Prevents the hair from falling out and stimulates the growth

A purely vegetable compound free from greases, minerals or other deleterious substances.

Children in Pain
Never cry as do children who are suffering from hunger. Such is the cause of all babies who cry and are treated for sickness, when they really are suffering from hunger. This is caused from their food not being assimilated but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once. Give it a trial. He Was Cautious.

"My boy," said the editor of the Billsville Bugle to the new reporter, "you lack caution. You must learn not to state things as facts until they are proved facts—otherwise you are very apt to get us into libel suits. Do not say, 'The cashier stole the funds,' say 'The cashier who is alleged to have stolen the funds.' That's all now, and—ah—turn in a stickful about that Second Ward social last night."

Owing to the influx of visitors, it was late in the afternoon before the genial editor of the Bugle caught a glimpse of the great family daily. Half way down the social column his eye lit on the following cautions paragraph: "It is rumored that a card party was given last evening to a number of reputed ladies of the Second ward. Mrs. Smith, gossip says, was the hostess, and the festivities were reported to have continued until 10:30 in the evening. It is alleged that the affair was a social function given to the ladies of the Second Ward Cinch club, and that with the exception of Mrs. James Bilwinger, who says she comes from Leavitts Junction, none but members were present. The reputed hostess insists that coffee and waters alone were served at refreshments. The Smith woman claims to be the wife of John Smith, the so-called 'Hones' Shoe Man,' of 315 East State street."

Shortly afterwards a whirling mass, claiming to be the reporter on the Bugle, flew fifteen feet into the street, and landed with what bystanders assert was a dull, sickening thud.—Ex.

Don't Be Sure

And lose all interest when help is within reach. Herbine will make that liver perform its duties properly. J. B. Vaughn, Elba Ala, writes: "Being a constant sufferer from constipation and a disordered liver, I have found Herbine to be the best medicine for these troubles on the market. I have used it constantly. I believe it to be the best medicine of its kind, and I wish all sufferers from these troubles to know the good Herbine has done me." Sold by Graham & Wortham.

MANY PASSING ON.

Unusual Number of Deaths in Benton This Week.

Rapidly the ranks of the Oregon pioneers are being decimated by death, as one by one the summons comes for the last march across the plains to the new and beautiful country beyond. The last to join this train for the homeland is Mrs. John S. Miller, who died at the family home in Kings Valley Sunday, after a few days' illness. Mrs. Miller was stricken with paralysis last Thursday and passed away three days later.

Miss Veinna S. Rodgers was born in New Castle, Indiana, October 14, 1837. With her parents she moved to Missouri in 1839 and in 1852, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rodgers, crossed the plains to Oregon by ox team. The family settled near Wells, and there on September 3, 1853, deceased was united in marriage to John S. Miller. In 1884 the couple moved to Kings Valley where they have ever since made their home.

The funeral occurred at 2 o'clock Tuesday, the services being conducted by T. T. Vincent of Corvallis. The funeral was one of the largest held in Benton county for sometime, 45 teams being in the procession that followed the remains to their last resting place.

The survivors are the husband, seven sons and four daughters. Mrs. Miller was a quiet, home loving woman, devoted to her family and beloved by all who knew her because of her excellent womanly qualities. She will be missed by a very large circle of friends, and the relatives have the deep sympathy of all in their sorrow.

The funeral of the late Mrs. M. A. Moore occurred from the Wilkins and Bovee undertaking parlors at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. C. T. Hurd, of the United Evangelical church. A number of friends and acquaintances were present in respect to the departed who had reached the venerable age of 87 years 11 months and 13 days. The interment was in Crystal Lake cemetery.

Mrs. Moore died at her home next door to the Reading Room, about 2 o'clock Tuesday morning. She had sat up a part of the afternoon preceding her death. She was a kind and respected lady and was held in high esteem by those who knew her. In girlhood she was Miss Moore, a sister of the late Judge C. E. Moore who was once postmaster of Corvallis, and in her second marriage deceased again assumed the name, her husband being Isaac Moore, at one time the ferryman in this city.

