J. W. Roth of Philomath began gathering his hop crop, yesterday. He was in town the last of the week and took out a new stove for his hop house, together with pipes and fixtures.

Miss Margaret Snell's new house, opposite President Gatch's home on college hill, is "growing" and will be ready for occupancy by October 1st. B. R. Thompson is doing the work.

Prof. A. B. Cordley and Superintendent Denman left yesterday for a few days' hunting trip in Alesia. It is rumored they took along enough beef steak to last until their return.

Mrs. W. J. Howell expected to open her confectionery store in the Charley Young building, back of Horning's store, yesterday. She makes her own candies and ice cream and will no doubt meet with liberal patronage.

Mrs. Prudence Chipman, who was injured last week in a runaway accident, is still confined to her bed and suffers considerable pain. She is severely bruised and so lame she can scarcely move.

State Secretary I. B. Rhodes of the Y. M. C. A., Portland, was a Corvallis visitor, Friday, being in conference with Secretary Hurd of OAC in regard to the work of their association for the coming year.

Plans have been adopted for remodeling Alpha Hall and as soon as possible the work of transforming the building into headquarters for the pharmacy department will begin. Prof. McKellips will be in charge of this department.

The Gazette acknowledges with thanks an invitation to be present at the State Fair, and other courtesies, from the secretary and president. There is no doubt that the coming fair will be a credit to the state, as reports all point to a bigger and better fair than has ever before been given.

R. D. Hurd came up from Portland the last of the week for a visit with his brother, C. T. Hurd, and family. He is almost entirely recovered from the surgical operation which he had performed on his neck, though for a time the wound made slow progress in healing. He returned to the city, yesterday.

George Sebrell was in Corvallis the last of the week, having just returned from Portland where he had been on a business trip. The first of next week he is to hold a sale at his ranch in Alesia valley, and immediately thereafter he will move his family to Corvallis. He has leased his farm to Peek and Phillips, two young men of Alesia.

Prof. H. D. Scudder and wife have arrived from Kansas to remain. Prof. Scudder is the newly elected professor of agronomy at OAC. He comes from the Kansas Agricultural College, and is highly recommended. With his wife he will occupy one of Dr. Cathey's residences when the same is vacated by Rev. Monosmith, in about two weeks.

Miss Margaret Fowells has just returned from a week's sojourn at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Long were over-Sunday visitors with Monmouth relatives.

Clarence Ireland returned yesterday to his home in Portland, after a business visit in this city.

C. Stimson leaves tomorrow for a visit at St. Louis and other Eastern points. He will be absent several weeks.

Mrs. Rose Nichols departed Friday for her home in Grants Pass, after a visit with relatives in Corvallis.

J. K. Johnson, wife and daughter, and Mrs. Lucy Francisco arrived home Sunday night from an all-summer outing at Newport.

Dolph Emerick, formerly of this city, came up from Portland, Friday, and went out to Monroe, Saturday, to visit relatives for a few days.

In the estate of Zelia Dodele, deceased, Paul E. Dodele, administrator, has filed his final account and October 7th has been set as the date for hearing objections to same.

Residents of the South Alesia road district have donated $82 for improvement of the Alesia mountain road. This is certainly commendable public spirit.

Mrs. Janet Smith and daughter, Miss Robena, depart tomorrow for Condon, Eastern Oregon, near which place Miss Smith will teach during the coming school year.

Mrs. Walter Elliott of Los Angeles, Calif., who has been the guest for a week of Mrs. W. G. Davis, departed Friday for a visit in Chicago and other Eastern cities.

S. S. Henkle has resigned as supervisor of road district 17, on account of removal from the district, and the county court has appointed R. W. Scott to fill the vacancy.

Misses Belle and Lillian Ranney and Claira Wade leave tomorrow for Condon, where Miss Belle will teach school and Miss Lillian will give lessons on piano during the coming winter.

The commission appointed to appportion the widow's dower in the Jasper Hayden estate has filed its report and the latter has been accepted by the county court. The commissioners were George C. Peek, W. H. Hammersley and Mark Adams.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Ella Townsend of Kings Valley, who died Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, occurred from the residence, at that place, Saturday afternoon. Deceased was aged about 35 years and had been ailing two years with consumption.

Mrs. M. S. Bovee and little son, Robert, arrived a few days ago from Wisconsin and with Mr. Bovee have gone to housekeeping in the S. N. Wilkins home on Third street. Mrs. Bovee came via Chicago and bought the remains of the late Guy E. Moore to Portland for cremation.

Mrs. Elbert Hollister arrived Friday evening from her home in Portland for a visit with relatives and friends in this city. Mr. Hollister has made several visits to Corvallis the past few days, being fireman on the special freight train that has been running to this city every evening, recently.

