

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Wilbur Starr of Bellefontaine was a pleasant visitor in Corvallis, Wednesday.

James Horning and family arrived home Wednesday from a pleasant outing at Newport.

Miss Mary Danneman arrived home Monday night from a visit with friends in Portland.

Mrs. Edward Kline from near Newport is in Corvallis, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Taylor.

Bert Newton and Bert Peters began work Wednesday with their hay baler. They started on the John Swick ranch.

Services at the M. E. church, South, Sunday morning and evening. Subject of evening sermon: "The Disobedient Prophet."

W. W. Francis of Albany, ex-county recorder on the republican ticket, was a business visitor in Corvallis the first of this week.

W. D. DeVarney, the well-known independent telephone man, was a Corvallis visitor Tuesday and Wednesday on business for his company.

Walter Lemon left the first of this week for Seattle, his home, after a visit with Benton friends. Mr. Lemon is a former OAC student.

The Hofflake Bros. hay baler began operations over in Linn county this week. The yield is reported as excellent and the grain crops are splendid.

John Ray, the shoe maker has responded to the demand for barbed hands and is now using a pitch fork in a Benton hay field near Corvallis.

Archibald and VanHoosen left the first of the week for Junction City. They made the trip a wheel. They are proprietors of the Corvallis marble works.

Rev. G. H. Feese and family expect to leave Tuesday for Alsea, where they will pitch their tent and spend five or six weeks fishing, resting and enjoying the beauties of nature.

Mrs. Bridge, of Portland, and Mrs. Shobert, of Eugene, were in Corvallis, Tuesday. They are sisters, and were en route to Nashville to visit their mother, Mrs. Gillette.

Miss Lillie Leisure of Moscow, Idaho, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. John Lenger. Miss Leisure is en route home from an extended sojourn in Sacramento. She arrived in Corvallis, Tuesday.

Tuesday's Telegram contained an excellent cut of Kline's base ball team. Walter Kline occupies a position in the center of the group, and a placard bears the title, "Kline's Kandy Kids."

Four Portland boys were in Corvallis, Monday night. They were en route to Portland in canoes, having gone by train to Eugene to start down the river. They were dressed in white duck suits and appeared to be enjoying their trip to the limit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wood and Mrs. S. W. Holmes arrived home Wednesday from Canby, where for ten days they have been attending the Methodist campmeeting. They report a fine time and say a prettier place for camping could not be found.

There is to be an enjoyable affair on the lawn at the United Evangelical church next Monday evening. It is an ice cream social and the proceeds will be used to purchase books. Everyone is invited to come and enjoy a cool, pleasant evening on the lawn.

The S. H. Moore ranch of 15 acres has a new owner. He is Ole Paulson of North Dakota, who was in Corvallis last week, departing for home on Saturday with the intention of returning this autumn. The consideration in the deal was $5,500, and Robinson & Stevenson made the sale.

Percy Southeran left Wednesday for his home at Wynant, after a three weeks' visit at the Wilbur Starr home in Southern Benton. The young man has always lived in Chicago, this being his first visit to the country, and it is needless to say that his sojourn in Benton has been very happy for him. His parents have purchased property in Wynant and will make Oregon their home.

Tuesday evening there was a series of races on the track south of town. The Charlie Beach horse trotted against time on a pretty stiff wager. The bet was that the animal could not step the mile in three minutes or less. It was driven by Austin Lafferty and failed to accomplish the feat by four seconds. Then a horse of Tom Vidito tried to trot the mile in four minutes, but failed. A half-mile trotting race was then pulled off and was won by the stallion of W. O. Trinn.

Born, Tuesday, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hout, a son.

Harold Woodcock has been a Portland visitor this week.

Mrs. M. S. Woodcock arrived home Tuesday from a visit in Portland.

Misses Julia and Louise Cooper are to leave tomorrow for California for a visit with their father.

Sheriff Burnett arrived home Monday night from Seattle, where he was a witness in the Mitchell case.

Roy Woodcock and family are moving into one of the Marshall Miller houses, near the Farmer home.

