

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Prof. C. I. Lewis of OAC has been a Salem visitor this week. F. R. Pendergrass of last year's football team arrived Tuesday to re-enter college. Prof. J. B. Horner and family moved Wednesday into their apartments in Waldo Hall. J. S. Booth came out from Newport, Wednesday, on a brief business trip, returning yesterday. "Jimmy" Chambers of Kings Valley has returned to Corvallis to spend the winter. He will teach music. Mr. Stutz and family moved Tuesday into the George C. Egan property, which they have purchased. "What side do you generally take when your wife gets in an argument with somebody else?" "Outside. It's safer."—Ex. Mrs. Z. Custer has returned to her home in Newport, after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. George Lilly, in Corvallis. "Cheer up! There is a silver lining to every cloud!" "Well, what good is that? I haven't got an air-ship."—Ex. Dr. James Withcombe has been at North Yakima, Wash., this week, where he has officiated as stock judge at the state fair. Mrs. C. E. Lumm, who has made her home in this city for several years, departed the first of the week for Los Angeles, to reside. Presiding Elder Pratt of Portland will preach at the United Evangelical church morning and evening, Sunday. Everyone is invited. Mrs. George Myers and son, Fred, left this morning for Corvallis, where Fred will enter the Agricultural College.—Tuesday's Capital Journal. Mr. McGinnis and family have moved into what is known as the "old" S. N. Wilkins property, opposite the Blackledge home, which they have purchased. The Y. M. and Y. W. C. A.'s will hold services at the college, Sunday afternoon, in the room of the former association in the Administration building, on the second floor. J. W. Sanford and family moved Wednesday from the Harlan house in Jobs addition to a residence on Third street. They are recent arrivals from California. Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Carmichael who were married at Peoria last week were in Corvallis, Wednesday, en route by private conveyance to their home near Harlan, Lincoln county. J. W. Ingle and E. McLennan have begun the erection of a blacksmith shop on lots adjoining the Snow livery stable. When completed the building will be occupied by Blacksmith Bogard. Mrs. Martha Sprague of Bellefontaine went to Portland the first of this week where she was operated on for appendicitis. A message from the bedside, Tuesday, stated that she was doing nicely. Miles B. Belden, formerly a well known OAC student, a graduate in the class of '06, was visiting in Corvallis, Tuesday. He stated that he had no address at present, which means that he is off on vacation. C. W. Haskell and family, who recently arrived in this city from Port Orchard, Wash., have purchased and now occupy the Mrs. C. E. Lumm property in Jobs addition. Mrs. Haskell is a sister of Mrs. C. Hotchkies. Among the well known students who have returned to OAC this week are Roscoe Ne. of Baker City, E. Hollenberg of Portland, and Roy Clark of Portland, president of the college Y. M. C. A. Edwin Thayer is to arrive today from Rainier. The college Y. W. C. A. girls are to have a room for their use in Waldo Hall. One of the state secretaries of the organization is to be at Waldo Hall for a month or two at the opening of college to assist the young women in planning their work for the coming year. Miss Gertrude Johnson of Philomath, who returned recently from Seaside, where she attended the convention of the Y. W. C. A., as representative of the Philomath association, and who has been visiting relatives in Salem, left today for her home.—Tuesday's Capital Journal. News has just been received by friends in this city of the death, in Washington, of Mrs. Maude McCoskey. Deceased was formerly Miss Maude Marsh, for two years an OAC student. She was well known and popular during her college years in this city. She leaves a husband and an infant one month old.

