PROMISED IN FUTURE.

Men may argue as they will in denial of the possibility of America's producing a landed aristocracy in time to come, but there is abundant promise of it, just the same.

The average American of the present day has no sympathy for the landed class of England and other foreign countries, and the idea that such can ever be in our native land excites his wrath rather than his reason. He does not wish it to be so, hence he assumed that it will not be.

To an observant person it is plain that in this country certain estates become larger and larger year after year. Each generation adds to the vast holdings acquired by their ancestors. In proof of this, look to the Vanderbilts, the Astors, and others. Not only do we find vast tracts becoming still more vast, but we notice that as the states grow the tendency toward an aristocracy becomes more and more pronounced. More rapidly than we think, and more certainly, class distinction is crowding upon us.

These conditions do not come about in a day nor a year—they are of a growth so slow and gradual as to be almost imperceptible. Because they are slow in action does not signify that these conditions are not certain to be an inheritance of the future.

Added to this tendency to create vast estates of entail we have in force immigration laws so lax that hundreds of thousands of people of the poorer class are unloaded upon our shores annually from Europe. The desire of these people is the same as that of the aristocrat—for more land. Each year sees it harder for the native born to secure an acre of land.

Bitter, indeed, will be the cry of children yet unborn when they read the history of the present day and think of what might have been saved for them. 'Tis a mad world we are in a mad race we are running.

STATE MUST ACT.

However comprehensive and efficient a railway rate bill passed by congress may be, yet it will fail to give relief to a large class of shippers who are most in need of and best entitled to it.

To illustrate this: A Benton county farmer has a carload of potatoes which he wishes to ship to Chicago. He finds that if he had his potatoes in Portland he could there obtain the "just and reasonable rate" fixed by the Inter-state Commerce Commission from Portland to Chicago as it gives no rate from Corvallis to Chicago. The best he can obtain is the Portland-Chicago rate plus the local rate from Corvallis to Portland. This local rate is fixed by the railway company and is usually an "all-the-traffic-will-bear" rate.

This is just the evil the interstate law does not reach and remove. If Corvallis were an intermediate point between Portland and Chicago, our farmer could get the commission's just and reasonable rate, but to avail himself of it he must first bring his produce to the western terminus of the railroads engaged in inter-state traffic between Portland and Chicago to some intermediate point of these roads.

This is the condition which Mr. Bryan proposes to meet by state ownership of railroads, but which is more easily and rationally met by state control on lines and by instrumentalities similar to those adopted by the national government for the control of railways engaged in inter-state commerce. It is plainly evident that the efforts of the general government must be supplemented and reinforced in and by the several states before all the people are relieved of present conditions and accorded fair and just treatment by the transportation corporations.

In some of the states such efforts have been made, with good results, and are making in other states with promise of success. What has been done in Oregon? Practically nothing. The railway companies fix their freight rate as they choose. They have a quired control of large bodies of timber land. By the same methods practiced in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, and elsewhere they will as absolutely control Oregon's timber and mineral deposits as they now do Pennsylvania's coal deposits. By methods long pursued by them in Wisconsin, so here in Oregon they avoid taxation and escape their proper share of the public burdens. What will be done to remedy these things, and to make the practice of them impossible? This is the question in the thoughts of the people. It overshadows all other public questions. It must be satisfactorily answered. The republican party is in control of the legislature and must answer. What will be the answer? We shall see. "Talk" will not be a satisfactory answer. No more will merely tentative legislation on theoretical lines. Nothing short of plain, common-sense, fair, just and equitable legislation to remove the evils now endured and to prevent the infliction of yet greater ones will be a satisfactory answer.

Gentlemen of the legislature, set your thinking machinery to work and come to Salem next January with the right solution to these and other public questions under your hats.

Officially Notified.

Yesterday Postmaster B. W. Johnson, of this city, received official notification that his salary had been increased to $2,000 per annum. While greatly appreciating the increase in salary, Mr. Johnson rejoices over the fact that in connection with the official notice to this effect came the information that Corvallis postoffice has been lifted out of the "third class" and placed in the second.

This is a matter of congratulation for us. We are now in the same class, so far as the postoffice is concerned, with Salem, Albany and Eugene. Nothing is a surer barometer of the progress of a community than the postal receipts of the office of said community and the promotion of the local office places the seal of progress upon our city and county.

Business Change.

Misses Cheney and Krumm and Mr. Conroy, of the McMinville studio, have purchased the photograph business of Mr. Emery in this city and will hence forth be known under the firm name of the "Corvallis Studio." Our work has given universal satisfaction in McMinville and Oregon City, and we trust it will do so here. We solicit the patronage of the citizens of Corvallis and vicinity. Our work speaks for itself. Call and see us at Emery's old stand. Our motto: "If you have beauty, we'll take it; if you haven't, we'll make it." Yours for photos, CORVALLIS STUDIO.

