

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Mabel Keady left Friday for Shedd for a visit with Miss Mary Sutherland.

Mrs. James Berry is visiting her parents in Salem. She left the last of the week.

Bert Pilkington of OAC went to Oakland Saturday for a brief visit with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom. Bell were Newport visitors the past few days. They left Thursday.

Johnson Porter and family left Friday for their ranch to spend the balance of the summer.

The Tartar boys arrived home Friday from Polk county, where they had been working in a hop yard.

Profs. Shaw and Cordley arrived home Friday from a several weeks' trip by private conveyance through Southern Oregon.

There was a social over in Kings Valley Saturday evening, for which twenty gallons of ice cream was sent out from this city.

Miss Hallie Thomas, a teacher in the Portland public school, left yesterday for her home, after a visit with her aunt, Mrs. J. E. Farmer.

Prof. and Mrs. G. Taillandier and Prof. and Mrs. McKellips left Sunday for a several weeks' outing at the coast. They will strike camp at Yachats.

The ice cream social given by the W. C. T. U. ladies on the court house lawn Friday evening was a pleasant and profitable affair, over $40 being taken in.

Mr. and Mrs. Rice arrived a few days ago from California, having driven all the way in a one-horse open buggy. They will remain for the present in this city.

A. P. Maxwell and daughter, Miss Ida, came out from Halsey, Friday, for a visit with F. M. Maxwell and family. Miss Ida Maxwell was formerly a teacher in the Corvallis public school.

Miss Margaret Snell who fell and injured her arm several weeks ago, is only now recovering the use of the injured member, it having caused her much pain and inconvenience.

It was the intention of the county court to have workman begin the task of building a bridge across Muddy, yesterday, at what is known as the Quiverry place. This is about seven miles south of Corvallis. A. E. Bell will have charge of the work.

Ralph Pruett, the popular salesman at Kline's arrived home Saturday from his vacation at Bellefontaine. After reading the story of his hunting adventures, as published in the last Gazette, Ralph avers that had he not lost his ammunition in falling down the mountain, he would have got the chipmunk that caused him such a fright.

There was a launching party on the river a few evenings ago that was much enjoyed. The party went down the river several miles, had lunch and engaged in general merry-making for several hours. Those who went were: Misses Ella Foster, Myrtle Moore, Sylvia and Mamie Starr, and Messrs. Sam Hartsock and Adrian Kemp.

Paul Johnson, the well-known fruit grower of near Albany, made his last trip to Corvallis with berries for this season, a few days ago. Mr. Johnson makes more money out of his berry patch each season than is realized from a much larger acreage of wheat on many a Willamette farm, all of which goes to prove that diversified farming is the profitable thing for the Willamette Valley.

For the benefit of those who desire to spend a day at the coast but who object to going on Sunday, a mid-week excursion is to be run tomorrow—Wednesday. The train leaves Albany at 7:30 a. m. and arrives at Newport at noon. Returning the train will leave Newport at 5:30, arriving in this city at ten p. m. The train will run on the schedule of the Sunday Newport special. The fare for the round trip on the mid-week excursion will be $1.50 for adults and $1 for children.

A very neat and attractive booklet has been issued by the Merchants Investment and Trust Company of Portland. It is for free distribution and will be mailed to anyone for the asking. This company is soliciting business in its line, which is the handling of estates for individuals, and as this is a business that demands great skill, they feel free in asking for patronage, as they are experts in their line. Accounts of all kinds are accepted and they will receive five dollars worth of business just as readily as five thousand. The company's advertisement can be found elsewhere in these columns.

C. A. King of Harris station was in Corvallis on business the last of the week.

Mrs. William Schmidt arrived home Sunday from a several weeks' stay at Newport.

Prof. Raymond gave a dance in Fisher's hall Friday night, that was a very pleasant affair.

Miss Mary Sutherland left Friday for her home at Shedd, after a few days' visit with Corvallis friends.

