LOCAL AND PERSONAL

S. L. Kline was reported on the sick list Tuesday.

The Freshman class at the U. of O. numbers nearly 250 members.

George Dudley of Kings Valley was in Corvallis on business Tuesday.

Oscar Tom of Alsea was looking after business in the city the first of the week.

Mr. Peak of Alsea was in Corvallis, Monday, laying in a winter supply of provisions.

J. H. Harris was circulating around in the Peoria neighborhood the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Davis of California are visiting at the Caleb Davis home, Mr. Davis being a nephew of Caleb Davis.

Mrs. D. G. McKenzie returned home Monday from a visit with relatives in Portland and Don is happy once more.

Mrs. E. E. Antrim and family are moving into the Mrs. Cyrus house across Mary's river and the children will enter OAC.

J. H. Harris is expecting his sister, Mrs. C. D. Buckhanna, of Memphis, Tenn., to arrive soon for a visit of indefinite length.

H. H. Veatch, son of Robert Veatch, ex-Senator of Linn county, one of the first graduates of OAC and brother-in-law of Wm. Currin, is visiting in the city.

F. A. King is shaking hands with his old friends in Corvallis after an absence of nearly two months. He has been in Portland taking care of a nephew who was ill.

Stanley Ray was arrested Wednesday evening by game warden for killing China pheasants out of season and taken before Judge Holgate. He pleaded guilty and was fined $15.

Lecture Monday night at the Presbyterian church by Rev. W. Robinson, late of Buffalo, N. Y. Subject, "How to Make a Square Deal." Admission 25 and 15 cents.

Two young men from Bellefontaine by the name of Howard have just returned from a ten days' hunting trip at Waldport. They killed an elk each, one being a fine cow and the other a point. The hides were brought Corvallis Monday.

Yesterday the poor China peasant had to hunt cover to keep out of the way of the man with the gun. It makes our mouth water to think of the good thing the other fellow will have this month. It would be pleasing to the eye and gratifying to the inner man to be kindly remembered by some good friend on this momentous occasion.

Hon. Wm. Bogue is comfortably located at the old home in Corvallis once more, having moved the family in from the farm during the week.

When a young man puts on his Sunday clothes on Saturday evening and takes an automobile ride, failing to show up at his place of business until Tuesday morning, it begins to look as though something was going to happen pretty soon.

Dr. Bennett of Monroe arrived home Monday, after an absence of two weeks in Southern Oregon on a hunting expedition. He reports plenty of game and a good time generally.

E. J. Garrow came up from Portland, Monday, to visit his daughter, Mrs. A. J. Metzger, and "take in" the China pheasants at the opening of the season, which occurred yesterday.

The Y. W. C. A. girls gave an enjoyable reception yesterday afternoon from three to five, the guests being the young ladies of OAC. There was a large attendance and a good time for all.

Married—At their new home in Jobs addition, Frank D. Boulden and Miss Nellie Barker, Rev. T. T. Vincent officiating. Both bride and groom are well known in Corvallis and have the best wishes of their many friends.

Wm. Reed moved in from the farm last week to send his children to school and brought the good family cow along, but carelessly left the feed box within reach. Result: Cow "passed on" and the children are without milk. Mr. Reed estimates his loss at $75.

Mrs. B. A. Cathey goes to Portland tomorrow to visit with her sons, George and Collie, after which she will go to Spokane as a delegate from the missionary society of the M. E. church. She will be absent about ten days.

Mr. White has purchased of M. H. Bauer the old school house on Fifth between Harrison and Van Buren streets, and F. C. Randall is now moving it out near the Union depot where it will be fitted up for a residence.

Mike Bauer will move his present residence across the street and erect on the present site a handsome residence to suit the wishes of the Bauer family. They have had some experience in building and when the house is finished it will be a beauty.

If you want to look upon the beautiful and artistic side of life just step into Metzger's jewelry store and see how cosy and attractive he has made his store by placing new furniture of the most approved pattern in the room, both in shelving and show cases. He realizes that to do business in a live town the store must be made attractive, and the interior would be a credit to any city.

The members of the K. L. C. E. held their regular monthly business meeting at the Evangelical parsonage Tuesday evening, closing with a social hour. All report an enjoyable time.

For the latest in Pyrography see GRAHAM & WELLS. 77-84

Coach Robert W. Forbes, the famous Yale end, who was hired by the associated students of the University of Oregon to coach their football team, is making a great hit with his men. Fifty men are turning out for practice daily.

Our new stock of Pyrography wood and leather has just arrived. GRAHAM & WELLS. 77-84

Dr. Howard is now located in his new dental parlors over the First National Bank and by courteous professional treatment and the best of work, which he is fully prepared to do, hopes to merit a continuance of the liberal patronage he has been receiving. 82-3

The ladies of the Coffee Club will entertain their friends tomorrow evening at the city hall. The invitations state dancing at 8:30. The patronesses are Mesdames J. H. Pinkerton, Minnie Lee, C. V. Johnson and G. A. Covell, and a very enjoyable evening is anticipated.