Miss Mabel Farmer returned Tuesday from a visit with friends at Turner. Chasney Harding, one of the old football men, has arrived to re-enter OAC. T. H. Wells, wife and daughter, Vivian, returned Tuesday from a week's visit in Salem and Portland. Harry Belknap came home Tuesday from Salem, where he assisted with the OAC exhibit during the fair. Ed Kiger returned to Portland, Wednesday, after a few days' visit with his brother, Reuben Kiger, in this city. Dr. Flint, whose life was thought to be in danger during a severe illness a week ago, is improving and is able to sit up. Miss Della King has gone to Burns, Eastern Oregon, to spend the winter with her uncle, Will King, and attend school. The office of President Kerr at OAC has been wired for electric lights this week, and wiring is in progress at Waldo Hall. The crew of the late Crawford peaches at the Kiger orchard will be ready for gathering about the 1st of October. There is a good crop. Miss Mae Smith, an OAC graduate, well known in this city, is teaching again this fall in Oregon City, where she was employed last year. John Lenger's delivery rig was almost demolished Monday evening in a runaway. Considerable damage was done but the horse was not injured. It is stated in this city that O. V. Hurt, for many years a resident of Corvallis, has become a member of the firm that conducts a store at Waldport. Dr. G. H. Feese went to Portland Tuesday morning to attend the annual conference of the M. E. church. Mrs. Feese went down Wednesday for the same purpose. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sta. and daughters, Misses Sylva and Mamie, arrived home Tuesday from a week's visit to Portland, Vancouver, Salem and a trip up the Columbia. Henry Felton and family left the first of this week for their home at Burns, Eastern Oregon, after spending the summer with the former's parents, M. and Mrs. Charles Felton, in this city. Report reached Corvallis, Tuesday, that Tom Vidio, who is out on a hunt in the mountains, had slaughtered a fine, big elk. So far this is the only one reported killed by any of the Corvallis hunters who are afield. H. A. Flint arrived Tuesday from Syracuse, New York, for a visit with his father, Dr. L. V. Flint. The latter is very weak, and although able to dress and be about the house, is too feeble to receive many callers. Miss Keeney Brown and brother, Vern, niece and nephew of Mrs. F. O. Gray, arrived Tuesday from Arapahoe, Nebraska, to join the father and brother, who came to Oregon about a year ago for the benefit of the latter's health. R. S. Bryson purchased from Mrs. Angeline Holt, yesterday, 3 fine lots on West Ninth street between Lincoln and Lawrence, with 200 feet front by 160 feet deep. The consideration was $2300 which is considered very reasonable.—Eugene Register. It is reported here that fishermen and cannerymen are at war on the south Alsea, the fishermen having demanded 15 cents per fish for silver sides and 40 cents per fish for Chinook salmon. This, it is alleged, the cannerymen refuse to pay, with the result that the canneries are shut down and the fishermen practically idle. The Commissioner of the General Land Office has issued an order which requires the registrars and receivers of all United States land offices to prepare all applications to make entries and filings on public lands when they are required to do so by the applicants. This order will insure greater accuracy in papers of this kind, and be a great saving to the applicants who have heretofore been required to have their applications prepared at their own expense. The Oregon State Fair at Salem last week was a record breaker in point of attendance, and the speed contests were the best in the history of the fair and aroused even more enthusiasm than when pools were sold. The twelve new stables which housed the splendid stock exhibit were visited by many thousands, there being as many ladies as men present. The displays of products of the soil were up to those in quality shown at the Lewis & Clark exposition, and the crowds were admirably handled.

Miss Stella Williams arrived Wednesday from Albany to become a student at OAC. Mrs. G. B. Keady has been suffering for a month with a severe attack of rheumatism in her arm. Prof. Clyde Phillips arrived Wednesday evening from California, where he has spent the summer in the Sacramento Valley. He will resume his position at OAC. Next Sunday is the day for the annual Sunday School rally at the Christian church. Preparations are being made for a great day. "Found Dead—Who is Responsible?" will be the subject of Rev. Handsaker's morning discourse at the Christian church next Sunday. Evening subject, "First Things First." A large tabernacle is being erected on the lot adjoining the Christian church for use during the revival to be held by Dr. S. M. Martin of Seattle. The meeting will begin Oct. 6th. License to wed was issued Wednesday to Amos E. Scroggs, a railroad conductor of Portland, and Miss Theila Rickard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rickard of Southwestern Benton. Miss Iva Barclay has closed out her millinery store in this city and it is rumored she will go to Caldwell, Idaho, to accept a position. The best wishes of a large circle of friends follow her. Henry Wortham, Harry Winkley and Tom G. Shum arrived home, Wednesday, from a week's hunting and fishing trip in Alsea Valley. The Gazette knows they were successful and also knows that Alsea salmon cannot be beaten for flavor. Thanks! A cordial welcome is extended strangers and students by the pastor and members of the Congregational church. Regular