LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Ruth Lilly returned Friday evening from Albany, where she has been visiting the past week with friends.

H. C. Tatem, of Kings Valley, was looking after business interests in the city Saturday.

Mrs. William Gaskins, instructor in voice at OAC, has been quite ill the past week with pleurisy, but is improving.

S. A. Bain came home from his visit in California, Friday, looking hale and hearty.

Prayer-meeting at the Presbyterian church on Thursday evening will be 7 o'clock instead of 7:30. Don't fail to come. Plenty of room on the front seats.

Who will volunteer to take charge of Judge McFadden during the absence of the good lady on her Eastern visit? The Judge will be like a lost sheep in a howling wilderness without the restraining influence of some guardian angel.

Little business was transacted at the meeting of the Charter Commission last Friday night. It was decided city charter be drawn to exclude blank A at the election; that city be exempt from damages on account of defective sidewalks and that the meeting adjourn subject to the call of the chairman.

The speech of Senator Fulton on Wednesday night will be full of juicy little plums, plucked from the republican tree, which will be distributed gratuitously to the brethren. Don't fail to hear him as it will likely be the finishing touches of the campaign.

Eggs are worth 40 cents on the market today, potatoes 60 to 75 cents per bushel, plenty of work for everybody, and if you want these conditions to continue go to the polls on Nov. 3rd and vote for Taft to continue the Roosevelt policies.

Rev. Herbert Frank Moulton, of Biddeford, Maine, one of the best known lecturers in the country, is featuring his lecture on the Pacific Northwest, and the Oregon Development League, in connection with the commercial bodies of Washington, has furnished illustrating slides of extraordinary attractiveness.

Walter Wiles looks just as natural behind the bars in the first National Bank as he ever did. If he continues to gain in weight at the present rate for the next year the doors of the cage will have to be enlarged to admit him when he acts as surrumerary in the absence of Royal Highness, M. S. Woodcock. Walter would be a pretty slick looking duck if he had but 160 pounds more meat on his frame.

Miss M. Christensen

Artistic Millinery

Corner Third and Monroe, Corvallis, Oregon

Contrary to the report circulated, I have neither moved or bought but will remain in my present quarters Corner Third and Monroe Streets. I cordially invite you to inspect my stock of Fine Millinery. MISS M. CHRISTENSEN.

Twenty thousand people are shivering in the cold blast and continuous downpour of rain for the past 48 hours in Kansas and Oklahoma, railroad traffic is suspended and lands flooded, while in Oregon the sun is shining, the birds are singing and the farmer plowing with his coat hanging on the fence. If you were to talk to these poor deluded people the first thing they would tell you would be, "But it rains too much in Oregon."

If the party who took the gray coat from under the grand stand on the night of the football rally will leave it at the Gazette office, we will consider it a good joke on an extremely careless boy. If you intended to steal it, call and get the pants, as the whole suit should be worn together. We will simply put a little stripe down the leg to remind you of your future destiny.

E. S. J. McAllister, democratic presidential elector for Oregon, and M. A. Miller, of Lebanon, will talk democracy at the court on Thursday evening. Both of these gentlemen are good talkers and loaded with Bryanistic ideas. Go and hear them and let us make it as pleasant as possible for the erring brethren. The dose they will have to swallow on the 3rd of November will be bad enough.

The Coffee Club transacted business matters at their hall, Friday afternoon. The ladies are alive to all matters of social importance and civic improvement. We would be pleased to see them take the little plot of ground near the depot under their management. It could be made a beautiful little place and would certainly add materially to the progressive spirit of the town. Think about it, ladies.

Rogue River Valley pears of the Comice variety were sold recently at $6.60 per box and only 5 cars remain to be sold there, being of the Winter Nellie variety. With the reputation of Oregon fruit gaining favor so rapidly in the Eastern markets, there need be no fear of over-production. Every farmer should have an orchard and it will pay a handsome profit on the investment. See to it that the law is strictly enforced in spraying the trees, and continue the present prosperity by voting for Taft.

The registration of the voters closed on Thursday and 2085 names appear on the books, showing 1172 republicans, 683 democrats, 48 socialists, 73 prohibitionists and 109 independents. This would give the republicans a majority of 260 votes over all opposition, including the independents, or 489 majority over the democrats. Many blank A's will be voted by college students and others, which will materially increase the republican majority and to this may reasonably be added a majority of the independent voters. Benton county will give Taft over 500 majority.

While we would be pleased to see every democrat, every socialist and every prohibitionist walk up to the polls on election day and vote, we confess we are more deeply interested in seeing every man who is satisfied with the present prosperous conditions of the country and views the situation from a republican standpoint take the time to do his duty, not only in voting but in doing a little missionary work on the side line. Spread the gospel wherever possible and let us roll up a majority that will compare favorably with the average of our presidential candidate.

The Tough Boy at the Show.

Hully Gee; on de square, me and me pal had it handed to us last Thursday night, all right, all right. You see it was dis way, we blew in dis burg on de limited express, about de time de lights in de opera house were started, and me pal says to me, "Say cull, look at what's here, 'De Rocky Mountain Express.' I bet dat beats de Harriman train all to de good." So nothin do we amble up to de guy in de box window, and I hands out me billet doux for a couple of free ones, but say, de frosty look dat guy gives me would freeze up de infernal regions. "Notin doin'" says he, we don't recognize de profesh wid 'dis show. An on de square he was all to de good. Cause why, dis outfit is sure on de bum, and dere not a profesh in it.

Well anyhow, me and me pal coughed up de dough to see de performance, and say on de level, talk about takin' money under false pretenses. It was worse dan takin' candy from de baby.

Sure, dere was lots of shootin' and killin', de only trouble is dat dev didn't kill de whole outfit in de first act.

An say, dat was certainly an enthusiastic audience. De places where de actors and actresses should have got de glad hand, was greeted wid a silence dat was painful for me and me pal to hear.

When de curtain fell on de final act, me pal turns to me and wid a sigh and his mit up to his nose says, "Say, gee, cull, dat was a fine show."
