WHAT HAS HAPPENED?

Dead Fish Cover the Ocean for 35 Miles Off Yaquina Bay—A Submarine Eruption
Suspected.

A Newport dispatch of Tuesday says: That there has been a submarine earthquake or volcanic eruption somewhere near Yaquina Bay is the belief of sea captains coming into Newport during the past week. The ocean, for 35 miles off shore, is covered with dead herring, and the beaches for miles either side of Yaquina Bay are now piling up with fish that appear to have been killed by some catastrophe.

In 40 years so many herring have not been seen in this bay, or at sea, as are now visible on every hand.

"There is only one explanation of this phenomenon," said Captain George Tyler this morning. "That is, that there has been a submarine eruption of some sort which has killed these fish and left them floating on the surface. In all my life on this coast I have never before seen nor heard of such a happening."

The effect of this surfeit on the scavengers is specially noticeable. The seagulls are absolutely quiescent, and yesterday outing parties reported that the gulls resting on the sand spits were so gorged that they refused to fly at the approach of men.
Skates, goose-fish and other seascavengers have come into the bay in large numbers to feast on the herring, and the reported presence of man-eating sharks outside is attributed to the same cause.

CHANGED HANDS.

Corvallis Times Sold To N. R.
Moore, of Utah.

The last issue of the Corvallis Times contains the announcement that Hon. B. F. Irvine had sold the plant to Mr. N. R.
Moore, of Utah, and would retire from the newspaper business in Corvallis.

His many friends, and particularly the democratic party, will regret to see Mr. Irvine step out as it leaves them without an organ in the county, Mr. Moore making the announcement that under the new management the paper would hereafter be independent in politics.

As a competitor in business we would say that the departing brother, as a neighbor, was always kind and courteous, never failing to respond to the usual courtesies extended between printing offices. As a citizen and newspaper man he took a leading part in every public enterprise and when once enlisted in a cause he never faltered, but fought the battle to a finish. As a Democrat—in behalf of ourselves and the Republican party of Benton county we can truthfully say we are glad he is gone, for no wild bronco ever captured on the plains was a harder horse to curry, and he has caused the Republicans of this county many sleepless nights. He could say more mean things in a campaign and get forgiveness than any other living man.

Goodbye, brother, we wish you well in your new field of labor.

To brother Moore we extend a most cordial greeting and sincerely hope our relations in the field may be pleasant and agreeable, mutually realizing that no proscriptions have ever been placed upon the territory.

DEMONSTRATION TRAINS.

Valley Farming—Dr. Jas. Withycombe in Charge.

More elaborate than any similar train ever run over a railroad in the Pacific Northwest will be the farming demonstration train to be operated through the Willamette Valley by the Southern Pacific company in October, just announced by R. B. Miller, general freight agent for the Harriman lines in this territory. The train will be run under the direction of the Oregon Agricultural College, and Dr. James Withycombe, director of the Oregon Experiment Station, will be in charge. He will have a number of assistants, and lectures and demonstrations will be given that are calculated to improve farming conditions and methods.

A striking feature of the train will be a number of dairy cows that will be carried in special freight cars housed in patent stalls. These animals will be high-class dairy cows and they will be milked at various stations by the compressed air milking machine that will be demonstrated to the farmers. The milk will be run through separators carried on the train and various processes of dairying will be shown.

Modern Dairying Methods.

The cows will show the farmers the best types of dairy cattle and their proper care will be impressed upon the farmers by object lessons. The most modern and successful dairying methods will also be taught by what is believed to be the most forceful way, that of actual demonstration.

There will be a number of cars given over to exhibits of various kinds that will be highly interesting to the farmers.
Modern agricultural implements of every sort will occupy one car.
An exhibit of grains and grasses will be carried. Materials for horticultural instruction, showing the best methods of budding, grafting, pruning, spraying and packing fruit, will be carried, a special series of object lessons will be given to show the farmers how to pack fruit commercially.

Demonstrators with the train will show the farmers how to make milk tests for butter fat and how to carry on innumerable modern scientific processes.
The train will be run as a special and will stop at the principal places in the Willamette Valley.
The complete itinerary has not yet been made up. A number of passenger cars will be included in the train to carry Dr.
Withycombe and his staff of assistants as well as railroad officials who will accompany the train.

Demonstrate Scientific Methods.

"The demonstration train has been undertaken for the purpose of educating and assisting the farmers, so far as it is possible to do so, in better and more scientific methods of farming," said Mr. Miller. "The railroad company also hopes to stimulate the production of dairy, horticultural, livestock and other diversified farm products, of which the Willamette Valley does not now produce in sufficient quantities to supply the home demand."

"This is evidenced by the fact that butter, eggs and poultry are shipped here from the East in carloads. Fresh cream is being shipped by express in considerable quantities from California to Portland and from Utah to Washington points, which could just as well be supplied from this state. Live hogs are brought here from Nebraska in train loads. Many carloads of cured meats, lard, etc., are brought here from the East every year.

HOLY ROLLER HORSEWHIPPED

Induced Coos County Girl to Burn Clothing and Watch.

A dispatch from Marshfield says: Horsewhipping at the hands of the mother of one of her pupils was the pay received by a Holy Roller who has been disseminating her views in and about Coquille.

The woman had been working on the feelings of the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Kadabaugh, and the girl became almost crazy over the idea that she would never be sanctified until she burned her clothes, as she was told, as good clothes and jewelry are a part of the temptations of the devil. The Holy Roller doctrines preyed on the girl's mind so much that Wednesday evening she burned her best dresses and watch that she might become sanctified. The girl's mother, not looking upon the matter in that light, started out Thursday morning to find the priestess and make her pay for the burning of the clothes and watch.

No chariot of fire came down for the Holy Roller and she had to make rapid tracks for the boat, which she reached before Mrs.
Kadabaugh. Mrs. Kadabaugh procured a horse and buggy, came to this city and catching the woman on the city wharf asked for the pay for the clothes and watch, and upon being refused, proceeded to lay the carriage whip across the sanctified one's shoulders and body, afterwards knocking her down.

The Holy Roller left on the noon boat down the river.

BEAUTIFUL DISPLAYS.

Novel Attractions and Artistic Arrangement on the Streets.

Our business men are taking great interest in the All-Benton Fair and will have many new and novel attractions. The Kaupisch Creamery will arrange and freeze many blocks of ice for business men, inside of which will be artistically arranged the wares and merchandise they handle.

Gun Hodes and M. M. Long will have guns and revolvers encased in ice so that when you pass their places of business there will be no danger of getting shot.

Small & Son will attract your attention in the same manner with bread and cakes, while the Centennial and Porter meat shops will whet your appetite with a handsome steak, belogna sausage etc. which of course will be out of your reach and make your mouth water to look at it.

S. L. Kiene will show up his grocery department in fine shape also through a block of ice.

J. R. Smith & Co. display will be hardware novelties, such as nuts, bolts, monkey wrenches etc.

The Kaupisch display will be on the show grounds and the ice will contain water melons, flowers and various other things.

This is a new and novel mode of advertising and will certainly attract attention.

It is surmised that the big corn crop in Ohio has given the death blow to Bryan's hopes of carrying that state.