Deceased came to Corvallis only a few months ago from Gaston, to spend her remaining days among old time friends. Here, quietly and peacefully, she passed to her reward as a Christian, with faith, and fearless.

Another familiar figure will hereafter be missed from Corvallis streets. Jeremiah B. Franklin, for years a toundryman of this city, died Tuesday morning after a few days' illness from paralysis, and the funeral occurred from the M. E. church at 10 o'clock yesterday forenoon, the services conducted by Rev. Presnall. Interment was in Crystal Lake cemetery.

Deceased was born in Cattaraugus county, New York, July 10, 1844. He was married to Maria Cleaver in Delaware county, New York, May 24, 1865, who died May 11, 1885. The survivors are three sons, W. H. Franklin of Mt. Vernon, Wash., Charles Richard Franklin of Anacortes, and Robert B. of Corvallis. Jeremiah Franklin was an upright, honorable citizen, a member of the M. E. church which he joined in 1876, and was respected by all. Those who mourn have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

There was a quiet funeral at the home of Jesse Henkle, near Bellefontain, Tuesday when Miss Hattie Montgomery, aged 27 years, was laid to rest in Bellefontain cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. M. M. Waltz, at 3 o'clock. Miss Montgomery had been suffering from consumption, which was the cause of death. Only meagre particulars could be obtained of her passing.

Sam Thurston is dead. While the end had been foreseen by relatives and friends for many months the grewsome tidings were none the less saddening when they reached Corvallis by wire Tuesday afternoon.

With his wife Mr. Thurston had been in Phoenix Arizona for many months in the hope of prolonging the life that meant so much to many, but tuberculosis gradually did its work and frequent hemorrhages indicated that the end could be expected soon. Tuesday morning, after two severe hemorrhages, there was rest for the sufferer who all along had borne his affliction with courage.

Sam Thurston was born at Dansford, Ontario, and had he lived until October 31st would have been 29 years of age.

When about 15 years of age he came to Oregon with his parents, settling near Suver, where the parents, a brother and sister still reside, being one of the most highly respected families in Polk county.

Deceased spent two years as a student in OAC and later was a student for two years at the University of Oregon. He was married to Miss Blanche Taylor of Eugene, in 1903 and to them was born a son who, with the widow survives.

Two years ago Mr. Thurston's health began to fail, and all that medical skill could accomplish and love suggests was of no avail.

Deceased was a popular student and a star football player at OAC, a favorite among his friends and relatives, and the family has the heartfelt sympathy of many friends in this city.

The remains are en route to Corvallis from Phoenix, Arizona, and are expected to arrive Saturday. The funeral arrangements are not completed, pending arrival of the wife and other relatives.

Mrs. Lucy E. Dalaba died at her home in this city at an early hour yesterday morning, after an illness of several months.

The funeral occurs this afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the residence, Rev. G. H. Feese officiating. Interment will be in I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Deceased was born in New York in 1845. She afterward moved to Wisconsin where in 1861 she was married to S. H. Dalaba, who with two daughters, Mrs. Marshall Miller and Mrs. Charley Young, survive. Mr. and Mrs. Dalaba came to Elk City in 1889, and shortly afterward came to Corvallis where they have since resided. The sympathy of friends is extended to the bereaved.

An 11 months-old baby girl belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edsworth was buried at the Newton cemetery Tuesday. The little one died after an illness of only 24 hours. The parents formerly resided at Philomath but are now living in Albany.

After intense suffering from blood poisoning, Bonham Tom died Sunday at his home in Alsea. The funeral occurred Monday forenoon and interment was in Alsea cemetery. The young man was about 17 years of age and was born in the locality where death overtook him. The blood poisoning resulted from a scratch on the face becoming poisoned with dog fennel.

The year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm died Tuesday morning and was buried Wednesday at the Bellefontain cemetery. The full particulars were not learned.

Joseph Sylvester Lyle, a respected resident of the vicinity of Bellefontain, dropped dead in the upper hallway of the Occidental Hotel in this city about 8 o'clock, yesterday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Lyle came in on the 8:30 train the evening before and spent the night at the hotel. Returning to their room after breakfast, Mr. Lyle dropped dead in the hallway just as they reached their door. Heart trouble was the cause of death.