T. T. Kemp and family moved the last of the week from Philomath to Corvallis, to take up their residence.

Miss Maggie Kester returned to her home in this city Saturday after having taught a nine-months' term of school in Alsea.

The quarterly conference of the United Evangelical church meets in this city August 5th. Presiding Elder Ballantyne will be present to conduct the services, and the members are asked to be present.

Prof. Berchold, E. F. Pernot, G. B. Keady and E. B. Horning are planning to leave Thursday by team for an outing in the Cascade mountains. They will start up the Santiam road and may make the return trip via Belknap springs.

Charles Woodruff, salesman with R. M. Wade and Co., has purchased the C. C. Huff residence property in this city and will occupy it with his family. Mr. Huff will remove to his ranch home west of town. The consideration was $1,400.

F. E. Edwards left Friday morning for Mayville, Eastern Oregon, to run a threshing engine through harvest for his brother, Ranchers in that locality are paying $4 and $5 per day for hands to work in the harvest field, and cannot get help even at those prices.

Mrs. Otto F. L. Herse and children, who spent the summer in Mrs. Herse's old home in Nebraska, were in Portland last week, enroute to Eureka, California. A sister of Mrs. Herse, Miss Agnes Mewis, who summered a year ago in Corvallis, was also a member of the party going to Eureka.

A deed filed at the recorder's office Saturday afternoon conveys the handsome residence property of the Harleys, in this city, from the mother, Mrs. Lewis Hartley to the daughter, Miss Sophia. A bill of sale of the household effects is also given the daughter, thus making her sole possessor of the premises.

W. H. Robinson and family who left Corvallis a few weeks ago for their old home in Lisbon, North Dakota, write that they are glad to be back at the former home and that they are comfortably settled. Miss Mabel has secured a school a couple of miles from Lisbon at $47 per month and is well pleased over the change of location.

The inventory of the estate of the late C. Sullivan was yesterday filed in the county clerk's office. The appraisement shows the estate to be valued at $12,727.72, divided into the following: Real estate, $7,600; notes and accounts, $1,140; stock in corporations, $3,000; cash, $987.62; insurance, $2,000.—Albany Herald.

Saturday there arrived in this city from a large goat farm in Texas a thoroughbred Billy goat for W. J. Warfield of Alsea. The animal is from a celebrated strain of goats formerly imported to this country from South Africa. Mr. Warfield came over Saturday and departed with his prize the following day. Many Alsea people are becoming well known for their herds of fine goats.

Joseph Yates of this city attended the funeral at Tangent, Saturday, of Andrew J. Blevins. Mr. Blevins was driving the horse on a hay fork, Thursday afternoon, at his home five miles east of Corvallis, when the rigging broke and the single tree struck Mr. Blevins in the abdomen, inflicting internal injuries from which he died at an early hour Friday morning. Deceased was a native of Missouri and was 70 years of age. He came to Oregon in 1850, and was known to many old residents of this section.

At a meeting held Friday evening by the water committee, the terms of the members of the water commission were fixed as follows: S. L. Kline to serve four years; F. L. Miller three years; W. S. McFadden two years and R. H. Huston one year. R. H. Huston was appointed chairman and S. L. Kline clerk. Brady Burnett is to serve as superintendent of the City Water Works, and was asked to give $1000 bonds. The selection of Mr. Burnett is certainly a good one and meets with general approval from the public. He will devote his entire time to the work and an office for the company will be maintained in the city hall.

Ray Cuiver, a former OAC student, was calling on old friends in this city Saturday. He is a resident of McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Edwards of Condon are the proud parents of a son, born last Sunday. Fred is an old OAC student and football player.

The following notice was found posted on a deserted homestead in the arid region of Kansas: "Four miles from a neighbor, 16 miles from a post office, 120 miles from a railroad, 14 miles from a school house, 41 miles from a church, 180 miles to timber, 3000 miles to a republican, half a mile to hell, and the same distance to a democrat. Gone to Oregon—God's country—to get a new start."

For Sale—Vetch, oat and cheat hay. Inquire W. C. Metcalf, Ind. Phone 723. 57 tf.

