OAC WON IT.
Game Saturday Drew Big Crowd on Local Field.

In a splendid game on OAC field Saturday afternoon, OAC defeated Whitworth college six to naught. The single touchdown was made by Cady in a 35 yard run, after catching the ball during passage from one Whitworth player to another in a forward pass formation. The play brought the grandstand to its feet. It occurred about the middle of the second half.

The game was Whitworth's in the first half by reason of excellent use of the forward pass and quarterback kicks, both of which were successfully worked for repeated gains. By use of them Whitworth during the first half was near enough to try a goal from placement, both of which failed.

The story was different in the second half, in which OAC appeared to much the best advantage scoring a touchdown, and having Whitworth's men dangerously near their own goal when time was called. OAC used no tricks, relying on straight football at which they easily made yardage. Whitworth's reliance was of totally different style. The game was witnessed by a thousand people, who pronounced it a splendid exhibition of football.

The lineup was as follows:

OAC	Whitworth
Baiber	R. G. Phipps
Jamieson	R. T. Schroder
Dobbin	R. E. Ruber
Kelly	C. McLoud
Pendergrass	L. G. Ruey
Bennett	L. T. Doud
Harding	L. E. Dennis
Rinehart	R. H. Rousch (cap)
Cooper	L. H. Couber
Gagnon	Q. Paul
Wolfe	F. Metzger
OAC subs,	Cady, Emily.

"The Cow Puncher" Coming.

A bright cleverly written drama, "The Cow Puncher" will be seen at the opera house Friday, November 1st. The play is by Hal. Reid, author of "Human hearts," and is one of the strongest dramas produced this season, in its construction the dramatist has not sacrificed naturalness for cheap effect—and the plot is one that depends on the merit of the exceptionally fine company, rather than on impossible situations for its strength. Its scenes are laid in Arizona. There is a charming love story running through the play, and an abundance of clean, neat comedy. In point of costumes and scenery the production is elaborately equipped, and it is conceded to be one of the season's most successful productions. Seat sale opens Wednesday morning. Prices 35, 50 and 75.

W. U. Loses Players.

As a result of injuries received in the game between Willamette University and the Washington football team, and because he cannot afford to take chances of being broken down physically and getting behind in his studies for the practice of medicine, W. G. Nace, the sturdy and dependable halfback, has announced his intention of retiring from football altogether and will not appear upon the gridiron again in a W. U. uniform, or any other uniform for that matter, says the Oregonian. It is also understood that Rube Saunders, the husky Indian who has been playing fullback this season for the Willamettes, has doffed the jersey and pads "for fair," and has declared that he will not play any more for the Methodist institution.

The loss of these two husky and aggressive players will prove serious for Willamette University. In the first game of the season with the Washingtons, Nace sustained a broken rib and a displaced collarbone and internal injuries. Saunders, it is understood, became enraged over the loss of his padded sweater from his locker in the Willamette gymnasium, during a recent game and for this and other reasons he is quoted as saying he would play no more.

The Girl Who Succeeds.

She has so much to do that she has no time for morbid thoughts. She never thinks for a moment that she is not attractive, nor forgets to look as charming as possible.

She is considerate of the happiness of others, and it is reflected back to her as a looking-glass.

She never permits herself to grow old, for by cultivating all the graces of heart, brain and body, age does not come to her.

She awakens cheerfully in the morning and closes her eyes thankfully at night.

She believes that life has some serious work to do, and that the serious work lies very closely to the homely, everyday duties, and that kind words cost nothing.

She is always willing to give suggestions that will help some less fortunate one over the bad places in life's journey.

She is ever ready to talk about a book, a picture or a play, rather than permit herself to indulge in idle words about another.

She is her own sweet, unaffected, womanly self; therein lies the secret of her popularity, of her success.—Ex.

Rader, Cook and "Pilk."

—Rev. Paul Rader, a veteran football player from the University of Colorado, and Floyd Cook, acknowledged as one of the best punters that ever wore Multnomah colors, are both out for football practice with the Multnomah Club squad, and both will probably play in the coming game with Whitman next Friday.

Mr. Rader is a football player and will do a great deal to strengthen the club line. He is a big man and weighs over 200 pounds. This weight is not superfluous flesh for Rader is a well-built man, standing over six feet four inches in height. He will no doubt be able to do great things for the club.

Floyd Cook cannot be classed with Rader in size. He is about the average height and weighs 170 pounds. Every bit of this, however, is muscle, and he is very fast on his feet. Cook is a great punter and when playing full for the club in the years 1902 and 1903 had a record of an average kick of 50 yards. Cook is well known in the city and formerly was president and manager of the Cook Motor Car Company.

Bert Pilkington an old OAC star, is another of the new men who will help the club in her coming struggle with Whitman. Pilkington has a fine record as an all-round player.—Oregonian.

Monroe.

The infant son, of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Brabham, Thomas Ellsworth Brabham, died of cholera infantum early Saturday morning aged five months and eight days. Mr. Mark Waltz conducted the funeral service both at the house and at the grave. W. F. Starr, Mrs. Ed Kay, Mrs. M. Waltz and Eva Baker were the choristers and Rev. Clay Starr assisted Mr. Waltz. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of a host of relatives and friends who together with them will not soon forget the new made mound which marks the last resting place of their first born.

Wilhelm's are denied the use of their electric lights because there is not sufficient water to run the mill by day and the dynamo by night.

