

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Prof. T. J. Newbill, of Independence was in Corvallis Friday.

A. J. Rich, an OAC student, made a business trip to Portland Saturday.

Howard Bush and wife, of Kings Valley, were Corvallis visitors Saturday.

Misses Robena and Etta Smith, of Plymouth, were among the Corvallis visitors Sunday.

Miss Madge Baldwin, the stenographer at S. L. Kline's, is ill with an attack of the measles.

Miss Maud Wylson, an OAC student, was called to her home near Amity, Friday morning, on account of the illness of her mother.

Mrs. Gene Simpson returned Friday night from San Francisco where she had been in search of relatives. She was met in Albany by her husband.

The city band played another fine program on the court yard grounds Sunday afternoon to the delight of a large number of people. These concerts are proving very popular.

For various reasons, the seniors have given up the play that had been decided upon, and it is not yet certain whether a play will be given or not. The play abandoned was entitled "The Honey Moon."

Miss Etta Smith has been offered a trip to Des Moines, Iowa, by a wealthy uncle of that city. The young lady is considering the proposition, and may decide to spend the summer with her Eastern kinsfolk.

S. P. Hunt was a Salem visitor Friday. He went down to bring home a buckboard automobile, which he expects to use in canvassing the country with his patent washing machine. He traded a horse and buggy for the auto.

Attorney J. F. Yates has consented to be a candidate at the coming city election for the office which he now holds, that of police judge. This election will be held on Monday, May 21. Mr. Yates has the endorsement of many friends.

Supt. Denman represented Benton county at a meeting of committees of the first congressional district held in Salem, Saturday. There is every indication that republicans throughout the state are going to line up and support their party nominees.

A small dwelling house belonging to Mrs. Biggs, that has long occupied a position on the Elvin place, on college hill, was moved Saturday onto one of Judge Watter's lots in the north part of town, where Mrs. Biggs will hereafter make her home.

George Cross, a deservedly popular student at OAC, while engaged in the wood working department, Friday, had the misfortune to cut his hand severely with a rip saw. The end of the forefinger was clipped off, the thumb was badly cut and the middle finger was severely lacerated.

The ladies of the Utopian literary society at OAC were given a trip to Mrs. Peak Saturday by the young men of the Philadelphia society. About fifty were in the party and the trip was made in hay racks, hauled by four-horse teams. A grand time is reported. The chaperones were Miss Helen Crawford and Miss Aimee Leverett.

The Maccabee excursion from Portland, Sunday, was pretty well patronized. They came up on the Eas: Side to Albany, thence on the C. & E. to this city, and down the West Side to Portland. This route makes a loop of the valley proper and gives an excursionist a ride of about 200 miles. At this season of the year no more pleasurable trip could be imagined. The train of 19 cars was divided into two sections and one of the sections was drawn by an oil burning engine, said to have been the first seen in our city. Although the train was expected here at 4 o'clock it was about 5 when it arrived.

Sunday afternoon while driving along on Fifth street, this city, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Smith had quite an exciting runaway experience. From some unknown cause the bridle came off the buggy horse and it bolted. Mrs. Smith became alarmed and jumped from the vehicle, Mr. Smith soon following her lead. Mrs. Smith had an ankle quite severely strained and one of her elbows badly bruised and she was carried into the house of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Wellsher and a local physician called to administer to her needs. Mr. Smith fared better. The horse ran on north and at the C. E. Hout corner the buggy was overturned and the animal broke loose and ran on into Jobs Addition, where it was caught.

Joseph Yates was an Albany visitor Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Starr, of Bellefontain, were Corvallis visitors Saturday.

Henry Hector left Sunday for Portland, where he is to serve on the federal grand jury.

A. J. Fuller was down town Friday for the first time since his recent serious illness with typhoid.

Miss Claire Starr returned Saturday to his home at Bellefontain. She will not return to college this term.

Miss Pauline Kline was called to Portland Thursday by the illness of her little nephew, the son of Moses Kline.

