ELECTIONS FOR 1908.

Registration reopens Sept. 20. Closes for election Oct. 20. Presidential election Nov. 3.

Hearst's Independence party has been holding its national convention in Chicago this week. Following is a summary of the platform adopted:

- Direct nominations. Initiative, referendum and recall. Severe legislation against corrupt practices and restricting use of money at elections. Economy in Federal administration. No injunctions or imprisonment for contempt without trial by jury. Prohibition of blacklisting. Employers' liability. State and Federal inspection of railroads. Prohibition of child labor. Manufacture of prison-made goods denounced. Federal inspection of grain. Creation of Department of Labor seat in Cabinet. Gradual reduction of tariff. Creation of Inter-State Commerce Court. Allow shippers to compel railroads to provide ample transportation facilities. All combinations for restraint of trade denounced. Government ownership of public utilities, including railroads and telegraph. Postal savings banks. Suppression of bucket shops and selling of futures. Exclusion of Asiatic labor. Larger Navy. Improvement of inland waterways. Popular election of Senators. Graduated income tax.

A dispatch from Cincinnati says the steamer Island Queen was fired upon Tuesday evening during her trip up the Ohio river with Wm. H. Taft and the notification committee and guests on board. A lady standing near Mr. Taft was struck in the face and breast by a number of small shot but not seriously injured. The fact that the gun was loaded with only fine shot renders it unnecessary for any one to get excited over the occurrence, or imagine that an assassination was attempted. Probably some fool fired the shot for fun.

An exploring party who started out to ascend Mt. Baker last week has returned to Bellingham and reported that the mountain is now "a seething volcano, belching forth vapors and sulphurous fumes," with three craters actively engaged in business. It is probable, as suggested by old timers, that the big hill is merely taking its periodical "smoke," as do Mt. Hood and other extinct volcanoes in that region. The possibility of a sure enough active eruption, they say, is very remote.

A fire in the north end of Portland, Tuesday afternoon, swept one full block off the map of the business district, burned most of three other blocks, and threatened the entire district. Property worth approximately $225,000 was destroyed, $1,000,000 worth was actually scorched, and several millions worth was placed in jeopardy. The cause of the fire is not yet clear. There are several theories - incendiary, spontaneous combustion in a loft of new hay, dropping of a match, sparks from a chimney, etc.

Bryan was initiated, Monday night, in Omaha, into the mysteries of the Ak Sar Ben, an order composed of the business men of Omaha and the State of Nebraska. On November 3rd he is to take the third degree in the ancient and honorable order of Al So Raah. Billy is getting to be quite a "jiner."

CAUGHT ON THE FLY.

We wouldn't always recognize our own faults if we should stumble over them.

You can't always tell when a gun is loaded, but it is easy enough to tell when a man is.

Keep your eye on the man who has to make an extra effort to give you a hearty hand-shake.

Fair play is all any man wants, but he usually wants to be the judge of its fairness.

By a new law Louisiana forbids drinking intoxicating liquors on passenger trains. The dryness spreads.

The schoolmaster is abroad in the Philippines, and sometimes so much abroad that the natives shoot at him.

It has been noticed that the man who delights to hear himself talk is generally alone in his enthusiasm.

When you hear a doctor say that hot weather is healthy, you may conclude that he means it is healthy for him.

An exchange says that all men should pay as they go, but it is well to hold the price of a ticket back.

Somebody concludes that beauty is as beauty does. The derick isn't handsome, but it has an uplifting influence.

It has been noticed that altho' a man may not be able to walk straight at 2 a. m., his wife is apt to talk that way.

Some cases of luck are explained by Shakspeare, who says that "fortune brings in some boats that are not seered."

It is said that when a young man is trying to qualify for the matrimonial race he hates to have a millionaire pacemaker.

It has been noticed that the nice thing about summer resorts is the way people can go home from them and get cooled off and rested.

"All the world's a stage." Yes, and the majority of us are billed as citizens, villagers, populace, and the like. No speaking parts.

An exchange says that "men sneer at women's shopping, but when women shop they don't have to eat cloves to disguise what they've been buying."

It is feared that if Mr. Roosevelt be sent to the north pole the professional explorer will be made anxious, because if he goes for it he will bring it back with him.

Somebody has looked into the thing far enough to express the opinion that automobiling would be less hazardous if it were less popular.

The voters of the country may dismiss their anxiety. Wm. H. Taft was officially notified, Tuesday, of his nomination for President, and has accepted.

An auto party with three buzz-wagons arrived in Portland Monday from Los Angeles, bound for Seattle. They had been on the road just two weeks, and had a delightful trip.

Ex-Secretary Taft got into a telephone booth in Virginia Monday, and had to stay there until a carpenter came and sawed away enough of the structure to let him out. Verily there is nothing small about "Our Bill."

President Roosevelt has heard of the fame of Oregon wilds for big game, and a dispatch says he will visit the Klamath country before going to Africa, and take a try at our bear, cougar, and other big game.

Forest fires breaking out along the lower Willamette and Columbia rivers in the past few days have caused dense clouds of smoke to hang over parts of the Valley. Some of the smoke extends to Portland. One of the fires is a short distance below and back of the town of Linnton. Another fire is known to be raging in the timber back of Rainier. There are indications of a big blaze several miles north of Oak Point.—Telegram.

