STREET CAR CONDUCTOR.

Written by One of Them Who Has Seen Through the Mill.

Whenever you want to get off at Fifteenth and Harney, sit in the corner, hump up and look wise till you reach Eighteenth, and then jump up and tell the "con" what you think of him for not reading your mind properly and in season. If you have any coin with a hole in it or otherwise off color, do your best to pass it off on the conductor for he draws a princely salary and won't mind it when the company turns down about 30 cents a day on him. When you want transfers, don't say so till you get off the car and then abuse the "con" because he hasn't them ready for you; you've got a right to cuss him, for the chances are you are the only one in town that rides on his car and the company will promptly discharge him if he dares to "talk back" to you.

Stick your feet across the aisle, and when the "con" falls over them tell him he's a big stiff. Don't get on the car unless you have at least half a freight car load of big bundles in your arms. Put them all on the seat, because the public is used to standing and won't mind it; and if the "con" says anything pull a gun on him and teach him to respect you. Then, if you can manage to make the "con" think you gave him a dollar instead of a muddy nickel with a hole in it, maybe you can cause him to dig up 95 cents, and if he refuses, report him as trying to rob you in broad daylight. If the car runs slow pull out your watch, scowl and cuss the "con;" of course he is running the car. And if the car runs fast, look murderous at the "con" and remark that it is no wonder that there are so many accidents, considering how many numskulls the street car company keeps on its pay roll.

Then, if you are a woman and want down at the next corner, signal the "con" before you get half way down the block; then after the car stops, tell all your friends aboard goodbye, take your time about it, and then occupy five minutes getting off the car; and if the "con" thinks you are down and gives the motorman two bells, jump back and say, "Why, my goodness, what do you mean?"

Lay your umbrella so that it sticks across the car, and when the "con" or somebody else falls over it, cuss the "con" in sweet feminine tones and sue the company next day. And try and take nineteen children, two parrots and a canary bird with you in your trip across the town, for the chances are you won't see more than seventy-five other women aboard the same car with you, and if the car is crowded look daggers at the "con." Then when you transfer at Eighteenth and Dodge stop, run back and kiss a couple of friends goodbye on the car you are leaving, and, if the "con" who has been holding his car five minutes gets tired and leaves you, paw the air and run right down and see the superintendent and tell him how you have been treated.

It is an awful state of things.—Former Trolley Conductor.

Of the three candidates on the republican ticket for the nomination of congressman, S. B. Huston, stands out as the best fitted, the best suited and most practical one. He is a man of wide business experience, one of the ablest men in this state, and his character has not a mar on it. By his frugality, his industry, his honesty, his sterling character, he has won the confidence, good will and esteem of all men who know him. His work has been out in the world mixing with his fellow citizens, and doing part of the state's work, helping to build up within the borders of our beloved Oregon, a strong and powerful state. He knows through this experience in the practical affairs of men, exactly what our people want and what this great state needs to increase the happiness, prosperity and usefulness of each citizen and this common wealth.

He stands out today as the champion of the people's rights in the great "Maximum Rate Law War" which President Roosevelt is striving for in congress. He has no hesitancy in stating his position to the people.

He has the courage of his convictions to say to the people of his district, "I am in favor of a law to prohibit public officials from traveling on railroad passes. I am also opposed to this method of bribing public officials and during this entire campaign I have paid for every mile over which I have traveled." Republicans, he is not riding on a railroad pass when he comes to see you. Republicans, are you in favor of the "Rate" bill? Then vote for S. B. Huston. Republicans, are you opposed to a candidate for congress and finally the congressman himself riding on a railroad pass? Then vote for S. B. Huston.

REPUBLICAN.

A Rousing Meeting Coming.

A parents', teachers' and school officers' meeting is to be held at Philomath on Saturday of this week. It will begin at 10 a. m. and will be under the direction of Philomath College. Several districts will participate in the musical and literary program that will be rendered, and also in the basket dinner which will be served at noon. A large attendance and an enthusiastic crowd is expected to be present as the invitation is general, and all parents, teachers, and school patrons are urged to attend.

The program in full will be as follows: Singing led by Charles Jones, editor of the Oregon Teachers' Monthly; address, Sup't. J. H. Ackerman; singing quartette; "Higher Education in Rural Schools," B. F. Totten; singing, quartette; "The Public School Teacher and Communicable Diseases," Dr. C. R. Yenny; singing; address, Pres. E. D. Ressler, President of the State Normal; quartette; address, Sup't. J. H. Ackerman.

A Delightful Affair.

A social event that is reported as one of the most pleasant of the present season was an "afternoon" given Thursday by Mrs. Horner, at Alpha hall, in honor of Miss Ryth Gatch, of Salem. The hours were from 2:30 to 5:30, and the guests included all the college girls, and the wives of the members of the faculty together with the lady members of the faculty. The rooms were prettily decorated with potted plants, and light refreshments were served. Miss Belle Bonney presided in the dining room, and her assistants were Miss Emma Crabill, Miss Elvera Allen, Miss Nina Wall and Miss Gertie Davidson.

The reception committee was Mrs. Floyd Williams, Miss Flora Allen and Miss Alice Edwards. Mrs. Horner is at all times an admirable hostess, and she fully sustained her reputation on this occasion.

The seats in the Opera House for Mr. Frederick Wards' engagement will be arranged so as to not be as close together as they usually are. This is done at the expense of the seating capacity, but for the convenience and comfort of the patrons last Friday evening.

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS.

And Fifty Years Residents of Benton County.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Buchanan, for fifty years respected residents of Benton county, celebrated their golden wedding, at their home in this city, Saturday.