Alva Minor and family went over to Crabtree, Linn county, Saturday, to visit a few days with Mrs. Minor's relatives.

Last week the Corvallis Sawmill Co. received ten carloads of logs from the vicinity of Blodgett and they also brought down a raft or two from Fischer's island, so they are now running full tilt.

W. G. Lane will be a candidate for the office of chief of police of the City of Corvallis at the coming municipal election. Mr. Lane has been well tried in this responsible position and has not been found wanting.

B. W. Johnson was called to Portland, Saturday, in order to attend a meeting of the finance committee of the grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias of Oregon. Mr. Johnson being a member of said committee.

Republicans work for Fred C. Peil for sheriff. He is the right man for the place. He is rapidly making friends in his canvass. His winning ways and pleasing personality combine to make him a strong candidate.

Mrs. Charles Everett moved yesterday into the house one door north of her former residence. The house vacated by her is to be occupied in a few days by T. K. Fawcett and family, who are to move back from Portland.

The record and well-known ability of T. T. Vincent is recognized by all and a more fit man for county clerk cannot be found in Benton county. He is courteous and obliging with all. He is entitled to the loyal support of all republicans.

Arnold King, who has been for a long time a lineman for the independent telephone company, resigned the position a few days ago to accept a better one with the new electric light and power company. The local affairs are in charge of Guy Clark, who will now be assisted by Mr. King.

"Governor" Withycombe must be especially pleased with the hearty support of his friends in Washington and Benton counties who have long known him as one among them. Where a man's neighbors stand by him so loyally it is a sign that he is a pretty good fellow. The vote in Marion must also be a surprise to the doctor. To defeat as popular man as ex-Governor Geer in his home county was unexpected.—Forest Grove Times.

F. A. Tozier, once a resident of the vicinity of Monroe, and an uncle of O. A. Tozier of this city, has written the latter from Santa Rosa, giving some of his experience in the earthquake. Mr. Tozier was sleeping in the third story of a rooming house when the shock came, and was found, later, in the basement under eight feet of debris. It took three hours to dig Mr. Tozier out, and strange to relate he was uninjured. He has been working in California two or three years at the carpenter trade, but the family reside at Eugene.

Prof. A. B. Cordley, of OAC, says this is the time to spray for codlin moth. When the fruit trees are in bloom is the proper time to make your work count. Ten days after the blossoms have fallen it is too late. For good results use the following formula: Four ounces of arsenate soda, twelve ounces of acetate of lead. Dissolve in water in separate bucket pour together and you have sufficient arsenate of lead for fifty gallons of water, and all you have to do is to pour your arsenate into the water and stir well.

There was a jolly time at the A. O. U. W. hall Friday evening, when the members of 60 or more gave a "smoker." The band was present and gave several fine selections, an address by Grand Master Workman F. Berchtold was much appreciated, and two recitations by Archie Van Cleve were enjoyed by all. The male quartette, composed of George and Collie Cathey, E. R. Hughes and Arthur Bouquet sang, and a banquet brought the evening's entertainment to a close. Tobacco pipes and conversation were features of the evening not to be overlooked.

President Roosevelt says: The liar is no whit better than the thief. It puts a premium upon knavery untruthfully to attack an honest man, or even with hysterical exaggeration to assail a bad man with untruth. Gross and reckless assaults on character, whether on the stump or in newspaper, magazine, or book, create a morbid and vicious public sentiment, and at the same time act as a profound deterrent to able men of normal sensitiveness and tend to prevent them from entering the public service at all price.

According to local interpretation of the law, Friday, May 4th, was the last day on which candidates who were successful at the primaries for nomination could file their acceptance of the same. On Saturday, V. A. Carter and Emery Newton, republican candidates for state senator and county recorder, and E. E. Wilson, democratic nominee for county judge, all filed their acceptance, which is held to be one day late. The matter has been referred to the Attorney-General of Oregon and his decision will be anxiously awaited.