services will be held as usual next Sunday. The pastor's morning subject will be, "Lost Opportunities," evening topic, "Whoever Will." Roy Harlan, a popular student who graduated from OAC in the class of '05, has entered Drake University, Iowa, for a three years' course. For the past two years he has been Y. M. C. A. secretary at Boise, Idaho. En route to Iowa he visited in Chicago and also with his sister, Mrs. M. L. Peters, in Omaha. Mrs. Peters is known in this city. After phoning home that they had met with no success in hunting and would be home Sunday night, Dr. Taylor and John Kiger suddenly changed their minds and decided the first of the week to remain a few days longer at Lobster. The fishing bee was better and three deer were slaughtered by the hunters, which caused them to change their minds. The party reached home Tuesday. The Corvallis public schools opened Monday with bright prospects for a prosperous year. The purchase of so many new books was something of a hardship in many homes, but like all other emergencies in life was met and overcome by all, in some way. The enrollment on the opening day was 480, which is a very encouraging beginning, and the number will increase during the next few weeks. Thirteen teachers are employed in Corvallis. Will Lane, his mother and sister have arrived from Harriburg and are located in the new house that Charles Heckart recently built on his lots in Jobs addition. Mr. Lane will attend OAC and his sister will enter the public school. Students' note books, tablets, pencils, etc., at the Bazaar. 80 Mrs. Lailla Patterson and Mrs. George Nichols of Albany were Corvallis visitors yesterday. Archie Burns, formerly a popular OAC student, now of Portland, is visiting old friends in this city. Engine Dietzgen Co's. drawing instruments are the best. Sold by Graham & Wells. 80-82 Miss Marjorie Lake and her musical comedy company, in "A $19,000 Beauty" made a decided hit at the Corvallis opera house, Wednesday night. Besides being catchy and clean, there are some really good vocalists and the music is better than is usually heard at such shows. Pretty costumes were a feature of the company's appearance here, and taken as a whole the audience was immensely pleased. Among other attractions already booked for the Corvallis play house by Manager Groves, are "Uncle Josh Perkins," "Tennessee's Partner," "Under Southern Skies," "Orange Blossoms" and "Human Hearts." The winter promises to be an interesting one for theatre-goers in Corvallis. SANITOL—Talcum and bath powder at Graham & Wells. 75-82 Episcopal church services, Sunday, Sept. 29th. 10 a. m., Sunday School; 11 a. m., morning service and sermon; 7:30 p. m., evening service with address. Seats free. All welcome. J. W. Armstrong, Rector.

Hon. W. M. Hayes, assistant secretary of Agriculture of Washington, D. C., was in Corvallis all day Wednesday, departing on the evening train for Pullman, Wash. His purpose in this city was to visit the college and gather data in regard to work on the farm there. Mr. Hayes is touring the coast in the interest of his department and came here from California. He is an old neighbor of Mrs. J. J. Cady of this city, with whom he visited while in Corvallis. SANITOL—Tooth powder and paste at Graham & Wells. 75-82 S. H. Horton and wife and Mrs. J. E. Robinson, grandparents and mother respectively, of the late Mrs. Maude Hendrickson, desire to express their sincere appreciation of the many kindnesses shown them by friends and neighbors during the illness and death of their dear one. The Bazaar has a splendid line of new hand bags. 80 Coach Norcross of the Oregon Agricultural college went to Portland the first of the week. The Albany Herald said of him: "Mr. Norcross states that the football prospects for OAC are exceedingly bright this year and the team will be much stronger in every respect than it was last year. The eleven will be strengthened greatly by four experienced players from Utah besides a number of other men who have been secured. From present indications the farmers' eleven will give the U. of O. a hard run for the championship of Oregon. At present Willamette University at Salem is not considered to be a serious factor in the race for football supremacy in the state, as that institution is weakened by the loss of a number of its best players, who have been given inducements to play with an Eastern Washington college." The Oak Creek Lumber Company has established a yard in Wilkirk Addition, and has on hand for sale a complete stock of rough and dressed lumber. Merle Moore is in charge of the yard and will be pleased to fill your bills. 54tf This item was handed in just an hour too late for the Tuesday issue of the Gazette, but because of its general interest is given now. At the State Fair Kline's Kandy Kids carried off the laurels in two of the four games of baseball, missing the cup by only one run. The record of games is as follows: Wednesday, Salem 3; Kids, 1; batteries, Dugan and Phillips; Thursday, Kids, 5; St. Johns, 3; batteries, Huff and Cooper; Friday Kids, 12; Wootbara, 3; batteries, Huff and Cooper; Saturday, Forest Grove, 4; Kids, 3; batteries, Francis and Cooper. SANITOL—Graham & Wells have received their full line of Sanitol preparations. 