POSTAL SAVINGS BANK SYSTEM

Since the failure of the Steusland bank in Chicago, a strong decided movement has been made by the people of Illinois to get petitions, numerous signed, to present them to congress asking that body to pass a law creating Postal Saving Banks.

In some respects the Postal savings bank system has some apparent meritorious consideration. However, as its head management will proceed from the city of Washington near the large financial center, New York, it will afford another link in the already burdensome chain to the disadvantage of the common people.

If the people deposit their savings and moneys in the banks nearest their homes, such bank affords the means by which small sums are gathered together aggregating large amounts.

When anyone in the community wishes to borrow money to improve his farm or buy some stock or to assist him otherwise, in business, he can go to the home bank with proper security and borrow reasonable sums to assist him.

This process would certainly make money scarce in the country districts and make it more difficult to obtain funds to pay laborers and transact the country trade, while the Wall street speculators and traders on stock exchanges would have the postal saving funds to assist them to operate and squeeze the small investor.

It certainly would be difficult to carry on a postal savings bank system whereby the money would be loaned to needy borrowers in the remote and sparsely settled districts as it now is loaned by the banks near the depositor's home.

COMMITTED TO ASYLUM.

Because of Drink—Is Former Corvallis Man.

After an eventful career which in many respects, as recounted by old residents of this city, was highly sensational, S. M. Driver has been committed to an insane asylum in California.

In years gone by he resided in Corvallis, being the eldest son of Rev. I. D. Driver, who was then pastor of the First Methodist church in this city. The son, now insane, was called into service in time of the Indian troubles, to keep peace in Corvallis and vicinity, and is said to have been a wild and reckless youth.

He married a young woman of Southern Benton and from that early day to the present has been heard from in various parts of the United States where he preached, having become a minister a year or two after his marriage.

The dispatches Tuesday contained one from Los Angeles which tells the story as follows: Rev. S. M. Driver, formerly one of the best known Methodist ministers in the West and for several years a resident of Los Angeles, was today committed to Patton Insane Asylum. The ground for his commitment was suicidal mania, alleged to have been brought on by alcoholic excesses. For a time the commissioners were loath to send the minister to the hospital for the insane unless Mr. Driver consented to such commitment, and he said that he would go willingly to the hospital so that he can overcome his craze for liquor.

Throughout the examination the minister talked rationally and his conduct was perfection itself. It is said a three months' rest cure to ease his nerves is all that the minister needs and that only melancholia caused his attempts to end his life.

Driver graduated from Willamette University at Salem, Ore., and soon entered the Union Army as a volunteer. He served throughout the war and then entered the ministry, serving until a few years ago. Three years ago he was presiding elder at the Idaho Conference.

Last Thursday night, according to the testimony offered yesterday, Rev. Mr. Driver attempted to commit suicide by drinking poison. He was saved by quick work on the part of his family and was then locked up on an insanity charge.

Cures Woman's Weaknesses.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John Effe one of the Editorial Staff of THE ELECTRIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Helonias Dioica) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator, makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system." He continues "In Helonias we have a medication which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Effe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn root). Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhoea (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women; constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhoea (suppressed or absent monthly periods); and from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and general (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can afford to neglect the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helonias, and the medicinal properties of which it is most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says: "It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions and general debility, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root: "In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal: "Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhoea (painful menstruation)."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended.

Beaver Creek.

Mr. Gove has purchased the Marvin team and expects to log this winter.

Geo. Winters was a Corvallis visitor last Saturday.

Mr. Daniel took a large load of cabbage to Corvallis last Friday.

One day last week Pratt Gove who drives his grandfather's logging team had the race of his life. It seems that a ham strap broke and the horses slipped out of the harness and run away. Eye witnesses say that Pratt is a daisy sprinter.

Rev. Wood of Corvallis will not preach at the Beaver Creek school house next Sunday as he is at present holding a revival meeting in the Alsea valley.

Geo. and Jack Gates were Philomath visitors last Saturday.

Mrs. Daniels was on the sick list the fore part of last week.

Charley Park visited last Sunday with his new brother near Philomath.

Always Was Sick. When a man says he always was sick--troubled with a cough that lasted all winter--what would you think if he should say--he never was sick since using Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Such a man exists: Mr. J. C. Clark of Denver, Colorado, writes: "For some years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last all winter. This cough left me in a miserable condition. I tried Ballard's Horehound Syrup and have not had a sick day since. That's what it did for me." Sold by Graham & Wortham.

Be Charitable. To your Horse as well as to to yourself. You need not suffer from pains of any sort--your horses need not suffer. Try a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. It cures all pains. J. M. Roberts, Bakersfield, Mo., writes: "I have used your Liniment for ten years and find it to be the best I have ever used for man or beast." Sold by Graham & Wortham.

Why Not Use Electric Lights? Stop scratching matches on your wall. Those streaky match scratches look mighty bad on any wall. But as long as you continue to use gas or oil you've got to use matches. The "matchless light" is the electric light--a simple twist of the wrist does it. We are improving and perfecting our lighting service in this city and can give better service for less money than ever in the history of the city. The cost of wiring has been reduced until it is within reach of all. If you would like to know more about it, call on us in our new office opposite the O. J.
