TREACHERY.

Appalling, indeed, are he conditions today in Boise, Idaho. The trials of Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone for complicity in the murder of Gov. Steunenberg, of Idaho, are rapidly usuning so serious an aspect as to be of national interest and importance. As is known to nearly all, it is beyond doubt a fact that the chances for securing & jury of 12 men fearless enough to bring in a verdict strictly in accordance with the evidence submitted during the progress of the case are very slender. So much for the threats of the federationists. This seemed bad enough, but recent disclosures indicate a condition still worse.

In recent dispatches it is stated that some of those in the confidence of the prosecution have federated labor has become the by the Portland papers. handmaid of all this dirty work. proved treacherous. eign to what the love of a good mother should be. It is hard to say what the punishment for such mothers should be. They are frenzied fanatics with murderous tendencies. They are not only unlesirable citizens, but are a menace to the welfare of the commonwealth. And yet such creatures are allowed life and liberty that they may propagate the earth with their kind. Nothing short of a miracle could make an upright and respectable citizen of the progeny of such mothers. "Mother love" is foreign to the instincts of such women and they become lower than any tirely familiar with the track. creature of the animal kingdom This will make it all the more or the birds of the air. It is believed that the crop in California will be not more than half as much this year as last and the shortage is especially noticeable in the Santa Clara valley. It is freely predicted that Santa Clara prunes can not be bought in that state this year at a lower basis than four cents for the four sizes. In Oregon buyers are offering to contract at 23% cents for the four sizes which is equivalent to 41% cents for 40-50s .- Agriculturist.

Monday is the city election but there is very little talk and seemingly but little interest in the matter, if one may judge by appearances. For the office of mayor there are no declared candidates so far as is now known. Names have, of course, been discussed, but the candidates themselves have made no public declarations and it is all guess work with the public as to "who is who." As is known, J. D. Wells, J. W. Ingle and Lincoln Chambers are out for chief of police, Grant Elgin will run for treasurer and J. F. Yates has consented to allow his name to be used for police judge.

Things are moving right along in the matter of the celebration for Corvallis. The city council has granted the committee on arrangements the use of the court house lawn and the streets, and great plans are being made as to the features that will be given during the day. The goddess of liberty will be chosen by vote, each vote costing the voter one cent. A suitable amount will be set aside for a 39-42 costume for the goddess. The lady securing second place will represent the goddess of peace and the third place, goddess of plenty. Otto Hathaway has been chosen chairman of the salute committee, John Allen chairman of the music committee, R. H. Huston will see to the liberty car, Miss Margaret Fowells is at the head of the ladies' committee, and J. Fred Yates will be corresponding secretary for the general committee. An effort is to be made by the Albany
