WEEDING OUT.

Those who claim to be in a position to know claim that during the past three or four months between 50,000 and 100,000 men have been discharged by the various railroads of the country.

It is evident that there is concerted action on the part of the companies in letting their men go. Whether it is a desire to "even up" on the country generally for such legislation as is not satisfactory to railroad companies is not known.

In some quarters it is claimed that this is the season of light work, taking the business of the United States as a whole, and competent men will be taken back when the rush of work returns with the change of season.

So far as the country is concerned there are many things the discharged men can do, as there is a scarcity of men everywhere. The only trouble is that men who have followed certain callings, trades, professions, or businesses for years do not like to take up with a change of avocation.

Obituary.

Joseph Taylor was born at East Bridgeford, Nottinghamshire, England, on December 25, 1839, and died May 25, 1907, being 67 years and 5 months old.

his daughter Mrs. Jeffcott of Portland.

Mr. Taylor left Portland on May 2nd for a visit with his two sons who reside at Albany, also a son and daughter who live near Blodgett. He was at the home of his daughter Mrs. Gellatly at the time of his death which occurred Saturday evening about 6:30.

He had been ailing for several days and Dr. Newth was called Saturday morning. He grew weaker and towards evening mentioned some matters of business to his daughter and seemed to feel that the end of life was near.

The following are the surviving members of the family: Mrs. W. H. Hauert, California; Mrs. John Jeffcott and Mrs. Lillie Kelly of Portland; J. W. and B. W. Taylor of Albany; C. H. Taylor and Mrs. W. A. Gellatly near Blodgett. One little daughter died during the residence in Kansas.

In early life the deceased gave his heart to God. He was identified with christian workers both in England and America. He served as local deacon in the Evangelical Association for a number of years.

"Seattle Rally"

An enthusiastic Christian Endeavor rally was held at the Congregational church under the auspices of the C. E. union Tuesday evening.

The speaker of the evening was Rev. B. H. Lingenfelter of Seattle, a member of the International C. E. Committee, who is spending a few days visiting the Endeavor societies in Oregon in behalf of the great International C. E. convention to be held in Seattle July 10-15.

Rev. Lingenfelter proved to be a forceful and entertaining speaker. In the invitation he extended from the Seattle Endeavorers there was a ring of sincerity that made everyone feel that his presence was desired at the convention.

The speaker mentioned the beauties of Seattle and surroundings, excursions that have been planned, but most of all, the opportunity to hear men of worldwide fame as an incentive to attendance.

At the close of the address the audience arose and gave the speaker the Endeavorers' salute. A solo was sung by Rev. T. S. Handsaker and a song by the male chorus of the Christian church.

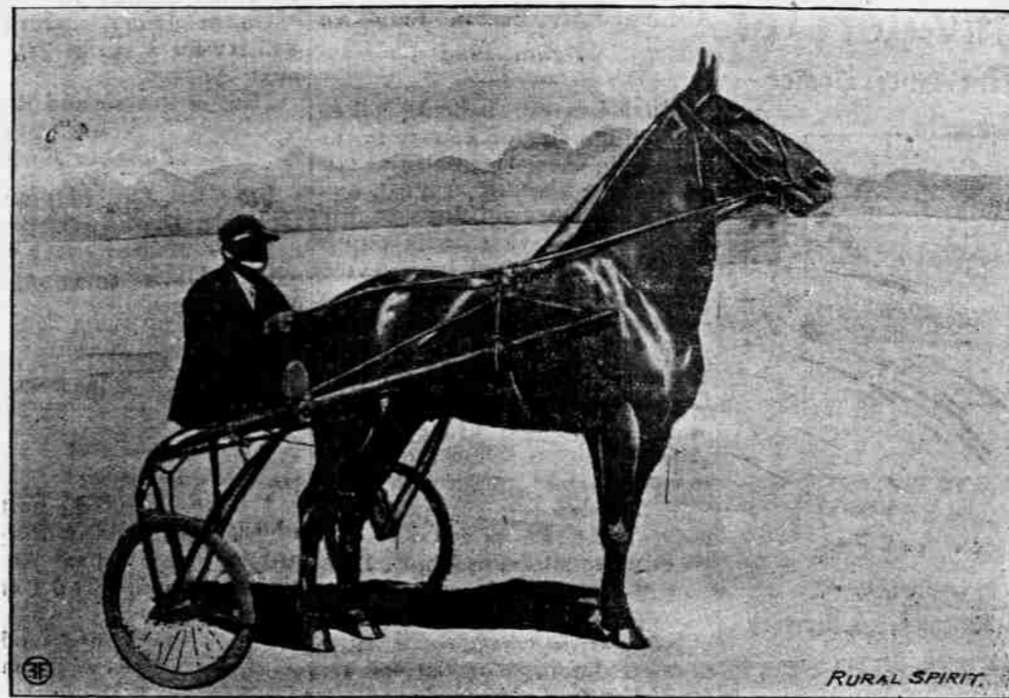

At the close of the program refreshments were served and an informal reception given by the local Endeavorers.

Miss Nora Miller of this city was a guest of President Roosevelt at the White House last Saturday, and has since been viewing the sights at the Jamestown exposition. A telegram dispatch from the exposition grounds under date of the 27th says: "The Telegram's party of Oregon girls are today viewing the features of the Jamestown exposition. The party arrived at Newport News, yesterday forenoon, where it was met by officials from the publicity department of the fair and escorted to the Exposition grounds by a private yacht. Much courtesy is being shown the Oregon party, and every member is enjoying the trip immensely."

Do not be a Burden.

It is a sin to deprive oneself of enjoyment in life and become a burden to others through indigestion.

The backaches, headaches, distress after eating, loss of appetite, gulping up of an indigestible food, etc., are not natural. M-ona stomach tablets used for a few days before meals will so strengthen the digestive organs that you can eat anything you want without fear of distress or resulting sickness.

Graham & Wells have so much faith in the merits of M-ona that they sell it under guarantee to refund the money in case it does not cure.
