

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The street sprinkler begun operations Friday. Prof. Watkins and family, of Philomath, were Corvallis guests Friday. Edwin Everett, who was operated on recently for appendicitis, is rapidly recovering. Sam Moses, of Philomath, is in Corvallis assisting at Moses Bros. store during the sale. Rev. P. A. Moses was expected home last night from a several days' visit in Junction City. Mr. and Mrs. Barr, of Colorado, were the guests of their niece, Mrs. W. H. Kaupisch, the last of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold King spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hecker, of Wells. The Pelland family moved the last of the week into the house recently vacated by Harry Buxton, near the Garret Long residence. Orville Whiteaker, aged about 20 years, while spraying trees on his father's place south of Corvallis, Wednesday, fell and fractured a bone in one of his wrists. The Charles Everett house has been leased and is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. White, who recently came to this city from Salem. Mr. White is engaged in the Plaster barber shop. William Curran arrived from McMinnville Monday to take charge of the R. M. Wade hardware store. Horace Lilly will go to McMinnville as head clerk in the establishment there. W. D. DeVarney was taken suddenly ill upon his arrival in Albany last Friday, from Portland, and was confined to his bed. Later reports of his condition were not received by the Gazette. There will be no merry-go-round in Corvallis this Spring. Mr. Jones decided that the license in this city, $10 a day or $50 a quarter, was too high to allow him to make a profit in the business, and Saturday he departed with his swing for Albany. The people throughout the state have come to the conclusion that state funds paid into the treasury from any one county, should be held on deposit in that county and not hoarded in the great money centers. This is the policy adopted by Ralph W. Hoyt. There was a big parents' and teachers' meeting at Bellefontaine, Saturday, and a number of Corvallis office-seekers were in attendance. Among those present were T. T. Vincent, J. B. Irvine and S. H. Horton. The meeting was very successful and well attended. The purchase of the adding machine that has been on trial at the court house was a matter considered by the county court of Benton last week. The machine is valued at $375, and is of great assistance in the various offices where much figure work is to be done. No action was taken by the court in regard to the matter. A dozen pupils of the Corvallis Business College drove to Albany Friday, and joined in class recitations with the students of the Eclectic University that afternoon. In the evening, from 7:30 to 11, they were entertained at W. O. Walsh's, a program and banquet being the features. A highly enjoyable time is reported by those who went. Invitations have just been received by friends in Corvallis, to the wedding of Logan Hays and Miss Lena Mae Nemyre to occur at the bride's home on North 16th, street, Portland, at 8:30 Saturday evening, April 21st. Mr. Hays was for over a dozen years the popular Western Union agent in this city, where a host of friends join in congratulations in advance. The Knight of Pythias are to have charge of Frederick Warde's Portland engagement, however on Monday night he will be entertained by the Elks Lodge. On this occasion Governor Chamberlain on behalf of the Elks in Portland, will present Mr. Warde with a handsome stein, especially made for the presentation. Arrangements have been made for 1000 Elks to be present. Student Jeffrey Tiffany, who was operated on some weeks ago for appendicitis, and who had apparently recovered and was able to be about, was taken violently ill again, Thursday, and Friday another operation was performed. In the first operation only the pus cavity was opened up, which usually gives satisfactory results in such cases; but in Friday's operation it was necessary to remove the appendix. The young man was in a serious condition at last reports. His home is in Portland.

