

Sweeping Reduction

On the entire Millinery Stock will be made when the great

SEASON CLOSING SALE

is started in the near future WATCH FOR BARGAINS

STAMPING NEATLY DONE

"La Mode"

MILLINERY PARLORS

Mrs. H. E. Wetherla, Prop.

NEXT TO POSTOFFICE

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. Folks, on the Bicknell farm, is going to run a dairy, so he says.

Born, in this city, November 23rd, to Mr. and Mrs. J. Crocker, a son.

Frank Groshong, of Monmouth, is visiting his parents in Corvallis.

D. D. Burman was looking after business matters in Portland Friday.

Mr. Bates was a passenger on east side train from Portland on Friday night.

Mrs. Wright, of Portland, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Crocker, in this city.

A gas machine for cooking purposes at Waldo Hall is to be installed next Saturday.

Harold Woodcock and wife spent Friday in Albany returning on the evening train.

J. A. Hawkins and sister, Mrs. Vincent, of Eugene, are visiting at the J. I. Taylor home.

Mark Rickard and Miss Edna Guthrie were married at Monmouth Sunday afternoon.

Rev. and Mrs. Bell were entertained at the G. W. Henkle home on Thanksgiving day.

Ed. Blunkett, of Kings Valley, passed through Corvallis on Saturday on his way to California.

Dr. O. D. Butler, of Independence was a guest at the Caleb Davis home on Thanksgiving day.

James M. Fowler and daughter, of Hoskins were looking after business matters in Corvallis on Saturday.

Tommy Nolan came home from Portland Friday evening where he has been spending the vacation season.

Prof. C. E. Bradley, of OAC, has just completed a carefully written bulletin on Denatured Alcohol, showing its merits as an economical substitute for gasoline or kerosene.

Emil Horning, son of Ed. Horning, the grocer, is at Eugene attending the State Boys Convention and is one of the secretaries.

Wm. Campbell, who has been working at his trade in Portland for some time, is spending the holiday season at the Campbell home in Job's addition.

Walter Wiles was a Portland visitor on Friday to spend the day with his sister Mrs. Wells, who has been very sick at the Good Samaritan Hospital.

A slight blaze called out the fire department to Dr. Foster's office on North Second street, Saturday morning. The fire, which was in the flue, was quickly put out.

Mrs. Dr. Cathey and daughter, Evalyn, returned Friday evening from Salem where they had attended the reunion of the Cathey family. They report a happy time.

Opie Read, who was the star attraction in the second number of the Corvallis Lyceum Course, drew a crowded house last Friday night and delighted the large audience with his inimitable sayings.

"Jacob, the Shepherd Saint," was the subject of Sunday morning's sermon at the M E church and the great lessons it taught in practical life were of deep interest to the large and attentive congregation.

Mr. Edwards, of Norton, was attending to business matters in the city on Saturday. The heavy stocks of goods carried by the stores is reaping a just reward this fall, drawing trade clear to the coast.

The next regular communication of Corvallis Lodge No. 14, A. F. and A. M., will be held Wednesday evening, December 2. All members are requested to be present, as there will be work in the F. C. degree.

FOR SALE: 4 cows. 2 fair beef cows. $75 takes them. See or write W. F. Caldwell, Philomath, Ore. Bell Pone 265. 11-27-4t

President Kerr, of O. A. C. came home from an extended eastern trip in the interest of the college, on Friday evening. The President is an indefatigable worker and his whole soul is wrapped up in the success of the school.

St. Mary's Chapter, No. 9, Order Eastern Star, will hold its regular meeting tonight, Tuesday, December 1st, in Masonic Temple. The annual election of officers will take place and all members are requested to be present.

J. H. Mattley and family left last Thursday, for their new home in Oregon City. They are old residents of Corvallis and by their amiable dispositions have made many warm friends in Corvallis who wish them success in the new home.

M. Tillery, the enterprising grocer, has moved to the Whitehorn building on Second street, in order to accommodate his largely increasing trade. The interior has been remodeled and makes one of the most attractive stores in the city.

Among the Benton county people who have been granted pensions or changes in pensions accorded to the last ruling of the Pension Bureau are James H. Penn, Albert Kenip, Robert N. White, Sarah A. Wilkinson and John Woods, of Corvallis.

