PHREATIC WEDDING.

At Fort Collins—Popular Young People Wed.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Lynn, and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. S. H. Raman, was the scene of a pretty wedding. Thursday afternoon and evening, Mr. and Mrs. Raman were united in marriage by the Rev. C. K. Carr, of the First Presbyterian Church.

With Miss Nellie Carrick, niece of the bride, and Mr. Lynn, the young couple entered the parlor and took a position on the sofa, where they were united by the minister. The wedding service was performed in the room of the Raman residence.

The bride made a very pretty picture in a diaphanous outfit of white silk and satin, with a veil of white swan's. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. S. H. Raman, and a popular young lady, who has many friends. The groom is a young man of good family and is favorably known.

Among the guests at the event were, the Rev. C. K. Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Raman, and various relatives, and many friends.

The bride's attire was simple and tasteful, and the wedding was a very pretty one.

The wedding ceremony was very brief, and the newlyweds left for their honeymoon immediately after the ceremony.

The bride and groom were very happy and filled with joy on this special occasion.

The Special Attraction 25th.

On our next wedding night we have the opportunity of attending the best musical comedy entertainment at the Raman residence.

They are being hosted by Miss Marjorie Lake, who has written and directed this production, which is being held by this organization in the yard of Warren & Fielding, much in vogue in New York. They have all been invited to the event, and we are sure that they will be there, bringing along someúmero and a little bit of everything.

The event is ticketed to "tell all things" as he says them. This is, of course, the season, but let the narrator refrain from any such comments.

This event is described as an opportunity to enjoy one of the best musical comedies of the season, and it is sure to be a highlight of the year.

The Whole Truth.

Most Editions Too Charitable to Print.

People who are given the opportunity of seeing the newspaper for what it is, and what it should be, are often surprised, as the case may be, should they take a hike out into the country and meet with a man.

They will take up their residence with the man for some time, and will be entertained by the good wishes of many friends.

Athletics at the Willamette.

While the attention of all college excellence to be directed to the great college game and the like, and field events are in the making, Willamette University, through Traylor Roy Hunter, and gathering the recruits for the coming season, is making preparations.

Williamson has practically given the assurance that two men who have been the peculiar heroes of his last season will do the "vanguard and the gold." They are William H. T. Williamson and Robert, and are equal, if not superior, to any men, according to reports, who are considered to be up in the Pacific Coast, the former Pacific man, and Grass. Old Wills, respectively, the captain of McKinzie track teams, is not expected to enter the University track team, Williamson, who runs in the middle last year, will be back.

It is expected that Lowney, William, all-around athlete, who entered the Knoxvill, Tenn., last year, with the management here announces that he has given notice that he will return to defend the honor of "Old Wills" in the upcoming great winter competition, and the like. It is expected that he will return to the Southern California.

The game is set to take place in the school season, and will be won by the best team of the day.

Should Keep Sheep.

Every farmer, with time to give them attention, should keep a few sheep, says the Agriculture Department. There is no animal that will give rich returns for the money that the care required. The sheep is a hardy animal and the yearly increase and ability "live" makes the same a very good investment.

Every year the sheep number more and more, as the product of the farm's most reliable revenue. Every farmer, beautiful and rich, maintain a flock of from 20 to 200, with very little cost and much profit. The "best kind" is a matter of much attention. It is very necessary to have a few sheep, and the best breed is the English.