75-82 Three vessels are now in Yaquina Bay. The schooner Bandon is loaded with a cargo of lumber under consignment of the Curtis Lumber company for San Pedro, Cal. and the Gerald O., of Astoria, is unloading a cargo of freight at Newport. The tug Edna May, of Portland, is also at Yaquina new and is making excursions out over the bar. The steamer T. M. Richardson, which was idle most of the summer receiving repairs, is now making regular runs from Yaquina to Newport, connecting with Corvallis & Eastern trains. When in Albany see the 5, 10 and 15-cent counters at Charles Krach's—next door to Hamilton's. 56tf Samuel Beeson, a Friend, of the Quaker faith, conducted services at the M. E. church in Philomath last Wednesday night. After services a number of young people congregated at the Beeson home and gave the family a farewell surprise party as they intended departing for Idaho the following day. Those present were the Misses Hetty Archibald, Hazel Merryman, Bessie Pugh, Bessie Pugsley, Lulu Newton, Ora Gibbons, Grace and Vida Prater, Belva Pierce and Hazel Archibald; Messrs. Eddie Merrick, Roy Scott, Lester Bennett and Roy and Carl Beeson. Drawing instruments at Graham & Wells' drug store. 80-82 Miss Belva Pierce has returned home from a several days' visit with friends in Philomath. Rev. G. H. Gibbs, pastor of the M. E. church, South, will go to Roseburg next Tuesday to attend his annual conference. He will fill his pulpit Sunday morning and evening. Sunday evening will be the last service before conference and probably the pastor's last sermon in Corvallis. WANTED—20 cords of fir wood. See W. C. Corbett. 79-80 There was a quiet wedding at the court house Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 when Clerk T. T. Vincent performed the ceremony that united Elmer E. Norton of Summit and Miss Minta Savage, also of Benton county. Only the necessary witnesses were present. The young couple will reside near Summit, where the groom has a farm. New goods at the Bazaar. 80 H. J. French and members of his family came up from Salem, Tuesday, where they had been in charge of the Benton county booth during the state fair—the booth, by the way, that carried off first prize. Only one other county gave Benton a close race and that was Lane. Only five counties had sold exhibited, whereas in other years eleven have competed for the honors. The fact is one that should not be overlooked in pondering over the reasons why Benton won first place. There is an air of bustle and activity in Corvallis once more. The students are here in large numbers and each train brings in many "old" and many "new" faces. In another week the work will be on for the year '07-'8 and it promises to be indeed a bright and prosperous year for OAC. Best line of postal cards in Corvallis at the Bazaar. 80 The Buxtons have secured the contract for the mill work for the new school house at Bellefontaine. It is to be a large, fine building, modern in all respects, and a credit to the county. Gene Simpson's china pheasant farm is a constant source of entertainment in Corvallis, judging from the number of people who visit the place every Sunday. As is known, Mr. Simpson recently shipped 44 crates of pheasants for which he received $1,100, and there is "plenty" left. It has been rumored that Gene has become so completely fascinated with the business that he favored naming his new son "China P. Simpson" and was only prevented from doing so by the strenuous objections of his wife. Wilkins & Bovee, Funeral Directors and Embalmers. Successors to S. N. Wilkins, Corvallis, Oregon, Phone 45. 76tf Services at the Presbyterian church, Sunday morning and evening as follows: At the morning service the Sunday School will hold its Rally Day services with a short address by the pastor. All, old and young, are earnestly invited to attend these morning exercises to encourage the children and young people. At the evening service the pastor will give his Sunday evening lecture on the "Palpit, Press, Platform, Parlor." Do not fail to hear this discourse. Boyce Rawlins, a cousin of Dr. Kerr, has arrived and will enter college. Henry E. Dosch and son of Portland were in Corvallis, Wednesday, arranging for the latter to attend college. Misses Juanita and Modesta Rosendorf returned the first of the week from Salem.

Buy Farra's Plant. At a special meeting of the commission of the City Water Works, held Tuesday evening, the plant of the Corvallis Water Company was purchased, Dr. G. R. Farra representing the later company. The commission of the City Water Works consists of F. L. Miller, S. L. Kline, W. S. McFadden and Wm. Bogue. These are the parties representing both sides of the deal. The price paid was $4,500 and few will fail to see that the city got a splendid bargain. Possession of the recently acquired plant is to be given October 1st. The commission purchased the main leading from the plant to the Congregational church, Dr. Farra and his company retaining the balance of the piping. This is a most creditable move on the part of the commission, as it provides for any exigencies which might arise. Now, in case anything happens to our mountain water system we have a plant right here to supply water; in fact, we now own two plants. We are well fixed, thanks to the commission. Another thing to credit of the commission is that it is proposed to pay for the plant without issuing bonds, as they were authorized to do at the last city election. From whatever point of view we take in the matter it seems that the commission has acted most wisely.

She Found Relief. If you are troubled with liver complaint and have not received help, read this. Mrs. Mary E. Hammond, Moody, Texas. "I was in poor health—with liver trouble—for over a year. Doctors did me no good and I tried Herbine, and three bottles cured me. I can't say too much for Herbine, as it is a wonderful liver medicine. I always have it in the house. Publish where you wish." Sold by Graham & Wortham.