The indications are that the opera house will be crowded next Thursday night to witness the performance of "We Are King," one of the best comedies ever given here. Much interest is manifested in the engagement. Those who are wise will secure seats early.

Walter Wiles came home from Portland on Friday, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Wells, who is slowly recovering from a very serious surgical operation. Her many friends are pleased to learn that she has bright prospects for full and complete restoration to health.

Dr. James Withycombe, of O. A. C. will be one of the principal speakers at the Oregon State Dairy Association, which meets at Salem, in annual convention, December 10, 11. A premium list superior to any offered before is now being prepared and handsome cups will form a feature of the prizes.

Miss Ethel Berman entertained very pleasantly Thursday evening, the honor guests being Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clark, of Portland, who have been spending the holidays with relatives and friends in this city. Mr. Clark left the last of the week to attend the Boys' Convention, which has been in session the past few days in Eugene.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Scadding has appointed Sunday, December 20, for the holding of a special service in memory of the late Prof. George Coote. This service will be held in the Church of the Good Samaritan, of which Prof. Coote was senior warden, and the sermon will be preached by the Arch Deacon, Rev. H. D. Chambers, a warm, personal friend of the deceased.

The Oregonian [of Nov. 23rd] says: "We Are King" is the best and cleanest comedy seen in Portland in a long, long time. An excellent company and a splendid production such as we would expect to find in the first-class theatres." The local management guarantees a thoroughly first-class performance. If you are not delighted with the play your money will be cheerfully refunded.

A very pleasant surprise was given to Rev. Davis, of the Baptist church by his church members and friends on Wednesday evening. While the choir was practicing at the church they quietly filed into the church with an elegant supply of provisions loaded on a wheelbarrow which was placed in front of the parson by Bro. Robinson. The gentleman was informed that the contents were intended as a mark of esteem in which he is held by the people whom he has served so faithfully during the past year. After an eloquent expression of thankfulness by Rev. Davis a pleasant evening was spent at the church.

KLINE'S

PURE FOOD DEPARTMENT.

This department is full of good things to eat. When we say good we mean the best that can be purchased in the market. Everything we sell conforms to the Pure Food Law of the State. Clean and sanitary we see no reason why eatables should not be handled as clean and with as much care before they reach your kitchen as they do after you receive them. Come in and see us. We wish to offer a special invitation to our

Friday and Saturday Specials.

Not only this week, but every week. The object of this special is to have more people come into our store, give customers a chance to see our Pure Food Department and at the same time to sample our goods and our appreciation of the call. On Friday and Saturday of this week we will sell

--SPECIAL--

- 7 Bars Crystal White Soap . . . . . 25 cts
- 1908 Crop Walnuts, Fancy, per pound . . . . . 15 cts
- Cranberries, per quart, . . . . . 10 cts
- Our regular 25 cent Pure Food Blend Coffee, spec. 19 cts

The prices quoted above are good for two days only, Friday and Saturday of this week. Also, we will give FREE with every order a large sample package of FORCE Make it a point to stop and see us Friday and Saturday.

A Safe Place to trade

Estab. | KLINE'S | 1864

THE ENTIRE STOCK OF THE TOGGERY-

WILL BE SOLD FOR WHAT IT WILL BRING BEGINNING WEDNESDAY, DEC. 2 BY THE NATIONAL BROKERAGE & SALES CO.

SEE BIG POSTERS FOR DETAILS

If you don't get one drop us a card we will mail you one.

This Stock positively must be sold at some price. Absolutely nothing will be reserved. Every thing will go and go at prices never before heard of in this country.

MEAKER & COCHRAN,

Managers in Charge.

CHRISTMAS

1908 will have many pleasant recollections in store for the many people who will be supplied with holiday

GIFTS

selected from the magnificent stock of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Cut Glass, Silverware, etc. now being displayed at E. W. S. Pratt's Jewelry Store. It is my desire that you feel perfectly to call and examine the newest, nobbiest and most carefully selected stock of Jewelry ever displayed in Benton county. A $50 Diamond Ring given away absolutely FREE. E. W. S. PRATT, Jeweler and Optician.

FREE

Greatest Reductions Ever Heard of in Millinery

The Most Stylish Hats Beautifully Trimmed At COST and LESS for a short time. Every lady should take advantage of this bargain opportunity.

MISS M. CHRISTENSEN ARTISTIC MILLINERY

Corner Third and Monroe, Corvallis, Oregon