

EILER'S WAY OF SELLING PIANOS

Big Sale High Grade Pianos Commencing in Corvallis Next Monday, November 30th, at 9 o'clock.

Carload Now En-route.—Have Secured Quarters at Small's Bakery for Display and Sale of this Carload of Fine Pianos.

Quick sales and small profits is the slogan of Eiler's Piano House.

Owing to the quiet state of business affairs back East for the past several months, many of the piano manufacturers have found themselves overloaded with pianos, and have looked to the Coast as an outlet to unload their large accumulated stock.

Eilers have contracted for three hundred in addition to their large orders for regular shipment. Drastic cut by the factories was a sufficient inducement to warrant this move on Eiler's part.

It means that extraordinary price cutting will be resorted to in order to sell these pianos and to do it quickly unheard of values will be offered, and shrewd piano buyers will be quick to take advantage of these conditions.

One carload will be sold in Corvallis. They will move; they are bound to go at the prices and terms that will prevail during this sale.

W. H. Weir, general agent for Eiler's Piano House, assisted by W. A. Hollenbeck, will be in charge of the Corvallis sale and next Monday at 9 o'clock the ball will start rolling.

Don't delay! If you wish a piano be on hand early. Pay a small payment down and a little every week or month and own a piano.

Remember the place! Small's Bakery. Sale begins Monday morning, November 30.

WANDERINGS OF A CORVALLIS MAN

the Coast—California one, Oregon two, and Washington one—so we all were leaders, and our campaign was only fairly launched before each and all had a good following, which increased in numbers so fast that when we came to a final vote—well the other places were all abandoned and the delegates rushed about the hall asking for one of the Oregon badges which we had printed on orange ribbon and read 'Portland, Oregon, 1909.' I walked about the hall and could have picked up hundreds of Atlantic City badges that had been worn but at last thrown away and the wearers came to us asking for ours, which were given out to the number of 500, and if I have to tell it myself, I was in every act from the first to the last, as Mr. Cookerly, of Walla Walla, was a candidate for 2nd vice president, the leadership fell to me as I had been in the convention last year and begun this 'Red Apple Campaign,' which so successfully resulted in Portland being selected for 1909, as was also Mr. Cookerly elected to the place we asked for, so taking it from our standpoint, the meeting was a very great success.

"At the last moment before the vote was taken, I rushed on the platform and presented the president with an enormous red Oregon apple, which brought the convention to the storm center. In a few minutes the declaration was 'Portland is selected as our next meeting place.'

The next day after the close we spent in visiting about the city and on Saturday we ran up to Dayton, Ohio, where we spent Sunday, visiting with Maud Wyson, who was with us two years ago there (at Corvallis.) On Monday we visited one of the most enormous manufacturing plants that I ever entered, the National Cash Register. Imense, perfection perfected.

Profits From Big Game.

The total receipts of the big football game last Saturday between OAC and U of O at Portland were $8,105. The expenses were $1,376.70, leaving a net profit of $6,728.30, of which amount each team's share amounted to $3,364.15, out of which the necessary expenses had to be paid. Had the day been clear the receipts would have been far above $10,000. In the attendance from the respective cities, Corvallis made a much better showing than Eugene, nearly 1400 tickets having been sold here, while Eugene had about 500 to its credit.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN

Thanksgiving services at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening. The pastor, J. R. N. Bell, will discourse upon the "Thinking and Thanking Processes of the Human Mind" at the morning service, and at the evening service he will speak on "Hold Your Head up, Look Ahead." Thanksgiving music, both morning and evening, consisting of anthems, duets, quartets and solos. Everybody invited. Reception of members.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL

"Set Your Life to Music" will be the theme of the morning sermon by Evan P. Hughes, the minister, at the First Congregational church next Sunday, Nov. 29th. Owing to the severe sickness of Mrs. Hughes, the pastor was prevented from delivering his lecture on "Martin Luther" last Sunday night. In response to many requests he has consented to deliver it on the coming Sunday evening. School for Bible study at 10 a. m., superintended by Prof. A. B. Cordley, and the Devotional Hour of the C. E. at 6:30 p. m. All are cordially invited to worship at this church.

Regular Grange Meeting.

There will be a Grange meeting held Saturday afternoon, November 28, at half past one o'clock in Grange room of the Agricultural Hall. All members are requested to be present as matters of great importance are to be discussed.

Oregon Council's Officers.

At a regular meeting of Oregon Council No. 2. Royal and Select Masters, held at Masonic Hall, Wednesday, November 25, the following officers were elected: S. L. Kline, Th. Ill. Master; J. A. Harper, Deputy Master; J. B. Horner, Principal Conductor of the Works; J. F. Yates, Captain of the Guard; N. L. Raber, Conductor of the Council; E. B. Horning, Recorder; M. S. Woodcock, Treasurer; J. R. Rowland, Steward; S. N. Lilly, Sentinel; J. R. N. Bell, Chaplain. These officers were duly installed by Th. Ill. Past Grand Master, M. S. Woodcock.

Mike Bauer and Prof. Bradley picked up their guns and slipped out of town on Tuesday morning looking for supplies for Thanksgiving dinner. On account of the high price of turkey these men are simply desperate characters at the thought of the women and numerous children at home going hungry on this important occasion, and are liable to kill anything in sight from a jack rabbit to a two-year-old steer. Mike is keen of eye, Bradley swift on foot, and something is sure to happen.

The Union Thanksgiving service held Thursday evening in the M. E. church South, was largely attended and the excellent program much enjoyed. Rev. N. D. Wood presided at the service, the sermon being preached by Rev. E. E. McVicker, while pastors W. W. Davis, J. R. N. Bell, E. P. Hughes, D. H. Leech, and H. H. Hubbell assisted in the invocation, scripture reading, prayer, offering, and benediction. The music was exceptionally good.
