

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Dr. W. J. Kerr of OAC has been a Portland business visitor this week.

William Porter and family have gone to the Taylor hop yard for an "outing."

Horace Lilly of McMinnville was a Corvallis business visitor the first of this week.

Miss Ella Johnson goes to Portland today to attend the millinery retail openings.

Zophar Sharp, the old-time OAC student, was a Corvallis visitor the first of the week.

J. R. Barclay returned Tuesday to his home in Alsea, after a business visit in this city.

Miss Thia Johnson expects to leave today for a two weeks' visit with friends in Salem and Portland.

W. E. Fendell and family of Five Rivers were in Corvallis the first of the week, en route to the hop yards.

G. A. Waggoner and family are moving into the Balknap residence on college hill, near the Edwards home.

Miss Belle Mattley leaves today for Hammond, near Astoria, where she is to teach the coming school year.

Miss Rose Horton departed Tuesday for Waterville, Wash., where she is to teach the coming school year.

Mrs. Clara Fisher-Rand has been the guest of relatives in this city the past week. Her home is in Oregon City.

Mrs. Frank Bowersox returned to her home in Salem the first of the week, after a brief visit with Corvallis relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Blackledge went to Mary's Peak, Wednesday, for a brief outing. They expect to return tomorrow.

Dr. Handford departed Tuesday morning for the Big Elk country where he has gone into camp with his family for a vacation outing.

H. C. Montgomery and family have moved to this city from up the Columbia and will make their home here. They occupy the Trine house.

The members of the W. F. M. S. of the M. E. church were entertained very pleasantly by Mrs. B. A. Cathey, Wednesday afternoon, at her home.

Mrs. Harry Patterson and Mrs. Emma Brown returned to their home at Brownville the first of the week, after a brief visit with Corvallis friends.

J. K. Berry came out from Newport the first of the week and is assisting in the M. M. Long bicycle store while another employee is off on vacation.

H. T. Bristow and family are moving from Bellefontaine to this city and will occupy what is known as the Welker house just east of the court house square.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Neeham returned to their home in Woodburn, Monday, after a visit of several days with the latter's cousin, Conductor Tom Riley, and wife in this city.

Miss Ella Johnson, mother, and niece, Miss Thia, moved into their handsome new bungalow at the south end of Main street, Saturday. The dwelling is one of the finest in Corvallis.

Sam Kerr was awarded the contract, Tuesday, for re-painting Cauthorn Hall, at OAC, and began operations Wednesday. This will add materially to the appearance of the college grounds.

Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Hall and son went to Polk county, Tuesday, to remain indefinitely with relatives. They leave the last of this month for the East, where Dr. Hall is to take post-graduate work in Philadelphia.

The engineer of the frail steamer Gazelle was washed overboard Sunday while the boat was crossing the bar. The waters washed over the deck and several passengers were almost swept into the sea. The engineer was saved by a life preserver and a line being thrown to him.

William Truax, a 16 year-old lad, was killed in Albany, Monday evening, by being run over by a freight train. With seven other young men, members of a harvest crew, he was in a wagon crossing the track when the train bore down upon them. The other boys jumped but Truax was caught and killed.

An informal reception in honor of Mrs. F. E. Edwards was held by the Circle lodge, Tuesday evening, at the conclusion of the regular business session. Ice cream and cake were served and toasts given by various members. Mrs. Edwards leaves in a week or ten days for San Luis Obispo, California, to reside.

Born, Wednesday night, to Mr. and Mrs. Gene M. Simpson, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Johnson went to Portland, yesterday, for a few days' visit.

Mrs. Thomas Whitehorn and little son have been spending the past week at Newport.

R. H. Harrington went to Roseburg, yesterday, in the interest of his patent washer.

There will be services at the M. E. church, South, Sunday, at 11 o'clock. Everybody welcome.

A horse belonging to Orville Connor, the mail carrier, broke its neck while tied in the barn, Sunday.

Frank Davis went to Portland, Tuesday, to prove up on his homestead which is located in Lincoln county.

William Keady, who has spent the summer at Crater Lake, has returned home to enter OAC for winter.