Miss Frances Belknap leaves today for Salem for a two weeks' visit with Prof. and Mrs. McElfresh.

Mrs. Lizzie V. King arrived Tuesday from Portland for a visit with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam King.

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson Murphy of Corvallis, and Mrs. Dickerman of Morrow left Tuesday for the coast for a two weeks' outing.

Mrs. Fred Piel and children arrived Tuesday from Florence, Southern Oregon, where they have been on a visit to Mrs. Piel's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gibson of Independence, were in Corvallis Tuesday on their way to the Siu-slaw country where they have a timber claim.

Mrs. Delilah Houck is building a new house on her ranch south of town. It is to be a two-story dwelling, and work was started on it this week by Charles Heckart.

A. Miller and son arrived Tuesday from Nebraska and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Johnson. The gentleman is a cousin of Mrs. Johnson and the two had not met for 23 years.

Prof. C. Raymond arrived in Corvallis during the first of the week from Northern California. He has the hall in the Fisher brick rented for the coming winter and intends to run a dancing school again.

Rev. and Mrs. G. H. Feese are to be host and hostess tonight at a social in the basement of the M. E. church. The guests will be the members of the Epworth and Junior Leagues and a delightful time is anticipated.

Invitations have been received by Corvallis friends to the wedding of Joseph Rjogo and Miss Maud Graves, both of this year's graduating class at OAC. The event occurs at Odell, the bride's home, on the 19th.

Mrs. A. D. Morrison left Tuesday for Portland where she was to meet her husband, Dr. Morrison, who is at home from a post-graduate course in a Chicago Medical college. Mrs. Morrison has spent the spring in Corvallis with her father, W. S. Linville.

A very convenient, new counter was installed in the Horning grocery Tuesday morning. It is not only roomy on top, but along each side are compartments in which all sorts of dried fruits and other commodities can be kept, thus saving the space usually occupied by boxes and kegs.

Mrs. Clum Reed, who is at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Dodeie, at Wells, was suddenly seized with illness Tuesday afternoon and a telephone message to Mr. Reed stated that she was dying. When he reached Wells, however, Mrs. Reed was better and is now about recovered.

Sam Thurston, who has been in Arizona for the winter, passed through Albany a few days ago on his way to Portland, to enter a sanatorium for treatment for tuberculosis. Sam has been a sufferer from this trouble for quite a while and is scarcely able to be about. He was met in Albany by his brother, Gyp, who assisted him in the change of car.

The George Kalb farm of 100 acres, three miles east of Corvallis, has been sold to John Lindquist, of North Dakota, who came to Corvallis last week, made the purchase and departed Saturday for home, there to dispose of his property in time to return to Oregon this fall. The deal was made by Robinson & Stevenson and the consideration was $4,600.

The work of tapping the mains and connecting patrons with the new mountain water system is progressing as rapidly as possible, but not fast enough to suit consumers who all seem to want the work done at the same time. A workman tapped a main one day this week, supposing the water had, as usual, been shut off. He received a thorough drenching and will doubtless be certain of his main before he taps another.

Born, Tuesday, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, a son.

Mrs. Rider, of Kings Valley, was a Corvallis visitor Wednesday.

J. M. Porter leaves today for a few days' business trip to Portland.

J. F. Aldrich is treating his residence to a fresh coat of paint, this week.

Born, Wednesday, to Mr. and Mrs. Martin A. Bruer, of this city, a daughter.

Miss Eunice Taylor has arrived home from a week's visit with Portland friends.

Mrs. Persinger of Bellefontaine was a pleasant visitor in Corvallis, Wednesday.

Mrs. E. W. Strong is to leave Monday for Portland to take treatment in a sanitarium.

Large hardwood lard barrels $1 each at Snalle's. 55 tf

Miss Esther Purdy is enjoying a three weeks' outing at Newport. She left Monday.

Miss Edna Strong arrived home this week from a three weeks' visit with Portland friends.

Thos. Fletcher and family moved this week into the Bareinger house, near the Elgin property.

