f the members are the second

Mr. Traill was leaning over the bulwark as the lifeboat ranged alongside.

nestly to descry one face which had come back to him out of the distant sured that the father saw in the girl

He thought it would be so. His own recollection of his aunt's portraits had already helped him to this conclusion, and how much more startling must a effort of an artist to place on canvas

the fugitive expression which constitutes the greatest charm of a mobile

Enid, having heard so much about

Mr. Pyne's uncle, was innocently curious to meet him. At first she was vaguely bewildered. The sunken eyes were fixed on hers with an intensity embarrassment. Luckily the exigencies of the hour offered slight scope to emotion. All things were unreal, out of drawing with previous experiences

Pyne swung himself to the steamer's

Grasping his uncle's hand, he said:

So Mr. Traill, with fine self control, greeted Mrs. Vansittart affectionately of survivors with their friends would

Pyne, watching all things, saw that

Mrs. Vansittart did not meet his uncle with the eagerness of a woman restored to the arms of the man she was

She was distraught, aloof in her manner, apparently interested only in his eager assurance that she would find an assortment of new garments in the

(To be Continued)

Additional Local.

There will be regular services at the Rev. Green shipped his household

A dispatch sent out from Albany yesterday says: A strike of the teachers of the Albany public schools is said to be imminent. A petition has been presented to the Board of Directors, asking for an increase in the present salary rate of increase desired is not specified. Only five of the 20 teachers employed had signed their annual contracts up to last night.

F. D. McLouth arrived yesterday from

New York City to begin his duties as vetch seed, but Mr. Brooks is not cer-

The J. M. Porter residence is being re-

The late rains played havoc with the Corvallis public school building which had just been repainted. The rain washed the red paint off the root and present time

shingled this week.

goods to Ashland, Wednesday. He will Congregational church next Sunday,

both morning and evening.

about to marry.

cause confusion and delay on the ves-

were not quite what he expected.

condition I cannot bear it."

somed to typify the new phase.,

from the deserted children.

No one else knows."

countenance.

the living embodiment of her mother.

When his glance fell on Enid, his

"The girls have plenty to endure When Constance and Enld, followed here without having this surprise by Stanhope, reached the boat after sprung on them," he said. "I will giving Brand a farewell hug, there was write to Mr. Traill and leave events no more room. The crew pulled toashore in his hands." ward the waiting vessel, and here a

So for a night and the better part of specially prepared gangway rendered a day the pillar locked in its recesses the work of transshipment easy. some new doubts and cogitations. As between the two men a stronger bond of sympathy was created. Pyne in He singled out Pyne at once and gave those restless hours was admirably him a cheery cry of recognition. At tactful. He talked a great deal of his first he could not distinguish Mrs. Vanuncle. Soon not only Brand, but the sittart, and indeed it must be contwo girls, seemed to be well acquaint- fessed that he was striving most eared with a man they had never met.

With the morning tide the anarchy of the waves ceased. The children years, were brought to the lantern to witness a more majestic sight than the arrival of the "milkman." With the dawn the act under the circumstances, was assun appeared, and the sea seemed to sink into long deferred slumber under his potency.

The flood tide of the afternoon brought the unfailing tug, towing the Penzance lifeboat. The crane was swung out, and Jack Stanhope, as was his right, was first to be hoisted to the entrance and to exchange a hearty hand grip with Brand. Behind the lighthouse keeper were ranged many faces, but not that which the saller sought. "Where is Enid?" he asked after the first words of congratulation were spoken. "Have you told her?"

'No. Here is Mr. Pyne. He will take you to the girls and tell you what we have decided." The two young men looked at each of ar with frank friendliness. "When we have a minute to spare you must take me to the gallery and explain just how you worked that trick," said Stanhope. "Brand's semaphore was to the point, but it omitted details."

"That is where I have the pull of you," responded Pyne, with equal cordiality. "I don't require any telling about your work yesterday."

"Oh, people make such a fuss. What is there remarkable in guiding a boat through a rough sea?"