Willie Bristlin, aged about 15, had one of his legs broken just above the ankle, Saturday morning. He was en route to town in a wagon and in some manner his foot was caught in the spokes of the wheel with the result mentioned. The family resides near the G. F. Rice home, in the extreme western part of town.

In the matter of selecting exhibits for the state fair from the exhibits used at the All-Benton school fair, the committee in charge of the latter placed everything at the disposal of the county court. H. L. French being selected to make a choice from the collection, to go to the Salem fair. This is assurance that Benton will have a good exhibit.

C. C. Robinson, a son, has filed with the county court a petition to have a commission appointed to set aside the widow's dower for Sarah A. Robinson, in the Robinson estate. Citation is issued to the heirs to show cause why such dower should not be assigned and October 11th has been set as the date for hearing objections to the appointment of such commission.

The second son of Charles Lillard, while coming to town, Friday, with Jim Blodgett, was thrown from the rear end of the wagon, sustaining a fracture of the arm. The boy occupied a seat on a box and a quick jerk of the wagon threw him backwards into the road. The fracture was reduced by a local physician and the boy returned home in the afternoon.

H. W. True arrived Friday from Glen Flora, Wisconsin, for a visit with his brother, F. S. True, and family.

Miss Inez Williams came up from Portland, Sunday, and went to her home at Bellefontaine for a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams. She has been in Portland a year.

There was a quiet wedding yesterday morning at 9:30 at the home of Rev. and Mrs. G. H. Feese. The happy persons were Francis Martin of Inavale, and Mrs. Nancy J. Eason of Illinois, who arrived the day before. The two were old friends in years gone by, "back East." They will reside at Inavale.

Dan Kelly was defeated in the races at Jamestown, Saturday, making only fifth place in the 100-yard dash which he was expected, by Oregon backers, to win. First place was taken by H. H. Huff of Chicago. Kelly succeeded in winning first place in the broad jump. Forrest Smithson of OAC took first place in the 120 yard hurdles. The time made by Huff was 10-15.

Mrs. John Rickard gave a farewell party Saturday afternoon in honor of her daughters, Misses Belle and Lillian Ranney, who leave tomorrow for Eastern Oregon. About 30 guests enjoyed the occasion. Vocal music by Misses Lulu Spangler and Edna Allen, instrumental music, conversation and refreshments were features, and Rev. J. R. N. Bell "dropped in" and made a speech that was undoubtedly the "hit" of the afternoon. The affair was very enjoyable for all present.

John Wyatt was in town, Saturday, to take home a thoroughbred buck that arrived that day from the Stump stock farm in Polk county. The animal weighs 310 pounds and was a first prize winner at the St. Louis exposition and again at the Lewis & Clark exposition in '08. Mr. Wyatt, who is one of Benton's widely known and most prosperous farmers, has a fine flock of sheep and being thoroughly up-to-date and progressive in his ideas, is determined to have only the best of stock on his fine ranch. The animal just received is certainly a beauty.

Report from Portland says travel is enormous. Many families are coming to the state and for many hours during the day the Union Station shows an activity similar to that witnessed at a great national convention. They are ticketed for all points throughout the state and this travel will continue until the close of the colonist rates, October 31st.

The June bug disappears in June. The lightning bug in in May. The bed bug takes his bonnet off and says he's goin' to stay.—Ex.

Mrs. Ed. Felton, Sr., of this city, and her sister Mrs. Lillie Lealer of Seattle, left Sunday for Portland where Mrs. Felton is to enter a hospital for treatment.

Just received a new stock of Edison records at Graham & Wells. 75-8

The quarterly meeting of the Central Willamette Medical Society occurred at Hotel Corvallis, Thursday evening. There was an address on "Appendicitis" by Dr. Andrew C. Smith of Portland, followed by discussion, and a banquet concluded the evening. Those in attendance were: Drs. Pernot and Cathey, Corvallis; Drs. Kavanaugh, Stark, Wallace, Ellis and Davis, Albany; Dr. Howard; Drs. Newth and Loggan, Philomath; Dr. Bennett of Monroe; Dr. Booth of Lebanon; and Drs. Andrew C. Smith and W. T. Williamson of Portland.

The first Pure Food Show and Industrial Exposition will be held in Portland, September 12 and 13. The S. P. will sell round trip tickets for one and a third fare; children half price. Tickets good until the 15th. 75

A contribution to the All-Benton School Fair which was greatly appreciated at the time of the donation, and which is destined to be of future value, was $45 worth of lumber given by S. H. Moore, of the Oak Creek Lumber Co. It was used for platforms and seats during the fair and the committee intends storing it in the basement of the court house for use on similar occasions of like nature.

