PARTY RECOLLECTION.

The paramount question of the day in the infancy of the republican party and accepted as first in importance was the nonextension of negro slavery. The second great question had to do with the adoption of the first "protective tariff plank," found in the republican platform of the Vermont state convention which convened July 13, 1854.

From the first the devotion and adherence of the party has been unqualifiedly and uncompromisingly in favor of the protection of American labor and industry. It was quite fitting thereafter that Morrill's name should be attached to the first republican tariff law, especially as we find the first allusion ever made to protection in any republican platform was that of the little republican band in Vermont, the home of Mr. Morrill.

Since the organization of our government forty or fifty tariff laws have been passed. Free-traders cannot deny that the Dingley tariff law has proved superior to any other tariff law we ever had. The wonderful progress of the country industrially and the general prosperity under the operation of the present tariff law is amazing to all advocates of free trade.

It is only necessary that we review the last decade of our history to realize that low tariff means a deficiency of revenue, a closing of our manufactories, idleness for millions of laborers with low wages for many more, and unprofitable prices for the farmer.

Three years of a free-trade law during Cleveland's administration was sufficient time to test the matter of free wool. It did not help the manufacturers of woolen fabrics, but came near ruining the industry because of the inability of so many people to pay profitable prices for woolen goods.

FIGURES ABOUT HOPS.

Crop This Year Will Fall Short of Last Season.

Consul Wm Bardel, writing from Bamberg, says that after careful inquiries among a number of prominent Bavarian hop growers and hop merchants it is safe to state that the world's hop crop of 1906 will fall considerably behind that of last year.

Most hop growers will even this year receive the benefits of the short crop since few growers contracted their entire crop at the low prices prevailing in the spring, and many of them got in on the better prices that prevailed later in the season.

The contracted hops, locally, are being delivered and a more active tendency of the market is expected within the next few weeks as hop dealers have representatives in the field. Their work this far has been confined largely to sampling and details of actual transactions made are few. Two or three purchases by Salem dealers are reported at 17 cents. Dealers have notified their eastern connections that the market has opened and an increase of orders from that source is expected in the near future.

Mrs. Lillie King is to return Thursday from Portland where she attended the reunion of Rev. T. M. Ramsdell's family, of which she is a member. Rev. Ramsdell formerly resided in Benton where he is widely known. The old gentleman celebrated his 85th birthday a day or two ago. Among his children who were present at the reunion were Mrs. Cyrus Dixon, of California; Mrs. D. Michaels, Kelso, Wash.; D. D. Ramsdell, Newport; T. M. Ramsdell Jr. and C. L. Ramsdell, Kings Valley.

See Zieroff for Executive July 74 James Withrow, for twenty years a respected resident of Benton county, died at the family home at Wells station Saturday, from heart failure. Mr. Withrow had been suffering with a severe attack of typhoid fever and was just convalescent, but this was not the immediate cause of death. The funeral occurred from the family residence at noon Sunday, the W. O. W. conducting the services. Interment was made in the Odd Fellows cemetery south of Independence. Deceased was 41 years of age and a native of Illinois. The immediate survivors are the widow, and two children, Murtle and Harold, both at home.

Do You Want to Know What You Swallow? There is a growing sentiment in this country in favor of substitutes of standard composition. It is but natural that one should have some interest in the composition of that which he or she is expected to swallow, whether it be food, drink or medicine.

Recognizing this growing disposition on the part of the public, and satisfied that the full publicity can only add to the well-earned reputation of his medicines, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., has taken time by the forelock, as it were, and is publishing broadcast a list of all the ingredients entering into his leading medicines, the "Golden Medical Discovery," the popular liver invigorator, stomach tonic, blood purifier and heart regulator; also of his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, over-worked, broken-down, nervous and invalid women.

This bold and outspoken movement on the part of Dr. Pierce, has, by showing exactly what his well-known medicines are composed of, completely disarmed all harping critics who have heretofore unjustly attacked them. A little pamphlet has been compiled, from the standard medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, showing the strongest endorsements by leading medical writers of the several ingredients which enter into Dr. Pierce's medicines. A copy of this little book is mailed free to any one desiring to learn more concerning the valuable, native, medicinal plants which enter into the composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules. They regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels. Do not bear the "pill habit," but cure constipation. One or two each day for a laxative and regulator, three or four for an active cathartic. Once tried always in favor.
