R. W. Tripp of Brownsville, was a business visitor in Corvallis, Tuesday. He represents the Brownsville real estate company.

See Zierolf for Economy Jars. 74f
See Zierolf for all kinds of grass seed, orchard, timothy and clover seed. 74f

I will start the Corvallis cider factory October 7th. Will pay cash for apples, make for one half, or make for 3 cents per gallon Geo. W. Smith. 78 t.

In the Osburn yard across the river hop picking will be completed in a few days. The crop is reported as one of the best hereabouts and the rain did practically no damage.

Ralph and Roll Abraham, of Ogalala, Nebraska, left Wednesday for Forest Grove to enter college, after a few days' visit with their cousin Mrs. A. L. Stevenson in this city.

It was expected that the task of picking the James Herron hopyard of 20 acres would be completed yesterday. It is operated this year by Hinton Brothers, and the crop is first class, being of good quality and free from lice and mould.

Prune picking began Tuesday in the A. J. Johnson orchard near this city, and yesterday Mr. Johnson was out on a skiffish for more help, as hands are as scarce as "hen's teeth." There are 15 acres in this orchard and the yield is heavy.

The way the hops are coming down this week is not slow. The rain of last week washed the vines, settled the dust and purified the atmosphere. Where there were clouds last week, there are sunshine and cheer this week. About half the whole crop is now saved.—West-Side Enterprise.

Corvallis is to have a new furniture store. It will occupy the Watters building immediately north across the street from Hotel Corvallis, and R. Rogaway of Portland, will be the proprietor. He will handle new and second hand goods and will open up the establishment the first of the month.

Mrs. E. G. Green and children left Wednesday for Albany, en route to Ashland, the new home. Rev. Green remains in this city for a short time to settle up business affairs. Corvallis can ill afford to lose such people as Rev. Green and family, but as this cannot be prevented, everyone can join in good wishes for them in the new field.

Klamath county, where the United States is building irrigation works to reclaim 250,000 acres of land, offers the chance of a lifetime to homeseekers and investors. Not cheap land but good land cheap. Farmers are needed in Klamath county and land can be had on favorable terms. Write to Frank Ira White, Klamath Falls, Oregon, for further information. 78f

Mr. and Mrs. John Howard left yesterday for their home in Crook county. They came out from Newport, Wednesday, and visited with Corvallis relatives during the week. The trip to Crook county will be made by private conveyance, and Roy Howard will be a member of the party until the mountains have been crossed, when he will take the train for Ann Arbor, Michigan, to re-enter college.

The swellest show window seen in Corvallis for a long time is that at the store of J. M. Nolan & Son this week. The display is in honor of the students of OAC, and the colors are orange and black. Fish net, bunting, pennants and OAC monograms enter into the arrangement, and the display includes college caps, suits, gloves, watch chains, ribbons, sweaters, sabers, shoes,—in short, any and everything in students' furnishings to delight the eye. Besides the OAC, there are college pennants of Princeton, Harvard, Yale, West Point, Cornell and others.

Mrs. Bryant Young is on the sick list this week.

Master Orrin Clark is reported as quite ill with pneumonia.

M. M. Walz, of Balfountain, was a Corvallis visitor Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ray were visitors in Corvallis one day this week, en route to their home in Portland from an outing at the seaside. They formerly resided in this city.

Miss U. A. Walz was in Corvallis this week visiting relatives. The young lady resides in Berkeley, Calif., but has been on an extended trip to Yellowstone Park and other places, and is just finishing her vacation.

Misses Lela, Lizzie and Ida McBee, and George McBee have moved to Corvallis and occupy the old Osburn property on north Main street. The three last named young people will enter the Corvallis public school.

United Evangelical Church—C. T. Hurd, pastor. Regular services. Evening services will begin one half hour earlier or Christian Endeavor at 6:30. Preaching at 7:30. Morning subject, "Gideon's Fleece." Evening, "Lost Opportunities."

Big Investment.—Eight hundred and nineteen acres level land, good soil, on county road, 3 1/2 miles from Brownsville. Price, only $11,500. Brownsville Real Estate Co. Write for our list of property. R. W. Tripp, Mgr. 78-81

The "new" boys were given an informal reception by the young men of the Y. M. C. A. Monday night at the Y. M. C. A. rooms. A good time and a watermelon "feed" were enjoyed by the large number present.

The W. H. M. S. members were delightfully entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. G. H. Fesse. It was the regular meeting and the subject discussed was the "Imagination" work of the society. Light refreshments and a pleasant social time were features enjoyed at the close of the business session.

