

Sweeping Reduction

On the entire Millinery Stock will be made when the great

SEASON CLOSING SALE

is started in the near future
WATCH FOR BARGAINS

STAMPING NEATLY DONE

"La Mode"

MILLINERY PARLORS

Mrs. H. E. Wetheria, Prop.

NEXT TO POSTOFFICE

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Winnie Logan of Kings Valley is visiting friends in Portland.

Miss Jean Kent is visiting friends in Portland during the holidays.

Ed. Wilson went down to Portland on Friday and came home on Monday evening.

Miss Edna Groves returned from a prolonged visit at Hood River, Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shenefield have returned from their wedding trip to Portland.

Y. G. Freeman has sold the Albany Herald to W. A. Sherwin, Jr., and N. J. Sandel.

W. R. Bilyeu, a prominent Albany attorney, was looking after court matters on Tuesday.

Edison Records for December now on sale.
11-27-4t GRAHAM & WELLS.

Mrs. Elbert Hollister, of Portland, arrived Thursday for an extended visit with relatives in this city.

George Sheldon of Blodgett was looking after business interests in the city Monday and Tuesday.

Prof. C. L. Johnson and wife returned from Portland Monday evening. They took in the great game.

The Misses Juanita and Modesta Rosendorf are visiting friends in Portland, during the holiday season.

If you have read Opie Read's books or seen his plays you will want to hear him Friday night. College Armory.

C. L. Berchtold, Floyd Bogue, Fred Fischer and Ed. Smith were among the arrivals from Portland Monday.

Mrs. Sam Moore is quite sick at the home in Job's addition. She took a severe cold which developed into pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Long will go to Monmouth Saturday to attend the wedding of Mark Rickard and Miss Edna Guthrie.

Mrs. Hannah McDonald and daughter, Miss Teresa, came over from Philomath to spend Thanksgiving at the Hollister home.

Parties desiring a pleasant river trip to Portland may now have the opportunity, the steamer Pomona leaving here every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday.

Vidito & Reitman have secured the restaurant and fixtures, formerly operated by Mr. Hollenbeck, and will open for business on December 1st. The place will be known as the Palm Cafe.

Mrs. A. F. Peterson and Miss Olive Thompson, of Portland, spent Thanksgiving here, the guests of their mother, Mrs. Agnes Thompson.

Perry Eddy and wife of Kings Valley, spent a few days in Corvallis this week. Mr. Eddy was a jurymen and the wife looked after the business.

FOR SALE: 4 cows. 2 fair beef cows. $75 takes them. See or write W. F. Caldwell, Philomath, Ore. Bell Phone 265.
11-27-4t

J. W. Foster of southern Benton, is in Portland on the Grand Jury. During his absence the wife and two children will be guests at the M. Bauer home in Corvallis.

Dow Walker, Bert Pilkington, and Forrest Smithson, the well known members of OAC's former varsity team, played with the Multnomah team against Oregon in Thursday's game.

Tommy Nolan went to Portland Tuesday and will go with the OAC boys to Seattle to see the game. Tommy is a good "rooter" and will stand by the boys to the finish.

Bob Frances of the OAC football team came home Saturday night on account of the serious illness of his mother, and joined the team at Portland Tuesday to ready for the Seattle game.

The Grand Jury was in session at the court house, Monday and Tuesday. Our citizens are so peaceful and law abiding that it does not take long to clean up the little things before them.

Merrill Poller, of North Dakota has bought the Lewis Hartley farm, consisting of 160 acres lying near Mary's Peak post office and will take possession at once. The consideration was $2100.

Floyd Lane is very sick at the family home with appendicitis, and is attended by Drs. Cathey and Pernot. The critical period is now at hand, and his friends are awaiting developments with much anxiety.

The Palm Cafe, a new restaurant under the direction of Mesdames Vidito and Rietman, will be opened next week, on North Main street, in the room formerly occupied by the Hollenbeck confectionery.

