

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Rialto Weatherford, of Harrisburg, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Horning.

Miss Inez Zierolf, of Monroe, has been the guest for a week of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Burnett.

R. Vincent and family, brother of T. T. Vincent, left, Tuesday, for their home in Portland after a few days' visit in Corvallis.

Attorney W. E. Yates has perfected arrangements for his family to move to Vancouver, Wash., and it is probable that they will go this week.

"In many weeks," says the Portland, Journal "there has been no play at the Empire Theatre which has aroused greater enthusiasm than "Honest Hearts."

The commodious new residence of A. E. Lewis is nearing completion, in Job's addition. It is immediately west of the Jackson home. Chas. Heckart is the contractor.

Abe Steckle, cousin of Dr.
Steckle, who was stricken with typhoid fever soon after he arrived in Corvallis, in September, is recovering, the nurse having left on Friday.

E. P. Wing went to Alesia, Saturday, to start teaching school over there. Although new to this state as a teacher, the gentleman had considerable experience in the East as relates to this vocation.

Miss Lizzie Mercer, well known in this vicinity, is reported very seriously ill at her home on Beaver Creek. She has been in ill health for over a year, and fears are entertained that she may not recover from the present illness.

Rev. C. A. Hyatte, former pastor of the M. E. church, South, in this city, paid Corvallis a visit the last of the week. Rev. Hyatte has been for some time a resident of Portland, but was on his way to California to attend a conference of his church.

Henry Bristow arrived home from Portland, Friday, where for three weeks he has been at the bedside of his little son, who has been operated on for an unusually severe case of appendicitis. The lad is recovering and it is thought will soon be entirely well. Mr. Bristow resides at Bellefontain.

Clerk Moses is a busy man these days. His time is occupied in work on the delinquent tax roll, which has to be returned to Sheriff Burnett on or before the 27th.
After that date, all property on which taxes have not been paid will be advertised for sale by the sheriff.

William Waggoner is having a large new barn erected on his recently purchased property in Job's addition. In the spring Mr. Wagoner is to erect a neat residence on the premises, and will occupy it with his family. The Waggoners are former residents of Corvallis, but for some time have occupied a farm beyond Philomath.

William Burrell had another runaway Friday. The delivery horse ran up Main street, peddling out a sack of sugar and other packages on the way, and in front of the Simpson Hardware the front wheels parted from the wagon, and with them the horse ran on, being captured in the south part of town.
No damage was done.

Up to the present, the number of hunters' license issued in Benton county this year is 456. This means that $456 is the amount of cash that has been turned into Benton county towards the protection of her game, and the wonder is have we got our just share of protection?

Corvallis has reason to be proud of her big public schools. A fine corps of teachers, a healthier, happier—and noisier—lot of pupils, and more slightly well-equipped buildings would be hard to find. The enrollment this year so far is 526, about 30 more than at this time last year, and more pupils yet to enter.

Sylvester Armitage, an OAC student, left Thursday for Eugene, to attend the funeral of his father, who was one of the actors in the Marshfield shooting affair mentioned in Tuesday's Oregonian. The elder Armitage, as it appears, attempted to force his attentions on a married woman, and being refused admission to her house, entered through a window and shot her through the heart, not, however, until she had fired through the door at him, the shot taking effect in his head. Ar-mitage walked to his own home, where he expired from the effects of the wound. The remaining members of the Armitage family reside near Eugene, and are respectable people. Young Armitage is the lad who had his neck nearly broken recently, during a Sophomore and Freshmen class frolic on the OAC grounds near the fountain.

Will Buoy, an old-time resident of this county, has been in Corvallis during the past few days on business and pleasure. He is now in the real estate business in Portland and says he is getting along nicely.

A large crowd of Albany people were in attendance at the football game, Saturday. The motor car came up from Monmouth and Independence with a large crowd of people from that section. In fact, football enthusiasts were here from all over the state.

The dance given at the Armory, Saturday evening, was a very pleasing event and was well attended.
It was given by the Sorosis and Feronian societies of OAC in honor of the football team also the vic-ing team from Pullman, Washington. Will Fechter and pianist, of Albany, and Harry Beard and Ruthyn Turney, of this city, furnished the music.

Harvey Sargent will leave Corvallis during the latter part of the week for Portland, from which point he will depart early next week, in company with his daughter for Arizona. For some time his daughter has been in the open air sanitarium in Portland and is doing nicely. In order to insure a continuance of improvement in her health Mr. Sargent is taking her to Arizona.

"Honest Hearts" played all last week in Portland to immense houses. The Portland papers without exception speak in highest praise of the play and the players.
Monday's Journal among other thing says "The company is well balanced and the roles are played with more than ordinary strength." Corvallis theatre goes can expect something better than usual Friday evening of this week when "Honest Hearts" is to occupy the boards.

Tomorrow Coach Steckle, will start with his aggregation of football boys from OAC to do battle on the gridiron of Berkeley, California, next Saturday. We hope to win.
But there are many things that conspire against success in every event of this nature. However, figure it any way you will, it seems that our chances are good. It is not wise to be over sanguine, but were we compelled to take one end of a wager in this matter our choice would unhesitatingly fall on OAC, as we know we have a team worthy any man's confidence. Here's luck to the boys.