WANT OREGON LANDS.
Russians With Capital Do—Other Notes on Oregon.

$4,275,135, is the amount the fruit growers of Oregon will receive for their crop for the present year as estimated by Hon. W. K. Newell, president of the State Board of Horticulture. In making his estimate Mr. Newell does not deal with fancy prices, nor does he include the fruit that will be consumed on the farm.

Gresham covered herself with glory and was grateful to the other towns of Multnomah county for participating in her Fair. The showing of live stock, vegetables and fruits was very fine; there was a great variety of entertainment; thousands from Portland were in attendance. The enterprise was a success and will be repeated on a larger scale next year.

The Oregon State Dairy Association will hold its annual session in Portland Thursday and Friday, December 12, and 13, instead of the 19, and 20. This change assures some of the ablest speakers in the United States.

Oregon is attracting the attention of Russian and Baltic German immigrants. One inquiry received by the Oregon Development League from a thoroughly reliable source says: "Particulars desired of a track of about 4000 acres of good land suitable for general farming and stockraising, not more than 10 miles from rail or steamboat transportation that can be purchased for cash for not to exceed $30, an acre, for a Russian colony." The inquiry further says: Our people are Caucasians from the Caucasus, honest, sober industrious, and physically the equal of any race in Europe. They will bring over their Arab horses and Angora sheep and goats. They will be a credit to any community in which they may settle and if satisfied will be followed by immigrants from Baltic Germans and from Russia.

Judge J. M. Scott, President of the Oregon State Good Roads Association, has called a meeting for November 14, and 15, at the Portland Commercial Club, Mr. Samuel Hill, President of the Washington Good Roads Association, will come with a special car from the Washington meeting November 12, and 13, and bring with him a number of Canadian experts. A lantern slide lecture will be given by Hon. Samuel Lancaster, of the Good Roads Department at Washington. Full details will be announced later.

THEY HAVE NEW PATTERNS.

J. M. Nolan & Son's Given Exclusive Agency for This City.

Whether professional or amateur, the woman who would be a success at dressmaking must be sure of her patterns. They are the foundation upon which the success of the perfect whole depends. Pattern-making has at last been brought to a high standard, as everybody knows who has even the slightest acquaintance with those published by the Ladies' Home Journal. At great expense, the proprietors of that publication have given to the public such patterns as reduce to the lowest possible terms the complications that have hitherto beset the woman who had the "faculty" of cutting and sewing but who was often discouraged at the results of her labors.

Beginning today, J. M. Nolan & Son will have the exclusive agency in this city for the Ladies' Home Journal patterns. All the large cities of the United States have similar agencies and thousands are finding their spring sewing problem lessened by the use of these simple methods. These patterns are sold at uniform prices of ten and fifteen cents, and with each there is given a copy of the monthly Styles Book which, in a more complete form and with numerous fine features is published quarterly and sold for fifteen cents.

The guide chart which accompanies all patterns is of inestimable help to those who are just beginning the eminently satisfactory accomplishment of "making their own clothes." Simple and accurate, these patterns are invaluable not only for the production of women's and children's garments, but for suggestions for needlework, embroideries, layettes and the nursery, costume parties, underwear, etc.

HAD GREAT RALLY

Celebrated Victory Won in All Benton School Fair.

District No. 34, that won the first grand prize at the All Benton school fair, which was a handsome $75 organ given by the First National Bank held a rally last Friday evening in commemoration of the event. The new schoolhouse was filled to overflowing with friends and patrons. J. G. Gibson presided, and in a few appropriate remarks stated the object of the meeting. Music was furnished by ladies of the district. Rev. Wright of the United Brethren Presbyterian church of Albany entertained all with a lecture on the Yellowstone Park.

Walter Wiles, representing the First National bank, presented the organ to the district. He commended the district upon the effort made and the success attained. He admonished the young to build on a firm foundation for life's work.

Mr. Risley, in an appropriate manner accepted the organ in behalf of the district. He hoped another fair would be held next year and promised the loyal support of District 34.

Superintendent Denman was called upon and made a stirring address along educational lines. An excellent lunch was served which was greatly enjoyed by all.

Additional Local.

Claude Swann is rapidly recovering from his attack of appendicitis and if no complications arise he will be able to be up in a few days. He hopes to be able to go on his trip East as coach of the Yukon-Alaska basketball team, if arrangements can be made for a postponement of the trip for a few weeks until he is completely recovered. The captain of the team arrived yesterday from Seattle to confer with Coach Swann in regard to the matter and it is probable a satisfactory adjustment of the difficulty will be made.

Miss Cora Beckwith gave a very enjoyable party at her home Saturday evening to seventeen of her young friends. Delicious refreshments, games and a jolly time for all were the features of this very happy occasion.

Edward Knapp of Portland is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Knapp. The young man has just recovered from a severe illness caused by blood poisoning.

Miss Randolph of Elk City and Miss Pearl Knapp are visiting friends in Philomath. The former has been visiting Miss Knapp in this city.

The revival at the Christian tabernacle is growing in interest. Sunday night many people were turned away who could not find seats in the large auditorium. In the afternoon Dr. Martin addressed a large audience of men. Some very vital themes have been announced by the evangelist for this week. Tuesday evening the subject will be "Whiners;" Wednesday evening, "The Holy Ghost;" Thursday evening, "Love's Triumph;" Friday evening, lecture on "Marriage and Divorce," admission 10 cents. The meetings will continue indefinitely.
