BENEFIT TO SCIENTISTS.

Many things which occupy the minds of scientists seem unworthy...

Almost from a time beyond knowledge, if not quite so, men have wanted wings...

KNOWS LITTLE LOVE.

The natural supposition would be that an educational institution's duty would be first of all to disseminate knowledge...

Professor Charles R. Henderson of this institution gives to the world an article on "Courtship," not only as she is, but as she should be...

It is doubtful if the learned gentleman really knows what love is—or few, if any other men, for that matter...

other dictionaries. Taken altogether we firmly believe that Professor Henderson is wasting his time and talents by writing articles on "Courtship."

For Prune Growers.

The prune growers of Benton county will be interested in the following, which is self explanatory:

"Resolved, By the Marion County Horticultural Society, that the present method of grading prunes is arbitrary and is the cause of constant loss to the growers."

"That copies of these resolutions be given the daily and agricultural papers of Oregon and California, that a copy of the above be presented to the managers of the Oregon packing houses, asking them for their co-operation to bring about the desired results, and that they be asked to enlist the aid of the California growers and packers in this movement."

Praises Country Editors.

William Jennings Bryan addressing the Minnesota Editorial association, among other things said:

"I am interested in a weekly newspaper and I believe the most of you are interested in weekly papers. We have made a governor in this state of a newspaper man, an editor or a county paper, and the success that has attended this experiment, it seems to me, ought to give a weekly newspaper prestige in this country for a century to come."

ANOTHER BIG MEETING.

To Be Given at Fairmount Grange.—The Program.

A big meeting of parents, pupils and school patrons is to be given at Fairmount Grange Hall on Saturday, March 30. This is one of the meetings in which there is great interest taken in all parts of Benton county and at which the attendance usually equals that of a first class entertainment of any other sort.

The program at the coming meeting will be very good, as is shown by the following outline: Singing, audience; address, "All Benton School Fair," Sup't Denman; "Harmony in a School District; How to Secure and Keep It," M. J. G. Gibson; address, T. T. Vincent; "Fitness of Women as School officers" Should They be Recognized?" Mrs. T. J. Risley, Mrs. W. B. Sherman; singing; "How to Succeed at the All Benton School Fair," Prof. George Coote; address, Prof. L. B. Baldwin; singing.

A literary program will be furnished by districts number 34, 53, 74 and 6, and a phonograph will be on hand to add to the enjoyment of all. At noon the usual basket dinner will be enjoyed, everyone being urged to bring a well filled basket.

Out of a Job.

All nature is sick from her heels to her hair. When a feller is out of a job, She is all out of kilter an' all out of repair. When a feller is out of a job, Aint no juice in the earth an' no salt in the sea, Aint no ginger in life in this land of the free, An' the universe aint what it's cracked up to be. When a feller is out of a job, For you've jest lost your holt with the rest of the crowd, When a feller is out of a job, An' you feel like a dead man with nary a shroud, When a feller is out of a job, You are crawlin' aroun', but yer out of the game, You bustle about—but yer dead just the same— You're dead with no tombstone to puff up your name. When a feller is out of a job.

Additional Local.

The big strike that is on in Portland, which includes not only saw mill employes but also employes of box factories, is becoming serious in more ways than one, as it affects every merchant, fruit man, confectioner and others who have use for boxes of any sort. Egg crates, butter boxes, fruit and dry goods boxes are "short" because of the strike and users are bound to feel the pressure soon. In fact an attempt is already being made to place orders with country mills. An order for 2000 butter boxes reached Corvallis, Saturday.

Prof. Hearston is expected to arrive this week from the Minnesota State University to assist with the physical culture work at OAC.

TURKEY GROWING.

Wise Hints From Willet Randall in Farm Journal of Philadelphia. The turkey business is one of the foremost branches of the poultry industry, and the prices paid for first class stock this year are better and the demand is greater than for some years.

The problem that confronts the beginner is that turkeys are hard to raise. 'Tis true there are obstacles to overcome, but such is the case in all branches of poultry culture.

A start can be made with a few birds and the flock increased as means and experience will permit. Secure a trio for a beginning. This is a good time to buy. Do not wait until spring; the chances for good birds are better now than they will be next April.

The holiday trade in all the leading cities was large, larger than ever before, and it was hard work to get enough birds to supply the demand. In consequence very few birds went into cold storage.

Some are asking why high prices prevail more of late than was the custom in past years, to which I can give but one reason—increased consumption.

In many localities turkeys are not raised so extensively as they were three or four years ago. Some gave up the work on account of a season's failure. Disease in the flock drove others out of business.

Before you sell your stock pick out the best for your own breeding, then get rid of the rest. Don't be like Peter Tumbledown. He always gets rid of his choicest fowls and keeps the scrubs for his own breeding.

Early Maturity of Rhode Island Reds. March 21, 1906, I hatched ten chickens, Rhode Island Reds, says a correspondent. One died March 23. Five of the balance are cockerels and began crowing June 11. One pullet developed leg weakness, and I had her put out of her suffering. Another developed to about four and a half pounds and laid her first egg July 18.

The Story of a Medicine.

Its name—"Golden Medical Discovery" was suggested by one of its most important and valuable ingredients—Golden Seal root.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that he could, by the use of pure, triple-refined glycerine, aided by a certain degree of constantly maintained heat and with the aid of apparatus and appliances designed for that purpose, extract from our most valuable native medicinal roots their curative properties much better than by the use of alcohol, so generally employed. So the now world-famed "Golden Medical Discovery," for the cure of weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness and kindred derangements was first made, as it ever since has been, without a particle of alcohol in its make-up.

A glance at the full list of its ingredients, printed on every bottle-wrapper, will show that it is made from the most valuable medicinal roots found growing in our American forests. All these ingredients have received the strongest endorsement from the leading medical experts, and writes an eminent doctor who has prescribed them as the very best remedy for the diseases for which "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised.

A little book of these endorsements has been compiled by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and will be mailed free to any one asking same by postal card, or letter addressed to the Doctor as above. From these endorsements, copied from standard medical books of all the different schools of practice, it will be found that the ingredients composing the "Golden Medical Discovery" are advised not only for the cure of the above mentioned diseases, but also for the cure of all catarrhal, bronchial and throat affections, accompanied with catarrhal discharges, hoarseness, sore throat, lingering, or hang-on coughs, and all those wasting affections which, if not promptly and properly treated, are liable to terminate in consumption. Take Dr. Pierce's Discovery in time and persevere in its use until you give it a fair trial and it is not likely to disappoint. Too much must not be expected of it. It will not perform miracles. It will not cure consumption in its advanced stages. No medicine will. It will cure the affections that lead up to consumption, if taken in time.