Mr. Buchanan came from England to America in '49 going to California where he participated in the big gold excitements of that day. In 1852 he came to Oregon and while in this section purchased the ranch ten miles south of Corvallis that has ever since been the family home. Upon his return to England Mr. Buchanan was married April 7, 1856, to Miss Jane Galbraith and together they came back to Benton county to make their home.

Of the living children only one was absent at Saturday's celebration. That one is Andrew Buchanan, who resides in New York city. The other children present were: Mrs. Wm. Currin, Corvallis; Mrs. Henry Veatch, Cottage Grove; Miss Mary Buchanan and William A., Arthur and John Buchanan. Wm. Currin, Henry Veatch and Mrs. Arthur Buchanan were also present, besides two grandchildren, Margaret Currin and Raymond Veatch.

Their many friends unite in wishing for Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan many more years of happy married life, each anniversary being more "golden" than that celebrated Saturday.

Arthur Buchanan now occupies the home place south of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan having moved to Corvallis this spring.

To Meet Tomorrow.

The Presbyterian Society of the Willamette Presbtery is to meet in McMinnville tomorrow, the opening session to begin at 9:30. The indications are that an excellent meeting will be held, many able speakers appearing on the program. Among the Corvallis people who will participate are Mrs. J. B. Horner, president of the Presbyterian Society, Rev. M. S. Bush, who is to conduct the opening exercises Wednesday evening, Mrs. Bush, Mrs. J. H. Harris and Capt. and Mrs. J. W. Crawford. These left today to be present at the first session tomorrow. They will return Thursday. Among other familiar names on the program for this meeting is that of Mrs. Andrew Carrick, of Brownsville, formerly of this city. Mrs. W. P. Lafferty is also a vice president of the society, but will not be present.

Has Right to Expect It.

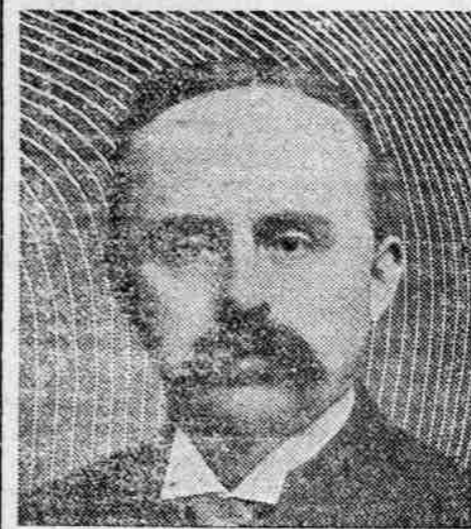

In asking re-nomination to the office which he now fills Attorney-General A. M. Crawford is doing that which will undoubtedly meet with the favor to republicans. To re-elect to a second term a man who has been a good officer is esteemed an endorsement worthy working for and this is what Mr. Crawford is seeking. During the four years that he has filled the office of Attorney-General of Oregon Mr. Crawford has paid strict attention to all matters claiming his attention. His record is such that he has a right to hope for re-election.

A Jolly Party.

Miss Winnifred Ewart, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Cathey for some weeks, left Saturday for her home in Portland. In her honor a party was given by her host and hostess Friday evening, which was one of the most unique and delightful events of the season. There was a "bear hunt" that proved highly exciting, and "picture building" for entertainment, both of which created much merriment among the guests. An elaborate luncheon was served at a late hour.

The guests were: Misses Winnifred Ewart, Frances Belknap, Mary and Bessie Danneman, Bertha Davis, Nellie Marvin, Lulu Spangler, and Marie Cathey; Mrs. Roy Woodcock, Mrs. Howard Bates, of Portland, and Mrs. Cecil Cathey; Messrs. Ralph Pruett, Elmer Wills, Tom Nolan, George Cathey, Arthur Belknap, Collie Cathey, Roy and Harold Woodcock, A. J. Rich, Victor Simpson, of Albany and Cecil Cathey.

WILLIS S. DUNIWAY
Candidate For State Printer

At Republican Primary, April 20, 1906

"The State Printer should avoid unnecessary expenditures and give a square deal to taxpayers. Political manipulators have no business to engage in exploiting the office and no right to a division of its emoluments. I pledge an economical, business-like administration."—Willis S. Duniway.

"Mr. Duniway is a brainy man, a broad man, an upright man, a clean man."—Salem Statesman.

E. V. CARTER;
Candidate for the Republican Nomination for STATE TREASURER.

How to reduce your taxes Mr. Carter says:

I am not the candidate of any clique, faction, organization or society. Eastern Oregon, Multnomah County and the northern section of the state have many candidates for U. S. Senator and for the other state and district offices—and it is a reasonable claim that Southern Oregon is entitled to this place on the ticket.

Oregon has never received any of this interest paid on its money and if elected State Treasurer, I will pay over to the state every dollar of interest earned on its funds whether a law be passed requiring me to do so or not. This will result in a saving to the taxpayers of this state of from $15,000 to $20,000 per annum.

Good Judgement.

Is the essential characteristic of men and woman. Invaluable to good business men and necessary to housewives. A woman shows good judgement when she buys White's Cream Vermifuge for her baby. The best worm medicine ever offered to mothers. Many indeed are the sensible mothers, who write their gratitude for the good health of their children, which they owe to the use of White's Cream Vermifuge. Sold by Graham & Wortham.

JEWELRY

THERE IS A GIRL IN THE CASE. Perhaps it's your intended, or maybe a daughter. Either way if the watch is one I sold it's a good one.

WATCHES

that keep correct time are the kind I deal in. It makes no difference if the time-piece I sell you is a silver-cased one or a jewelled gold-cased chronometer; they both bear my warrantee. I sell at a low margin and that increases my sales. My goods and prices are both satisfactory.
