TELL HER THE TRUTH.

The majority of the big dailies have made much of late over what they were pleased to term the "stiffening" of the back of Nicholas, the czar of all Russia. Our good president has come in for an unusual amount of mention for the part he has taken in the peace negotiations now on between Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries.

As regards the stiffening of opinion. He appears more in the light of one who is "hardheaded" at the expense of the contents (if any there be) of said head. One would fancy that the Russians were the victors to hear them talk. Nor is this all-they are even conscienceless enough to undertake to make Christendom believe that the Japanese forced the war upon the "Little Father." It appears that the czar is a bluffer, that he has an exalted opinion of himself and all appurtenances thereunto belonging which is not warranted by facts.

Now, in the name of common sense whyshould the rational men of the world pander to such a silly notion and humor the whim of so weak a man? For the repreing over each other in their endeavor to do this or that thing as the czar would desire does not seem to add luster to their names. It strikes us that it would be more charitable on the part of other nations if they would break the news kindly but firmly to It would be an act of kindness to make this point so plain to the Russia stands on her own dignity and talks loudly of what she will or will not do toward peace and there is still much warlike bluff in evidence. So long as she feels this way what good can come of peace? There is evident effort on all sides to get Russia out of her scrape without humiliating her. To what end, please? If she be not humiliated to such extent that she will remember it for some time to come the only object of war-will have tions now on file in the Clerk's office. been missed and thousands of lives ruthlessly sacrificed. If the object of the war was not to teach Russia her place, to make her respect the rights of others, then in the name of all things, what was its object?

Irrationally and foolishly proud as she has proved herself to be, how will she be taught her place without a proper dose of humiliation? It seems an awful thing to advocate, but it is possible that it would cost fewer human lives in the long run for the powers to mind their own business for a little longer and allow Japan to knock some sense into Russian craniums. President Roosevelt, among other notable men, no doubt means well, but as regards peace between these powers under existing conditions it seems his efforts will be futile. He and others may bring about what has the appearance of peace, but, like beauty, it will be only skin deep.

LET WELL ENOUGH ALONE.

A true and consistent friend of

of men of the reputed wisdom and conservatism of those composing the above assemblage should finally conclude their deliberations with the following weak and unstable resolution:

Resolved, first, That this committee recognizing the principle of protection as $2 per annum, or 25 per cent discount it the established policy of our count y, advocates immediate reciprocal concessions, by means of a dual or maximum and minimum tariff, as the only practical method of reneving at this time the strained situation with which we are confronted.

How on earth are you going to protect when you are eternally changing your policy? What, under such conditions, becomes the policy? A maximum and minimum tariff; a schedule for our friends and another for our enemies-nice arrangement! It is safe to assume that all nations would soon become very friendly -it would be water on their Nick's spine we have our own wheel for them to do so. What then is the result? The entire tariff schedule has been reduced to a minimum and the United States is on almost a free trade

These reciprocity-free-tradetariff-lowering jugglers lose sight of present conditions-as good, or better, on the whole than ever before blessed the nation. Is the time when men profit by experience never to come? Will lightning never smite the calamity howlers? Is this country never to see the sun come up on a day when we boast a settled policy? How is a great manufacturer to operate when he has no assurance that his business may not be affected tomorrow as the result of some sentatives of nations to be fall- wailing tariff tinker's manifesta-

The Dingley tariff schedule has proved by far the best of its kind the country ever had, now, in spite of its good there has arisen a cry should be in a great measure annulled. True, from time to time Russia that she is no longer "it." it may be found expedient to modify and revise the schedule as applying to certain commodi-"Little Father" and his children ties, but it is not desirable nor that there would be no mistaking advisable to wander far from the text as it at present exists.

And a long pull describes the pathway of a woman afflicted with female weakness unless she is under the care of a doctor who has had successful experience in the treatment of such cases or else has found the right remedy which can be safely used independently of the doctor.

Forty years ago, Dr. R. V. Pierce found that women were being grossly maltreated—mainly through ignorance and carelessness, and he determined to devote himself to study and research till he found the real cause of their suffering and a proper remedy for it.

He found it, and dug from Nature's Laboratory, the earth, Nature's remedies for woman's weaknesses and allments. He found in Lady's Slipper root, Elack Cohosh root, Unicorn root, Blue Cohosh root and Colden Seal root, the required ingredients.

ingredients.

The remedial virtues of these he extracted, evablated and preserved by his own peer far non-alcoholic, glyenve processes, and the compound is now known the world over, as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Prescription.

"The wearing of corsets too tight seemed to have brought on an abdominal pressure, weakening the ligaments and resulting in displacement, which troubled me until I was not lit to walk, and at times could hardly stand," writes Mrs. Beverly Sitgreaves, of 124 Fulton St., San Francisco, Cal. "A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Before the first bottle was used I felt much better. Improvement went steadily on, and within four months I was like a new and well woman once more. I am now perfectly well and strong, and extremely grateful to you for your blessed remedy—a boon to sick women."

Eight months ago I was so ill that I was compelled to lie or sit down nearly all the time. My stomach was so weak and upset that I could keep nothing on it and I vomited frequently. I could not urinate without great pain and I coughed so much that my throat and lungs were raw and sore. The doctors pronounced it Bright's disease and others said it was consumption.

others said it was consumption. It mattered little to me what they called it and I had no de-
