Blackledge and daughter, Miss Janet, and Mrs. Alice Jackson who arrived a few days ago from Iowa, left Saturday for a week's visit with relatives at Bellefontaine. Father Springer left yesterday for Newport, where he is to superintend the construction of a Catholic church. He has been mainly instrumental in collecting funds for the building, and will be the head one in looking after the work. Eugene is considering the proposition of granting an electric franchise to the Willamette Valley company, to furnish Eugene with power for electric cars. This is the one thing lacking to make Eugene one of the prettiest and most up-to-date towns in the valley. A school picnic is to be held in Kings Valley, Saturday, June 23. Addresses by T. T. Vincent and Supt. Denman will be made. A fine literary program is being prepared. In the afternoon the eighth grade graduation exercises of the Kings Valley school will occur. On recommendation of Senator Fulton, Claud Gatch of Salem, has been appointed National Bank Examiner to succeed A. J. Johnson, of Corvallis, who resigned upon being elected to the Legislature. Mr. Gatch is assigned to duty in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana.—Junction Times. The three-days annual department encampment of the W. R. C. and G. A. R. begins at Grants Pass today. Those who will attend from Corvallis are, Department Chaplain Mrs. Fannie Oren, Mrs. Ada Farmer, Mrs. T. J. Thorp and probably Mrs. Clum Read. Those who will represent Ellsworth Post, G. A. R. will be Levi Oren and West Newton. Reuben Kiger had the misfortune to lose a valuable 2-year-old thoroughbred colt, Thursday. The animal was in the pasture on the Kiger ranch and in some manner unknown had a leg broken, the bones being so splintered that they protruded through the flesh and skin. Mr. Kiger shot the suffering creature and ended its misery. The colt was a roaster and was purchased of W. O. Trine some time ago. A party of Artisans of this city drove over to Lebanon Friday night in response to an invitation to attend a lodge wedding, the groom having been initiated by the Corvallis degree team when the latter visited Lebanon recently. The wedding occurred at nine o'clock, the groom being Harry C. Witman, and the bride, Miss Carrie Roberts. Fifty guests were invited, and the lodge room was beautifully decorated in roses for the occasion. After congratulations, a banquet was served. Those who went from Corvallis were, Mrs. Sarah Stewart, Ernest Stewart, Fred Cooper and Miss Eva Starr.

WEDDED WEDNESDAY. Former OAC Students Join Fortunes—Stovall-Horton. At the bride's home near Philomath at high noon, Wednesday, was celebrated the wedding of Miss Mabel Stovall of Benton county and Mr. Alva Horton of Portland. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. A. Moses of Corvallis, and there were thirty guests present. The bride was prettily attired in white silk and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by Miss Bertha McFarland and Miss Maud Harper, bridesmaids, who carried bouquets of roses, and the best men were Laurence Stovall, brother of the bride, and Walter Horton, brother of the groom. The wedding march was played by Miss Mina Harper. The impressive ring ceremony was used, and immediately after its conclusion a delicious wedding dinner was served. Many beautiful and useful presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Horton left yesterday for Hays, Wash., for a ten days' visit with relatives, after which they will go to their home in Portland, where Mr. Horton holds a position in a drug store. The good wishes of a large circle of friends follow them to their new home. Mr. Alva Horton and Miss Mabel Stovall were married at the home of G. S. Stovall, father of the bride, near Philomath, on June 14 at high noon. Relations, neighbors, and friends in goodly number were present to enjoy the occasion. The groom was tastily dressed in conventional black. The bride was most becomingly attired in white silk, holding in her hand a bouquet of white carnations. Mr. Laurence Stovall and Miss Bertha McFarland on the right, and Mr. Walter Horton and Miss Mabel Harper on the left, were their immediate attendants. The bridesmaids were dressed in pink silk, which hung in most graceful folds, each holding a bouquet of white roses. Under the mellowing strains of music the parties moved to the front porch; the wall, posts, and floor, as well as the front steps, were beautifully decorated with ferns and evergreens. While the expectant company stood in the yard in the immediate front a ring, the symbol of unending fidelity, was used with the ceremony, which was brief and