

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Dr. Farra was a Portland visitor the first of this week.

Horace Locke was over from Albany a few hours Tuesday.

Charley Small went to Portland a couple of days ago for the purpose of hiring a first-class baker.

Eli Spencer and family departed Wednesday for Chehalis, Wash., where they expect to pass the coming summer.

Mrs. Howard Bates and child are here from Portland, the guest of Mrs. Bates' uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Miller.

Miss Ethel Frizzell, who for several days was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Headrick, departed Tuesday for her home in Salem.

The Baptist church pulpit will be occupied by Rev. M. Noble on Sunday morning. Subject, "Our Heavenly Father." All affectionately invited.

J. J. Cady, of the firm of Hollenberg & Cady, this city, went over to Lincoln county, Wednesday, on business that he expected to detain him until tomorrow.

Mrs. John Day, who has been seriously ill in Forest Grove with typhoid fever, is reported to be getting along nicely at present and it is thought that she is out of danger.

Mrs. E. M. Simpson arrived home Tuesday from a visit of a month or two with relatives and friends in California. Mr. Simpson went over to Albany to meet her.

A. W. Bowersox was over from Albany, Tuesday, on business. As Bert was formerly a resident of Corvallis he is pretty much at home when he gets on this side of the creek.

Services at the M. E. church, South, Sunday morning at eleven and evening at 7:30. Subject of morning sermon, "The Joy of Christ." Evening, "Spiritual Thrift." J. A. Ellison pastor.

E. A. Morgan, of this city, departed Wednesday for Battle Creek, Mich., where he will likely remain for a month or longer. His visit was occasioned by the serious illness of his mother, whom he had not seen for a long time.

Willis S. Duniway, of Portland, has been for years an ardent republican worker. In two campaigns he was secretary of the State Central Committee. He will be a strong candidate for State Printer, for he will have no record of extravagance for republicans to defend.

Tuesday, E. H. Belknap filed anew his petition for nomination at the hands of the republicans of Benton for the office of state senator. In the later filing he subscribes to Statement No. 1 as first intended, but through oversight omitted.

The Hambletonians and the Rough Necks met in a contest at which Tuesday evening at the abode of W. G. Emery, it being that gentleman's pleasure to entertain on this occasion. It was a memorable evening for the players and they enjoyed a fine "spread" in true Bohemian style.

To reckon on the motives of certain people for cussedness is a hard task. What earthly good it can do any person to wantonly destroy the property created by another's labor is beyond us. And yet in the matter of destroying flowers and hedges complaint is common. Just a few evenings ago some party broke off and pulled up the greater portion of the product of a fine bed of hyacinths—just for meanness.

We are informed that there is to be a very fine concert given in Monroe on Friday, April 6 (today). The Eugene band of twenty pieces will be the attraction and after the concert there is to be a grand ball, the music for which will be furnished by the Eugene orchestra. Beyond doubt there will be a fine time in Monroe today and if any of our people wish an outing attended by real enjoyment we suggest that they investigate the hospitality of Monroe people.

W. H. Savage, of Corvallis, in charge of the dairy farm of M. S. Woodcock, was in the city yesterday, having brought over a fine Jersey bull for shipment to Grant's Pass. The animal came from the Woodcock stock farm and was consigned to H. M. Gorham & Son of Grant's Pass. Mr. Savage was for years in charge of the dairy farm connected with the state insane asylum at Salem and last year was in charge of the Marion county exhibit at the exposition. When he returned from the fair Mr. Savage had an offer from his brother-in-law, Mr. Woodcock, at Corvallis and decided to remove there. He is well pleased with his new location and is prosperous.—Albany Herald.

Miss Pauline Kline returned Wednesday from a visit in Portland.

Sam Sutton left a few days ago for Seaton where he has employment.

Miss Inez Colvig, of OAC, departed Wednesday for her home in Southern Oregon.

Mrs. Susan Starr has arrived from Ballston and is visiting relatives at Bellfountain.

The commissioner's court was in session Wednesday, auditing bills and transacting other business.

Mrs. Tim Dowling and children are visiting relatives at Bellefontaine for a week. They left Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary Ingram and daughter, Miss Ethel, returned to their home at Monroe Tuesday, after a brief visit with Corvallis relatives.

Miles Starr, Jr., is now at Hood River, from which place he writes that he has employment and states that there is much snow there now.

A. W. Fischer has received word to the effect that the Fischer Flouring Mills at Silverton have won out in the supreme court in their suit against the railroad at Silverton.

Jones, the merry-go-round man, is in town again and we understand that he is soon to set up his machine, thoroughly overhaul and paint it and then give the youngsters a ride.

J. F. Tyler is having a new residence erected on lots adjoining the Judge Watters property in the northern part of town. Work began yesterday and Charles Heckart is the workman.

Stanley Herbert arrived in Corvallis Tuesday from California, and will spend a month in this city with his parents. Stanley is a former OAC boy, and has many friends here who are glad to welcome him home.

Wednesday evening the petition of George W. Smith for republican nomination at the coming primary election for the office of county commissioner was filed. Mr. Smith is a well known man of business and will receive hearty support beyond doubt.