"I may be wrong, but it looks a heap harder than swarming up a pole." In such wise did young Britain and young America poohpooh the idea that they had done aught heroic. Indeed, their brief talk dealt next with Enid, and Lieutenant Stanhope, R. N., did not think he was outraging conventionality when he found Enid in the kitchen and took her in his arms and kissed her.

Constance and Pyne discovered that the tug as seen through the window was a very interesting object.

"You don't feel at all lonesome?" he murmured to her. "Not in the least."

"It must do a fellow a heap of good to meet his best girl under such circumstances." "Mr. Stanhope and my sister have been the greatest of friends for years." "Is it possible to catch up? The last few days on the rock ought to figure high in averages." "Jack," cried Constance, finding this direct attack somewhat disconcerting, "did my father say that any arrangements were to be made for landing?"

"Yes, miss." interposed a sailor at the door. "The skipper's orders are, 'Women an' children to muster on the lower deck."

Then began a joyous yet strangely pathetic procession, headed by Elsie and Mamie, who were carried downstairs by the newly arrived lighthouse men. The children cried and refused to be comforted until Pyne descended with them to the lifeboat. The women followed in torrible plight, notwithstanding the wraps sent them on the previous day. Each as she passed Stephen Brand bade him farewell and tearfully asked the Lord to bless him and his.

Among them came Mrs. Vansittart. Her features were veiled more closely most likely remain here until the middle than ever. While she stood behind the of next week. others in the entrance her glance was fixed immovably on Brand's face. No Sibyline prophetess could have striven more eagerly to wrest the secrets of his soul from its lineaments. Nevertheless when he turned to her with his pleasant smile and parting words of comfort she averted her eyes, uttered an incoherent phrase of thanks for his kindness and seemed to be unduly terrified by the idea that she must be swung into the lifeboat by the crane.

She held out her hand. It was cold and trembling.

"Don't be afraid," he said gently, patting her on the shoulder as one might reassure a timid child. "Sit down and hold the rope. The basket cannot possibly be overturned."

Pyne, helping to unload the tremulous passengers beneath, noted the lady's attitude and added a fresh memorandum to the stock he had alfrom New York City for a carload of ready accumulated.

"Who is that?" asked Brand from the tain that he can meet the demand at the purser, who stood beside him.

"Mrs. Vansittart." Brand experienced a momentary sur-seemed to avoid me," he thought, but the incident did not linger in his mind. The lifeboat, rising and falling on the strong and partly broken swell, resmeared it over the white side walls and quired the most expert management if the weary people on the rock were to be taken all in safety. painting these parts will be necessary.

Real Estate Transfers.

W W McDonald & wi to H Halverson, 6 acres at Summit; $300.

Geo W Fuller to Emma Fuller, 2 lots in Wilkins add, Corvallis; $1.

Howard, lot in bl 2 Wilkins add, Corval-Js; $1.

R C Baughman & wf to B Small, 2 lts and .61 acres near Albany; $700.

S R Irwin to H R Nehrbas, 332 acres south of Philomath; $10.

M J Aldrich & hus to F C Walters, 160 w of Monroe; $2000. Miriam Malone to F C Walters 146.25 acres s w of Monroe, 2000. M G Aldrich & wf to F C Walters 152.

56 acres s w of Monroe; $2000. F C Walters & wf to The Monroe Mill Co, I52.46 acres s w of Monroe; $2343.75. F C Walters & wf to The Monroe Mill Co, 306 25 acres a w of Monroe; $4697.

E Hobson to The Monroe Mill Co, 320 Statesman which says: acres s w of Monroe, $5120.

1/2 lot 1 bl 9 Corvallis; $1. M L Frantz & wf to CA Frantz, q nephew, who was thinking how best to deed, 23 acres at Hoskins; $1 acres n w of Albany; $2000.

lor in Corvallis, $150.

ne of Monroe, $1000. flesh and blood creation be than the for sale of 128 acres w of Monroe; $700.

cres in Alsea; $1.

outh of Corvallis; $1. R S Hughes & wf to S Henkle. 2 acres south of Corvallis, $1. that gave her a momentary sense of ments.

of her well ordered life. The irregular swaying of the boat and the tug deck before the gangway was made the property fronting or abutting thereon other reason. fast, thereby provoking a loud outcry and in the manner hereinafter specified, the following several portions of streets within said City of Corvallis, to-wit: "Wait until you read Brand's letter.