Deceased was aged 75 years and was born in Illinois. He leaves a widow, two sons and two daughters.

Arrangements for the funeral had not been made up to the Gazette press hour yesterday afternoon.

FIRST ORGAN IN THE NORTH.

Taken Over Chilkoot Pass in 1898 Will be Shown at Alaska-Yukon Fair.

Among the interesting exhibits of the early days of Alaska and Yukon, at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, which will be held at Seattle in 1909, will be the first organ that went into the Northland. Organs and pianos are common now in the north, but in 1898 a mouth organ was the largest instrument of music that the land possessed.

Two Seattle men that winter purchased an organ for about twenty dollars. They had money to ship it to Skaguay and a little more for two months food. They packed the organ over Chilkoot pass taking a month to do it, and another month to drag the instrument to Dawson. At that time there were over a hundred new millionaires in Dawson, many of whom had just married.

Among the women the competition as to who would own the organ was intense. It finally fell to the richest of them all, the wife of a man who was also the most in love. The bids went up by the hundreds and the organ was the basis of a large fortune for the men to whom the idea first occurred. The organ is still in good condition and bears little marks of its thousand mile journey over ice, and snow and mountain peak.

POPULAR COUPLE MARRIED.

Cauthorn Hall the Scene of a Pretty Wedding, Tuesday.

Cauthorn Hall was the scene of a very pretty wedding, Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, when in the presence of a number of invited friends and relatives, Miss Marjorie Ellen Richards became the bride of Roy Edwin Brague.

The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion, the parlor being artistically arranged in sweet peas and roses, and the dining room in roses and ferns.

Promptly at the appointed hour, Miss Pearl Horner took her place at the piano, and as the wedding march pealed forth the young couple, unattended, entered the parlor and took their places under a beautiful arch of roses and ferns, where Rev. A. W. Monosmith awaited them, and the impressive ring ceremony was performed.

The bride was winsome in a beautiful princess costume of clinging white silk, trimmed in chiffon.

Following the ceremony, congratulations were extended the happy couple, after which the company repaired to the dining room where a tempting wedding dinner was served by Misses Pearl Horner, Jean Kent and Florence Berchtold, Mrs. Frederic Berchtold and Mrs. J. B. Horner presiding at the table. The ring in the bride's loaf fell to Miss Margaret Fowells.

The young couple were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents, consisting of cut glass, silverware and china.

The bride is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whitehead of this city, being a young lady of charming personality, and is very prominent among Corvallis young people, while the groom is a young man of splendid character and a popular student of OAC.

Mr. and Mrs. Brague departed on the evening train for an extended visit at Salem, Cascadia and other points, after which they will return to Corvallis to spend the winter. A host of friends join in wishing them a happy voyage on the sea of life.

Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Monosmith, Rev. and Mrs. C. T. Hurd, Prof. and Mrs. F. Berchtold, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brague of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whitehead, Prof. and Mrs. J. B. Horner, Prof. and Mrs. Carroll Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood, Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Moses, Mrs. John Spangler, Misses Sadie Dixon, Ada Finley, Margaret Fowells, Merle Hollister, Vera Horner, Ruby Fowells, Jean Kent, Pearl Horner and Florence Berchtold, and Mr. Milton Wyatt.

When Farmers Prosper.

When the farmer prospers he divides up with everybody else, to a certain extent.

The first man to benefit by the high price and excellent yield of wheat this year was the laboring man, who seeing the great prosperity ahead for the farmer, demanded an increase of about 50 per cent in wages before touching the harvest.

This demand the farmer conceded before cutting a straw of his crop.

Next the warehouse combination advanced the prices of storage 50 per cent, and the farmer will pay it, of course, when he takes pay for his crop from the warehouse company.

And then, seeing the yield increasing and the land advancing in value, the assessor raises the assessment on wheat land, and the farmer divides up his profits until there is not such a fortune left from the 45-bushel yield and the 75-cent per bushel price.—Ex.