Additional Locals.

Ben Martin, the rural mail carrier, lost a valuable horse a few days ago.

Mrs. Ed Tozier of Coquille City has arrived for a visit with her cousin, L. H. Hawley, and family.

Mrs. D. D. Berman has been suffering the past few days with a felon on the fore finger of her left hand.

Sunday night, 8 o'clock, Aug. 2, at the M. E. church, in the union service, the sermon will be preached by the new minister of the Christian church, the Rev. Mr. Hubbell.

Prof. and Mrs. Edward Fowells, Miss Ruby Fowells and Miss Mae Webster expect to leave tomorrow for an outing of several weeks at Newport. They will be joined later by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fowells.

Young man, that beautiful girl whom you worship as a pillar of unadulterated sweetness doesn't contain even three ounces of sugar. It has been shown by analysis that a person weighing 154 lbs. is composed of 96 lbs. of water, 3 lbs. of the white of eggs, a little less than one lb. of glue, 34 1/2 lbs. of fat, 8 1/2 lbs. of phosphate of lime, 3 ounces of sugar and starch, 7 ounces of chloride of calcium, 6 ounces of phosphate of magnesia and a little ordinary table salt.—Ex.

Officers have gone into the timber near Spencer Creek, in the Klamath forests, with a warrant for the arrest of an unknown man, who is said to be roaming the woods and stealing from the cabins in that vicinity. He has been seen stealing by a timber cruiser and a settler. When discovered he grabbed his rifle and stood his ground, refusing to answer questions as to his actions. He resembled an Italian, has a long, shaggy beard and carries a large bowie knife. He is said to have an outdoor camp in the thick brush, where he stows away what he steals. He has all the settlers frightened in that vicinity, and an attempt will be made to capture him.—Ex.

WHEN TO FALL IN LOVE.

Cupid's Victims All Right to Compose Poetry About.

No woman should ever fall in love until some man has clearly invited her by attentions visible to others to regard him as the object of her devotions.

Women who die for love are all right to compose poetry about, but the comfortable sort of person to be is the one who doesn't experience any of the violent symptoms which carry off these young women to untimely graves.

A well regulated woman who wants to keep healthy and self respecting and serene should use the antiseptic treatment on an injury to her affections just as intelligently as she would use it on an accidental cut or a bruise.

If she finds her interest or admiration straying to the cute mustache or the broad shoulders, the clever compliments or the marvelous three stepping of a certain man who has not shown any special intention to single her out for his favors, she must get right after her punctured sentiments with a soothing lotion of common sense.

Instead of shedding tears in secret or losing her correct waist measure, being unable to relish her baked potatoes and beefsteak and seeking the society of the disturber of her peace, let her hustle around for pleasing exercise, absorbing work and other gentlemen acquaintances, who will help her to forget that little stampede of her affections.

It used to be considered a very graceful act to be found dead on the seashore with your hair tangled in the seaweed, while the man for whom you had died discovered at your funeral that he really had been loving you all the time; but, after all, it was rather a selfish notion to bring sorrow and grief on all your friends and relations just because you hadn't the pride or energy to throw off an inflammatory sentiment.

A man who will be frightened away from you in the early stages of a budding affection by a hesitation on your part to let yourself become involved in all the hot and cold sensations of genuine, unquestioning downright love is of too timid a mold to make a staunch support through life.

Wait until the fellow comes along who will respect you for your reserve and pay no attention to your womanly doubts and qualms, and keep on waiting even if he shouldn't happen to come along.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY.

Persons of defective sight when threading a needle should hold it over something white, by which the sight will be assisted.

Bolting the food has ruined many a good complexion. Teeth were given for a purpose, and if one does not use them they will suffer along with digestion and skins.

A mixture of half a dram of muriate of ammonia, a quarter of a dram of tannic acid, an ounce of glycerin and one and a half ounces of rosewater is said to reduce the size of a fleshy nose. The ammonia and tannic acid are dissolved in the glycerin, and the rosewater goes in last. The nose is wiped over with this several times a day, and a cloth wet with it is laid over at night.

If you do not react well after your bath, try what vigorous rubbing of all parts of your body will do. This may either be a dry rub with alcohol or aromatic vinegars can be used. Rubbing the entire body with the palm of the hand has a good effect not alone on the skin, but on the circulation. Where the hand will not reach with any force double the crash towel or take a long strip of flannel and, holding it in both hands, draw vigorously from left to right. This is good as a gymnastic exercise as well as beneficial to the skin.

A woman needs seven hours' sleep for the building up of her system. Then she needs two more hours for the recuperation of her body, and the extra two hours will restore her complexion, make her eyes bright, take the wrinkles out of her face and keep her form elastic. The woman who wants to derive the fullest benefit from her beauty sleep will compose her mind before sinking off into slumber. A little light in a bedroom is a good thing for some people, for it will act cheerfully upon the nerves and drive away nightmare.

Millais and Newman.

The author of the life of Millais tells the following anecdote: When Cardinal Newman came to sit to the artist for his portrait, he asked where he was to pose.

"Oh, your eminence, on that eminence, if you please," answered Sir John, pointing to the models' dais, and, seeing him hesitating, added, "Come, jump up, you dear old boy."