Harrison Street from the center of Eleventh Street Westward to a point opposite the North-west corner of fractional Lot 7 in Lot "D" in Wilkin's Addition to said City.

and handed her over to a stewardess, Fourteenth Street from the center of who took her to a cabin specially prepared for her. Her low spoken words hirteen in Jobs Addition to said City. "Don't kiss me," she murmured, "and Center Street from the center of Elev please don't look at me. In my present

Depot Street from the center of Oak Relatives of the shipwrecked passento the center of Maple Street. Oak Street from the North side of the attention. County road leading to Philomath Northwaiting in Penzance, were not allowed erly to the Corvallis and Eastern Railon board. This arrangement was made road company's track.

Oak Street from the Corvallis and by Mr. Traill after consulting a local Eastern Railroad Company's track Northcommittee organized to help the unerly to the center of Adams Street. fortunates who needed help so greatly. The unanimous opinion was expressed that a few lady members of the committee, supplied with an abundance of Tenth Street from the North side of clothing, etc., would afford prompt relief to the sufferers, while the painful scenes which must follow the meeting Fifth Street from the center of "B"

Fifteenth Street to the center of Eigheenth Street (extended).

Harrison Street from the center of Second Street to the East side of Ninth Madison Street from the center of

Eighth Street to the center of Ninth Monroe Street from the center of First Street to the center of Second Street. above described is proposed to be improv-ed by graveling the same by placing thereon along its center line, the whole distance of such proposed improvement, side street the two bloodthirsty one cubic yard of gravel for each five hunters neared the spot where lineal feet thereof and distributing and spreading such gravel to a uniform depth bunnie sunned himself in the over a surface extending three feet on either side of such center line.

Within twenty days after the final pubing upon any such street or portion there- as he took aim and banged away. health." of proposed to be improved as aforesaid may make and file with the Police Judge of said City of Corvallis written objections or remonstrances to the proposed improvement of such street or portion

At an adjourned meeting of said Common Council to be held at the City Hall amazed to find that the poor aniof said City on the 26th. day of October 1906 at the hour of half past seven o'clock P. M., said Common Council will consider the making of each such proposed improvement as afores id, and if it shall determine to make any such improvement will proceed to ascertain and determine at such meeting the probable cost there-$45 a month, and this the board has thus of, including the expenses incidental far refused to grant. The amount of the thereto, and to determine and declare and assess upon each lot or part thereof or that Jack rabbits are not usually parcel of land fronting or abutting upon such portion of street, or any such portion of street so to be improved, its proportionate share of such cost; and to take such other action as may be necessary or appropriate to make any such improve-instructor in the art department at This notice is given by J. Fred 1 ates, Police Judge of said City of Corvallis, by order of a resolution of the Common L. L. Brooks, the northern Benton Council of said city passed September rancher, received an order yesterday 22nd. 1906.

This Notice will be published in The Corvallis Gazette in the issue of September 25th 1906 and in each succeeding issue of said newspaper up to and includ-ing the issue of October 5th 1906, which is and shall be the final publication here-

Dated September 25th, 1906. J. FRED YATES, Police Judge of the City of Corvallis.

Joseph Ripley of Portland, an old-tim the steps below in such a way that re- Corvallisite, has been renewing friendship in this city the past few days.

They are Spoiling.