The next regular communication of Corvallis Lodge No. 14, A. F. and A. M., will be held Wednesday evening, December 2. All members are requested to be present, as there will be work in the F. C. degree.

Charley McHenry proposes to have a fence around his home that will stand the test of both time and weather. It will be composed of concrete blocks, neatly cemented together and if properly adjusted, will look very pretty.

We see the photograph of W. W. Condon in the Sunday Oregonian, in connection with the Good Roads movement. Mr. Condon is now a resident of Corvallis, having move here last fall to educate his children.

Dr. Pernot, assisted by Doctors Cathey and Johnson, performed a most successful operation on Mrs. F. P. Frances for hernia Monday night. Mrs. Frances is resting easily and is expected to soon be entirely recovered.

Twenty five mail boxes are to be put up on the corners of the principal streets in the city covered by the free delivery routes. These boxes will be set on posts and bids for placing the posts will be received by Postmaster Johnson.

The twenty-fifth quarterly directory of the OAC has just been issued and is a most complete and a useful bulletin, giving as it does the names and local addresses of all the faculty, students, officers, and employees of the college.

Elmer Walters' latest comedy success, "A Millionaire Tramp," will entertain at the opera house next Saturday night. Bright comedy, good singing and dancing are features that make the performance worth while. Nothing like it ever seen here.

Coming Soon—Walker Whiteside's greatest comedy success, "We Are King," with Edmund Carroll in the leading role. This is one of the best attractions to be seen here this season and you cannot afford to miss it. Remember the date—December 3rd.

Andrew Buchanan, son of R. L. Buchanan, and brother to W. A. Buchanan, of this city, is visiting the home folks after an absence of about 20 years. He has been living in New York and has sold out his interests there. He is now looking for a location with a view to locate in God's country once more.

The Masonic brethren will have work in the 2d degree at their hall on Wednesday night, December 2d and it might be good policy for the members to step up and see how their names look on the register. Some of you have not been there for so long that it may be necessary to have an introduction to the members, but you will feel better after it's all over.

D. W. Mullhollan was selling beautiful Baldwin apples at the grocery stores on Tuesday morning. He has five acres in young apple trees just commencing to bear. He has 200 boxes this year of very choice fruit. With the fine market developing for choice Oregon fruit and the price ranging around the dollar mark he feels very well pleased with the prospect.

Carl Wolfe, captain of the OAC football team, is reported quite sick at his home in Portland and is confined to his bed. For the past three weeks the poor fellow has been under the doctor's care and nothing but determination to close a successful season with his team has kept him on his feet. He has the sympathy of his friends who earnestly hope for a speedy recovery.

Turkeys are selling at 23 cts. per pound, which means that many families who have gathered around the festal board on Thanksgiving and carved the turkey, will have to gobble up a chicken to supply the platter. Truly, on this occasion none but the wealthy can enjoy the luxury. Just how happy the good old farmer will be when he looks at the good old yaller stuff produced from the sale of the flock.

During the second week of December, from the 9th and 10th, in the lower room of the Oregon Agricultural building, will be held a Bazaar under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. girls of the college. Anyone wishing to sell Christmas presents is welcome to place them in our hands for disposal at reasonable commission. For everybody, especially students. The following list may be suggestive to you: handkerchiefs, cushion covers, doilies, collars and ties; paintings, pictures, calendars; burnt leather or wood; raphea baskets; aprons, fancy or domestic. Bertha Edwards, Pres.

KLINE'S

EXCEPTIONAL TABLE LINENS

Are the choice products from the looms of the world famous linen mills in Germany and Ireland.

We have the table linens with napkins to match; also a fine large assortment of the hand embroidered and open work center pieces.

TABLE LINEN

Bleached and unbleached, floral, conventional and polka dot designs, fifty-six to seventy-two inches wide. Extra good values at the popular prices: 50c, 60c, 75c, 85c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 per yd.

Decorative Open Work Linen

Artistic in the highest degree. A beautiful assortment of scarf and center pieces. They are priced so that you can afford one or more of them.

