NEEDS EDUCATION.

Communicated.
The Oregonian seems to think that Nevada is only a sage brush pocket—whatever that may be—and arrays the state in the sure Bryan column. If the editorial writer of that great paper would study Nevada a little he would learn several things seemingly unknown in that office.

One of Nevada's Senators is a Republican and there is much reason to hope Nevada will go for Taft this year. Nevada is not addicted to 16 to 1 any more than Oregon and just wait a few years until the gambling and whiskey business become outlawed there. The hand-writing is on the wall and these excrescences must go.

Oh, no! brother, Nevada is not a blot upon the map—and, incidentally, is actually rolling more gold into the mint than people are aware of. Nevada is all right, the Oregonian to the contrary notwithstanding.

Additional Locals

The little controversy over the sidewalk in front of the Occidental hotel has been amicably adjusted by special act of the city council. Mr. Woodcock was granted permission to repair the same with the provision that should a new building, as now contemplated, not be commenced by June 1st, the present walk must be replaced with a cement one as specified by ordinance.

M. E. Gragg and wife of the Bellefontain neighborhood have purchased two lots in Corvallis and expect to build a new house. They will move to town about the first of November. This Bellefontain neighborhood has given us some mighty good citizens during the past two years and we extend a cordial greeting to Mr. and Mrs. Gragg.

The remains of the unfortunate Jack Morgan who killed himself by overdose of drugs last week was laid to rest to-day at the Crystal Lake Cemetery. The remains have been held with the hope of locating the daughter who lives somewhere in California. The San Francisco Examiner has taken a great interest in the matter but failed in the attempt.

The flight of an immense locomotive and train of cars is one of the delightfully realistic features of the big new melodrama, "The Rocky Mountain Express," which comes to the opera house next Thursday night. The responsible managers and producers, the Klimt & Gazzola Amusement Company, are the exploiters of this cleverly constructed play of the "Rockies" and golden West, and it is understood that the production is an innovation in every particular. The presenting company has been exceptionally well selected.

Humorous Entertainment.

On Monday evening, Oct. 26, at the Methodist church, there will be given an entertainment that promises to be interesting to the extreme.

Dr. Bancroft of San Francisco will present his humorous sketch "When, Whom and How to Love." A musical lecture novelty and laugh producer from start to finish.

Old batchelors and maids can well take a night off and get a few practical pointers on the art of loving.

Dr. Bancroft will be ably assisted by the charming singer and impersonator, Miss Lewis, in a repertoire of literary and vocal gems. The press of the country speak of Dr. Bancroft and Miss Lewis in the highest terms.

The advance sale of seats for this attraction has been exceptionally large, assuring a crowded house.

The Equalization Board is in session in the County Clerk's office this week.

Hunting Forbidden.

$50 reward is hereby offered for the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who trespassed upon my lands, situated west of Corvallis, on or about Sunday the 27th day of September, 1908, and while there shot and crippled one of my registered ewes. The punishment of trespassing upon enclosed lands of another, while hunting, accompanied with a gun and dog is a fine of from $15 to $100 or imprisonment from 7 days to 100 days or both fine and imprisonment. The penalties should be inflicted for each offense, because men raising stock cannot afford to have it killed by those directly violating the laws of the state.
M. S. WOODCOCK,
Corvallis, Oregon.

Reward for Trespassers.

$20 Reward is hereby offered for the arrest and conviction of any person or persons for trespassing at any time upon my lands, near Corvallis, Oregon, while hunting thereon or when found carrying a gun, pistol or other firearms, or accompanied with a dog or dogs, on or across said lands. This is made necessary because I have had valuable stock crippled several times through carelessness of hunters. The penalty for trespassing upon the enclosed lands of another, while hunting, accompanied with gun or dog is a fine from $15 to $100, or imprisonment from 7 to 100 days or both fine and imprisonment. Posting of notices to warn trespassers is not necessary. The crime by statute is made a misdemeanor. These penalties will be inflicted unless such parties absent themselves.
M. S. WOODCOCK,
Corvallis, Oregon.