Miss Emma Crawford was a Salem visitor Saturday. Mrs. A. Sutherland left Saturday for her home in Shedd. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Garrow spent Sunday with relatives in Salem. Mrs. Jennie Greer is confined to her home with an attack of sciatica. Miss Minnette Phillips is the guest for a few days of Miss Verona Espey, at McMinnville. She left Friday. Horace Brodie, formerly of OAC, who has been seriously ill at his home at Lents, is now on the road to recovery. Henry Veatch, of Cottage Grove, arrived in Corvallis Friday night on a few days' business visit. Mrs. Jesse Wiley entertained a number of friends at a hot tomale dinner, Friday evening. The affair was very enjoyable. J. Nowak, of McMinnville, who has been a guest at the Flint home for several days, left Sunday for Los Angeles, California. Mrs. Chester Proebstel has just returned from Portland, where she has been taking lessons in dramatic art under Miss Rose Eyttinge. Miss Lela Kelsay, a popular sophomore at OAC, has been summoned to her home at Hood River by the serious illness of her father. P. L. McKenney and family have arrived from New York and are to locate in this city. Mr. McKenney's mother and sister reside in Wilkins' addition. Miss Bertha Thorp, of Independence, arrived Sunday for a few days' visit with her cousin, Mrs. Henry Stone, and her sister, Miss Maud Thorp. The indications are that the Opera House next Friday evening will house the largest, most intellectual and best dressed audience in its history. A cablegram from Floyd Williams has been received by his wife, requesting her to join him in the Philippines at once. It is stated that she will start in a few days. There has been a change of time for the military drill at OAC, from 8 a. m. to the noon hour, and chapel is now held at 11:20 instead of 8:50. The new schedule went into effect Thursday. There was a social at the Presbyterian church Thursday evening, enjoyed by members of the congregation. Light refreshments were served and a good time enjoyed by all. Things are busy in the sewing and dressmaking department at the college. Eighteen new sewing chairs and two more machines have just been added, the class being much larger than ever before. Thursday night at Philomath a college medal contest was held, and a number of Corvallis people drove over to attend. Miss Mary Sutherland and John Withycombe, of OAC, and Prof. Baldwin, of Philomath, were the judges and the prize was awarded to Miss Bessie Fugh. Those who went from Corvallis were: Misses Mary Sutherland, Juanita Rosendorf, Pauline Davis, Emma Crabill, John Withycombe and Mr. Eiler. The last issue of the "Pacific Searchlight" is called the Benton county edition, and is indeed a fine one. It contains views of the college buildings and excellent half-tones of several Corvallis people, among whom are Judge Watters, District Attorney Bryson, J. D. Wells and others. There are also views of Philomath buildings and other points in Benton, that render the edition one of unusual worth to local readers. The largest hornets' nest probably ever seen in Corvallis is at Ambler & Watter's real estate office. It was brought in from his ranch by Mr. DeHaven Saturday. The nest is nearly round, and was built on the limb of an apple tree. Two apples, solid and without a blemish, protrude from the surface of the nest, and it is possible that other apples are inside it. A measurement of the object shows the circumference to be 39 inches. The county court which was in session last Wednesday and Thursday, adjourned Thursday afternoon to convene again on Saturday, April 21st. In the meantime the matter of purchasing a county poor farm will be under consideration by the court, this having been recommended by the grand jury last week. It is stated that the property must be within five miles of Corvallis, and may comprise any where from 20 to 160 acres. What action will be taken is of course not known but it will be awaited with general interest by the public. The greatest actor that ever visited Corvallis in any capacity is Mr. Frederick Warde.

A ROUSING MEETING

At Bellefontaine Saturday—Speeches and Good Time. The parents' meeting in the grange hall at Bellefontaine, Saturday was the most largely attended of any held for a long time in Benton. The session began at 10:30 with singing by the audience, followed by a splendid address on, "What Should the School Expect from the Home?" by L. N. Edwards. M. M. Waltz gave an equally good talk on "What Should the Home Expect from the School?" "The Old and the New" was discussed by J. B. Irvine, and Hon. E. H. Belknap spoke on "Education; Its Value to Individual and State." T. T. Vincent gave a fine address on "The Making of a Good Citizen," and Supt. Denman had as his subject, "The Past, Present and Future of the Public School." There were excellent recitations by Miss Stella Myers and Miss Watkins; song, Harry and Florence Dowling recitation, Lester Ingram, essay, Clyde Starr; recitation, Carl Hawley, song Ione Bennett, and various class exercises. The basket dinner at noon was an enjoyable feature, to which all paid due attention. Taken altogether, the meeting was one of the most successful held for a long time. Many candidates took advantage of the gathering and were in attendance. The Original Dixie Jubilee Singers. An entertainment of unusual merit is to be given at the Opera House next Thursday night, April 12, when the Original Dixie Jubilee Singers will appear in a program of negro melodies and classic selections. This company has a national reputation, and they never fail to please wherever they appear. They sing those old negro melodies, plantation and jubilee songs which we all love. Dr. Perry, pastor of M. E. church, Whitewater, Wis., says of them: "The Original Jubilee Singers gave a delightful concert in our church. They have splendid voices, of rare compass, beautiful expression and pleasing effect. In