At this week's meeting of the city council, Postmaster B. W. Johnson appeared and presented to that body the importance of numbering the residences in Corvallis, improving the sidewalks and locating the names of the streets, preparatory to the installation of the free city mail delivery to which Corvallis will be entitled by the first of next January.

Local theatre goers will have the opportunity of witnessing the Chicago success, "Thorns and Orange Blossoms," which comes to the opera house on next Tuesday night. The play, players and production come highly recommended. The indications are that the opera house will be crowded. The seat sale opens Saturday morning at Graham & Wortham's.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Collins and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ireland arrived Tuesday night from Portland where the former had been at the bedside of Alexander Collins, the well known Polk county farmer who was seriously injured a week ago in a fall from a street car. The injured man had not regained consciousness up to Tuesday noon and it was impossible to tell how seriously he is injured. Mr. and Mrs. Collins left Wednesday for their home at Prineville.

Born, Monday night, to Prof. and Mrs. C. I. Lewis, a daughter.

W. A. Vaughn departed Wednesday for California to accept a position.

Prof. A. B. Cordley returned Tuesday from a business trip to Portland.

Charles Watts has arrived from Vancouver and resumed his duties at OAC.

W. S. Tomlinson of the vicinity of Albany was a Corvallis business visitor, Tuesday.

Mrs. Minnie Lee has been having a neat summer house erected on her premises the past few days.

Dr. James Withycombe addressed the student Assembly Wednesday morning on "The Industrial Development of the State of Oregon." He left yesterday morning for Gresham and will return tomorrow night.

The Corvallis skating rink opened for the season Monday night, a large crowd being present. Music was furnished by a band, the new orchestral piano which was expected to arrive in time for the opening having failed to arrive. It is delayed in transit.

Johnson Porter was exhibiting on Main street, Tuesday, some fine English walnuts which grew on a seedling in his yard this fall. The nuts are of large size and excellent flavor and as this is the first year that the tree has borne there is promise of a good yield in the coming seasons.

W. T. and C. E. Small have just installed in their bakery a patent cookie maker. It is a "new fangled" machine, having a hopper in which the dough is pressed down on a level, a wire clipping off the cookies as rapidly as the dough is fed into the press. It is a decided improvement over the tedious hand process.

The Gazette is in receipt of a postal card from a Monroe subscriber, asking that his paper be changed from Monroe to Corvallis R. F. D. 4. The writer failed to sign his name and the Gazette is therefore unable to meet the request until more definite instructions are received.

Roy E. Heater, of Pacific College fame, has resigned his position at Willamette University to accept the position of physical trainer at OAC. Mr. Heater was in Corvallis, Tuesday, looking over the situation and will arrive shortly with his wife and child to take up his residence. He has a reputation as a pole vaulter and athlete, and much can be expected of him in handling the men at OAC.

Don't say, "I can't understand why the papers make so many mistakes." If you had ever been in the business you would say instead, "I think it one of the miracles of the age that newspapers can do that amount of work under that amount of pressure and make so few mistakes."—Ex.

Fresh Yaquina Bay clams every Saturday, at Thatcher & Johnson's grocery. 86tf

Eugene has just voted to issue $300,000 in water bonds for the purpose of securing a supply of absolutely pure mountain water. A stream in the forest reserve will be tapped and the water brought 35 miles by gravity system. This will insure the students of the University of Oregon pure water without the necessity of boiling it.

Dayton Bros., the well known eye specialists, will be in Corvallis on their regular trip, Friday and Saturday, October 18 and 19. As usual they will have their office at the Hotel Corvallis. Dozens of local references. Eyes examined free. If you need glasses get the best. 85-8

What promises to be to the lumbering interests of the Pacific Northwest one of the most valuable bulletins ever published is the bulletin to be issued next spring by the Department of Forestry on the strength of the Oregon fir. During the past two years a most thorough and exhaustive series of tests have been made by J. B. Knapp, engineer in charge at the University of Oregon Testing Station. In the preparation of the report, considerable collateral data will be used, and Mr. Knapp is now in Washington preparing his material.

The local basketball enthusiasts have already commenced thinking about the organization of a team for the coming winter. The members of last year's team will all be in Independence or the immediate vicinity again this winter and there is little question but what with the practice and good record of the past a strong team can be had here this winter. Not a game was lost last season and the team went up against some of the strong teams of the valley, including the university team—Independence West Side.

Don't go to the editor of a paper and ask that a legitimate news story be kept out. It would be just as unreasonable and just as indelicate as to go to the banker and ask him to give you money or to the lawyer and ask him to give up one of his cases. A newspaper is a business enterprise. When you ask it to keep out news, you ask it to injure its own business.—Ex. This is common sense and it would be a blessing to the editors if readers would become aroused to the facts in the matter.