Mrs. W. O. Trine returned Tuesday to her home in Portland, after attending to business matters in this city.

Prof. Nicholas Tartar has returned from Salem where he has been having his eyes treated. He is much improved.

Mrs. C. A. Danneman is to depart this morning for Clem, Eastern Oregon, for a several weeks' visit with her husband.

Mrs. G. W. Keady came up from Portland, Wednesday, for a two weeks' visit with relatives. Walter Keady is expected tomorrow.

Roy Raber and family and Mrs. Inez Wilson and daughters, Grace and Bertha, went into camp, Wednesday at the Porter hop yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Graves Robinson of Portland are spending two weeks at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Robinson, in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Cate have arrived from Ridgefield, Wash., for a visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Alexander, and other relatives.

The morning subject at the M. E. church, Sunday, will be "Where the Kingdom of God Is," evening, "Lessons From a Woodland Deer." Everybody invited.

Miss Sophia Elgin is expected to arrive Wednesday from Marysville, California, where she has been nursing for the past year or two. She will remain in Corvallis.

Mrs. Lee Beach and daughter, who have been a Newport for many days, are out Wednesday and have been visiting friends before heading to their home in Portland.

Mrs. Adams, accompanied by her son, Ross, and daughter, Dorothy, departed Tuesday for California for a visit. In the same party, Misses Mary and Alice Jones went to Los Angeles where they are to attend school.

Miss Mabel Keady has just arrived home from a delightful visit with friends at Home Valley and in Portland. She was much benefited by the outing in the mountains and had some very pleasant trips on the Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Westerley arrived Wednesday from Eureka, California, to take possession of the Goose place, south of Corvallis, which Mrs. Westerley purchased of Robinson & Stevenson during a visit to Corvallis over a year ago.

Reuben Kiger, who has been in failing health for some months, is now confined to his bed. He suffered a very hard chill about ten days ago, since which time he has been worse and unable to be up. Friends hope for more favorable tidings in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kiger departed Tuesday for their home in Fox Valley, Eastern Oregon, after a month's visit with the former's brother, Reuben Kiger, and family. The visitors have sold their Eastern Oregon stock ranch and think quite strongly of locating at Pendleton.

Thomas Boulden has opened up a commission store in the Kline building next door south of the Bazaar. He will handle live and dressed poultry, veal, feed and other things common to the business, but does not expect to have the place thoroughly fitted up until hop picking is over.

Miss Edna Irvine leaves Sunday for Portland, en route to New York City, where she will join a theatrical company for the coming season. Of a company of 16 Miss Irvine was one of three to be invited to join the troupe this fall at an advance of salary, when the company disbanded for the summer, June 2nd. She has since been visiting at her home in this city. Miss Irvine is a bright, talented girl and many friends wish her success.

Subject at the Christian church, Sunday morning, "Larger Things," evening subject, "House Cleaning," Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m.; preaching service at 7:30.

Regular services will be held at the Congregational church next Sunday. Members of the church are urgently requested to be present and strangers in our city are extended a cordial invitation from the pastor and his people. Communion services will be held at 11 a. m. Topic, "The Power of Faith." Evening topic, at 7:30, "Excuses."

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. extend their hearty thanks to all who aided in any way toward the serving of meals during the Fair, especially to S. L. Kline for the free use of his building which so admirably supplied their need as to convenience and location, also to E. B. Horning for the free use of dishes, to the public for liberal patronage and to Miss Snell and others for donations of money.

Preaching at the Presbyterian church, Sunday morning and evening, by Rev. J. R. N. Bell. Morning topic, "Religion vs. Christianity," evening topic, "Pulpit, Press, Platform, Parlor." Are these, or any of the above doing the work, or are they merely play before the footlights? Our purpose is to throw a little limelight on this alteration. All other services at the usual hours. All made welcome.

It is reported that some uneasiness has been felt the past few days in regard to the whereabouts of Misses Zeeta Johnson, Edythe Keady and Anna Denman, as they have apparently disappeared from the city. Later: The anxiety of friends has just been relieved by the information that these popular young women are picking hops in a yard adjacent Corvallis, being so completely disguised in sun hats, big gloves and other "hop togger" that their best friends have failed all week to recognize them.