The athletic field at OAC together with grandstand, bleachers and all other paraphernalia, will be moved before college opens in Sept., 1907. The change is made necessary by the erection of the Woman's building, which will be directly back of the present field, and the removal must be made in order that a suitable lawn and grounds can be made for the new building. The present track, however, will be in use until the close of the coming football and track season.

Down at Independence, which is in the center of the largest hop section in this part of Oregon, they are predicting that the hop market will open this year at 15 cents, when actual buying begins. A raise of one cent per pound in the price of hops means $40,000 to the community, and as a result that town is going to sit up and take notice on hop conditions. One grower at Independence has been offered 13 cents, and others are contracting at 12½. Reports from London state that the English crop is suffering from vermin.

W. L. Price of Kings Valley was a Corvallis visitor Saturday.

Ed Browning of Bellefontaine was an over-Sunday visitor in Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Blake of Wells spent Sunday at the Herbert home in this city.

Mrs. Ed. Andrews went to Portland Saturday on a visit, and was expected home last night.

F. O. Gray and Lewis Hollenberg are to leave Saturday for a brief business trip to Northern California.

Dick Zahn, the slayer of more cougars than any man in Benton county, was in from Alsea on a visit Saturday.

Pat Stewart and Milt Millhollen left yesterday for a fishing trip to Big Elk. They will be absent two or three weeks.

Mrs. Mary Ingram and Mrs. Barney Setts, of Monroe, were guests several days last week of Mrs. T. H. Wellsber.

There is to be an ice cream social at McFarland chapel Thursday evening, which promises to be an enjoyable affair.

Mrs. H. I. Rees, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Lee Henkle, leave today for her home at North Bend, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee, Henkle left Saturday morning for a visit of ten days with their son Arthur Henkle and family, at Chehalis, Washington.

Frank Williams, Golda Howard, Chas. Nixon and Martha Sharp, all of Bellefontaine, were in Corvallis Sunday morning and joined in the excursion to the bay.

The Croft & Wilbanks hay baler made a record for itself last week. It baled 19 tons a day, and on the Fred Croft place the boys baled 75 tons without moving the baler.

A postal card from Rev. G. H. Feese states that the family is comfortably located in "Camp Skookum," Alsea, and all members of the party are enjoying the outing to the limit.

J. E. Winegar, of Oregon City, was the guest of Corvallis relatives Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Winegar is interested in the Oregon City Laundry, with Mr. Heistand, formerly of this city.

S. B. Bane and wife and John Hays and wife have pitched their tents at Mount Scott, in the hills west of town, where they will enjoy camp life for some weeks. They left Saturday.

Warren Hinton, of Bellefontaine, who has occupied the John Price place for two years, is to quit the ranch this fall and move to Corvallis. It is understood he will open a boarding house.

Cecil Cathey, who enjoys a good local reputation as a sign writer, was engaged by J. M. Deeds to assist in lettering the main drop curtain in the opera house. The work is of an order justifying pride on Cecil's part.

W. G. Emery received a message Saturday morning stating that his wife was ill, in Portland, and he hastily made preparations to go to that city, when another message came, stating that she was much better, and he decided to await further news.

A day or two ago there appeared a notice in one of the metropolitan papers to the effect that there was a movement on foot for the establishment of a Willamette Valley theatrical circuit. This circuit was to take in all the principal towns in the valley and the intention seemed to be to bill good stock companies over the route once in every two weeks. From what we are informed Corvallis is not included in the circuit.

J. M. Deeds, of Eugene, who has been engaged at the task of painting scenery for the local opera house for the past two or three weeks, has completed his labors. The work has been most artistically done and is a credit to Mr. Deeds. The difference in the appearance of the stage will be very noticeable to theatre-goers this fall. Mr. Deeds, while a young artist, has had a vast amount of experience in scene-painting in all sections of the United States, and his work will easily pass critical inspection. The gentleman's next work is in Tillamook and he has taken his departure for that point.
