Presidential Election Will Make No Difference.

No matter what candidate is elected, Foley's Honey and Tar will remain the people's favorite remedy for coughs, colds, and incipient consumption. It cures colds quickly and prevents pneumonia. A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Ind., writes: 'I suffered for three months with a severe cold. A druggist prepared me some medicine and a physician prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I then tried Foley's Honey and Tar and eight doses cured me.' Graham & Wortham.

A MATTER OF HEALTH

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Fail of Tragic Meaning.

are these lines from J. H. Simmons, of Casey, Ia. Think of what might have resulted from his terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes: 'I had a fearful cough that disturbed my night's rest. I tried everything, but nothing would relieve it, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which completely cured me.' Instantly relieves and permanently cures all throat and lung diseases; prevents grip and pneumonia. At Allen & Woodward, druggist; guaranteed; 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE.

OAK GROVE. Tom Hodges left for Portland, Friday, to see the closing of the big Fair. Mrs. Cora Gilson, of Cottage Grove, is spending a few days with relatives. Mrs. Minnie Schoel, of Halsey, is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Goff. Ed Wiles and family are moving to Albany to reside.

Mr. Armstrong, of Albany, has just finished a new barn on his property here. Strawberries in October is not a common thing, even in Oregon, yet Lewis Wentz has them on his table quite often, of late, fresh from the vines. John Wallace has fallen heir to some real property in Illinois, which he is disposing of as soon as the estate can be settled up.

Pete Karsten had the misfortune to get one of his valuable horses badly crippled, this week, by getting entangled in a barbed wire fence.

Ralph Kohizer spent the week at Portland seeing the winding up of the Lewis and Clark Exposition. Mrs. Mayberry, of Syracuse, Linn county, was here Thursday visiting old friends and neighbors. W. L. Cauthorn, of Wells, has been confined to his room for sometime with a severe attack of rheumatism. Sam Krochel is attending school in Albany this winter.

The late rains have made ploughing good—but the roads! Well they are too bad to speak of. Potato digging is now on hand, and the farmers are hurrying the work in fear the ground may become too wet for digging.

The Oak Grove Matrimonial Bureau under the new regime is not doing bad, two weddings consummated and two near the same end is a very good showing for six months, when you take into consideration that this is not leap-year and the crops were bad.

Rev. F. W. Launer filed the Oak Grove pulpit Sunday.

BEAVER CREEK. Columbus Weed, of Philomath, came out one day last week for a stay on his homestead. Wm. Park and Geo. Mercer have each bought a new double disc plow which works to perfection.

Sherman Gleason spent a few days at the Exposition last week. Messrs. Keeley and Harkin are at present baling hops for Clarence Ireland. The public school is progressing nicely with Prof. G. A. Peterson as teacher.

J. S. Ireland and family have recently returned from a few days visit at the Fair.

C. L. and G. C. Winters were Corvallis visitors last Saturday. Mr. Duffey has been again laid up with an injured hand.

Mrs. Mercer has been quite ill the past few weeks, but is reported to be slowly improving.

A Communication.

Corvallis, Oct. 18.—What Dr. Steckle expects to be one of the hottest games on OAC schedule is the match with Pullman here on Saturday. The Pullman men claim that on a hard field of the kind to which they have been accustomed, the score of Wednesday with Williamette would have been reversed. What the latter game was played on was a soft sandstone field, on which the speedy work to which the Pullman men are accustomed was impossible. At OAC the Washingtonians will have the kind of field they seek, and the result, if they are right in their conclusions ought to make the outcome of the game a matter of uncertainty.

On size, though the OAC men are big, the Washingtonians are bigger. They are, in fact, giants, nothing more, nothing less, at least their live men are. Don't Borrow Trouble. It is a bad habit to borrow anything, but the worst thing you can possibly borrow is trouble.

Incipient consumption is cured by Foley's Honey and Tar, but we do not hold out false hopes to consumptives by claiming that it will cure that dread disease in the advanced stages; but if the lungs are not too far gone Foley's Honey and Tar will effect a cure, as it stops the racking cough and soothes the inflamed air passages giving them a chance to heal, and even the advanced stages it always gives comfort and relief.

BONES OF DUGUESNE MEN. Workmen in Pittsburg Cut Into Its First Graveyard, Making Interesting Find.

Pittsburg, Pa.—Workmen cutting Oliver avenue 20 feet wider found behind a stone wall quantities of human bones. W. E. Watson says that his grandfather, William Eichbaum, told him when a boy that here the French soldiers who defended Fort Duquesne buried their dead. They also interred the Indians who died within the fortifications with their own soldiers, and the first negro who died in Pittsburg was interred there. The dead were carried from the fort "by the path of the Virgin," as they were all good Catholics then, and the alley became known as Virgin alley, afterward being changed to Oliver avenue in honor of Harry Oliver, who owned all the property adjoining.

WILL PROVIDES FOR CIGARS Spinster Leaves Estate to Sister on Condition That Father Be Allowed to Smoke Freely.

Philadelphia.—When the will of Charlotte D. Sage was admitted to probate one of the most curious clauses ever contained in a document of this kind was brought to light. The estate is valued at $350 and the will disposes of it in this wise: "I bequeath to my beloved sister (if she promises to allow my father, Benjamin F. Sage, of beloved memory, all the cigars he wants, also all the vests he likes to wear in the winter) all my personal and real estate I die possessed of or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my decease."

For Sale. Choice oat, vetch and cheat seed, to be had at reasonable prices either at the Corvallis or Benton Flouring Mills. A. W. FISCHER, Man.

Take THE GAZETTE for all the local news. Rev. M. S. Bush arrived home Monday evening from La Grande, Eastern Oregon, where he attended the Presbyterian synod of Oregon. Largest line of matting in county at Blackledges.
