Man's Unreasonableness.

Is often as great as a woman's. But Thos. E. Austin, Mgr., of the "Republican," of L. A. says, "I was not unreasonable when he refused to allow his doctors to operate upon his wife for female trouble. 'Instead,' he says, 'we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so weak, she could hardly leave her bed and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters, she was perfectly cured and can now perform all her household duties.' Guaranteed by Allen & Woodward druggists. Price 50c.

"I Thank the Lord."

Cried Hannah Plant, of Little Rock, Ark.: "For the relief I got from Bucklin's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I suffered for five years." It is a marvellous healer for cuts, burns and wounds. Guaranteed at Allen & Woodward drug store. 25c

RICH; IN WORKHOUSE

MILLIONAIRE ARRESTED AS A "SUSPICIOUS PERSON."
 Captured by Police in Opium Den and Thrown Among Paupers and Criminals in Pittsburg—Released After Four Days.
 Pittsburg, Pa.—The Allegheny county workhouse has for four days sheltered a real live millionaire unawares, if it is true that a man just released from it was, as declared, Jerome Murillo, of New York and Peekskill-on-the-Hudson. New York is said to be his place of business, and Peekskill his residence. He started back home with Martin Gurrino, said to be his brother-in-law, but minus the raven locks which surmounted his head when he was convicted of being a "suspicious person."
 On June 19 Murillo, if it be he, was before Magistrate George A. Moke, in company with George Dudhill, Ruth Meredith and Ada Murillo, the last named claiming to be Murillo's wife. The quartette were arrested by Capt. Lawrence Bartley in a house where all were accused of smoking opium. A number of pawn tickets were found in the room. They were sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs each, with the alternative of 90 days in the workhouse. Having no money, they were compelled to go to the workhouse.
 When Gurrino, accompanied by his valet, reached the police station on the hunt for Murillo at the hearing said he was independently wealthy, but as he showed no money the officers set it down as a "pipe dream." Gurrino, however, corroborated the story. He said that Murillo's father was for years one of the leading importers of Italian goods in New York, and did business at 27 Mulberry street. At his death, five years ago, he left Jerome an income of $60,000 a year, and the principal from which the income was derived when he reformed. Jerome is the only son, but he has five sisters, who are equally wealthy.
 The woman who claimed to be his wife has never been heard of by the rest of the family. She is still in the workhouse.
 Murillo left home a few days before his arrival here, saying he was going west to "rough it" for awhile. He was plentifully supplied with money. When he walked out of the workhouse he showed the effect of his confinement, and was manifestly grateful for his deliverance.

COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE.

OAK GROVE.

Miss Annie Almstead, of Lincoln county, is spending a few days in the neighborhood visiting old friends and is at present the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones.

Mr. Colie Nice, of Albany, has quite a force of men at work setting poles to be used in trellising his 50 acre hop yard on the Antone Luter place, near Albany.

Lee Brown, who put out a 60 acre hop yard last spring; planted the same to potatoes and now has two teams engaged hauling his spuds to Albany, where he is getting the top price. Potatoes are a very good thing to have this year as prices are good.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson left Saturday for Turner, where they will visit over Sunday with Dave Morris and family.

There will be a social given in the Orange hall in Fairmont, Friday, November 10. All are cordially invited to be present for a good time is expected.

Henry Ridders, of Wells, delivered to the Albany stock yard Monday, a nice lot of fat hogs for the Portland market. Henry is in the hog business to some extent. He still has on hand 160 head which he intends to market later.

Barney Hecker, who was through through this part Tuesday rounding up a carload of sheep, to be shipped to Portland buyers, reports sheep rather scarce and hard to get.

Annual Reception.

In accordance with the long established precedent the members of Cauthon Hall Club gave their annual reception by entertaining the ladies of OAC, at the dormitory last Friday evening. This is one of the principal social events of the first term, hence the boys spent no little time in preparation for the occasion. Their efforts were certainly rewarded. By those who were in attendance the reception was pronounced one of the most successful ever given by the club.
 The huge diningroom was tastily arrayed in autumn decorations. Arches of Oregon grape, stringers of maple leaves and branches of rosebuds adorned the big room, which when illuminated by the soft light of the Chinese lanterns, took on the appearance of a palatial hall. At 8:30 the guests were all seated and the following program was rendered:
 Opening address by Pres. J. S. Ringo; Vocal solo by Prof. W. T. Shaw; Trumpet solo, H. L. Beard; Paper, "The Annual Message," R. R. Solleck; Piano solo, Miss Inez Colvig; Bazaar solo, Prof. Von Heigelstein.
 The program was very entertaining, every number being exceptionally well rendered and highly appreciated. Pres Ringo gave a few remarks relating to the social side of such occasions and the part they have in the making of an education. The solos were of a high order. H. L. Beard responding to an encore. The paper was filled with accounts of some of the amusing incidents that occur at the hall. In addition to being comical, it was entertaining throughout.
 After the program the party spent some time in guessing the names of a number of cartoons that were found on the wall around the room. These cartoons were modeled after the likeness of various members of the club with an inscription on same saying that which is characteristic of that person written across the sheet. This proved to be a very amusing pastime. Miss Minnette Phillips won first prize and M. B. Beldon second.
 After an hour of conversation and enjoyment the refreshment committee came forward with a well prepared lunch which was enjoyed by all. As the lights dimmed the merry party filed out of the dormitory, all being highly pleased with the evening spent.