The marriage of John S. Taylor and Miss Ethel Brooks occurred at the home of Mrs. Sarah Goodchild, in Jobs addition, at high noon, Wednesday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. S. Handsaker of the Christian church in the presence of 25 relatives and friends. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Handsaker. The bride's maid was Miss Taylor, sister of the groom, and Earl Brooks, brother of the bride, was best man. The bride was prettily attired in white and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The rooms were artistically decorated with festoons of crepe paper and roses. After congratulations a beautiful wedding dinner was served. The newly married pair left for Newport on a brief trip. Upon their return they will reside on the Jimmy Swick farm, near this city. The good wishes of many friends are extended.

FOR SALE—Clean vetch seed. Phone 724. Roy Rickard. 71tf

Episcopal church services, Sunday, Sept. 30th. 10 a. m., Sunday School; 10:45, morning service; 7:45 p. m., evening service. Seats free. All welcome. J. W. Armstrong, Rector.

A full line of Colgate's Talcum powders, perfumes, soaps and tooth powders at Graham & Wells. 67-75

The Philomath public school is to open on Sept. 30th. Prof. Dan Cochrane of Independence is principal. The assistants are Prof. S. O. Watkins, Miss Winnifred Merriek and Miss Ebba Cronquist.

When in Albany see the 5, 10 and 15 cent counters at Charles Knecht's—next door to Hamilton's. 56tf

"Please send my bathing suit by mail. I forgot to pack it in my trunk," wrote the wife from the seashore. "Can't find it. You know you took my field glasses away with you," said the husband in his letter of reply.

"Blossom," the Inter-muzzo Two-Step, is the latest in music at Graham & Wells. 72-5

Secretary Taft's visit to Portland is attracting state-wide attention. All will be welcome to hear his address at the Armory, Friday evening, September 6th, at 8 o'clock p. m., where there is room for 6,000 people. His audience promises to be the largest in recent years.

Next Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 9 and 10, Dr. Lowe, the well known oculist, will be at the Hotel Corvallis. This will be his 47th trip to our city. 74

Yesterday was "Pension Day," the day on which pensioners in this district may execute their pension vouchers. County Clerk Vincent and his deputy, Capt. Crawford, had a busy hour or so, certifying the old veterans' papers. Under state law this is done and the papers forwarded to the pension agent at San Francisco, without charge to the pensioner. From data obtained at the county clerk's office it appears there is upwards of $20,000 disbursed in Benton county each year for pensions. Uncle Sam's generosity is no small blessing to scores of men and women now grown old.

Clum Read left Tuesday morning for a visit to his stock ranch in the Big Elk country.

New postals at the Bazaar. 74

The scaffolding was put up along the S. L. Kline store front the first of the week and workmen are now busily engaged in the task of doing away with the old and making a place for the handsome new front. Many weeks will be consumed on the job but the result will be very gratifying and a credit to the city.

The Bazaar is selling all summer goods at clearance prices. 74

One touch of nature makes the whole world kin;

One touch of humor makes the whole world grin;

One touch of pathos makes us brothers, every one;

But one "touch" for money makes the whole world in.—Ex.

WANTED—To buy small place in city. Address all communications to P. O. Box 326, Corvallis. 71tf

FOR SALE—Fine organ, also furniture. Inquire 1021, Corner 7th and Jackson, Ind. Phone 548. 74-5

The $5,000 offer in cash prizes for articles on Portland, Oregon, and this part of the United States in newspapers printed outside of Oregon and Washington, is open to every citizen of Oregon, and it must not be forgotten there are eighty chances to win. This has been stated before but there seems to be a general misunderstanding about it, judging from the letters received here.

Leave orders for views of the parade and school exhibits at Coffey's Photo gallery. 73-5

Mrs. H. M. Truax, mother of William Truax, the lad who was killed by being run over by a C. & E. freight train on Monday evening, is seriously ill at her home near Albany. The shock of her son's death coming as it did so soon after the death of her husband and a daughter, has completely prostrated her, and a physician is constantly in attendance.—Albany Herald.