There was a jolly social time at the Washington lodge hall Monday evening, when the members entertained a number of invited guests. One new candidate was initiated and a "spread" concluded the affair. The members of the committee for the entertainment features proved themselves thoroughly capable and the success of the affair was due largely to them. They were Miss Eva Starr, Miss Libbie Rice and Levi Wooster.

Mrs. B. W. Wilson and Miss Minnie Wilson, who are to leave next Thursday for New York City to spend the winter, were given a very pleasant surprise at their home Tuesday evening by members of the Presbyterian church. It was the regular monthly business meeting of the Endeavor Society, but the meeting was turned into a social and a general good time was the order. Dainty refreshments were served, and at a late hour the guests departed, wishing Mrs. and Miss Wilson a safe and pleasant journey.

Walter Kline is a Portland visitor this week. He left Wednesday.

S. L. Kline went to Portland, Wednesday, on a business trip.

David Lister of Eugene has arrived and will clerk in the N. A. Fisher music store.

Miss Margaret Snell is adding to the appearance of her premises by repainting her residence.

Student W. G. Lane of Klamath county has arrived and re-entered OAC.

Mrs. Roy Keeney, of Brownsville, visited Corvallis friends one day this week. The family may decide to locate in this city.

W. P. Darby is moving this week from his ranch beyond Philomath to his residence property in this city.

For sale or rent, preferably for sale, residence and 2 1/2 acres of land on college hill. Address M. Robinson, Corvallis, Ore. 73-f

M. E. Church, South, Sabbath school at ten and the regular church services morning and evening. J. A. Elison, pastor.

Newton Adams fell twelve feet from a roof on which he was shingling, Tuesday, and received numerous sprains and bruises from which he was laid up next day.

Elmer Wills, formerly of this city, is now engaged as a fireman on the S. P., and is doing well. He is an "extra" at present but stands in line for advancement at a good salary.

Miss Sophia Elgin, a Corvallis girl now in Marysville, Calif., is the office girl for a leading physician of that city, assists in surgical operations and nurses when a case requires her services. She is well pleased with the place.

For Sale.—30,000 acres of land in Lincoln and Benton Counties, Oregon, along the C. & E. R. R., known as Road Lands, now owned by an Eastern Company. For prices and terms, call or address, L. H. Fish, Western Agent, Albany, Oregon. 78-f

F. R. Niercross, the new OAC football coach, was expected to arrive in this city yesterday from Helena, Mont. He has been on the University of Michigan team four years, under Yost, and was captain and half back on the team. He is said to be an excellent man for the place.

Prof. and Mrs. A. B. Cordley gave a dinner party Wednesday noon in honor of Rev. Green and family. There were about ten present and the occasion was very pleasant. In the evening, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wilkins also gave an informal dinner to Rev. and Mrs. Green, after which Mrs. Green and children left on the 6 o'clock train for Ashland.

Regular services at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday conducted by the pastor. His morning subject is, "The Mountains," and the evening subject is, "The Chief Business of Life." After the service Sunday night a social hour will be spent so that friends and strangers may greet one another and new acquaintances be formed.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hall, both former OAC students, have been heard from. In a letter to a friend Mrs. Hall says: "The first of September Mr. Hall attended the New York National Guard encampment at Greta, Penn., and had a fine time. I am teaching the second grade of the Schenectady Park Place school." Mrs. Hall was formerly Miss Ethel Kyle, a teacher in the Corvallis public school.

Hop picking in the Norman Lilly yard is progressing nicely since the rain. There is very little mould and but few lice, and the quality of the hops is good. It is expected that picking will be concluded next Tuesday or Wednesday. Only a few pickers quit because of the storm, and while more help would not have come amiss, there has been no difficulty in getting enough hops each day to fill the hop house.

Conrad Krebs advertises marriages, dances, wrestling matches, boxing contests, etc., as attractions for his hop yard, but George Rose is the only one that can pull off Indian baby births. The first birth for this season occurred at just 4 o'clock yesterday morning. It was a baby boy, born to the wife of Tom Jackson. Tom Jackson is the boss Indian at the Rose yard and is extremely proud of his new boy. He is undecided whether to name the young pride of the hop yard in honor of Geo. Rose or Frank Flukes. Mr. Rose's manager. As the youngster is considered the Rose and Sunflower of the yard, Rose will likely have the namesake.—Westside Enterprise.