LOVE IS ENFORCED.

LAW OF FRANCE WILL ORDER HAPPY MARRIAGES.

The Revision of the Napoleonic Code Will Contain Most Explicit Instructions to That End.

Paris.—Love is henceforth to be legally recognized in French marriages! That is one of the great reforms determined on by the committee now revising the Napoleonic code. Hitherto the French marriage law had not acknowledged the existence of love in wedlock.

Perhaps that explains many plots of plays and novels. But these in a few weeks' time will be hopelessly out of date. In future French husbands and wives will be legally bound to love one another, which is not the case at present, and, as there is no country where the public has so great a respect for law as France, happy marriages are soon to be the rule.

Art. 212, chap. 6, sec. 5, book 1, of the civil code says: "Husband and wife owe to one another mutual faithfulness, help, assistance." The next article adds: "The husband owes to his wife protection, the wife owes obedience to her husband." But affection finds no place in the code, which affords no counterpart to the "love, honor and obey" of the religious marriage service.

A particularly enlightened commission, however, is now revising the Napoleonic code. In spite of the protests of aghast lawyers, such rank outsiders who know naught of law, but only know life, as MM. Paul Hervieu and Marcel Prevost, were appointed among the commissioners.

The former, M. Hervieu, is the brave man who has ventured to introduce the word "love" into the law. He defended his motion with some heat and carried the day. The commission decided that article 212, aforesaid, shall read: "Husband and wife owe to one another mutual love, faithfulness, help and assistance."

Thus the law will now actually lay it down that the first duty of man and wife is to love one another. This revolutionary committee of reformers has further brought its ax down on the following article (213), half of the text of which, given above, has been clean cut away, which is to run: "The husband owes protection to his wife. The rights of husband and wife are equal." This is tantamount to deleting the obnoxious "obey" from the lady's promise—a tremendous triumph for her.

JAGUAR HOLDS UP TRAINS.

Escaped Circus Animal in Colorado Tunnel Raises a Disturbance.
 Colorado Springs, Col.—More than 2,000 persons and four passenger trains on the Colorado Midland railroad were held up to-day at tunnel No. 6, two miles west of Manitou, by a fierce South American jaguar. Before he was captured the animal clawed Joseph Bennett, of this city, cutting a severe gash across the right leg. Miss Delmont, a passenger, became frightened and in trying to scale a high cliff fell 20 feet, breaking her left leg.
 The jaguar and a polar bear occupied compartments in a large cage on a flat car of the train belonging to a circus. The cage was too high to enter the mouth of the tunnel and it was torn off. The keeper threw on the air brakes, stopping the train. He threw rocks at the bear and fired blank cartridges at the jaguar to keep them from escaping.
 The animal crawled under the car and during the efforts to drive it into another cage Bennett received his injuries. The animal was finally driven into a small cage, but before the door could be closed the train started and the jaguar again leaped for liberty.
 It dashed through the tunnel, but on emerging at the other end found itself in a narrow cut. After some effort the animal was again captured and placed in his cage.

WED AT PIKE'S PEAK.

Daughter of Indiana Judge Runs Away to Marry a Full-Blooded Armenian.
 Denver, Col.—A pretty romance reached its climax at Manitou the other evening when Miss Emma C. Bender, daughter of Federal Judge Bender, of Indianapolis, became the bride of Salem Wahbe El Kafoury, a wealthy Armenian importer of San Francisco. The ceremony was performed in the Iron Springs hotel, at the foot of Pike's peak, by Rev. J. W. Nectley, of the First Congregational church, Manitou.
 Kafoury is a full-blooded Armenian and typical of his race. He is about 40 years old. His bride is a beautiful blonde of scarcely 24 summers. The wedding took place in Colorado because Judge Bender was opposed to his daughter marrying the Armenian, and forbade him to come to the Bender home in Indianapolis.
 Miss Bender recently completed an eight-years' course in an eastern convent. How and when she first met Kafoury is not known, but it is said that the bride ran away from home in the Hoosier state to be married.
 She confided in a sister who sympathized with her and assisted in a bold plan of an elopement. Mr. and Mrs. Kafoury will make their home in San Francisco.

Additional interest would attach to the sporting pages if records were printed daily of the work done by college athletes in the Kansas wheat fields.