Have Dr. Lowe relieve your head and eye ache with a pair of his superior glasses. They cost no more than others and you have the benefit of his skill and over 19 years experience. Consult him at Hotel Corvallis next Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 5th and 6th. 82

The first two days registration at the University of Oregon has been the greatest in the history of the institution. Already nearly 475 students have enrolled, which is greater than the total enrollment for the whole of last year. A large number of old students will return within the next two weeks and the total enrollment for the year will reach 550, or an increase of 30 per cent over last year.

The old college barn is now being repaired with new sills, after which it will be moved east in order to give a better view of the new barn, recently constructed at a cost of $15000. This will be a decided improvement on the general appearance of things at the college farm.

E. J. Lewis, of Portland, will speak at the court house, Saturday evening, Oct. 3rd, at 7:30. Subject: "Professionalism, Unionism and Socialism." Mr. Lewis will divide his time with anyone or answer any questions. Come and hear a "live one" on a live subject.

The United Evangelical church of Corvallis held its annual membership roll call Sunday afternoon at 2:30, there being a good attendance to enjoy the excellent program which was rendered and followed by the roll call, which was heartily responded to. The financial result was very gratifying and the membership is beginning to look forward to this event with pleasant anticipation.

A card received by relatives in Corvallis from a party in Wallowa, Eastern Oregon, states that it had been snowing there and was freezing every night. The card is dated Sept. 26th and suggests rather chilly weather compared with the warm, balmy days of the Willamette Valley. No doubt the students of that section were glad to return to OAC.

There was a quiet wedding at the Presbyterian manse, Monday evening, when Oscar Reuben Gustafson of Corvallis and Miss Lydia Dean of Bellefontaine were united by Rev. J. R. N. Bell in the presence of the necessary witnesses. Miss Dean has been a teacher in the public school near Bellefontaine and is well known in that vicinity. The young couple will reside on a farm near Corvallis and are followed by the good wishes of numerous friends.

Dr. W. Rowle and bride arrived home Wednesday evening from their wedding trip. It is possible that, having been almost in Heaven himself the doctor may think it the best place for his patients, but it is to be hoped he will soon change his opinion, as it would be the cause of too much earthly sorrow for Corvallis citizens. They will soon be nicely located in the home recently purchased of Mr. Wiles.

WANTED—Old rags at the Gazette office.

R. H. Huston and family and Mrs. Etta Lee came in from Elk City, Monday. Robert reports the fishing season very fine and the new hotel at that place a little daisy.

Mrs. Artemissa Lewis died at Philomath, Sunday, at 2 o'clock, of heart disease, and was buried yesterday at the Newton cemetery. Mrs. Lewis was born in Marion county, Indiana, Oct. 18, 1836, and was almost 72 years of age at the time of her death.

Philomath, Ore., Sept. 23, '08 A Great Opportunity!—Wanted five men with $5000 (five thousand dollars) each or one man with $25,000 (twenty-five thousand dollars) to float a big timber and milling enterprise. For further particulars inquire of Jas. G. Horning, Philomath, Or. 80-88

Strange as it may seem, yet absolutely true, houses for rent are very scarce in Corvallis. It resembles the line found at the postoffice waiting for the mail and when one party moves out at the front door the dray is usually unloading goods for the new tenant at the rear. A party stated that he bought a piece of property the other day and two parties were after it before the deed had been made out. Thus the good work goes on.

Little Steven K. Sutton, the three year old son of C. E. and Bessie Sutton, died at the Taylor hop yard Monday night, after an illness of only two weeks. The funeral services occurred at the home at 4 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, Rev. D. H. Leech officiating, and interment was in Crystal Lake cemetery. The parents reside at the hop yard, one and a half miles south of town. They have the heartfelt sympathy of the community in their deep sorrow. The little lad was too fair a bud for earth and God needed him, "for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

Vancouver, Washington, one of the old pioneer towns made famous by having General Grant and General Sherman located at the Barracks there, is giving some of the newer towns a sample of civic enterprise. Not satisfied with putting down hard-surfaced pavements, on last Saturday they celebrated the completion of an electric street railway system which reaches well into the suburbs.

WANTED—Six students for room and board; first class, bath included. Five blocks west of college. Ind. phone 952. 82tf L. HERSE.

On a Hunt.

H. A. Circle, a policeman of Portland, brought our former townsman, J. M. Cameron, up to Corvallis the first of the week to give him an outing among the China pheasants. L. L. Stephens, a Southern Pacific railroad conductor, had charge of the dog, and with a free pass down through southern Benton they certainly will come back loaded—with birds. We gave Cameron's friends a note of warning, hence if they get into trouble it's their own fault. We associated with Cameron for several years and know quite a little about him.
