What is the use of teaching kindness to animals in our schools and Sunday schools? DeSailly, the eminent French teacher, says that when he began to teach kindness to animals in his school, he found his pupils became not only kinder to animals, but also to each other.

The prettiest "Christmas window" so far noticed in Corvallis is at the big store of J. M. Nolan & Son. It contains an artistically arrangdd assortment of Christmas goods, and a miniature fireplace with real logs on the blaze, a life size doll in a white bearskin coat and cap is apparently warming her hands nearby, and the effect as a whole is pretty and "fetching." Mr. Mosier is the window artist for the establishment.

The Gazette has a word to say to the people who contribute items and articles to the paper. Don't be ashamed to sign your name to what you write. If you are not willing to "stand" for your own statements, how can you expect the editor to stand for them? Many a good item and article finds its way to the waste basket for the simple reason that it is unsigned. The editor does not want to publish your name but he must know who is the author of the statements, as a matter of self-protection and business policy. Contributions are always welcome, and items are much appreciated. so sign your name and send them along, and help both your community and your newspaper.

The young gentlemen of the Gamma Delti Phi fraternity of OAC, gave a dancing party at Raymond's hall Friday night, followed by an elaborate banquet at the Commercial resturant. The remains of the late Rev. Joseph A. Hanna arrived in this city yesterday morning on the 8:30 train from Long Beach, California, where death came last Wednesday. The funeral occurred from the Presbyterian church at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, Rev. Bush conducting the services, Rev. E. J. Thompson of Independence delivering an address. Interment was in Crystal Lake cemetery. Deceased came to Corvallis in 1852, and in 1853 organized the Presbyterian church in this city. He went to Califonia in the early 90's. The immediate survivors are the widow, two daughters, Mrs. Grace Humphreys of Eugene and Mrs. Hattie Havendon, of Portland, and a brother, Calvin Hanna of Eugene.

"Queen Esthers" Won.

A very happy social affair occurred at the Christian church Friday evening, one hundred young people being present. The occasion was the closing of a two months' contest in which the "Bereans. "Rev. Handsaker's college boys' Sunday school class of 50, and the "Queen Esthers," Mrs. Handsaker's class of 50 college girls participated. The class having the largest attendance for this period was to be entertained by the losers, and the "Bereans" lost.

The entertainment Friday evening consisted of a program, refreshments and a jolly, social time. The church decorations were principally in red and were very pretty.

The program embraced an address by Mr. Cook, quartette, Messrs. Moore, Stone Hudson and Handsaker, addresses by Mrs. Byron Hunter, Rev. and Mrs. Handsaker and a vocal solo by Rev. Handsaker. Ernest Applewhite, president of the class, presided.

Light refreshments of ice cream and orangeade concluded a very happy evening.

What Mayor Lane Says.

"I look for a better Christmas in Portland than if I had let the nickel-in-the-slot machines run. Many little children who otherwise would have to do without presents will be visited by Santa Claus. Also many of them will have hot biscuits or hotcakes and maple syrup for breakfast, instead of a bowl of mush; or they may have roast goose or turkey for Christmas dinner instead of corned beef and cabbage."

This was the statement of Mayor Lane this week while discussing the reasons why he had ordered the slot machines off.

Miss Mabel Keady is clerking in the toy department at Victor Moses' store.

STOMACH'S IMPORTANCE.

How to Strengthen It so That It Will Act as it Should.

To enjoy both health and happiness, it is absolutely necessary that the stomach and digestive organs should be strong enough to properly digest the food. If they are weak and inactive, the body will soon be in a state of semistarvation.

Nothing equals Mi-o-na stomach tablets in giving strength and tone to the whole digestive system. Use this remedy for a few days, and you will find the appetite keen, the digestion good, no nausea or distress after eating, no sleeplessness, no nervousness and the backaches and headache that are the direct results of a weakened stomach, will soon be overcome.

Ask Graham & Wells to show you the guarantee which they give with every 50 cent box of Mi-o-na. It is the one remedy they have enough faith in to guarantee.

A very unique entertainment was given at the Evangelical parsonage. It was a "School of Knowledge" and 50 guests attended.
