'FASHIONABLE' FALSEHOODS.

There was a time not so many dozen years ago when falsehood and deceit were condemned and considered serious defects of character, today lying is a fine art and deception an accomplishment, if one may be permitted to judge from observation. Do you doubt it? Then put in a few hours in self examination, and in general observation of other people.

Just recall how often you have uttered "polite" falsehoods during the past month, and you will be amazed at the number that confronts you. Perhaps you have been drilled into thinking these little "society fibs" are permissible if not absolutely necessary? If this be true, give yourself a moral shaking up and be convinced that a lie is a lie, no matter when, where nor why it is uttered, and that no one whose opinion is really worth having will respect you as much after learning that you are adept in the art of "polite" lying.

Deception, too, as encouraged in society today through a mistaken idea entertained by so many that it is "tact" or "polish," is a grave menace to the morals of the rising generation. If we teach by precept and example the false doctrine of being "tactful" and "polished" regardless of veracity and plain, straight forward manliness and womanliness, where will we look, in the coming years, for the absolutely truthful and frank young man and young woman in whose hands we can safely entrust our business affairs?

It is well to teach children to be mannerly and respectful, but the deceptions and insincerities so common today in so-called "best" society are but a gaudy veneer that no sensible young person will seek to acquire.

CORVALLIS OUTDONE.

The agitation in Southern Benton of the subject of establishing a cannery for fruits and vegetables should cause Corvallis to rub her eyes, sit up and take notice. This is a subject to which allusion has repeatedly been made in the Gazette and by various business men of the city, but the agitation has so far been ineffectual.

Are the farmers in the immediate vicinity of Corvallis willing to be outdone and out-generated by their brothers in the section mentioned? Is Corvallis willing to fold her hands listlessly and see a neighboring community put in the identical sort of plant that would mean increased prosperity and growth to this section if established in Corvallis?

It is certain that nothing is so much needed in this city as business establishments with generous payrolls, that would provide employment for men looking for work, and in this case put to practical and profitable use the products of the orchards and gardens of the farmers hereabouts.

The progressive farmers of Southern Benton recognize the possibilities of a cannery and are determined to make an effort to secure one. Poor old Corvallis has so far failed to "get next."

A very general and hearty interest is being taken throughout the county in the proposed school children's Agricultural Fair for next year. Generous contributions have been received from the business men, and there are good words from everyone who would naturally take an interest in the matter, which means every resident in the county. It is first, last and all the time an affair of the people, by the people and for the people of Benton county. For this reason, there has been considerable criticism of the recent action of the county court in refusing the use of the county court room during the coming fair, and also for donating only $100 towards the fund, instead of the $200 that was requested by the committee. As the county court represents the people of the county and is not representing any individual interests, it is not quite apparent why the court refused to aid fully a project that is approved by the majority and is certain to result in benefit and financial gain to Benton county.

OUT OF SORTS.

People not Really Sick are Often Most in Need of Care

The people who are mostly in need of sympathy and medical care are not those who are really sick, but the ones who are dragging themselves around, just "out of sorts."

In nine cases out of ten this condition is the direct result of a weakened stomach, and when the digestive organs are strengthened with Mi-o-na there will be no distress, dizziness, nausea, headache, etc., and the old time energy, force, strength and happy spirits will soon return.

Mi-o-na is not a mere digestive. It absolutely strengthens all the organs of digestion, restores good appetite, strong nerves and the power to digest any food you eat. A large box of Mi-o-na stomach tablets is sold for 50 cents by Graham & Wells with an absolute guarantee that the money will be refunded unless the remedy cures. You run no risk in buying Mi-o-na.