impressive. The occasion was one well in harmony with the rural surroundings, where Nature seemed to have on her robe of loveliness and smiles of innocence. A number of useful and beautiful presents were in attendance. After congratulations and photographing all seemed intent on doing justice to the rich viands so palatable to mankind. Cupid had touched the secret spring which made two hearts and two lives flow into one and launched them into the realm of the untried future. After the festivities were ended the crowd dispersed to their respective homes, hoping for another like gathering in the near future. P. A. Moses. Mr. and Mrs. Al. Tharp of Bellefontaine were visitors in Corvallis yesterday. Mrs. M. S. Woodcock arrived home Saturday evening from attendance at the Grand Lodge of Eastern Stars, at Portland. Will Wicks moved yesterday from the Miss Snell house to the new dwelling owned by Mrs. Wilkinson near the C. & E. depot. The E. E. White house, west of town, is about completed, and painting is next in order. When finished the residence will be occupied by the owner and his family. In a lively game of baseball on Mary's River flat Sunday afternoon, the Oakville men went down to defeat before the Kline team of Corvallis, the score being 18 to 5. The foundation is laid and work on the dwelling of Charles Johnson, west of town, is about to begin. A windmill is also being erected, the tower of which is already up. The government snag boat, Mathloma, arrived the last of the week and is at work near Fischer's mill, removing snags from the river. She will be in this locality for sometime. Considerable interest has been manifested in the coming piano recital to be given by Mrs. Alice B. Marshall at the M. E. church Friday evening. Mrs. Marshall has a splendid reputation in her line, and is probably one of the best pianists on the coast today. The admission is 25 cents; children 15 cents. A dispatch from Seattle, June 15, says: A special venire of 60 talesmen, 12 of whom will serve as a superior court jury, which will try George Mitchell, charged with murder in the first degree for killing Joshua Creffield, was drawn by the King county jury commission this morning. The majority of them are residents of Seattle. The case of Mitchell has been set for trial for June 25.

At the United Evangelical church Sunday, the annual children's day exercises were held in the evening, an excellent program being given. An illustrated sermon for children was given by Rev. Hurd at 11 a. m. Ask your neighbor whose glasses it is best to wear. Dayton Bros., Hotel Corvallis, Wednesday afternoon, June 20. The W. H. M. S., of the M. E. church, is to be entertained at the home of Mrs. Clyde Beach, across the river from Corvallis, tomorrow afternoon. The party will go out on a hay rack, and a jolly time is anticipated. The time for the 8th grade graduations for the rural schools is at hand. Within the next three weeks six classes in different parts of the county will have received their diplomas. Superintendent Denman has set the following dates: June 23, Kings Valley; June 26, Summit; June 28, Wells; June 29, Bellefontaine; July 2, Independent church; July 13, Alsea. There was a special session of the county court, Friday. In accordance with the law the court is required to meet eleven days after the election, canvass the vote and declare the result. This was done Friday, and in spite of the continued down pour of rain which is distracting everyone, and in the face of the further fact that he is a man of probity, Judge Watters solemnly declares that Benton county is still "dry." At the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hurd, Friday evening, the mission society of the United Evangelical church held a meeting and enjoyed a social time. There was an election of officers in the society which resulted as follows: President, Mrs. C. T. Hurd; vice, Mrs. Charles Heckart; recording secretary, Miss Leona Jackson; corresponding sec'y, Mrs. Laura Booth; treasurer, Mrs. Tedrow. Over fifty people were present and light refreshments concluded a very pleasant evening. Miss Mary Silverton arrived home Saturday from Silverton, where she has been teaching in the public schools. The work of preparation for moving the Johnson Porter building, occupied by Gerhard's book store, began yesterday morning. A. T. Moffat, of Salem, is in charge of the work and the removal is expected to be accomplished this week. The building will be taken to Johnson Porter's lots just south of Hotel Corvallis, and during the removal, business in the Morgan printing office and the Gerhard book store is to go on as though nothing had changed.