The following local could have been read in Saturday's Oregonian.
Dr. James Withycombe, director of the Oregon Agricultural College, at Corvallis, will deliver an address before the Oregon Academy of Science, at the City Hall, tonight, at 8 o'clock. His subject will be "Science and the Farm." Prof. A.
B. Cordley, of Corvallis, will give a paper on "Insect and Fungus Diseases of Oregon Fruit Trees." All persons interested are cordially invited to attend. A special invitation is issued to members of the Oregon Grange, as both speakers are well known among the farmers as well as the scientists of the state.

The Pullman football boys purchased the black bear of the Corvallis Social and Athletic Club and used it as a mascot in the game Saturday. They had it dressed in a suit of flaming red (the Washington colors) and the contrast of red against a black background was very striking. We are informed that they paid $30 for bruin. The club recently purchased the bear for $10. The reason they had for purchasing the new mascot was on account of the OAC boys stealing a dog they had brought along to fill this responsible position. However, the OAC boys returned the dog before the Pullmanites left the city.
As it was, our visitors departed with their new mascot as well as the one they brought with them.
It was also thought that they took "Dewey," the well-known and highly respected local dog, when they departed.

William Lawrence, one of OAC's splendid tackles on the first football team, accidentally shot himself, Sunday. Lawrence and another football man, McKinnon, were out of town a short distance on the C. & E. track for the purpose of having some target practice with a revolver and in some manner Lawrence shot himself, the bullet going through the fleshy part of his left leg about three inches above the ankle. Luckily no bones were broken, but he will be out of the game with Berkeley next Saturday.
Lawrence played tackle and came from Nevada. His place on the team in the game with Berkeley will be filled by Griffith. How long he will be laid up depends wholly on the amount of inflamation that develops and whether the flesh is poisoned by the particles of his clothing that were carried through the leg with the ball.
A 38-calibre revolver caused the wound.

Received Many Visitors.

The reception given Thursday evening by J. M. Nolan & Son at their model store far exceeded their expectations, according to what we hear. This statement appears easy of belief, as no one would have expected such a crowd as visited their place of business on this occasion.

The store was not thrown open to the public until 7:30 in the evening, and many were grouped about the sidewalk awaiting the open sesame that should admit them. It was like fairyland within. The special decorator of of the establishment, Cecil Cathey assisted by the salesladies and others about the store, had done their work in up-to-the-minute art style. Fine goods, electric lights, vines, plants, and many other features of decoration made this emporium almost Oriental in its gorgeousness.

For an hour and a-half our citizens came and went and the store was crowded all the time with those whose special purpose was to admire the goods on display and to form an idea of the mammoth stock carried. Many went to listen to the music of Turney's orchestra. All were graciously received and accorded a hearty welcome by everyone in any way connected with the establishment. More than 600 people called during the evening and fully this number received souvenirs.

The carbon burned out during the evening and there was a scurry for lanterns, candles and matches.
Much merriment ensued for all concerned during the short period of darkness. The accident to the lights was of short duration, as the connection was soon made, but the incident was such that the occasion was rendered even more memorable. Shortly after the hour of 9 the final departure of guests came and the proprietors and others at the store were the recipients of cheerful "good nights," congratulations, and heartly prophecies of a successful future.

Mrs. Cornelia Woodward.

At her residence in this city, at 10:30 o'clock last Saturday morning, occurred the death of Mrs.
Cornelia Woodward, wife of ex-County Judge E. Woodward. Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at the United Evangelical church, of which she was a member, and were conducted by the pastor, Rev. C. T. Hurd.

Deceased was born May 21st, 1851, on a donation land claim on Mary's river not far from Philo-math, and her maiden name was Cornelia Allen, her father being Hiram Allen. She received her schooling in Philomath.
In 1869 she was married to E.
Woodward. This was 36 years ago, and 34 of these years were passed in this city at the home where her death occurred. Her husband and two children, Don and Miss Winona Woodward, survive her.

During life Mrs. Woodward was a very earnest worker for the furtherance of all that promised a better and more moral life.
She was an enthusiastic member of the W. C. T. U. and had also become a member of the United Evangelical church some years ago. A complication of ailments is supposed to have carried her away.

Many friends from a distance attended the funeral services yesterday and there was a profusion of beautiful floral tributes. Interment was made in Newton cemetery.

At Corvallis yesterday afternoon the Pullman Giants met defeat at the hands of the OAC eleven to the tune of 29 to 0. The defeat was a most decided one, and the Washington boys, though larger and heavier than their Oregon opponents, found they were up against a hard proposition. The field on which they played was like their own, hard and dry, and they expected to do good work, better, in fact, than what they accomplished in Salem a few days ago. There they met defeat by a score of 11 to 6, and they laid their reverse to the fact that the soft sawdust field was against them, and on a hard and dry field they thought they could do better work.—Albany Sunday Herald.

Additional Local.

See Blackledge for Linoleum, etc.
26 For the largest loaf of bread in town go to the Small bakery.