All kinds of difficulties are being encountered by owners of prune orchards in Benton this season, for there is a scarcity of Emma S Fuller & has to Etta Faller help and while there is an abundant crop, the luscious fruit is falling, and much of it will be spoiled on the ground. Seven cents per box is being paid at the A. J. Johnson orchard and even at that price help cannot be secured. At the driers, the men cannot be had to assist in the labor and this adds greatly to the difficulties of the situation. and the same troubles are en- ter's Feet" countered, and that other counties are having trials is evidenced at N A Fisher's Music Store. 80 by a clipping from the Salem

Prune packers say that the U 8 to W H Livingston, patent, 160 fruit is ripening faster than it can acres se 1/4 sec 2 tp 11 s r 6 w, Will Mer. be dried and growers will sustain ever in its history, and shipments have G F Farra & wf to E Allen, undivided great loss on this account. The been made to various points, all of which unfavorable weather conditions goes to show that Corvallis is forging must bear the blame. The loss ahead. in drying is also great and unex-ES King & wf to HKW laylor, 34.67 plainable and any other theory ging deer hides in order to make affidathan the usual overworked vit, can secure same from Clerk T. T George Taylor & wf to N Wilkinson, weather one, but this doubtless Vincent. The tags were received yesteris correct this time. There day. S W Bowser to G R Taylor, 40 acres are plenty of large sized prunes in Ten hunters' licenses were issued the green state but they shrink Tnesday and five more on Wednesday. TT Thompson to H Weiss, agreement so in drying that there will be This brings the total number taken out few large ones after going

CE Banton & wf to U W Wren, 21 through the dryer. Had not the weather changed S Henkle & wf to R S Hughes, 1 acre from the rains of Saturday night and Sunday every grower would have been in far worse plight than now. The bright sun helps some and were there more dryers birthday anniversary, Wednesday, with an informal dinner preach on "The Christian Soldier." The South Street to a point opposite the party of near relatives. This evening theme will be, "The Great Salfact is not remarkable, but an vation" Christian Endoavor at 6:30. incident in connection thereto is enth Street to the center of Fourteenth worthy of note. It is the part typnoid fever at the home of his sister, that a frisky Jack rabbit played Mrs. Grier, in this city, is getting along in the celebration that challenges as well as could be expected. A trained

How The Jack Died.

It appears that on the morning of the feast Rev. Moses discovered a Jack in the garden, and in up. great excitement the gentleman Adams Street from the center of Ninth hurried to the telephone and call-Street Westerly to the center of Oak ed up Millard Long. As every- Thursday, October 4. Besides the Bishop, one knows, Millard is as mild as Dr. Lambeth, Secretary of Missions. Dr. Washington Street to the center of Jef- spring moonshine and would Hammond, Secretary of Education; Dr. never be taken for a crack shot, Lamarr, Book Agent; Dr. Vaughn, Edit Street to the center of Washington Street. but in some unaccountable man- or of the Advocate and other notables Van Buren Street from the center of ner it seems that Mr. Moses lab. will be in attendance. An important ored under the impression that gathering. All are contially invited to the bicycle man could actually be present and after the business mee ing hit that rabbit if he could only be see how we do, what we do, and in what coaxed to the scene, and he was spirit it will be done. P. A. Moses. On "coaxed" to go.

Mr. Moses really came to the store after man and gun, and Each such street or portion of street after circling around through and assistant secretary and curator of back alleys and up past the col- the Oregon Historical Society, paid a lege and then sneaking down a friendly visit to Corvallis yesterday. hunters neared the spot where cabbage patch. He might have been a "stuffed" rabbit so still attorney, of Pittstield, Vt., save: "Next lication of this notice, to-wit after Octo-ber 5th. 1906, the owner or owners of any property adjacent to or fronting or abuttthrough the fence and went store. meandering no one knows where, and turning to see what had become of the Jack, Mr. Long was mal had died of heart failure, due to the sudden report of the

This is the true story of the Jack rabbit that figured in the Moses dinner party Wednesday. Incidentally, it may be added found within three blocks of Main street, in Corvallis,

Additional Local.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Waltz and little sons, of Bellefountain, and Miss Una Waltz were in Corvallis yesterday en route to Portland. The former family will attend the M. E. conference, but Miss Waltz proceeds to her home in Berkeley, California.

