LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The three children of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Woods have been quite ill the past few days.

Rev. E. E. McVicker went to Portland yesterday on business and will return today.

Mrs. Martha Burnett went to Portland, Tuesday, as a delegate from the local church to the Congregational Association.

Clarence Johnson of Mill City spent Sunday with his father, mother and "other people" in this city.

Jim Lewis has purchased a lot of Geo. W. Smith, adjoining the new residence of Alex Schick.

Blodgett School District No. 12 at Blodgett has purchased a site on which to build a new school building to cost $1000.

Miss Ella Horning, daughter of L. F. Horning and niece of E. B. Horning of this city, was married at Yolo, Idaho, Wednesday.

A marriage license was issued from the county clerk's office on Wednesday to J. S. Brown and Miss Elsie Johnson, both of this city.

F. E. Miller of McCoy, Oregon, was in town Tuesday and attended the Rebekah Convention that evening. He was greatly pleased with the work.

We were shown an elegant specimen of seedling peaches raised by E. B. Horning on white doily land. They looked good enough for anybody but we had to take his word for the taste.

Reports from Payette, Idaho, say the peach crop was very fine, apples plentiful and selling at $2 per box. Girls are making $2 per day and it is impossible to get enough help to take care of the crop.

The Alcazar Stock Company will play a return engagement at the opera house next Friday night, giving the famous Southern play, "In Dixie Land."

Coming soon—the German musical event, "Hans & Nix," the very latest in polite comedy, with Dixon and Bernard and the original all-star cast.

Rumor has it that several of Corvallis' young people will be passing through that trying ordeal of matrimony soon. We are quite well posted but 'prefer' publishing the news later.

Tom Wright of Union has been spending the past few days in Corvallis. He is president of the First National Bank at Union and is now on his way to Seattle on important business matters in connection with the Fair.

The old maids of Benton and surrounding counties will hold their 52nd annual convention at the opera house some time during the first week in November. Watch the old maids and get ready for business.

PLEASE RETURN—A box, containing a pair of shoes and addressed to W. W. McDonald, was left somewhere by the city delivery through mistake. Please return this package to Horning & MacKenzie's store and receive pay for trouble.

Ammy Cameron had two men at work in the reception room the other day when we dropped in to see him. They are old hands at the business and made things mighty lively in a "jint" discussion. One was tintured with Bryanism and the other was "ferninst."

Mrs. S. L. Kline is at home again after a visit of some two months in the east. She was also a delegate to the tuberculosis convention in New York.

Mr. T. Ranny has sold his real estate at Summit, and will go to the soldier's home at Roseburg to spend the winter. Mr. Ranny has been a resident of Oregon for the past 44 years the greater part of the time having been spent in Corvallis. He and Emanuel Knight are the oldest blacksmiths of ante-bellum days around Corvallis.

Rev. Evan P. Hughes is to return today or tomorrow from Portland, where he has been in attendance at the annual State Association of the Congregational churches which has been in session since Tuesday evening at the Hassalo Street Congregational church. Mr. Hughes delivered the Association sermon before the gathering, Wednesday evening.

The Oregonian reports the establishment of a shipyard at Toledo. One 65-ton gasoline schooner for Chambers Brothers of Newport and another of over 100 tons for Capt. Walker of Portland will be built this winter. With its splendid harbor and deep channel to the ocean, Yaquina Bay is capable of answering the demands of any amount of commerce upon it.

Arthur L. Fortson of Sacramento, Cal., arrived in Corvallis this week on a visit to his family who have been in the city during the recent fatal illness of Mrs. Fortson's mother, Mrs. S. L. Shedd. Mr. Fortson is an up-to-date newspaper man, on the nerve of the news market, so to speak, and we hope he will decide to cast his lot with this city.

Now is the time for the farmer to put the turkey gobbler on full feed if he wants to gobble up a good price for him at the holiday season. It pays to bring the best products to town if you want the best price and a good fat turkey not only shows up in fine shape but when you put him on the table, properly prepared by the good housewife, he is pleasing to behold, elegant to the taste and invigorating to the inner man.