Claude Starr and family left yesterday for a two weeks' outing in the mountains in Lane county.

"Grandpa" Ramsdell arrived Tuesday from Portland and is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Lillie King.

Economy fruit jars for sale at Zierolf's. 53tf

For Sale—Vetch, oat and cheat hay. Inquire W. C. Metcalf, Ind. Phone 725. 57 tf.

The morning subject at the M. E. church will be, "The Value of Confidence." In the evening, "King Solomon's Bed."

D. C. Rose has been in McMinnville this week on business connected with the fire insurance company of which he is a director.

Mrs. Watts leaves Monday for her home at Beaverton, after a few weeks' visit with her daughters, Mrs. E. W. Strong and Mrs. Ida Burns.

Economy fruit jars are found at Zierolf's. 53tf

Photos—First-class work, guaranteed to please, at "Corvallis Studio." 56-tf

Mrs. Alice Hodes, of Portland, was in Corvallis a few days ago on her way to the coast. She is traveling for a Portland drygoods firm.

The contract was to have been signed yesterday for building the A. P. Johnson residence, on lots just south of the B. F. Irvine home. Charles McFen'y will do the work.

Mrs. Eugene Shelby arrived Wednesday from Portland for a visit with her daughters, the Misses Shelby of the Wells Fargo office.

Ed Williams of Bellefontaine was in Corvallis yesterday. He brought his daughter, Miss Inez, to this city to take the train for Portland where she has employment for the summer.

Presbyterian church, M. S. Bush, pastor. Bible school at ten, worship at eleven, subject, "Spiritual Worship." C. E. meeting at seven and evening service at eight, subject, "Consecration."

For economy fruit jars see Zierolf. 53tf

Teams wanted at once to haul wood. P. A. Kline, 53tf

News from Miss Agnes Wilson, received Wednesday, stated that the Oregonian party was then at Ogden and all the girls had been "train sick" on the way from Portland, the temperature being 115.

Caleb Ward, of Halsey, a 70-year-old veteran, was in Corvallis, Wednesday, seeking to make arrangements to secure an increase of pension. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Belle, who is a saleslady at Young's store, Halsey.

The ice cream social at the M. E. church Wednesday evening was not so largely attended as it should have been, but everyone had an enjoyable time. A vocal solo and encore by Mrs. Harold Strong were features that pleased all present.

A letter Wednesday from Miss Sophia Elgin, now in Marysville, California, states that the weather at that point is something fierce, being 102 last Sunday. She is staying with Mrs. Ed Greffoz and Mrs. Lulu Rhodes, who occupy a residence in partnership.

Rev. C. T. Hurd and family have returned from a visit in Portland, and Rev. Hurd will fill the pulpit at the United Evangelical church at the usual hours, Sunday. His subject in the morning will be, "Social Duties;" in the evening, "Sampson's Riddle."

Since the new mountain water system has been completed in Corvallis, garden hose has been in great demand. In many cases the hose that had been in use heretofore was attacked to the new hydrants and when the water was turned on an explosion followed and new hose had to be procured.

While standing in the door at her father's store, Tuesday, Miss Mary Nolan suddenly became faint and fell to the pavement. She was taken home and a physician called. It was found that she had wrenched her knee very severely and it will be some time before she will be able to walk.

N. H. Bateman of Brownsville was a Corvallis business visitor yesterday.

Miss Golda Howard of Bellefontaine was a pleasant visitor in Corvallis yesterday.

Mrs. Fred Clark left Wednesday morning for a month's visit with her son, Merton and family at Baker City, and with other relatives at Pendleton, Vale and other Eastern Oregon points.

The W. O. W. installed officers Wednesday night, as follows: Con. Com., A. T. Grugett; Mgr., D. A. Osburn; watchman, A. K. Russ. At the conclusion Retiring Consul Commander Skelton treated the lodge to ice cream, which was heartily appreciated.