their Southern melodies they are especially fine." The prices are only 25, 35 and 50 cents; reserved seats on sale at the usual place. Additional Local. The Early Life and Manhood of Abraham Lincoln is soon to start in serial form in the Gazette. Here is something of unusual merit offered. If not now a subscriber you had better get your name on the list at once—you'll never regret it. 26 tf. Mrs. H. W. Kaupisch and Miss Mary Nolan figured in a runaway Friday evening. While driving near the dock on Water street the horse became unmanageable and dashed up the street west between Horning's grocery and the Graham and Wells pharmacy. With unusual presence of mind the ladies did no screaming but clung to the lines, and kept the animal in the middle of the road. Near the Horning store Frank Winnifred, an OAC cross-country runner, sprang to the rescue and running beside the horse managed to grasp the reins and stop the excited beast near the J. R. Smith residence. Save the fright, the occupants were uninjured. Let's go fishing—At Hodes' Gun Store. Biggest and most complete line of fishing tackle in town. All kinds of repair work guaranteed. 28tf. The old W. B. Carter building, at one time as pretty a home as was in Corvallis, was moved Friday and Saturday by Charles Blakeslee from its old position on Third and Jefferson streets to a position facing the west and almost opposite the the Ingle residence on Third street. Marshal Miller owns the property, and later he is to build onto the house and fit it up for a comfortable dwelling. Mrs. M. L. Peters left Saturday for Omaha, Nebraska, to join her husband. Engraved calling cards per 100, $3.00 and up. Morgan, The Printer, Corvallis. 29tf. Mr. Frederick Warde, the eminent Shakespearean actor, who stands at the top of his profession, paid Corvallis a high compliment when he included this city in his itinerary. The large audience that will greet him next Friday evening, however, will reciprocate the compliment and its show of appreciation will convince Mr. Warde that Corvallis, though small, is metropolitan in its intelligence. T. D. Campbell is to be the new proprietor of the Pioneer bakery, from which Keith Brown retired a week ago. Mr. Campbell has purchased the business, subject to the claims of the Brown creditors, and will open up a first-class bakery. There is to be re-painting and re-papering done and when all is ready Mr. Campbell expects to go to Portland to buy his stock and secure the services of one of the best bakers of that section. Vote for Wm. J. Clarke for state printer on primary day, April 20th. Mr. Clarke is one of the oldest printers in the state and one of best known country editors in Oregon. His nomination will be a tribute to the country press and they are backing him heavily for the place. Remember the name of Wm. J. Clark is the first one under the head of state printer, No. 38. New and complete line of millinery, lowest prices. Mrs. C. MAXFIELD. 30-31. W. C. Simpson left today for Livingston, Montana, where he is to engage in the shoe business. Mrs. Clay Shepard, of Salem, is visiting her mother and sister in this city. Mrs. Shepard was formerly Miss Lela Wood of Corvallis. Mrs. M. P. Burnett will give lessons in Eyelet embroidery, Wednesday and Thursday afternoon's at her residence. Ind. Phone No. 222, Bell Phone No. 135. 29tf. President Campbell, of the U. O., is arranging for a meeting of college representatives of the Northwest in April to discuss the adoption of Rugby football in the larger institutions of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, and at any rate to revise the present intercollegiate rules. President Campbell says he does not believe Rugby will be played in the Northwest for some time.—Eugene Guard. E. W. Strong made a business trip to Albany Saturday. Dr. Bennett, of Bellefontaine, was a Corvallis visitor Sunday. Webster Belknap, of Monroe, was a Corvallis visitor Saturday. W. O. Heckart, of Eugene, came up yesterday on a business trip. Frank Thrasher came up from Portland and spent Sunday at home. O. J. Blacklage and family spent Sunday with relatives at Bellefontaine. W. A. Martin, of Dallas, was an over-Sunday visitor in Corvallis looking after business. D. Smith, of Portland, was a Corvallis visitor Saturday, in the interests of the Telegram. Mrs. Betty Riders and daughter, Miss Addie of Albany, were guests of Corvallis friends Sunday. S. M. Woods left today to be present at the conference of the United Evangelical denomination, in session this week at Portland. There is general complaint about town concerning the theft from private yards of choice flowers. In one or two instances the flower beds have been ruined as well as the blossoms stolen. The practice is one that should be stopped by some means, and at once. Stealing flowers is the same in principle as stealing money or other valuables, and should be so regarded. Why. Have a tortid liver when Herbine the only liver regulator will help you? There is no reason why you should suffer from dyspepsia, consumption, chills and fever or any liver complaints, when Herbine will cure you. E. C. Waite, Westville, Fla., writes: "I was sick for a month with chills and fever, and after taking two bottles of Herbine am well and healthy." Sold by Graham & Wortham. For Secretary of State. I hereby announce to the republicans of Oregon that I am a candidate for nomination for the office of secretary of state at the coming primary, April 20, 1906, subject to the vote of the party. 28-34 LOT L. PEARCE. Human Blood Marks. A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bac. Ky. He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since. It cures hemorrhages, Chronic Coughs, Settled colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for weak lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by Allen & Woodward druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Subscribe for the Gazette.