Accommodating.

"This cow gives sweet milk, I suppose," said the amateur farmer.

"Oh, certainly," replied the man who was trying to make the sale.

"But how about it when we want buttermilk? Do we have to have a different cow for that?"

"Oh, no, no. You see those two brass knobs on the end of her horns?"

"Yes; what have they got to do with it?"

"Oh, everything. You press the one on the right when you want sweet milk and the one on the left for buttermilk."—Ex.

Election Betting Begins.

That portion of Portland's sporting gentry who only wager on elections is beginning to get into action and during the past two weeks something like $4000 has been posted on the Presidential election. In spite of the fact that in the East the odds on Taft have been hovering around 3:1 and 4 to 1, here in the city the prevailing odds have been 2 to 1, with an occasional small bet of 3 to 1.

The largest wager made so far was a bet that was made by two prominent business men as the result of a political talk during luncheon. While the talk was tropical the Taft man wagered $3500 against $1750, that Taft would defeat Bryan, says a Portland dispatch.

Cannot be Excelled.

Hon. F. H. Scribner, President of the Wisconsin Butter-makers' Association, but more especially honored in the Pacific Northwest as the breeder of "Loretta D" (belonging to the W. S. Ladd estate, Portland, Oregon), the cow that won first prize in the 120 day milking test at the St. Louis Exposition in 1904, has said:

"There is no spot in our great United States that can excel Oregon and Washington in dairying. This is my conclusion after spending six weeks in the former state and thoroughly investigating several of her beautiful valleys, and after an extended trip through Washington. I wish to say to the dairymen and farmers of this section, relative to its dairying possibilities, that I fear they don't fully appreciate the wonderful opportunity here for the raising of feeds best adapted to the dairy industry, and the excellent climatic conditions for the growth and development of stock. You should here reach the climax of productiveness."

Will Build Ships at Toledo.

Newport, Or., Oct. 20—Yaquina Bay is to have a permanent shipbuilding yard. It will be located at Toledo near the sawmill of the Yaquina Bay Lumber Company. The site for the yard and plant was donated by citizens of Toledo, along with a bonus of $5 to George Walker, of this city, formerly of Aberdeen, and a well-known and successful shipbuilder. tion under which the site for the yard was given is that one vessel at least shall be built each year.

Mr. Walker will begin work in the morning getting his yard in preparation for the construction of a steam schooner for George Walker and Frank Coffee, of Portland. The vessel will be 120 feet long, 26-foot beam, seven foot depth of hold and seven foot draft, 200-ton capacity and a speed of nine knots; it can also carry 100 passengers.

The vessel will be built on lines similar to the Rose of Sue Helmore. She will engage in coastwise trade. Another vessel will also be built soon for deep sea fishing. It will be an auxiliary power schooner, with 45-foot keel, 14-foot beam and six-foot depth of hold, and will be built for Chambers Bros., of this place.

Dr. George Gilbert Bancroft.

Dr. Bancroft, the famous psychologist, has been secured by the W. C. T. U. to come to our city and give his famous lecture, "Hoodooos," on Oct. 26th in the Methodist church.

Dr. Bancroft will be ably assisted by the charming reader and vocalist, Miss D. Lillian Lewis.

The people of our city will hear something of a startling nature along the lines of mental phenomena. Don't miss it. Admission 35 cents.

Professors Return

Prof. Cordley, Lewis and Kent came home from Hood River on Monday having attended the Hood River Apple Show, Prof. Lewis being the Judge of the display. They report a fine showing, fully sustaining the reputation of that section in the production of choice fruit.

With the increase of acreage from year to year set to aples the display naturally increases and choice varieties of fruit are looked after by the live, active producer thus keeping in touch with the keen competition that naturally follows.

The Hood River people realize that to continue the growth of this important industry it must be carefully guarded against worms, scale and other pests that have played havoc with some sections. The OAC Prof. have made deep study of these conditions and are always accorded a royal welcome wherever they go.