LOST-A fine Maltese cat, white spot under throat. Reward. Return to Mrs. J. C. Fletcher, Ninth Street, Corvallis. 79-80

Miss Laura Persinger, of Bellefountain was in the city yesterday on her way to Portland to attend business college. In Salem, October 4th and 5th, there is to be a meeting of Department superintendents, including county enperintendents, principals and city principals. The meeting is for the purpose of taking up the sol ject of school legislation and other school questions.

N. A. Fisher wants to trade at organ for a horse.

Henry Commings, the popular R.F.D carrier, is enjoying a 15 days' vacation, and during his period of idleness his wife will carry the mail for Uncle Sam. Mr. Cummings will go to Sover in a few days to visit his sister and to be "Johnny on the spot" when the China pheasant season opens.

Presbyterian church, M. S. Bush, pastor. Bihl- School 10 a. m.; Worship 11 At the Benton county prune or- Law," C. E. meeting 6.30 p. m. Evena. m. subje t: "Love An Over Match For chard the same conditions exist ing service at 7:30, subject: "Your Mas-

Zonophone records, 40 cents each

A carload of brick was shipped a few days ago by W C. Corbett to parties in Brownsville, The Corvallis brick yard has done the largest business this year of

Anyone desiring to secure tags for tag-to date to 246.

Mrs, J. Frank Hall and little son left Tuesday for their home in Albion, Wash., after a three weeks' yisit with Benton and Polk county relatives.

The route of the Corvallis and Eastern extension from Yaquina to Newport is being mapped out and as nearly as possible will follow the course of the bay. Notice of Proposed Street Improve- the crop might yet be saved to a The passenger depot will be established large extent and such loss as on First street, in Newport, and the there will be, aside from the freight depot and train yards will be lo-NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN TO usual-shrinkage in drying will cated at Olsenville, about a quarter of a ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN, that be more from lack of proper fac- mile up the bay from Newport. A vallis proposes to improve at the cost of ilities for drying than from any wharf will also be built at Olsenville. Work will be begun on the extension as soon as pos ible -Telegram.

Next Sunday will be rally day at the Christian Church. A special program Victor Moses celebrated his is being prepared for the Sunday School. At 11 o'clock paster T. S. Handsaker will

Elmer Taylor, who is suffering with nurse from Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, is at the bedside. Walter Taylor, a brother, who was so low with the fever at B llefonntain is now able to sit

The conference of the M. E. church, South, will convene in this city next behalf of the Conference and the mem-

George H. Himes of Portland, secretary of the Oregon Pioneer Association

Well Worth Trying.

W. H. Brown, the popular pension Quick core for Headache, The bullet sung its way Constipation and Biliousness. 25c. Guaranteed at Allen a Woodward's drug

We pay 4% on time deposits, current rates on savings accounts, receive deposits subject to check, and do a general banking business..

You can have the advantages of a strong bank at your very door by using Send us your deposits. Acknowledgment will be sent you by return mail. Savings accounts received from one dollar up.

Open an account with us and note how rapidly it will grow.

> J. FRANK WATSON, President R. L. DURHAM. Vice President

W. H. FEAR, Secretary S. C. CATCHINGS. Aut. Secreta

Merchants Investment

Success Stories.

Scores of young men and women have been first made competent by the Holmes Business College, and then assisted to positions where their ability won them distinction and compensation. The Holmes Business College equips you with the practical knowledge that makes every bit of your energy count for success.

I Here are glimpses into the life careers of three Holmes Business College graduates. We will supply their names if you call at the College, Washington and

Mr. - took course in shorthand and bookkeeping at Holmes Business College, entered employ of Portland Gas Company, took civil service examination, and now holds life position paying over $100 per month at Washington

Holmes Business College, and is now private secretary to manager of the Pacific Coast Telephone Co., at a salary of $125 per month. - took a course of shorthand at the Holmes Business College, now conducts a public stenographic office of her own in Paris, France, earns a splendid income and travels three months of the year.

Write for our felder. It is worth getting and worth keeping. We will gladly send it to you post-paid if you will write us your name and address.

Write direct to Principal, Room 534