Blackledge, leading wall paper dealer. 30t

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cummings, formerly of Corvallis, are now located at Everett, Washington.

Wanted—300 geese within the next 15 days. Smith & Boulden.
86 9

W. C. Covel passed through Corvallis yesterday en route to his home at Monroe, having been in Albany for a visit with relatives.

Art squares and art rugs at Blackledges. 30t

Prof. A. L. Knisely, of OAC, started on a trip to Southern Oregon yesterday on business touching college interests.

Largest line of matting in county at Blackledges. 30t

Country school district teacher-can be supplied with monthly report cards by the Gazette. Write your wants. 81t

A dance will be given at the Willamette grange hall next Friday night. This means a splendid time for all who attend.

Wood Choppers Wanted—1000 cords to cut and wood to sell in stump. Anyone wanting to take contract come; do not write. P. A.
Kline's line phone No. 1. P. A.
Kline. 82t

John Meeker is offering Newtown apples at 25 cents a box we are informed. This certainly seems very reasonable.

Every man owes it to himself and his family to master a trade or profession. Read the display advertisement of the Six Morse Schools of Telegraphy, in this issue and learn how easily a young man or lady may learn telegraphy and be assured a position. 67t

Superintendent Denman went to Alesia yesterday to visit the schools of that part of the world. He will be absent about a week.

Society invitations and wedding announcements are constantly changing in styles of type faces and form. Have them printed neatly and up-to-date at the Gazette office. 80t

Carl Hodes was over from Albany renewing his acquaintances in this city and looking for a chance to put up coin of the realm on OAC.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Williamson were in Corvallis, yesterday, from their home at Oak Grove, this county. Mr. Williamson reports everything moving nicely in his section of Benton.

Mrs. Miller left Saturday for California, to join her husband.
They will hereafter make that state their home. Mrs. Miller is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colbert.

Let the hungry eat. The Ladies' Guild of the local Episcopal church will serve a roast beef dinner next Wednesday evening, October 25th, in the building formerly occupied by Mr. Berman as a grocery establishment and located on north Main street. The dinner will be served from five to nine o'clock and will consist of the following palatable dishes: Roast beef and gravy, potatoes, salads, pickles, hot rolls and butter, jelly, coffee and cake.
The dinner will cost 25 cents. Ice cream 10 cents. An abundant supply of home made candies will also be on sale.

For Sale.

Choice oat, Vetch and cheat seed, to be had at reasonable prices either at the Corvallis or Benton Flouring Mills.
A. W. FISCHER, Man.
80t

Real Estate Transfers.

J. W. Rust et al to Alford Rust, 16 1/2 a., near Philomath; $50.

James McI Wood to Mrs. Clarissa Duncan, 50 a., near Summit; $150.

F. P. Sheasgreen and wf. to Edward Buxton 2 lots blk. 2, Corvallis; $104.

E. P. Greffoz and wf. to Alex Rennie 3 lots, N. B. & P Avery's add.; $100.

H. L. Hall and wf. to F. L.
Miller, 30 a. near Corvallis; $3-800.

C. C. Hartless to Melvin Mc-Kinney, 6 lots blk. 4, Wilkins' add; $350.

C. S. Harding to Mary S.
Whitby, 1 1/2 lots blk. a, Wilkin's add; $1.

Take THE GAZETTE for all the local news.

Style and Quality

When you buy clothes here you may be sure of getting what you want.

Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes are noted for style and quality—all-wool; no "mercerized" nor any other cotton.

We've priced them right; the label is in them, a small thing to look for a big thing to find.

Sole agents for Corvallis.

Copyright 1905 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

S. L. KLINE,
ESTABLISHED 1864.
The People's Store, Corvallis, Ore.

1905 Fall Goods Ready 1906

Just received—a large assortment of fall and winter dress goods. This shipment includes broad cloths, henrietas, eloemes, cravenettes, waisting and fancy mixtures; wool plaids for ladies waists and childrens dresses.

Palmer Garments

Our first shipment of ladies and misses raincoats and childrens jackets has arrived. Ladies and misses Empire coats in transit. Style, fit and quality are the essentials in womens garments. The Palmer Garment excels in these three points and more than that, it gives you the money value. Style, fit and quality that are right. You are invited to inspect this line.

F. L. Miller, Corvallis, Oregon

D. G. Hiestand. Chas. Blakeslee.
CORVALLIS STEAM LAUNDRY.
Patronize Home Industry.
Outside Orders Solicited. CORVALLIS, OREGON.
All Work Guaranteed.

Worth Thinking About

THE GAZETTE office is equipped with all the proper requisites in machinery and tools to print anything from a calling card to a full sheet poster. Besides you get the benefit of experienced printers to handle your work. Printing is our business and while we are always crowded we are never so busy but that we can turn out a job on short notice. A few of the items mentioned below may be required by you this month. The best for the least money. Think it over.

Trespass Notices printed on canvas.
District school teachers' monthly report cards.
Wedding announcements and society invitations.
Business cards and circulars.
Letterheads, statements, envelopes, etc.
Funeral announcements.

CORVALLIS GAZETTE