The Lafferty building on the east side of Main street and next to the Elgin harness shop, is being remodeled and fitted up into two desirable rooms. One of these is to be occupied, when completed, by the Jess Spencer barber shop. The other is not yet leased.

Small fruit, according to a local grower, is not injured by the cold snap of a few weeks ago, as has been widely reported. In the opinion of this fruit grower there was never a better prospect for a splendid yield in this section than that of today, unless future damage should be done the buds by the frost, which is not likely to occur.

Mrs. Eva Council, of Waldport, was severely burned on the lower limbs, Wednesday, but whether the injury will prove fatal was not learned. The lady resides at Waldport, and was engaged in burning rubbish in the yard when her clothing became ignited and before help could be had she had been seriously injured by the flames. The advice of a local physician was sought by telephone.

A town band was organized Wednesday, and Saturday evening at 7:30 a concert will be given on Main street. The instrumentation is as follows: Cornets, Wilkins, Adams; altos, Reed McGinnis; basses, Hudson, Iogle; clarinets, Harlan, Caldwell; trombone, Collie Cathey; saxophone, Lumm; drums, Bouquet, Van Cleve; baritone, Willis.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Laughlin arrived in Corvallis during the first of the week and are the guests of the latter's father, H. H. Cronise. The visitors are now residing in La Grande, Eastern Oregon. Many will remember Mrs. Laughlin who when known as Miss Mable Cronise she was recognized as one of the sweet singers of Corvallis.

Horace Lilly is still in charge of the R. M. Wade hardware store in this city. William Currin was to have been here to assume the management last week, but on Sunday word was received that he was seriously ill at his home in McMinnville, and Mrs. Currin, who was visiting in Corvallis, left on the next train for home. At last accounts Mr. Currin was improving.

J. R. Whitney, present state printer and a candidate for republican nomination for the office, visited Corvallis, Wednesday, in the interest of his candidacy. This was the first visit made to Corvallis by Mr. Whitney and from here he passed on toward Portland over the West Side. As Mr. Whitney was for so many years connected with the Albany Herald it is but natural that he should have many personal friends in Benton.

Dr. Thompson Resigned.

After five years faithful service, Dr. E. J. Thompson has resigned as pastor of the Presbyterian church of Independence. In consideration of his age and rather frail health, the elders have accepted the resignation.

While Dr. Thompson does not contemplate taking up work of a pastorate again, he will continue in the ministerial work, supplying churches as his health will permit.

During Dr. Thompson's pastoral charge, there have been 90 accessions to the church. The church is left with a membership of 125 and is in a healthy condition generally. The church is out of debt with a few dollars in the building fund. The Ladies' Aid Society has a fund of $150 ahead. The Home Missions contributions the past year were larger than ever before and the Sunday school is flourishing.

Dr. E. J. Thompson is 70 years old and his health has not been good the past winter. He was born in Ohio and educated at Middlebury College, New England. He also attended the Polytechnic Institute of New York. For 18 years he held a professorship in the University of Minnesota. He has been in the Presbyterian ministry 35 years. He preached in Salem from '83 to '86; at Corvallis from '86 to 1901 and since the latter date has been the pastor at Independence.

Dr. Thompson took part in the organization of the seven Minneapolis churches. He is popular among the young people and probably holds the record for Oregon in the number of marriage ceremonies performed. To date Dr. Thompson has united 1283 couples.—West Side Enterprise.

Dr. Thompson is deservedly popular in this city where he served so many years and so ably filled the pulpit of the Presbyterian church. There are many sincere friends in this city who devoutly hope that his declining years may be fruitful of naught save perfect contentment and the best that earth can afford.

The Original Dixie Jubilee Singers.

An entertainment of unusual merit is to be given at the Opera House on next Thursday night, April 12, when the Original Dixie Jubilee Singers will appear in a program of negro melodies and classic selections. This company has a national reputation, and they never fail to please wherever they appear. They sing those old negro melodies, plantation and jubilee songs which we all love.

Dr. Perry, pastor of M. E. church, Whitewater, Wis., says of them: "The Original Dixie Jubilee Singers gave a delightful concert in our church. They have splendid voices, of rare compass, beautiful expression and pleasing effect. In their southern melodies they are especially fine." The prices are only 25, 35 and 50 cents; reserved seats on sale at the usual place.

Will Carry Coos County.

The Myrtle Point Enterprise has this to say:

"The Enterprise said last week that 'Hawley will carry this community almost solidly.' G. N. Farrin of Marshfield, writing to the Coast Mail, says this statement is entirely erroneous. Mr. Farrin must have misunderstood us, for what does he know about the strength of the various candidates in this precinct? Anyhow, we are going to give him credit for thinking that we had reference to the county, when we referred simply to this end of it. If Mr. Farrin thinks Hawley won't carry this precinct solidly he will have his eyes opened April 20. We haven't heard of a single Toozee supporter in this precinct and are informed by those who know that Hawley will get a big vote at Coquille and Bandon and not a few at Marshfield. He will carry the county."

W. H. Lyon, representing a Seattle firm, has been transacting business in Corvallis all the past week.

Wednesday afternoon the bondsmen of Merwin McMains in the local court cases now pending in the courts surrendered him to the sheriff in whose custody he now remains.