FOUND—During Benton school fair, pair gold-bowed spectacles in black case. Owner call at Gazette office, prove property and pay for this advertisement. 74-5

Mrs. Martha Avery had a very painful experience that came near proving serious, Wednesday evening. In eating plums Mrs. Avery got one of the pits in her windpipe and a physician was hastily summoned. Everything possible was done but the aged lady seemed to sink into a doze with the obstruction still in her throat. She arose suddenly, however, and coughed, the action dislodging the pit and probably saving her life.

Graham & Wells have been appointed agents for Remington Type Writer ribbons and on papers. Ribbons can be adjusted to any machine. 67-75

Henry Ambler has sold his residence in this city to Prof. James Dryden of OAC for $3000, has severed his connection with the Ambler & Watters real estate company and with his wife is to leave Corvallis about the 15th for England probably to remain. Mr. Ambler has spent 24 years in the United States, 12 in Benton county where he has been in business in Philomath and Corvallis. While he has disposed of all his property in this city he still has property in Philomath that he will sell before leaving for England. In his residence in Benton Mr. Ambler has made for himself an enviable reputation and is held in high esteem as an upright, honorable, public-spirited gentleman, one whom a very large number of friends regret to lose by his departure. With his estimable wife, who will also be widely missed, Mr. Ambler will be followed across the waters by the earnest good wishes of all who had the honor of his acquaintance.

Have Dr. Lowe relieve your head and eye ache with a pair of his superior glasses. They cost no more than others and you have the benefit of his skill and over 18 years' experience. Consult him at Hotel Corvallis, Monday and Tuesday, September 9 and 10. 74

Mrs. S. N. Wilkins and son, Harold, departed Wednesday morning for Portland, where they attended the funeral that afternoon of the late Guy E. Moore, the remains having been brought from Chicago for cremation, arriving Monday evening. The remains of Medford Moore, who died six years ago, were disinterred at the L. O. O. F. cemetery, west of Corvallis, Monday, and shipped to Portland, where they were cremated with those of the son, Guy E. Moore, Wednesday. Harold Wilkins leaves Portland this evening for Ann Arbor, Michigan, where he will enter a university for a course in law. Mrs. Wilkins goes as far as Hood River and The Dalles where she will remain with relatives until about the first of November, when the new undertaking parlors and chapel at Vancouver will be completed. She will then assume charge as matron, residing with her husband in apartments upstairs in the same building. Corvallis friends regret the departure of the members of this estimable family and wish them well in their new home.

The Oak Creek Lumber Company has established a yard in Wilkins' Addition, and has on hand for sale a complete stock of rough and dressed lumber. Merle Moore is in charge of the yard and will be pleased to fill your bills. 54tf

New Fall GOODS Arriving Daily At

S. L. KLINE

Established 1864

The People's Store Corvallis Or.

Our Prices Knock Out the Catalog House

GRAND ANNUAL SALE AT F. L. MILLER'S

For the next 30 days we will offer the entire stock of Dry Goods, Clothing Shoes, Etc.

At prices never before offered in Corvallis. This is an opportunity to buy first-class merchandise at a bargain. We only ask you to call and compare our prices with others' before buying elsewhere.

F. L. Miller

CORVALLIS,

WHEN YOU SEE IT
IN OUR AD. IT'S SO

OREGON.

The "Blow" Almost Killed Father. Get an Electric Fan And keep off the Flies.

It is a well-known fact that flies are unable to withstand a steady breeze.

An Electric Fan quickly drives flies out of a room and keeps them out.

A full line of Electric Cooking Utensils. Wiring of all kinds done. Ask the man.

WILLAMETTE VALLEY CO.
G. A. CLARK, Mgr.

Wanted: To purchase from the breeders—Cotswold or Lincoln sheep. Call me on independent phone No. 561 or No. 284. Wm. H. Savage, Corvallis, Oregon. 53tf

Jersey Bull For Sale.

Descended from Grand Coin and Golden Glow; imported cow testing 18 lbs. butter fat, in 7 days, with first calf. Address, M. S. Woodcock, Corvallis, Oregon. 72tf

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR
for children, safe, sure, no opiates