors were present to pay a last tribute of respect. The remains were taken to Peoria, the old home of the Schoel family. Miss Schoel was formerly an OAC student, and was an attractive young woman who had many friends. Much sympathy is felt for the sorrowing family.

The court has instructed Clerk Moses to make an index to judgments rendered in the Benton county court, something that has never before been done in this county. The undertaking means much painstaking labor for Mr. Moses as there are, it is estimated, from 15,000 to 20,000 judgments to be indexed. This covers all the judgments ever rendered since the beginning of court in Benton county.

Job Printing.

When you pay out good money for printing, be sure and get good printing for the money!

Do not send out printed matter to your customers that is a disgrace to your business a disgrace to your town—and a disgrace to the printer who puts it out.

Good Work costs you no more than the bad.

Good printing is correct in spelling—correct in grammar—correct in punctuation—on good stock—printed with good ink—and something that it is a pleasure to look at.

Bring your Job Work to the Gazette Office.

E. P. Greffoz has prepared a petition in bankruptcy and sent it to the United States District court at Portland to have it granted. If granted then all creditors may meet and select a trustee. If they fail to do this, then Referee Holgate will appoint said trustee. We are informed that this action, should the petition be granted, will render void all attachments that have been filed heretofore on Mr. Greffoz's property.

As the first articles of incorporation in the matter of the students' building at OAC did not comply with the statutes, new articles were filed a day or two ago. According to papers lately filed E. R. Lake is president of the association; A. B. Cordley, vice-president; F. E. Edwards, secretary and treasurer; B. F. Irvine and Dr. James Withycombe are trustee. The five gentlemen above mentioned are the incorporators.

F. M. Rhinehart, a neighbor of Joseph Yates for many years when they both farmed in Linn county years ago, has been a guest of friends in this city during the past few days. Mr. Rhinehart has just returned from a six-months' visit at Fresno, California. He reports the thermometer to have soared up to 115 in the shade while he was in that section. He sold his Linn county farm eight or nine years ago and after looking over various sections of Eastern Oregon, located at Condon, which place is still his home. He has great faith in the future of that section and declares it to be a good place for a man to go and get in on the ground floor. Mr. Rhinehart is an uncle of Major Edwards of OAC.