The postal returns of the Corvallis office for the quarter ending June 30, 1906, amounted to $2,083; for the same period, 1905, $1,738. This shows an increase of $345, or 20 per cent. There can be no better barometer of the progress of any city than the postal returns and those of the local office are extremely satisfactory.

Joseph Henkle, writing from Schenectady New York, where he is in college, to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Henkle, states that they have recently experienced a terrific hail storm at that place. Joe says "At least it was an eye-opener to an Oregonian." He is getting along nicely, and does not complain of the heat although printed reports say that it is extremely hot there now.

A brief dispatch from Portland reached the D. C. Rose family early Wednesday morning. It bore the sad intelligence that Mrs. Ollie Rose had died very suddenly at her East Portland home Tuesday night. Further particulars had not been obtained up to the Gazette press hour. Mrs. Rose was formerly Miss Anna Martyn, a well known Corvallis girl.

In a letter written from Salt Lake, and received in this city yesterday, Miss Agnes Wilson states that the Oregonian contest party has been royally received and entertained in Utah, the governor being present and conversing pleasantly with various members of the party. They are having attentions lavished upon them at all points and are having as she expresses it "the time of their lives." The party reaches Portland on the return July 20th at 7:30 p. m.

$50 buys a small separator and 10-horse power threshing machine. W. H. DEAN, Monroe, Or. 58tf

Have your printing done at the Gazette office. We give you quick service and save you money.

Have you money to invest, property to be cared for or estates to be managed? Will your health, time and private affairs permit you to manage them properly and profitably? You may have the collective wisdom of experienced men in the management of your interests if you consult this Company. It also receives deposits subject to check, and savings accounts from one dollar up, paying current interest thereon. Acts as trustee in all property relations requiring such services, buys and sells bonds, effects collections, lends money. In many other ways it can be of service. Call or write for free pamphlet setting forth the scope of its operations.

Merchants Investment Trust Company 247 WASH. ST. - PORTLAND ORE. CAPITAL STOCK $150,000

For Those Who Work 'Round Stables or in the Fields..... There are no better Shoes made than the Packard Built of the best material known and finished in a manner that bids defiance to wear. Sold by A. K. RUSS The only exclusive Men's Furnishing store in town. A few summer suits left at 20 per cent discount. Corvallis, Oregon Ind. Phone No. 484.

WATCH FOR KLINE'S Big Summer Goods Sale The People's Store ..S. L. KLINE.. Established 1864. Corvallis, Oregon.

OUR ANNUAL Mid-Summer Sale IS NOW ON And for 30 days we will offer the entire stock of Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, Clothing, etc., at extra special prices. 20 yards of Calico.....$1.00 15c, 20c and 25c Summer Goods10 Odd sets of Ladies' Waists, $1, $1.50, $1.75 .25 20 Per Cent Off on All Clothing "When you see it in our ad. it is so." F. L. MILLER'S CORVALLIS, OREGON

SEEING IS BELIEVING Then come in and see my line of Sporting Goods and be convinced that it is the best and most complete line ever brought to your city, consisting of Guns and Ammunition, Fishing Tackle, Base-ball Goods, Bicycles and Sundries, Pocket Knives, Razors, Sewing Machine Supplies, etc. Gasoline and Dry Cells for sale. Agent for the Olds Gasoline Engines and Automobiles! Guns and Bicycles For Rent. First-class Repair Shop. M. M. LONG, Ind. Phone 126 Residence 324 CORVALLIS, - OREGON.

ICES AND CREAMS. We are now prepared to provide the public with Ices, Water ices, Creams, Sherbets, and everything in this line. SPECIAL FANCY ORDERS For social functions solicited. We cater to the whole public and guarantee the best at reasonable prices. When you want anything in our line remember us. Our own special free delivery to any part of the city—large or small quantities. CORVALLIS CREAMERY CO.

Pure, raw linseed oil costs less than "ready-mixed" paint, but when mixed with thick Kinloch pigment, gallon for gallon, it makes the best paint for the least money. For Sale by GRAHAM & WELLS Corvallis, Oregon. KINLOCH PAINT COMPANY