When in Albany see the 5, 10 and 15 cent counters at Charles Knecht's—next door to Hamilton's. 56tf

If a single reader of this paper has failed to write letters to some old friend, acquaintance, relative or other person who may be benefited by coming to Oregon, he should write today. The colonist rates close October 31st and if you want your letter to get results it must be forwarded at once. The rates are $25 from Missouri River points, St. Paul, Winnipeg, and all the country adjacent, $30 from St. Louis and $35 from Chicago with a reduction of $2.50 to points east of Umatilla. Similar rates from every other point in the United States. Get busy and add one family to the population of Oregon.

Portland is planning to erect a building at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition and install therein a municipal exhibit. Spokane, Tacoma and several of the other large cities of the Pacific Northwest will also do the same.

The Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition will not ask Congress for a loan or will it solicit any money for expenditure by the corporation. Uncle Sam will simply be asked to participate in the same manner as foreign governments and the different states.

Preaching at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening by the pastor, Rev. J. R. N. Bell. Morning topic, "October Thoughts;" evening topic, "Shibboleth versus Sibboleth." Everybody made welcome. The other services at the usual hours.

Episcopal church services, Sunday, October 20. 8 a. m., Holy Eucharist; 10 a. m., Sunday School; 11 a. m., morning service, sermon, etc.; 7:30 p. m., evening service with address. Seats free. All welcome. J. W. Armstrong, Rector.

Apparently driven to desperation by the recent liquor prosecutions, unknown opponents of the Anti-Saloon League and Good Citizenship League of this city, have resorted to making threats against the supposed leaders. In confirmation of this S. E. Young, a trustee in the United Presbyterian church Tuesday morning received an anonymously signed communication, to the effect that if the prosecution in the liquor cases did not cease, that the handsome church, located on the corner of Fifth and Washington streets, would be burned. The unknown writer of the communication is supposed to be some radical anti-prohibitionist, who believes that the United Presbyterian church members are backing the present liquor prosecutions and is seeking this underhand means of frightening the leader in the cases.—Albany Herald.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Ed. Smith was held from the residence at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, the services being conducted by C. T. Hurd. A large number of sympathizing friends and neighbors, and numerous sorrow-stricken relatives attended the last rites. The remains were interred in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. Mattie Keester was born 20 years ago next Christmas eve. She was married to Ed Smith a year ago last February. Besides her husband she leaves a 14 days old baby, her parents and several brothers and sisters to mourn her early passing. Mrs. Smith was a modest, attractive young woman whose kindly disposition won her many friends.

Rev. D. H. Leech will preach at the M. E. church both morning and evening Sunday, in spite of the fact that his time has been largely occupied with other work since his recent arrival in Corvallis. Everybody invited to the Sunday services.

Norton Adams is hurrying to completion his new house in Jobs addition which is to be occupied, when finished, by C. V. Johnson and family. The plasterers began work yesterday and it is the purpose to have the structure done by the first of November.

Miss Iva Stevenson, Miss Josephine Fullerton, Mrs. Fulkerson and Miss Kate Tadlock of the Corvallis public schools were Albany visitors, Tuesday.

Officers were elected at the Benton county Sunday School convention in this city, Wednesday afternoon, as follows: President, W. C. Swann; vice president, W. C. Schraber; recording secretary, Ethel Hollister; statistical secretary and treasurer, Prof. Henry Sneak of Philomath; Sup't Home Dep't, Mrs. C. D. Abbott; elementary dep't, Mrs. Maggie McGinnis; adult dep't, W. N. Wimmer of Philomath; Temperance and Good Citizenship, Joseph Edwards of Bellefontaine.

A dense smoke arising in the hills west of Philomath last Tuesday caused some concern in our burg as danger was apprehended for the big lumber mill belonging to the Benton County Lumber Company. A large slashing was burned but was closely guarded so no damage further than the burning down of some telephone poles was done.

There's Exceptional Style in this "Yale" Suit for Young Men

IT'S another of the Ederheimer-Stein garments we've selected to demonstrate in every sale we make that this is, in fact, a superior clothing store.

1. The Yale is the smartest Young Man's style—striking in the weave and rich colors of the fabrics—combines good taste, service, satisfaction—lends the air of true refinement—is fashionable without being fancy.

2. The young fellow who exercises common sense and good judgment in the selection of this style, cannot be commonplace. It's a suit for college men or any others who are particular. Let us show it to you.

Superior tailoring reaches its climax in the Yale. Each garment is made separately by skillful hand needlework throughout. Trimmings and fabrics all match. Every operation of the tailor contributes to make it distinctive, individual.

THE "YALE"—Coat is long and full chested; cuffs on sleeves; open seams down back of coat and sides of trousers. Trousers full at waist. Sizes 30 to 38. Prices $18 to $35.