Corvallis, Oregon, June 23 1906. Having disposed of my photo business in this city to Misses Cheney and Krumm and Mr. Coffey, of the McMinville studio, I bespeak for them a continuation of the liberal patronage I have received. My successors come to Corvallis with reputations as first-class artists, and from the work they bring I am confident they will give the best of satisfaction to everyone. All negatives made by me, as well as those made by predecessor, Mr. Phillips, are now their property, and duplicates can be procured from them at any time. W. G. Emery.

Some sort of a varmint got into one of F. L. Miller's chicken pens Sunday and killed 17 chicks. At present F. L. Miller & Son have in the neighborhood of 1,700 chickens that were hatched this spring. They are about half and half Buff Oringtons and Buff Leghorns.

A new law partnership has been formed in this city by Attorneys W. S. McFadden and E. R. Bryson. These gentlemen are now in business together as the partnership went into effect the first of the month. For the present both of the old offices will be maintained, but on the completion of the Johnson brick this fall the law firm will occupy an elegant suite of offices in that building. This change seems to be a good move for all concerned and we wish the attorneys the best of success.

DO YOU KNOW

That Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine sold through druggists for women's weaknesses and peculiar ailments that does not contain large quantities of alcohol? It is also the only medicine especially prepared for the cure of the delicate diseases peculiar to women, the maker of which is not afraid to take his patients into his full confidence, by printing upon each bottle wrapper all the ingredients entering into the medicine. Ask your druggist if this is not true.

"Favorite Prescription" too, is the only medicine for women, all the ingredients of which have the unqualified endorsement of the leading medical writers of the several schools of practice, recommending them for the cure of the diseases for which the "Prescription" is advised. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free booklet, and read the numerous extracts from standard medical authorities praising the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicine is made, and don't forget that no other medicines put up for sale through druggists for domestic use can show any such professional endorsement. This of itself is of far more weight and importance than any amount of so-called "testimonials" so conspicuously flattered before the public, in favor of the alcoholic compound.

The "Favorite Prescription" cures all women's peculiar weaknesses and derangements, thus banishing the periodical headaches, backaches, bearing-down distress, tenderness and dragging-down sensations in lower abdomen, accompanied by weakening and disagreeable catarrhal, pelvic drains and kindred symptoms.

Dr. Pierce and his staff of skilled specialists may be consulted free of charge on receipt of patient in one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only, or 21 cents for a copy in flexible paper covers, or 31 cents for a cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce as above.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Give a laxative, two or three cathartic.

W. L. Douglas shoes are better this season than ever before. This means that there has been distinct improvement in their style, in their fitting qualities, and in their wear. Each year gives us additional experience which we turn to account by constantly improving our shoes. Nothing is too small to merit the minutest attention.

Things which might be considered trivial in other factories have infinite attention from our workmen for the simple reason that the Douglas standard is nothing short of the best possible. If it were not for the immense facilities and the right motive it would be impossible for the W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoe to rival the $5.00 and $7.00 productions of higher priced makers.

Millions of satisfied patrons know through actual service that Douglas $3.50 shoes hold their shape better, fit better, wear longer and are of greater intrinsic value than any other $3.50 shoes on the market to-day.

We Can Show You

FREE TRIAL ON YOUR FARM OF A U.S. CREAM SEPARATOR

We know from our dealings with 2,700 dairymen in the Pacific Northwest and from our own practical experience in dairying that the U. S. Cream Separator is the best and most practical separator for every-day farm use. It is such a well-made piece of machinery that it will last a lifetime, giving every day the quickest, easiest service. It is the best value for the money and we guarantee it ourselves, in addition to the guarantee of the factory. To show our confidence in this separator we will ship you one on ten days' free trial. Then if it don't prove as represented the best and most practical for your own use, you may return it at our expense.

Hazelwood today stands with its guarantee behind thousands of U. S. Separators, and there has never been a day when we have regretted having guaranteed this fine separator. We are thoroughly and practically familiar with the advantages and disadvantages of every separator on the market and we are confident that the U. S. Separator because we know it to be the best there is.

SKIMS CLEANEST—In addition, the U. S. Separator skims the milk cleaner than does any other machine. This has been demonstrated over and over again. The world's record for clean skimming has been held by the U. S. Hand Separator for many years. No other hand separator has been able to equal the record made five years ago at the Pan-American Exposition, and yet this record was lowered by the U. S. Separator in the official test at the Lewis and Clark fair last year.

It will outwear any other separator. It is easier to keep clean and it will keep right on year after year doing its daily work, giving perfect satisfaction.

PAYS FOR ITSELF—The U. S. Separator will pay for itself in one year to extra cream served over what could be skimmed in the old-fashioned way. If you don't believe it take advantage of our free trial offer and make the test right on your own farm. Skim in both ways and figure out the result in your own way.

You will find the separator will pay for itself in a year. We sell it on easy terms and will take cream in payment, so you need not pay us one cent for the separator, and at the end of the year the machine will all be paid for.

Write today for catalogue and full particulars. Mention this paper. HAZELWOOD CREAM COMPANY, PORTLAND, OREGON.