FANCY FOOD

FOR A

Fancy Dinner

The Pure Food Department in our store is without a doubt the place for you to get the necessaries for your fancy dishes. The shelving is groaning under the weight of a fine, clean assortment of Nuts, Raisins, Mince Meat, Citrons, Candies, Figs, Dates, etc. Let us supply you, then you get them right.

NAPKINS

For use on all occasions, during the stately holiday dinner, also for the modest housewife's everyday use.

In pretty designs. The sizes are from eighteen to twenty-seven inches square. Prices 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75 to $5.00 per doz.

Decorative Embroidered Linens

Pure silk in pure linen. Pretty floral designs. Specially priced for holiday trade.

A Safe Place to trade

Estab. KLINE'S 1864

Dr. Mentor Howard, the dentist, is still in Corvallis, and here to stay, regardless of false reports that he had left town. He can be found over the First National Bank, rooms 8 and 9. All work guaranteed. Prices reasonable. Don't forget the number.

OPIE READ—College Armory, Friday at 8:30. Corvallis Lyceum Course Tickets, $1.75, $1.25 and $1.00. On sale now at Graham & Wortham's.

A Bargain.

Why pay $100 per acre for garden and fruit land when you can get just as good for less than half. 1 1/2 miles from Philomath, Ore., 13 acres; 3 acres in cultivation, 1 acre of rich sandy loam, on river bottom, balance in brush and timber easily cleared. This would make an ideal garden and truck ranch. Only $550. Write or phone W. F. Caldwell, Philomath, Ore. Bell phone 65.
11-27-4t

J. C. Lowe came home from Portland Monday night. He reported the OAC-U of O game for the telephone people and says every time he touched the instrument the blamed thing stung both heart and fingers. He felt so bad about it he hated to come home, but being a newly married man was compelled to make a living for the family.

Buy your coffees and teas at D. D. BERMAN'S.

WOOD FOR SALE—Ash and maple. Call W. F. Hamlin, Corvallis R. F. D. 3; phone 3802: tf

Big Millinery Sale.

All trimmed and untrimmed hats at a bargain.
MRS. J. MASON.

Wanted

To borrow $2,800 on $9,000 worth of gilt edge property in Corvallis. Time one year. Address, A, care of Gazette office.

The meeting of the Rebekah Lodge on Monday evening was very interesting. One candidate was enlightened as to the mysterious things pertaining to the Rebekah degree and the social features of the evening were very neatly planned and successfully executed. Plenty of ladies present but very few male members. Refreshments were served.

Buy your Coffees and Teas at D. D. BERMAN'S.

Now is the time to visit California

When summer has passed in these northern states, the sun is only mild under the bright blue skies of Southern California. This is one of nature's happy provisions—eternal summer for those who cannot endure a more severe climate. California has been called the "Mecca of the winter tourist." Its hotels and stopping places are as varied as those of all well regulated cities. Visitors can always find suitable accommodations, congenial companions, and varied, pleasing recreations.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC CO.

Will be glad to supply some very attractive literature, describing in detail the many delights of winter in California. Very low round trip excursion tickets are on sale to California.

The rate from Albany to Los Angeles and return is $55.00

Limit six months, allowing stopovers in either direction. Similar excursion rates are in effect to all California points.

For full information, sleeping car reservations and tickets, call on, telegraph or write

R. C. LINVILLE, AGENT, CORVALLIS, OREGON.

OR W. M. McMURRAY, GEN. PASS. AGT., PORTLAND, OREGON.

Greatest Reductions Ever Heard of in Millinery

The Most Stylish Hats

Beautifully Trimmed

At COST and LESS for a short time. Every lady should take advantage of this bargain opportunity.

MISS M. CHRISTENSEN
ARTISTIC MILLINERY

Corner Third and Monroe, Corvallis, Oregon

Men who care

Buy their clothes and things at

The Toggery

Corvallis Oregon