

Selected Team.

The local tryout for the selection of debaters to represent the college in inter-collegiate debating took place before a large audience in the college chapel Friday evening.

The question discussed was, "Resolved, That the Federal Government Should Own and Control the Railroads of the United States." The affirmative was upheld by Maud Graves, of the Utopian Society; Minnette Philips, of the Pierian Society; W. E. Forsythe, Amicitian; and M. B. Beldon, Zetaphatheans.

The three selected to compose the team were: W. E. Forsythe, Minnette Philips and M. V. Weatherford.

This will be the first team to represent OAC in inter-collegiate debating. A date has been se-

OAC Stands for Clean and Square Athletics.

About four coach loads of our people pulled out on a special train Saturday morning for Portland to witness the last game of the season in which OAC would be a factor.

Between 2,000 and 3,000 people witnessed the game so far as it went. We regret to report the game as it was—regret, not on account of the action of our boys in quitting the field in the second half, but to publish to our readers the undeniable truth that a little ring seems to dominate Multnomah Club and this ring was determined to win by fair means or foul.

In the first half OAC made a touchdown which made her five points—she failed to kick goal. Multnomah also made a touchdown in this half and kicked goal, making her six points.

Coach Steckle, commenting on the matter, did not have anything harsh to say of the officials but did say that OAC had practically no voice in selecting men to officiate, and one after another well-known men whom our boys suggested as officials were refused by Multnomah.

It is to be hoped that the effect of OAC's action Saturday will be to teach Multnomah that she must play fair ball. We are told that certain members of the "Winged M" have declared never again to play with OAC. Again we rejoice. OAC nor any other college have any business playing with Multnomah, as they can never hope to win by fair means. Time and again our boys have been given the worst of it by the club.

If the other schools of the northwest refuse to play Multnomah she can try her hand at first and second team games and see how much money she will get as gate receipts and how interesting it will be to the public.