SANITOL—Graham & Wells have received their full line of Sanitol preparations. 75-82

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Blackledge returned Friday evening from a two days' visit to Mary's Peak. They had a delightful trip and saw three fine, fat deer, one of which Mr. Blackledge shot and brought home. The other two seemed not at all frightened by the shot and stood quietly gazing at the hunter, who was close to them, until the dog dashed at them, barking, when they turned and ran into the timber. Having only one horse to carry the camping outfit Mr. Blackledge did not shoot at any more of the beauties, knowing he could not bring them home.

When in Albany see the 5, 10 and 15 cent counters at Charles Knecht's—next door to Hamilton's. 56tf

As an advertisement for Corvallis and Benton county nothing could have taken the lead over the school fair. Even during the fair this was made manifest. A. K. Russ, secretary of the executive committee, reports to us that it was simply astounding the number of people who applied to him for programs and other printed matter relative to the fair in order that they might send the same to friends in the East. As an advertising feature alone the fair will prove a good investment.

FOR SALE—Fine organ, also furniture. Inquire 1021, Corner 7th and Jackson, Ind. Phone 548. 74-5

2000 Edison records to select from at Graham & Wells. 75-8

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hall of Rich Hill, Missouri, and Mr. and Mrs. Norton Adams spent Sunday at Newport. This was the visitors' first glimpse of the Pacific. They reside and own property in one of the big coal mining towns of Missouri, where the land is all rich in coal, and it is possible they may sell their holdings there and decide to seek a location elsewhere.

Leave orders for views of the parade and school exhibits at Coffey's Photo gallery. 73-5

Corvallis is to have a new gent's furnishings store. It will occupy the handsome north room of the A. J. Johnson brick and the proprietors will be C. V. Johnson of Airle and Mr. Haskell who resides in this city. Mr. Johnson and family are to move from Airle to Corvallis next week, and the store will probably open as soon after as stock and fixtures can be secured and arranged.

FOUND—During Benton school fair, pair gold-bowed spectacles in black case. Owner call at Gazette office, prove property and pay for this advertisement. 74-5

Richards & Pringle's minstrels played a number of selections on Main street, Saturday afternoon and at night gave an entertainment at the opera house, the opening event of the season at the local play house. While this is an old attraction, it is an ever popular one and this year's performance is up to if not ahead of the standard hitherto maintained by the company. There was a good sized audience which would have been larger but for the fact that "Uncle Tom's Cabin," another old-time favorite, was given the same night in a tent show on the flat.

The Oak Creek Lumber Company has established a yard in Wilkins' Addition, and has on hand for sale a complete stock of rough and dressed lumber. Merle Moore is in charge of the yard and will be pleased to fill your bills. 54tf

A bicycle carrying a complete camping outfit, a small dog and a man attracted considerable attention on Main street for a time, Friday. The rider has been working at Tillamook and is en route to California. The dog he carries in a canvas case strapped to the wheel, the pup being allowed to have its head outside the uncomfortable case. The young man was very dark complexioned and had neither shaved nor had a hair cut for a long time. To a generous offer of Corvallis boys to pay all barbering expenses if he would visit a local shop, the stranger curtly replied that he had money of his own and that he wanted none of their shaves.

"Blossom" the Inter-muzzo Two-Step, is the latest in music at Graham & Wells. 72-5

W. P. Lafferty had the misfortune to lose his driving horse, Thursday night. The animal had been ill only a few hours. It was at one time considered one of the fastest drivers in or about Albany.

SANITOL—Tooth powder and paste at Graham & Wells. 75-82

A tramp, a jug of liquor, A nook among the hay; A harmless combination, On a perfect summer day. But note the quick transition, To the pit which habit dug; Now the whisky's in the hobo, And the hobo's in the jug.—Ex.

Corvallis mothers had better take warning from the following item which comes from a Wisconsin town: "Mrs. Henry Williams was severely injured and her 7-year-old boy was fatally hurt when a dynamite cap in the boy's hip pocket exploded when the mother was spanking him. The boy had been watching his father using dynamite in blowing stumps and had slipped one of the caps into his pocket. Mrs. Williams used a shingle. The first blow exploded the cap and tore a large hole in the boy's side. The mother lost two fingers and sustained other wounds."

An old gentleman, rather portly and clad in a somewhat youthful suit of light gray flannel, sat on a bench in the park enjoying the spring day. "What's the matter, sonny?" he asked a small urchin who lay on the grass just across the walk and stared intently. "Why don't you go and play?" "Don't wanter," the boy replied. "But it is not natural," the old gentleman insisted, "for a boy to be so quiet. Why don't you run about?" "Oh, I'm just waitin'," the little fellow answered. "I'm just waitin' till you get up. A man painted that bench about 15 minutes ago."
